Emerging growth company

If an emerging growth company, indicate by check mark if the registrant has elected not to use the extended transition period for complying with any new or revised financial accounting standards provided pursuant to Section 13(a) of the Exchange Act.

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On December 31, 2018, Penns Woods Bancorp, Inc. (the Corporation) and Brian L. Knepp, President of the Corporation, entered into a new employment agreement, which replaces Mr. Knepp's existing employment agreement, dated October 30, 2017, which prior agreement had an initial term ending December 31, 2018 with automatic annual renewals thereafter absent notice of nonrenewal by either party. The new employment agreement has an initial three-year term ending December 31, 2021 with automatic annual renewals thereafter absent notice of nonrenewal by either party.

Under the new agreement, Mr. Knepp will receive an annual base salary of $200,000, subject to discretionary increases by the Corporation. Mr. Knepp is also entitled to participate in any employee benefit and incentive compensation plans and arrangements available to employees and executive officers of the Corporation. Mr. Knepp will also be provided with use of an automobile during the employment period under the agreement.

The agreement may be terminated for specified events of cause, in which case the parties' obligations under the agreement will cease. If the agreement is terminated without cause and there has not been a change-in-control (as defined in the agreement), then the Corporation will continue to pay Mr. Knepp's then current annual base salary for the greater of six months or the number of months remaining in the term of his employment agreement and provide Mr. Knepp, at no cost to him, with continuation of health and medical benefits for the period during which he is receiving continued payments of base salary. If, following a change-in-control, the agreement is terminated by the Corporation without cause or Mr. Knepp voluntarily terminates his employment for specified events of good reason, the Corporation will pay Mr. Knepp, in cash, within 30 days of termination, an aggregate amount equal to two times the sum of Mr. Knepp's then base salary and the average of his bonus amounts over the prior three years. If during the term of the agreement, Mr. Knepp voluntarily terminates employment, retires, dies, or becomes disabled, the obligations of the parties under the agreement will cease, unless Mr. Knepp dies or becomes disabled after providing notice of termination for good reason following a change in control, in which case, Mr. Knepp, or his estate, as the case may be, will be entitled to the amounts described above.

The agreement provides for the reduction of any change in control payments to Mr. Knepp to the extent necessary to ensure that he will not receive excess parachute payments under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code, which would result in the imposition of an excise tax to him and a loss of deduction to the Corporation.

The agreement contains noncompete covenants which generally prohibit Mr. Knepp from engaging in banking activities within twenty-five miles of 300 Market Street, Williamsport, Pennsylvania. These covenants generally extend for a period of one year after Mr. Knepp's termination of employment unless his employment terminates as a result of a delivery of a notice of nonrenewal by the Corporation, in which case these covenants end on the date the agreement terminates.

A copy of the employment agreement for Mr. Knepp is attached hereto as Exhibits 10(i), and is incorporated herein by reference.
