ITEM 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

Article 109 of the Company's Articles of Association, incorporated by reference to Exhibit G to the Joint Proxy Statement of EXEL Limited and Mid Ocean Limited dated July 2, 1998 (the "Joint Proxy Statement"), contains provisions with respect to indemnification of the directors and officers of the Company. The general effect of these provisions is to provide for the indemnity by the Company of an officer, director, employee or agent of the Company for threatened, pending or completed actions, suits or proceedings (other than an action by or in the right of the Company) brought against such indemnified person by reason of the fact that such person was an officer, director, employee or agent of the Company, if such indemnified person acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Company and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

The Articles of Association also provide for the indemnification of such person against expenses actually and reasonably incurred in connection with suits brought by or in the right of the Company by reason of the fact that such indemnified person is an officer, director, employee or agent of the Company if such indemnified person acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the Company; provided that no such indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for willful neglect or default in the performance of his duty to the Company unless and only to the extent that the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Grand Court or other such court shall deem proper.

To the extent that such indemnified person shall be successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any such action, suit or proceeding, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that is incorporated by reference in this registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered herein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

31st May 2002

Dear Sirs:

XL Capital Ltd - Form S-8 Registration Statement

You have asked us to render this opinion in our capacity as your counsel as to Cayman Islands law in connection with the registration pursuant to a Registration Statement on Form S-8 (the "Registration Statement") under the Securities Act of 1933, as Amended (the "Act") of the 9,225,000 Class A ordinary shares of the Company, par value US$0.01 per share (the "Ordinary Shares") to be issued pursuant to the Company's 1991 Performance Incentive Program (as amended and restated), Employee Share Purchase Plan, Globalshare-Share Incentive Plan, UK Employee Share Purchase Plan, Globalshare-Save As You Earn, and the Company's Global Share-Swiss Employee Share Purchase Plan (together, the "Plans") as ratified and adopted by the board of directors of the Company.

We have reviewed the Company's Memorandum and Articles of Association as issued by or filed with the Registrar of Companies prior to the date hereof and the form of Registration Statement as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. We have assumed without independent verification the genuineness of all signatures, authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals and the conformity with original documents of all documents submitted to us by telefax or as copies or conformed copies. We have relied upon the accuracy of the facts contained in a certificate of an officer of the Company dated 25 February 2002 and have assumed the continuing accuracy as at the date hereof in giving this opinion further verification.

We assume that all subscription monies due in respect of shares issued by the Company have been or will be duly received by the Company. We further assume that all Ordinary Shares to be issued in accordance with the Plans have been reserved for issuance and that there are no intervening changes in the Plans, the Company's Memorandum and Articles of Association, the laws of the Cayman Islands or any other relevant matter.

On the basis of the foregoing, we would advise as follows:

Edgar Filing: XL CAPITAL LTD - Form S-8

1. The Company's authorised capital is US$9,990,000 divided into 999,990,000 Ordinary Shares of a par value of US$0.01 each.
2. The Company has sufficient authorised share capital to issue the Ordinary Shares and the issue thereof is within the power of the Company's Board of Directors. The Ordinary Shares to be issued in accordance with the Plans have been duly authorised and when issued and registered in the Company's Register of Members in accordance with the provisions of the relevant Plans and the Registration Statement will be legally and validly issued.
3. On the basis that the contractual subscription price (being not less than the par value) of the Ordinary Shares is fully paid in cash or satisfied by other consideration approved by the Board of Directors of the Company or a duly established Committee thereof, such Ordinary Shares issued or to be issued may properly be credited as fully paid under Cayman Islands law.
4. Fully paid shares are not subject to further calls or assessments by the Company in respect of such shares.
5. The Company has been incorporated as an exempted company under the Companies Law of the Cayman Islands and under the Memorandum of Association of the Company, the liability of its shareholders is limited to the amount, if any, unpaid on their shares. On the basis that all such shares are fully paid, there is no rule of Cayman Islands law that would impose any further liability on person holding shares in the Company, solely by reason of such shareholding.

We are practising in the Cayman Islands and we do not purport to be experts on the laws of any other jurisdiction and we have made no investigation of, or express any opinion as to the laws of any jurisdiction other than the Cayman Islands. This opinion is based upon the laws of the Cayman Islands in effect at the date hereof and is given only as to the circumstances existing on the date hereof and known to us.

This opinion is intended solely for your benefit and may not be relied upon by any other person although we hereby consent to the filing of this opinion as an exhibit to the Registration Statement and to the use of our name under the heading "Certain Legal Matters".

Yours faithfully,

HUNTER & HUNTER
/s/ Allison B. Nolan
