The principal business of LMEA III consists of performing the functions of, and serving as general partner of LMEP III and LMEP III-A. The principal business of UGP III consists of performing the functions of, and serving as the general partner of LMEA III. The principal business of LMP consists of serving as the managing member of UGP III.

During the last five years, no Reporting Person has (i) been convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors) or (ii) been a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction making any of them subject to a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, federal or state securities laws or finding any violation with respect to such laws.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

The Reporting Persons are holders of Common Stock of the Issuer pursuant to the conversion by LM III of 33,763.927 and LM III-A of 15,043.561 shares of the Issuer's Perpetual Convertible Preferred Stock, Series C (the Series C Preferred) pursuant to a Preferred Stock Purchase Agreement dated as of April 24, 2012, by and among the Issuer and the Reporting Persons, as amended by Amendment No. 1 to the Preferred Stock Purchase Agreement, effective August 10, 2012, and as further amended by the Agreement Regarding Perpetual Convertible Preferred Stock, Series C, effective as of March 18, 2013 (collectively, the Agreements), and the subscription and purchase by LM III of 0.3 shares of Common Stock from the Issuer. The Agreements were entered into in connection with the closing of the initial public offering of the Issuer. The shares of Series C Preferred were automatically converted into shares of the Issuer's Common Stock with a conversion ratio of 100 shares of Common Stock for each share of Series C Preferred.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

The Reporting Persons are parties to the Agreements. In addition, the Issuer has entered into a Registration Rights Agreement made as of August 10, 2012, with the Reporting Persons. The following descriptions are qualified in their entirety by reference to these Agreements and the Registration Rights Agreement, each of which are attached as exhibits hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

Board representation. The Issuer has agreed to appoint James E. Minnick, an officer of LMP and designated by the Reporting Persons, to serve in the following positions for the Issuer and for TriState Capital Bank (the Bank), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Issuer: (1) a Class IV director (with a term expiring April 24, 2016) and, in the case of the Bank, a director; (2) a member of the Compensation Committee; and (3) a member of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee. The Issuer has agreed that it will not reduce the term of such Class IV director. Further, the Issuer has agreed that it will nominate the director designated by the Reporting Persons for successive four-year terms and will take any other lawful action within its power to cause the designee to be elected for terms as a director of the Issuer and the Bank. The Issuer has also agreed that vacancies created by any resignation or otherwise of a director designated by the Reporting Persons will be filled with a successor director that has been designated by the Reporting Persons. If a director nominee that has been designated by the Reporting Persons is not elected for any reason, the Issuer has agreed that it will increase the number of directors, creating a vacancy on the Issuer's board of directors, and then fill that vacancy with the Reporting Persons' designee. Unless increased pursuant to this covenant, the Issuer has agreed that the number of directors on its board will not exceed 14. The Reporting Persons will have these representation rights for so long as the Reporting Persons collectively hold more than 4.9% of the Issuer's outstanding Common Stock.

Observer rights. The Issuer and the Bank will invite one observer designated by the Reporting Persons to the Issuer's and such Bank's respective board meetings. This observer will be entitled to attend meetings and take notes, but will not be entitled to vote or participate in discussions at the meetings. The Reporting Persons will have the above-described observer rights for so long as the Reporting Persons continue to collectively hold more than 4.9% of the Issuer's outstanding Common Stock.

Financial reporting and access rights. For as long as any Reporting Person holds at least 25% of the equity securities acquired under the Preferred Stock Purchase Agreement, the Issuer must deliver to the Reporting Persons: (1) the Issuer's unaudited quarterly financial statements that have been certified by the Issuer's Chief Executive Officer or Chief Financial Officer; (2) the Issuer's audited annual financial statements that have been certified by the Issuer's Chief Executive Officer or Chief Financial Officer; and (3) copies of all of the Issuer's shareholder communications or any other reports or registration statements that the Issuer files with the SEC or any securities exchange. In addition, for as long as the Reporting Persons hold any of the Issuer's equity securities, the Issuer has agreed to grant the Reporting Persons reasonable access on a quarterly basis to inspect the Issuer's properties and corporate and financial records and to discuss the Issuer's business with key personnel.

