798,859 Shares of Common Stock

This prospectus relates to the resale of up to 798,859 shares of our common stock by the selling shareholder identified in this prospectus. The shares that may be resold by the selling shareholders pursuant to this prospectus were originally issued by us to the selling shareholder in connection with our entry into an asset purchase agreement to acquire substantially all of the assets of Elmer Larson, L.L.C., an Illinois limited liability corporation ( Elmer Larson ), and certain assets of MSJ Larson, Inc., an Illinois corporation ( MSJ ). The selling shareholder is serving as an exchange accommodation titleholder in connection with a Section 1031 exchange under the Internal Revenue Code.

The selling shareholder identified in this prospectus may sell the shares from time to time on terms to be determined at the time of sale through ordinary brokerage transactions or through any other means described in this prospectus under Plan of Distribution. The selling shareholder may sell the shares in public transactions or in privately negotiated transactions, without limitation, at prevailing market prices, at prices related to the prevailing market prices, or at negotiated prices or at fixed prices.

The selling shareholder will receive all of the net proceeds from the sales of the shares of our common stock. We will pay all selling commissions, if any, applicable to the sale of the shares of our common stock. We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the shares. However, in the event that the selling shareholder is unable to sell the shares during the time period between the issuance of the shares and the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement, such that the full amount of the anticipated net proceeds of such sales are not available on the closing date to satisfy the $55.8 million purchase price obligation under the Purchase Agreement, we expect to loan to the selling shareholder (the EAT Loan ) funds equal to the difference between the net proceeds and $55.8 million, and that the proceeds of any such loan will be used to satisfy obligations under the Purchase Agreement. In the event of the extension by us of an EAT Loan, the selling shareholder expects to apply any subsequent net proceeds from the sale of the shares to satisfy the EAT Loan.

Our common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol VMC. On February 29, 2008, the closing sale price of our common stock on the New York Stock Exchange was $70.10 per share.

RISK FACTORS

Any investment in our common stock will involve risks. You should carefully consider the following risks, together with the information included in or incorporated by reference in this prospectus before deciding whether an investment in our common stock is suitable for you. In addition to the risk factors set forth below, we also specifically incorporate by reference into this prospectus the section captioned Risk Factors contained in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007. If any of these risks actually occurs, our business, results of operations or financial condition could be materially and adversely affected. In such an event, the trading prices of our common stock could decline, and you might lose all or part of your investment. Please also refer to the section below entitled Information Regarding Forward Looking Statements .

We may fail to realize the anticipated benefits of the mergers.

The mergers involve the integration of two companies that previously have operated independently, each with its own business, customers, employees, culture and systems. To realize the anticipated benefits from the mergers, we must successfully combine the businesses of Legacy Vulcan and Florida Rock in a manner that permits, among other things, earnings growth and cost savings. In addition, we must achieve these savings without adversely affecting revenues. If we are not able to successfully achieve these objectives, the anticipated benefits of the mergers may not be realized fully or at all or may take longer to realize than expected.

The failure to integrate successfully Legacy Vulcan's and Florida Rock's businesses and operations in the expected timeframe may adversely affect Vulcan's future results.

Until the completion of the mergers, Legacy Vulcan and Florida Rock operated independently. We face significant challenges in consolidating functions, integrating their organizations, procedures and operations in a timely and efficient manner and retaining key Legacy Vulcan and Florida Rock personnel. The integration of Legacy Vulcan and Florida Rock will be costly, complex and time consuming.

The integration process and other disruptions from the transaction could be more costly than we expect or result in the loss of key employees, the disruption of each company's ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect our ability to maintain relationships with customers, suppliers, employees and others with whom we have business dealings or to achieve the anticipated benefits of the mergers. Many of these difficulties are outside of our control and any one of them could result in increased costs, decreases in the amount of expected revenues and diversion of management's time and energy, which could materially impact our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Integrating Legacy Vulcan and Florida Rock may divert management's attention away from our operations.

Successful integration of Legacy Vulcan's and Florida Rock's organizations, procedures and operations may place a significant burden on our management and its internal resources. The integration efforts could divert management's focus and resources from other strategic opportunities and from operational matters during the integration process.

