The Company's independent auditors, PricewaterhouseCoopers AG, have not completed their review of the interim financial statements incorporated into this Form 10-Q/A.

The Company has received allegations from an employee. Based on the nature of the allegations and management's initial review, the Company believes the allegations are unfounded and, in any event, would not impact the Company's financial statements. However, as a matter of good corporate governance, the Company's Audit Committee decided to conduct an independent investigation of the allegations.

As a result, the Company has been advised by PricewaterhouseCoopers AG that professional standards will not allow them to complete their review of the interim financial statements until a review of the allegations has been concluded.
