Expiration of the “Go Shop” Period

As previously disclosed, on June 10, 2011, Gerber Scientific, Inc., a Connecticut corporation (the “Company”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) with Vector Knife Holdings (Cayman), Ltd., a newly formed Cayman company (“Parent”) and Knife Merger Sub, Inc., a newly formed Connecticut corporation and wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (“Merger Sub”), which provided for a “go shop” period beginning on the date of the Merger Agreement and continuing through July 25, 2011 (the “Go Shop Period”).

The Merger Agreement provides that, during the Go Shop Period, the Company was permitted to initiate, solicit and encourage alternative acquisition proposals from third parties and provide non-public information to and enter into discussions or negotiations with third parties with respect to alternative acquisition proposals.

At the direction and under the supervision of the Company’s board of directors, RA Capital Advisors, LLC, financial advisor to the Company’s board of directors (“RA Capital”), conducted the “go shop” process on behalf of the Company. Representatives of RA Capital contacted parties that RA Capital advised the Company, based on size and business interests, might be capable of, and might be interested in, pursuing a transaction with the Company. During the Go Shop Period, representatives of RA Capital contacted a total of 31 parties, comprised of 12 strategic parties and 19 private equity firms, to solicit their interest in a possible alternative transaction. In addition, five private equity firms contacted RA Capital regarding a potential interest in acquiring the Company.

Of the 31 parties contacted by RA Capital and the five private equity firms that contacted RA Capital, three private equity firms executed a confidentiality agreement and were granted access to certain non-public information regarding the Company. Ultimately, all three of these private equity firms affirmatively indicated to RA Capital that they were not interested in pursuing a transaction with Company. Despite an active and extensive solicitation of potentially interested parties in connection with the “go shop” process since the announcement of the Merger Agreement, none of the 36 parties, nor any other party, submitted an alternative acquisition proposal to the Company prior to the expiration of the Go Shop Period.

On July 26, 2011, the Company issued a news release announcing the expiration of the Go Shop Period and the absence of any alternative acquisition proposals made to the Company during such period, which appears immediately below and is incorporated herein by reference.

News Release

GERBER SCIENTIFIC, INC. ANNOUNCES EXPIRATION OF THE “GO SHOP” PERIOD

TOLLAND, CT – July 26, 2011 – Gerber Scientific, Inc. (NYSE: GRB) (the “Company” or “Gerber Scientific”), today announced the expiration of the 45-day “go shop” period pursuant to the terms of the previously announced merger agreement dated as of June 10, 2011 among the Company, Vector Knife Holdings (Cayman), Ltd. and Knife Merger Sub, Inc. (the “Merger Agreement”).

During the “go shop” process, the Company was permitted to initiate, solicit and encourage alternative acquisition proposals from third parties and provide non-public information to and enter into discussions or negotiations with third parties with respect to alternative acquisition proposals for a period of 45 calendar days continuing through July 25, 2011.

At the direction and under the supervision of the Company's Board of Directors, RA Capital Advisors LLC, financial advisor to the Company's Board of Directors ("RA Capital"), conducted the "go shop" process on behalf of the Company. RA Capital engaged in an active and extensive solicitation of 36 parties that RA Capital advised the Company might be capable of and interested in pursuing a transaction with the Company, which resulted in three parties negotiating and entering into confidentiality agreements with the Company. Despite these efforts, the Company did not receive any alternative acquisition proposals during the 45-day "go shop" period.

The Board of Directors has scheduled a special meeting of the Company's shareholders to consider and vote upon, among other things, a proposal to approve the Merger Agreement on August 18, 2011 at the Hilton Hartford Hotel, Hartford, Connecticut at 10:00 a.m. local time.