Our incurrence of additional debt to pay the cash portion of the merger consideration significantly increased our interest expense, financial leverage and debt service requirements.

We entered into $4.0 billion of new credit facilities in connection with the mergers, and borrowed $3.35 billion under such credit facilities in order to acquire 70% of the outstanding shares of Florida Rock common stock, cash settle Florida Rock stock options outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the mergers and finance Vulcan's transaction costs. Incurrence of this new debt significantly increased our leverage. There may be circumstances in which required payments of principal and/or interest on this new debt could adversely affect our cash flows and operating results.

There are various financial covenants and other restrictions in our debt instruments. If we fail to comply with any of these requirements, the related indebtedness (and other unrelated indebtedness) could become due and payable prior to its stated maturity. A default under our debt instruments may also significantly affect our ability to obtain additional or alternative financing.

Our ability to make scheduled payments or to refinance our obligations with respect to indebtedness will depend on our operating and financial performance, which in turn is subject to prevailing economic conditions and to financial, business and other factors beyond our control.

The costs of the mergers could adversely affect our operating results.

In connection with the mergers, we incurred certain costs, consisting of employee benefit costs, investment banking, legal and accounting fees and financial printing and other related charges. In addition, the combined company will incur certain expenses in connection with the integration of Legacy Vulcan s and Florida Rock s businesses, particularly relating to the management information systems.

The slow recovery in housing construction and the collapse of the subprime mortgage market could continue to affect negatively our volumes.

In some of our markets, particularly Florida, sales volumes have been negatively impacted by the collapse of the subprime mortgage market and the severe slowdown in housing construction. Our sales volumes and earnings could continue to be depressed and negatively impacted by this segment of the market until these slowdowns in housing construction improve.

USE OF PROCEEDS

However, in the event that the selling shareholder is unable to sell the shares during the time period between the issuance of the shares and the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement, such that the full amount of the anticipated net proceeds of such sales are not available on the closing date to satisfy the $55.8 million purchase price obligation under the Purchase Agreement, we expect to loan to the selling shareholder (the "EAT Loan") funds equal to the difference between the net proceeds and $55.8 million, and that the proceeds of any such loan will be used to satisfy obligations under the Purchase Agreement. In the event of the extension by us of an EAT Loan, the selling shareholder expects to apply any subsequent net proceeds from the sale of the shares to satisfy the EAT Loan.

Table of Contents*SELLING SHAREHOLDERS

We issued the shares of our common stock that we are registering for resale by this prospectus in connection with our acquisition of substantially all of the assets of Elmer Larson and certain assets of MSJ. In connection with the acquisition, we entered into an agreement with the selling shareholder to assign our rights under the Purchase Agreement in order to have the acquisition qualify as a Section 1031 reverse exchange under the Internal Revenue Code. We issued to the selling shareholder an aggregate of 798,859 shares of our common stock, and agreed to register for resale 798,859 shares of our common stock offered by the selling shareholder in this prospectus. This prospectus covers, among other things, the offer and sale by the selling shareholder listed below of up to the total number of shares of common stock issued to the selling shareholder. However, in the event that the selling shareholder is unable to sell the shares during the time period between the issuance of the shares and the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement, such that the full amount of the anticipated net proceeds of such sales are not available on the closing date to satisfy the $55.8 million purchase price obligation under the Purchase Agreement, we expect to loan to the selling shareholder (the EAT Loan ) funds equal to the difference between the net proceeds and $55.8 million, and that the proceeds of any such loan will be used to satisfy obligations under the Purchase Agreement. In the event of the extension by us of an EAT Loan, the selling shareholder expects to apply any subsequent net proceeds from the sale of the shares to satisfy the EAT Loan.

We are registering the above-referenced shares to permit the selling shareholder listed below and their pledgees, donees, transferees or other successors-in-interest that receive its shares after the date of this prospectus to resell the shares in the manner contemplated under the Plan of Distribution.

The following table sets forth the number of shares of our common stock beneficially owned by the selling shareholder as of March 5, 2008, and is based on the selling shareholder's representations regarding its ownership thereof. The percentage of outstanding shares of common stock beneficially owned before the offering is based on 108,234,275 shares of common stock outstanding as of December 31, 2007. The number and percentage of outstanding shares of common stock beneficially owned after the offering assumes that all of the shares of our common stock being offered by the selling shareholder are sold and assumes that no additional shares of our common stock are purchased by the selling shareholder prior to the completion of this offering.

