ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

In accordance with our current Code of Regulations, the number of directors has been fixed at eight. The Company has classified its Board of Directors into two classes composed of four members each, both serving staggered terms. Three of our current eight directors, John D. Drinko, Randall M. Ruhlman, and Glenn E. Corlett, are serving a term that expires at this year's annual meeting of shareholders and have been nominated for re-election at the meeting. One director, Wilber C. Nordstrom, whose term expires at this year's annual meeting of shareholders, has not been nominated. As a result, there will be a vacancy in the class of directors whose term will expire at the 2008 annual meeting of shareholders. Four directors, Barbara P. Ruhlman, Frank B. Carr, Robert G. Ruhlman, and John P. O'Brien, are currently serving a term that expires in 2007. The Board of Directors proposes that the nominees described below, all of whom are currently serving as directors, be re-elected to the Board of Directors. At the annual meeting of shareholders, the shares represented by proxies, unless otherwise specified, will be voted for the election of the three nominees hereinafter named.

The director nominees are identified in the following table. If for any reason any of the nominees is not a candidate when the election occurs (which is not expected), the Board of Directors expects that proxies will be voted for the election of a substitute nominee designated by management. The following information is furnished with respect to each person nominated for election as a director.

The Board recommends that you vote FOR the following nominees.

Table of ContentsNominees for Election at the Annual Meeting

Mr. Corlett also serves as a director of the following companies: Inn-Ohio, Inc., Copernicus Therapeutics, Inc., Grange Insurance Companies and Palmer-Donavin Manufacturing Corporation.	2004 to date	2008

Robert G. Ruhlman, 49	Mr. Ruhlman was elected Chairman of the Company in July 2004. Mr. Ruhlman has served as Chief Executive Officer since July 2000, and as President since 1995 (positions he continues to hold).	1992 to date	2007
Barbara P. Ruhlman, 73	President of the Thomas F. Peterson Foundation since 1988.	1988 to date	2007
John P. O'Brien, 64	Since April 1990, Mr. O'Brien has been a Managing Director of Inglewood Associates, Inc., a private investment and consulting firm.	2004 to date	2007

Mr. O'Brien currently serves as a director for the following companies and organizations: Allied Construction Products, LLC; Century Aluminum Corporation; Oglebay Norton Company; Cleveland Sight Center and MainStreet-Chagrin Falls.

The Board has determined that Messrs. Drinko, Carr, O'Brien, and Corlett are independent under the NASDAQ's corporate governance rules. In the opinion of the Board, Mr. Drinko's affiliation with Baker & Hostetler LLP, a law firm that regularly provides legal services to the Company, does not interfere with Mr. Drinko's exercise of independent judgment in carrying out his duties as a director.

Barbara P. Ruhlman is the mother of Randall M. Ruhlman and Robert G. Ruhlman.

Table of Contents

The Board of Directors has determined that the Company is a controlled company pursuant to the NASDAQ corporate governance rules. A controlled company includes a company in which more than 50% of the voting power is held by a group. The Board has determined that the Company is a controlled company because a group, which includes the Ruhlman family and certain members of management, controls more than 50% of the Company's Common Shares. A Schedule 13D has been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission related to the control group of the Company. As a controlled company the Company is exempt from certain NASDAQ corporate governance rules, including the requirement that a majority of its Board be composed of independent directors and the rule that requires that nominees for election of director be selected (or recommended for selection) by a nominating committee composed of only independent directors or by a majority of the independent directors. Because the Company is a controlled company, the Board believes that it is appropriate for the Board not to have a nominating committee. Rather, the entire Board participates in the consideration of director nominees. Similarly, as a controlled company and because of the historically small turnover of its members, it is the view of the Board that it is appropriate for the Board not to consider director candidates recommended by shareholders.

The Board of Directors has appointed an Audit Committee and a Compensation Committee. The Board of Directors does not have a finance committee. The Audit Committee is presently comprised of Messrs. O'Brien (chairman), Carr and Corlett, each of whom qualify as independent for audit committee purposes under the NASDAQ rules. The Audit Committee financial expert is John P. O'Brien. The Compensation Committee is presently comprised of Messrs. Carr, O'Brien and Corlett (chairman).

