L.B. FOSTER COMPANY

PROXY STATEMENT

GENERAL INFORMATION

This proxy statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of L.B. Foster Company (the Company) for use at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held May 25, 2005 and at any adjournment thereof. This proxy statement, the enclosed form of proxy and the Company's 2004 Annual Report were mailed to stockholders on or about April 21, 2005. Any proxy given pursuant to this solicitation may be revoked at any time before its use by written notice of revocation delivered to the Company at its principal executive offices, 415 Holiday Drive, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15220, attention: Secretary, or by attendance at the meeting and voting in person.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of the record holders of a majority of the Company's outstanding common stock is necessary to constitute a quorum. At the close of business on March 18, 2005, the record date for entitlement to vote at the meeting (Record Date), there were 10,075,520 shares of common stock outstanding. A quorum will therefore require the presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of at least 5,037,761 shares. Where a stockholder's proxy or ballot indicates that no vote is to be cast on a particular matter (including broker non-votes) the shares of such stockholder are nevertheless counted as being present at the meeting for the purposes of the vote on that matter.

Only holders of record of the common stock at the close of business on the Record Date are entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting or at any adjournment thereof. Such stockholders will have one vote for each share held on that date. The common stock does not have cumulative voting rights. Directors shall be elected by a majority of the votes cast from the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting. Broker non-votes are not deemed to have been cast.

If the enclosed form of proxy is properly executed and returned, it will be voted as directed. If no directions are given, the proxy will be voted FOR the election as directors of the six nominees named herein. With respect to all matters which the Company did not have written notice of on or before February 24, 2005, the proxy confers discretionary authority to vote on such matters to Lee B. Foster II, Chairman of the Board and Stan L. Hasselbusch, President and Chief Executive Officer.

The cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Company. Officers or employees of the Company may solicit proxies by mail, telephone, e-mail or facsimile. The Company does not expect to pay any compensation for the solicitation of proxies, but under arrangements made with brokers, custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to send proxy material to the beneficial owners of shares held by them, the Company may reimburse them for their expenses.

Table of Contents*Shareholder Meeting Attendance

The Company's directors regularly have attended shareholders' meetings without a formal policy on directors' attendance and the Company does not believe that a formal policy is required. All of the Company's directors attended the 2004 Annual Shareholders' Meeting.

Communications to Directors

Shareholders and other parties interested in communicating directly with the Chairman of the Board or with the non-managerial directors as a group may do so by writing to L.B. Foster Company, 415 Holiday Drive, Pittsburgh, PA 15220, Attn: Chairman of the Board or Attn: Outside Directors. The Secretary of the Company shall review all such correspondence and shall regularly forward to the Board a summary of all such correspondence and copies of all correspondence that, in the opinion of the Secretary, deal with the functions of the Board or committees thereof or that he otherwise determines requires their attention. Directors may at any time review a log of all correspondence received by the Company that is addressed to members of the Board and request copies of any such correspondence. Concerns relating to accounting, internal controls or auditing matters are directed to the Company's internal audit department and handled in accordance with procedures established by the Audit Committee with respect to such matters.

Independent Auditors

Ernst & Young LLP's aggregate fees (including out-of-pocket expenses) billed for fiscal 2004 and 2003 for each of the following categories of services are set forth below:

	2004	2003
Audit fees (includes audits and reviews of the Company's fiscal 2004 and 2003 financial statements)	$ 409,027	$ 173,955
Audit-related fees (primarily audits of the Company's various employee benefit plans)	$ 18,400	$ 18,700
Tax fees (federal and state)		$ 80,297
All Other Fees
Total Fees	$ 427,427	$ 272,952

The Audit Committee reviews summaries of services provided by Ernst & Young LLP and the related fees and has considered whether the provision of non-audit services is compatible with maintaining Ernst & Young LLP's independence. All services are pre-approved by the Audit Committee.

Ernst & Young LLP has served as the Company's independent auditor since 1990 and the Audit Committee anticipates that Ernst & Young LLP will be so appointed for 2005. The Audit Committee currently is evaluating Ernst & Young LLP's fee proposals for the 2005 audit and, accordingly, has not yet appointed Ernst & Young LLP as the Company's independent auditor for the year ending December 31, 2005. Since the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors is responsible for the appointment of the Company's independent auditors, the Company is not seeking shareholder approval of the independent auditors' appointment.

AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors is composed of independent directors and oversees the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. The Committee is responsible for the appointment, compensation and retention of the Corporation's independent auditors. In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Committee reviewed with management the audited financial statements of the Company for the year ended December 31, 2004. The Committee's charter is available on the Company's website (www.lbfoster.com). The Committee held five meetings during fiscal year 2004.

Table of Contents

Management is responsible for the Company's internal controls and for the financial reporting process. With respect to 2004, management advised the Committee that all annual and quarterly financial statements reviewed by the Committee had been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

The Committee met and held discussions with Ernst & Young LLP, who are responsible for performing an independent audit of the Company's financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and for issuing a report thereon, regarding the audited financial statements, including a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the Company's accounting principles and Ernst & Young's judgment regarding these matters. The Audit Committee has discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed under auditing standards generally accepted in the United States, including those matters set forth in Statement on Auditing Standards Nos. 61, as amended (Communications with Audit Committee). Pursuant to Independent Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussion with Audit Committee(s)), the Committee has discussed with Ernst & Young LLP the auditors' independence from management and the Company, including the matters in the written disclosures required by the Independence Standards Board. The Committee concluded that Ernst & Young LLP's independence had not been impaired.

The Committee discussed with the Company's internal and independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their respective audits. The Committee meets with the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of the Company's internal controls, and the overall quality of the Company's financial reporting. The Committee discussed the results of Ernst & Young LLP's quarterly review procedures with the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and Controller and with Ernst & Young LLP prior to the Company's release of quarterly financial information.

In reliance on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's directors, executive officers and persons who beneficially own more than 10% of the outstanding common stock of the Company to file initial reports and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission, and to provide copies of such reports to the Company. Based on its review of such copies, the Company believes that its directors, executive officers and 10% shareholders complied with these filing requirements except: (i) Mr. Donald Vukmanic, former Vice President Piling, filed a Form 4 on November 4, 2004 with respect to a sale of Company stock that occurred on November 1, 2004; (ii) Mr. Samuel K. Fisher, Sr. V.P. Rail filed a Form 4 on February 23, 2004 with respect to sales of Company stock that occurred on February 16, 2004 and February 20, 2004 and the exercise of stock options that occurred on February 20, 2004 and (iii) Mr. Jeffrey L. COMPENSATION, NOMINATION AND GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE
REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation, Nomination and Governance Committee (the Compensation Committee), has responsibilities related to compensation, corporate governance and the nomination of directors. The Compensation Committee is composed of independent directors and its responsibilities include determining the compensation of the Company's executive officers. The decisions by the Compensation Committee are reviewed and approved by the full Board. This report is submitted by Messrs. Massman, Puth and Rackoff in their capacity as the Compensation Committee, and addresses the Company's compensation policies for 2004 as they were generally applicable to the Company's executive officers and as they were specifically applicable to Mr. Hasselbusch.

COMPENSATION POLICIES REGARDING EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

The Compensation Committee's policies are designed to enable the Company to attract and retain qualified executives and to provide incentives for the achievement of the Company's annual and long-term performance goals. The vehicles for compensating and motivating executive officers include cash compensation, stock awards, stock options, participation in a 401(k) plan, a supplemental executive retirement plan and other benefits. The Company has not established a policy with regard to Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, since the Company has not and currently does not anticipate paying compensation in excess of $1 million per annum to any employee.

Cash Compensation

Each year the Company obtains survey data to use as one factor to assess the competitiveness of its pay structure for senior management. The surveys used in 2004 reviewed data from certain manufacturers with average sales from $50 million to $450. The Company uses survey data only to establish rough guidelines for its decisions on executive compensation. Specific decisions are then based largely upon subjective assessments of the officer's and the Company's performance. In 2004, the Company reverted to its prior practice of reviewing officers' salaries on a 12 month, as opposed to a 15 month, cycle.

