Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Sections 55-8-51 through 55-8-57 of the North Carolina Business Corporation Act (the "NCBCA") and the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Company provide for indemnification of the registrant's directors and officers in a variety of circumstances, which may include liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

Mandatory Statutory Indemnification. Under the NCBCA, a North Carolina corporation must indemnify a director or officer who is wholly successful on the merits or otherwise in defending a proceeding in which he was involved by virtue of his being a director or officer of the corporation. This mandatory indemnification covers reasonable expenses and attorneys' fees.

Permissive Statutory Indemnification. A North Carolina corporation may, but is not required by statute to, indemnify its directors and officers who conduct themselves in good faith and meet a reasonable belief test regarding the challenged conduct. If he was acting in his official capacity, the director or officer must have believed the challenged conduct was in the corporation's best interest; if he was acting otherwise, he must have reasonably believed his conduct was not opposed to the corporation's best interest. Notwithstanding those tests, however, statutory indemnification is prohibited where the individual is held liable to the corporation or where he is held liable on the basis of an improperly received personal benefit.

Court-Ordered Indemnification. A director or officer may enforce his or her right to mandatory indemnification and, if the court determines the individual is entitled to the mandatory indemnification, the court must also order the corporation to pay the reasonable expenses incurred to enforce the right, including counsel fees. The statutes authorize the court to provide indemnification in any case regardless of whether the individual has met the tests applicable to permissive indemnification upon a finding that the individual is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all the relevant circumstances. [55-8-54(2) of the NCBCA] This relief is limited to reasonable expenses when there is liability to the corporation by the individual.

Voluntary Indemnification. Notwithstanding the limits on statutory indemnification, a North Carolina corporation may voluntarily agree to indemnify its directors and officers by provisions in the articles of incorporation, the bylaws, a contract or a resolution of the Board of Directors against any liability, subject to the limitation that an individual cannot be indemnified on account of his activities which were at the time taken known or believed by him to be clearly in conflict with the best interests of the corporation. A North Carolina corporation may also obtain insurance to protect its directors and officers from personal liability.

The Company's Bylaws provide that any person who is or was a director or officer of the Company or any of its subsidiaries and any person who at the request of the Company serves or has served as an officer or director (or in any position of similar authority) of any other corporation or other enterprise, including as an individual trustee under any employee benefit plan, will be reimbursed and indemnified against liability and expenses incurred by that person in connection with any action, suit or proceeding arising out of that person's status as a director or officer unless (i) such liability or expense will be paid by insurance or (ii) that person's acts or omissions were known or believed by him or her to be clearly in conflict with the best interests of the Company. The Company has purchased insurance covering indemnification of its directors and officers.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed.

Not applicable.

Item 9. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

1. To file, during any period in which offers or sales are made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement;

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change in such information in the registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

2. That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

3. To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the provisions described under Item 6 above, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act, and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