Qualification as a Venture Capital Operating Company. The above-described access and representation rights are intended to provide the Reporting Persons the types of management and access rights that will enable them to qualify as Venture Capital Operating Companies under the applicable regulations of the U.S. Department of Labor. To the extent that it is determined that the rights granted in such agreements are not sufficient for the Reporting Persons to qualify as Venture Capital Operating Companies, the Issuer has agreed that it will cooperate and agree on additional mutually satisfactory management access rights that will satisfy the applicable requirements.

Indemnification. The Issuer has agreed that it will be the indemnitor of first resort with respect to any claims against the director designated by the Reporting Persons for indemnification claims that are indemnifiable by both the Issuer and the Reporting Persons. Accordingly, to the extent that indemnification is permissible under applicable law, the Issuer will have full liability for such claims (including for the advancement of any expenses) and the Issuer has waived all related rights of contribution, subrogation or other recovery that it might otherwise have against the Reporting Persons.

Registration Rights

The Registration Rights Agreement provides that, after August 10, 2017, holders of at least 50% of the Issuer's Common Stock (on an as-converted basis) that is held by the Reporting Persons may require that the Issuer file a Form S-1 or similar long-form registration statement with the SEC to register the shares of the Issuer's Common Stock that were issued upon conversion by the Reporting Persons of the Issuer's Series C Preferred. It is a condition to any such long-form demand registration that the aggregate offering price of the securities to be registered be at least $25.0 million. In addition, after August 10, 2017, holders of at least 25% of the Issuer's Common Stock (on an as-converted basis) that is held by the Reporting Persons may require that the Issuer file a Form S-3 or similar short-form registration statement with the SEC to register the shares of the Issuer's Common Stock that were issued upon conversion by the Reporting Persons of the Issuer's Series C Preferred. It is a condition to any such short-form demand registration that the aggregate offering price of the securities to be registered be at least $10.0 million. All demand registrations pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement will be short-form registrations whenever the Issuer is permitted to use any applicable short form. The Issuer has agreed to use its best efforts to make short-form registrations available for the sale of any securities for which registration rights are available under the Registration Rights Agreement. The Issuer will pay the expenses associated with the above-described demand registrations, even if the registration is not completed. Holders of a majority of the securities included in any demand registration will have the right to select investment bankers and managers to administer the offering.

The Registration Rights Agreement also provides certain piggyback registration rights to the Reporting Persons. Subject to certain limitations, in the event that the Issuer registers any of its equity securities under the Securities Act (other than pursuant to an above-described demand registration or in connection with registration statements on Form S-4 or Form S-8), the Issuer must give notice to the Reporting Persons of its intention to effect such a registration and must include in the registration statement all registerable securities for which the Issuer has received a written request for inclusion. The Issuer will be required to pay for all piggyback registration expenses, even if the registration is not completed. The Issuer will retain the right to select the investment bankers and managers to administer any underwritten offering in which piggyback registration rights are granted. The rights of any person to request a demand registration or to request inclusion in a piggyback registration pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement will terminate upon the earliest time after the Issuer's initial public offering at which a holder of the registerable securities: (1) can sell all shares held by it in compliance with Rule 144(b)(1)(i) or (ii) of the Securities Act; or (2) holds 1% or less of the Issuer's outstanding common stock and all of the registerable securities held by such holder may be sold in any three-month period without registration in compliance with Rule 144.

Except as otherwise disclosed herein, none of the Reporting Persons currently has any plans or proposals that relate to or would result in any of the transactions described in subparagraphs (a) through (j) of Item 4 of the Instructions to Schedule 13D. However, as part of the ongoing evaluation of this investment and investment alternatives, the Reporting Persons may consider such matters and, subject to applicable law, may formulate a plan with respect to such matters, and, from time to time, may hold discussions with or make formal proposals to management or the board of directors of the Issuer (which may include James E. Minnick), other stockholders of the Issuer or other third parties regarding such matters.