Except as indicated in this section, we are not aware of any material relationship between us and the selling shareholder within the past three years, other than as a result of the selling shareholder's beneficial ownership of our common stock and our engagement of the sole member of the selling shareholder to facilitate a Section 1031 reverse exchange.

Information about the selling shareholder may change from time to time. Any changed information will be set forth in prospectus supplements or post-effective amendments, if required by applicable law. For information on the procedure for sales by selling shareholder, see Plan of Distribution on page 8.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

We are registering 798,859 shares of common stock issued to the selling shareholder to permit the resale of these shares of common stock by the holder of the shares of common stock from time to time after the date of this prospectus. We will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale by the selling shareholder of the shares of common stock. We will bear all fees and expenses incident to our obligation to register the shares of common stock, other than fees of the selling shareholders attorneys, accountants and tax advisors.

The selling shareholder and its successors, including its pledgees, donees or other transferees, may offer and sell shares of the common stock covered by this prospectus from time to time directly or, alternatively, through underwriters, broker-dealers or agents, who may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions, or commissions from the selling shareholders and/or the purchasers of these shares. The shares of common stock may be sold in one or more transactions at fixed prices, at prevailing market prices at the time of sale, at prices related to the prevailing market prices, at varying prices determined at the time of sale, or at negotiated prices.

The shares of common stock may be sold in privately negotiated transactions or on any national securities exchange or U.S. inter-dealer quotation system of a registered national securities association on which the common stock may be listed or quoted at the time of sale, in the over-the-counter market, or otherwise. The methods by which such sales may be effected (which may involve crosses or block transactions) include:

a block trade in which the broker or dealer so engaged will attempt to sell the shares of common stock as an agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as a principal to facilitate the transaction;

purchases by a broker or dealer as a principal and resale by that broker or dealer for its account;

ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker solicits purchasers;

any combination of any of the above; and any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

In addition, any shares of common stock covered by this prospectus that qualify for sale under Rules 144 and 145 of the Securities Act may be sold under Rules 144 and 145 rather than under this prospectus. The selling shareholder is not required to sell any shares of common stock covered by this prospectus and may transfer or gift these shares of common stock by other means not described in this prospectus.

Brokers or dealers engaged by the selling shareholder may arrange for other broker-dealers to participate in selling shares. Broker-dealers may receive commissions or discounts from the selling shareholder (or, if any broker-dealer acts as agent for the purchaser of shares, from the purchaser) in amounts to be negotiated.

The selling shareholder and any participating broker-dealers may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act in connection with sales of shares of common stock covered by this prospectus. Any commission, discount or concession received by a broker or dealer and any profit on the resale of shares of common stock sold by them while acting as principals might be deemed to be underwriting discounts or commissions under the Securities Act. Because the selling shareholder may be deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of the Securities Act, the selling shareholder will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act. The selling shareholder and any other person participating in the distribution will be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act, as amended, including without limitation, Regulation M.

We are paying the expenses of registering the shares under the Securities Act, including registration and filing fees, printing expenses, administrative expenses, our legal fees, all discounts, commissions or other amounts payable to underwriters, brokers, dealers or agents.

The selling shareholder may agree to indemnify any agent, broker, dealer or underwriter that participates in transactions involving sales of shares against liabilities, including liabilities arising under the Securities Act.

Section 14A:3-5 of the New Jersey Business Corporation Act empowers a New Jersey corporation to indemnify present and former directors, officers, employees or agents of the corporation and certain other specified persons. Article IV of the By-Laws of the Registrant provides as follows:

(a) Subject to the provisions of this Article IV, the corporation shall indemnify the following persons to the fullest extent permitted and in the manner provided by and the circumstances described in the laws of the State of New Jersey, including Section 14A:3-5 of the New Jersey Business Corporation Act and any amendments thereof or supplements thereto:

- (i) any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation;
- (ii) any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of any constituent corporation absorbed by the corporation in a consolidation or merger, but only to the extent that (A) the constituent corporation was obligated to indemnify such person at the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (B) the claim or potential claim of such person for indemnification was disclosed to the corporation and the operative merger or consolidation documents contain an express agreement by the corporation to pay the same;
- (iii) any person who is or was serving at the request of the corporation, or any partnership, joint venture, sole proprietorship, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise, whether or not for profit; and
- (iv) the legal representative of any of the foregoing persons (collectively, a Corporate Agent ).