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors engages the independent public accountants for the Company, reviews with the independent public accountants the plans and results of audit engagements, preapproves all professional services provided by the independent public accountants including audit and non-audit related services, reviews the independence of the independent public accountants, approves the range of audit and non-audit fees, reviews the independent public accountants' management letters and management's responses, reviews with management their conclusions about the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures, and reviews significant accounting or reporting changes. Management does not approve professional services provided by the independent public accountants for audit and non-audit-related services.

The Compensation Committee reviews employment, development, reassignment and compensation matters involving corporate officers and other executive level employees, including matters related to salary, bonus and incentive arrangements. The Compensation Committee also administers the Company's equity award (stock option) plan.

In 2005, the Board of Directors held five meetings. In 2005, the Audit Committee held three formal meetings and the Compensation Committee held three meetings. In 2005, each member of the Board of Directors attended at least 75% of the meetings of the Board of Directors and of the committees on which he or she serves.

Directors' Compensation. Each director who is not an employee of the Company receives $3,300 per quarter for being a director, $1,540 for attending each meeting of the Board of Directors and each meeting of any committee. Directors who are also employees are not paid any director's fee. The Company reimburses out-of-pocket expenses incurred by all directors in connection with attending Board of Directors and committee meetings.

Compensation Committee Report

The Company's executive compensation program is administered by the Compensation Committee which has responsibility for reviewing all aspects of the compensation program for the executive officers of the Company. The Committee is comprised of the three directors listed at the end of this report, none of whom is an employee of the Company.

The Committee's primary objective with respect to executive compensation is to establish programs which attract and retain key officers and managers and align their compensation with the Company's overall business strategies, values, and performance. To this end, the Committee has established and the Board of Directors has endorsed an executive compensation philosophy to compensate executive officers based on their responsibilities and the Company's overall annual and longer-term performance.

The primary components of the Company's executive compensation program are (a) base salaries, (b) annual cash incentive opportunities, and (c) stock options. These components are discussed below.

Base Salaries. Base salaries for each of the Company's executive officers are reviewed every year by the Committee using as a guide one or more widely accepted salary evaluation systems, taking into account the size of the Company, expectations for the annual bonus plan described below and Company performance, and competitive, inflationary, and internal equity considerations. The Committee considers relevant trends in executive compensation practices, the Company's compensation practices for employees in general, the Company's financial performance and business condition, and recommendations of executive management on compensation of executive officers. The salary of Robert G. Ruhlman, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, was set by the Committee to be within a range that is competitive with the fixed salaries of chief executive officers of similar size public companies with comparable profitability. The Committee believes that Mr. Ruhlman's performance exceeded expectations. During 2005, the Chief Executive Officer's annual salary was $400,000, maintaining Mr. Ruhlman's salary to what the Committee believes is nearly the mid-level range of salaries at comparable companies.

Annual Cash Incentives. All officers of the Company, including Robert G. Ruhlman, are eligible to receive annual cash bonus awards based on a set percentage of their base salary with a maximum bonus attainable equal to 50% of base salary. The percentage of base salary is determined on a sliding scale, based on the return on shareholders' equity. The bonus awards for all officers for the years 2003, 2004 and 2005 were 25%, 45% and 45%, respectively, of base salary.

Stock Options. The Committee has awarded options to purchase 258,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock. The Committee has had the opportunity to grant stock options for six years and it believes that option grants are a valuable motivating tool and provide a long-term incentive to management. Share option grants reinforce long-term goals by providing the proper nexus between the interests of management and the interests of the Company's shareholders. All options were awarded to retain qualified personnel in positions of significant responsibility with the Company. No options were granted to employees who had been with the Company for less than two years and all options contained provisions for periodic vesting. One new executive officer was granted options to purchase 5,000 common shares during 2005. All option grants had exercise prices at least equal to the fair market value of the Company's Common Shares on the date of the grant.

