On December 22, 2004, the Company entered into a new commitment letter with Comerica Bank regarding a secured revolving line of credit with Comerica Bank. The previous commitment letter, dated May 20, 2004, was withdrawn by Comerica as a result of recent industry pronouncements regarding the projected decline in the volume of checks and the expected impact of this decline on the Company's forecasts. Pursuant to this new commitment letter, the maximum amount that the Company may borrow was reduced to $5,000,000 and the revolving line of credit was restructured so that amounts borrowed will be due and payable upon demand by the bank. Amounts borrowed under the revolving line of credit will be secured by all of the Company's assets and by a guarantee from Mr. Dirk and the Dirk Family Trust dated March 6, 1990.

For the revolving line of credit, amounts borrowed can be made against (i) 80% of the Company's eligible accounts receivable, (ii) 25% of (A) the lower of cost or market value of the Company's raw materials inventory and (B) the Company's finished goods inventory (with advances against inventory capped at $2,000,000); and (iii) 90% of the forced sale value of the Company's equipment (as determined by the bank). At the option of the Company, the interest rate for amounts borrowed shall be either (i) the lender's reference rate for similar loans, or (ii) the LIBOR rate plus 2.75%. Interest on amounts borrowed will be paid in monthly installments.

This commitment is subject to customary conditions, including the negotiation, execution and delivery of definitive documentation.

As part of its year-end planning, the Company engaged in an extensive review, budgeting and forecasting process. The Company was particularly concerned about the decline in sales of its check printing solutions during 2004, which the Company believed was due in large part to a continuing decline in the use of checks. In connection with this process, the Company reviewed recent Federal Reserve pronouncements that projected approximately a 15% decline in the volume of checks in 2005.

Edgar Filing: TROY GROUP INC - Form SC 13E3/A

In addition, the Company reviewed a white paper published by Meta Software that, based on a study by an industry research firm, projected a 40% decline in check volume by 2010, with the annual rate of decline peaking at 15% in 2006. Upon completion of this review, the Company determined that the continuing decline in check volume was beginning to have and would likely continue to have a negative impact on the Company's core business. As a result, the Company determined that the projections included in the Proxy Statement were no longer achievable and, on January 4, 2005, announced it was withdrawing these projections.

By letter dated December 30, 2004, on behalf of the Company, the Special Committee of the Board of Directors, agreed, until March 1, 2005, not to terminate the Merger Agreement pursuant to section 8.1(b) thereto, which provides that either party may terminate the Merger Agreement, if the merger is not completed by December 31, 2004, unless the non-completion was a result of a material breach of any of the terms of the Merger Agreement by the party wishing to terminate.