(b) Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the corporation shall not be obligated under this Article IV to provide indemnification (i) to any bank, trust company, insurance company, partnership or other entity, or any director, officer, employee or agent thereof or (ii) to any other person who is not a director, officer or employee of the corporation, in respect of any service by such person or entity, whether at the request of the corporation or by agreement therewith, as investment advisor, actuary, custodian, trustee, fiduciary or consultant to any employee benefit plan.

(c) To the extent that any right of indemnification granted hereunder requires any determination that a Corporate Agent shall have been successful on the merits or otherwise in any Proceeding (as hereinafter defined) or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, the Corporate Agent shall be deemed to have been successful if, without any settlement having been made by the Corporate Agent, (i) such Proceeding shall have been dismissed or otherwise terminated or abandoned without any judgment or order having been entered against the Corporate Agent, (ii) such claim, issue or other matter therein shall have been dismissed or otherwise eliminated or abandoned as against the Corporate Agent, or (iii) with respect to any threatened Proceeding, the Proceeding shall have been abandoned or there shall have been a failure for any reason to institute the Proceeding within a reasonable time after the same shall have been threatened or after any inquiry or investigation that could have led to any such Proceeding shall have been commenced. The Board of Directors or any authorized committee thereof shall have the right to determine what constitutes a reasonable time or an abandonment for purposes of this paragraph (c), and any such determination shall be conclusive and final.

(d) To the extent that any right of indemnification granted hereunder shall require any determination that the Corporate Agent has been involved in a Proceeding by reason of his or her being or having been a Corporate Agent, the Corporate Agent shall be deemed to have been so involved if the Proceeding involves action allegedly taken by the Corporate Agent for the benefit of the corporation or in the performance of his or her duties or the course of his or her employment for the corporation.

(e) If a Corporate Agent shall be a party defendant in a Proceeding, other than a Proceeding by or in the right of the corporation, and the Board of Directors or a duly authorized committee of disinterested directors shall determine that it is in the best interests of the corporation for the corporation to assume the defense of any such Proceeding, the board of Directors or such committee may authorize and direct that the corporation assume the defense of the Proceeding and pay all expenses in connection therewith without requiring such Corporate Agent to undertake to pay or repay any part thereof. Such assumption shall not affect the right of any such Corporate Agent to employ his or her own counsel or to recover indemnification under this By-law to the extent that he may be entitled thereto.

(f) As used herein, the term Proceeding shall mean and include any pending, threatened or completed civil, criminal, administrative or arbitratative action, suit or proceeding, and any appeal therein and any inquiry or investigation which could lead to such action, suit or proceeding.

(g) The right to indemnification granted under this Article IV shall not be exclusive of any other rights to which any Corporate Agent seeking indemnification hereunder may be entitled.

(h) The registrant maintains directors and officers liability insurance which insures against liabilities that directors and officers of the registrant may incur in such capacities.

In addition, the merger agreement provides that Vulcan will, to the fullest extent permitted by law, indemnify and hold harmless, and provide advancement of expenses to, all past and present officers, directors and employees of Florida Rock and its subsidiaries. Florida Rock has entered into indemnification agreements with each of its directors and officers that require Florida Rock to indemnify and advance expenses to such indemnitees to the fullest extent permitted by Florida law.

ITEM 17. UNDERTAKINGS.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(a) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

- (i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;
- (ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(i), (a)(ii) and (a)(iii) of this section do not apply if the registration statement is on Form S-3 or Form F-3 and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the SEC by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement.

(b) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(d) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser:

(i) Each prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of this registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in this registration statement; and

(ii) Each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5), or (b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii), or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by section 10(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof; provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date.

(e) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act of 1933 to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, the undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

- (i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;
- (ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;
- (iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and
- (iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrants pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrants in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrants will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

For purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each post-effective amendment that contains a form of prospectus shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