During 2004, the Company also maintained an Incentive Compensation Plan. The Plan provided for bonuses largely based upon the Corporation's and/or the applicable operating division's pre-tax income compared to plan. Under the Incentive Compensation Plan, LIFO expense was not applied at the operating unit level, but was applied at the corporate level. Since the Company incurred unplanned LIFO charges in 2004, bonuses based upon overall corporate pre-tax income were not payable under the Incentive Compensation Plan. Various operating units, however, performed at levels providing incentive compensation to eligible employees, including Messrs. Bloem and Fisher, within those units.

The Board of Directors, upon the recommendation of the Compensation, Nomination and Governance Committee, awarded discretionary bonuses to several officers and members of management. For example, Mr. Hasselbusch received a discretionary bonus of $30,000, Mr. Russo received a discretionary bonus of $28,000 and Mr. Voltz received a discretionary bonus of $10,000. Discretionary bonuses were paid because the Board of Directors concluded that, although unplanned LIFO charges would have deprived such officers of bonuses under the Incentive Compensation Plan, the Corporation's and the individuals' performance warranted such awards. Bonuses paid to Messrs. Hasselbusch, Bloem, Russo, Fisher and Voltz are included in the Summary Compensation Plan.

Stock Option Plans

The Company's 1985 Long-Term Incentive Plan as Amended and Restated, which terminated on December 31, 2004, and the 1998 Long-Term Incentive Plan as Amended and Restated (the Plans) authorize the award of stock options and stock appreciation rights (SARs) to officers, directors and key employees of the Company and its subsidiaries. SARs have not been awarded under the Plans. The Plans are designed to motivate participants by providing them with a direct, financial interest in the long-term performance of the Company. The Compensation Committee determines the participants and their awards. The purchase price of optioned shares must be at least the fair market value of the common stock on the date the option is granted, and the term of options may not exceed ten (10) years. Although both incentive stock options and non-qualified stock options may be awarded under the Plans, only non-qualified stock options have been awarded. In determining the number of options to award a participant, the Compensation Committee generally takes into account, among other factors, the number of options previously awarded to the participant. No options were granted to Messrs. Hasselbusch, Bloem, Russo, Fisher or Voltz during 2004.

Retirement Plan

The Company maintains the L. B. Foster Company Voluntary Investment Plan, a salary reduction plan qualifying under Section 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code, covering all salaried employees. The Plan calls for the Company to contribute 1% of the employee's compensation plus $.50 for each $1.00 contributed by the employee, subject to a maximum of from 4% to 6% of the employee's compensation, based on the years of service. Based upon the Company's financial performance against predetermined criteria, the Company may contribute an additional $.50 for each $1.00 so contributed. The Company also may make additional discretionary contributions to the Plan. Company contributions vest upon completion of three (3) years of service. The Company's contributions for 2004 to the Voluntary Investment Plan for Messrs. Hasselbusch, Bloem, Russo, Fisher and Voltz are included in the Summary Compensation Table. The Company also maintains a Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan under which executive officers may accrue benefits, which approximate benefits unavailable under the Voluntary Investment Plan because of Internal Revenue Code limitations.

Other Compensation Plans

At various times in the past, the Company has adopted certain broad-based employee benefit plans in which executive officers have been permitted to participate and has adopted certain executive officer life, long term disability and health insurance programs and a leased vehicle program. The incremental cost to the Company of the executive officers' benefits provided under these programs for Messrs. Hasselbusch, Bloem, Russo, Fisher and Voltz are included in the Summary Compensation Table, if such benefits exceeded 10% of named officer's salary and bonus for the year. Benefits under these plans are not directly or indirectly tied to Company performance.

MR. HASSELBUSCH'S 2004 COMPENSATION

Mr. Hasselbusch's annual base salary was increased, after an interval of 15 months, from $311,250 to $351,250 on July 1, 2004. This increase was designed to align Mr. Hasselbusch's compensation more closely with that of his peers and to reward Mr. Hasselbusch for his performance. As noted above, the Board of Directors, at the Committee's recommendation, also awarded Mr. Hasselbusch a $30,000 discretionary bonus. In determining Mr. Hasselbusch's compensation, the Committee recognized Mr. Hasselbusch's leadership in controlling costs, improving the Company's safety record, expanding the Company's business and a variety of other matters.

Mr. Hasselbusch is eligible to participate in the same executive compensation plans as are available to other executive officers.