Audit Committee Report

In accordance with its written charter adopted by the Board of Directors, the Audit Committee assists the Board of Directors in fulfilling its responsibility relating to corporate accounting, reporting practices of the Company, and the quality and integrity of the financial reports and other financial information provided by the Company to NASDAQ, Securities and Exchange Commission or the public. Management is responsible for the financial statements and the reporting process, including the system of internal controls. The independent auditors are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of the audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles. The Audit Committee is comprised of three directors who are not officers or employees of the Company and are independent under the current NASDAQ rules.

In discharging its oversight responsibility as to the audit process, the Audit Committee reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements of the Company for the year ended December 31, 2005, with the Company's management. The Audit Committee discussed the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standard No. 61, as amended, and other regulations, with the independent auditors. The Audit

Committee also obtained a formal written statement from the independent auditors that described all relationships between the independent auditors and the Company that might bear on the auditor's independence consistent with Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committee, as amended or supplemented. The Audit Committee discussed with the independent auditors any relationships that might affect their objectivity and independence and satisfied itself as to the auditors' independence. The Audit Committee also considered whether the provision of non-audit services by Deloitte & Touche LLP (Deloitte) is compatible with maintaining Deloitte's independence. Management has the responsibility for the preparation of the Company's financial statements, and the independent auditors have the responsibility for the examination of those statements.

Based on the above-referenced review and discussions with management and the independent accountants, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the Company's audited financial statements be included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

There are no Compensation Committee interlocks or insider participation.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

The Audit Committee has approved all related party transactions.

The Company is a sponsor of Ruhlman Motorsports. Ruhlman Motorsports is owned by Randall M. Ruhlman, a director of the Company, and by his wife. The Company paid sponsorship fees of $658,000, annually, to Ruhlman Motorsports during 2003, 2004 and 2005. In addition, in 2003, 2004, and 2005 the Company's Canadian subsidiary, Preformed Line Products (Canada) Ltd., paid $99,000, $106,000, and $101,000, respectively, to Ruhlman Motorsports in sponsorship fees. This sponsorship provides the Company with a unique venue to entertain the Company's customers and to advertise on the racecar, which participates on the Trans-Am racing circuit. The Company believes that its sponsorship contract with Ruhlman Motorsports is as favorable to the Company as a similar contract with a similar independent third-party racing team would be. The Company intends to continue to sponsor Ruhlman Motorsports in 2006; however, it will be in the Grand American Road Racing Series, because the Trans-Am racing circuit has dissolved. The Company further believes that the sponsorship has great marketing value because it entertains users of the Company's products, such as linemen and their supervisors, and thus provides a grassroots sales approach.

Mr. John D. Drinko, one of the Company's directors, is a senior partner of Baker & Hostetler LLP, which acts as the Company's general outside counsel. The Company expects that Baker & Hostetler will continue to provide legal services in that capacity in 2006.

Miscellaneous

The Company expects its directors to attend the Company's annual meeting of shareholders. All of the directors attended last year's annual meeting of shareholders.

If the enclosed proxy card is executed and returned to the Company, the persons named in it will vote the shares represented by that proxy at the meeting. The form of proxy permits specification of a vote for the election of directors as set forth under Election of Directors above, the withholding of authority to vote in the election of directors, or the withholding of authority to vote for one or more specified nominees. When a choice has been specified in the proxy, the shares represented will be voted in accordance with that specification. If no specification is made, those shares will be voted at the meeting to elect directors as set forth under Election of Directors above. Under Ohio law and our Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation, broker non-votes and abstaining votes will not be counted in favor of or against any nominee but will be counted as present for purposes of determining whether a quorum has been achieved at the meeting. Director nominees who receive the greatest number of affirmative votes will be elected directors. All other matters to be considered at the meeting require for approval the favorable vote of a majority of the shares voted at the meeting in person or by proxy. If any other matter properly comes before the meeting, the persons named in the proxy will vote thereon in accordance with their judgment. We do not know of any other matter that will be presented for action at the meeting and we have not received any timely notice that any of our shareholders intend to present a proposal at the meeting.

By order of the Board of Directors,
