FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

This material contains forward-looking statements that are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements are made on the basis of management's views and assumptions regarding future events and business performance. Words such as "believe", "anticipate", "expect", and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements (including oral representations) involve risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ materially from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such statements. These risks and uncertainties are based on a number of factors, including, but not limited, to: our ability to complete the acquisition of Commonwealth, to successfully integrate their operations and to realize the synergies from the acquisition; changes in the number of our revenue generating units; greater than anticipated competition from wireless or wireline carriers; general and local economic and employment conditions; our ability to effectively manage our operations, costs and capital spending; our ability to successfully introduce new product offerings including bundled service packages; our ability to sell enhanced services; changes in accounting policies or practices; changes in regulation in the communications industry; our ability to manage our operating expenses, capital expenditures, pay dividends and reduce or refinance our debt; adverse changes in the ratings of our debt securities; bankruptcies in the telecommunications industry; the effects of technological changes and competition on our capital expenditures and product and service offerings; increased medical, retiree and pension expenses; changes in income tax rates and tax laws; our ability to successfully renegotiate expiring union contracts; and general factors, including changes in economic, business and industry conditions. These and other uncertainties related to our business are described in greater detail in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including our reports on Form 10-K and 10-Q. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statement or to make any other forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise unless required to do so by securities laws.
