Any statement contained in a document incorporated or deemed to be incorporated by reference herein shall be deemed to be modified or superseded for purposes of this registration statement to the extent that a statement contained in any subsequently filed document, which is also deemed to be incorporated by reference herein, modifies or supersedes such statement.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Set forth below is a description of certain provisions of the 2013 Amended and Restated Bylaws of the Company. This description is intended only as a summary and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the 2013 Amended and Restated Bylaws and applicable law.

Arizona Revised Statutes Section 10-851 provides that a corporation may indemnify a director against liability in a proceeding if he or she acted in good faith and in the case of conduct in an official capacity, he or she reasonably believed that the conduct was in the best interests of the corporation and, in all other cases, he or she reasonably believed that the conduct was at least not opposed to its best interest and in the case of any criminal proceedings, he or she had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful. Arizona law prohibits a corporation from indemnifying a director either (1) in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation in which the director was adjudged liable to the corporation, or (2) in connection with any other proceeding charging improper personal benefit to the director, whether or not involving action in the director’s official capacity, in which the director was adjudged liable on the basis that a personal benefit was improperly received by the director.

The Company's Second Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation provide that incorporators and existing and former directors shall be indemnified and held harmless to the fullest extent not prohibited by law, as it now exists or may hereafter be amended

The Company's Second Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation also provide that directors shall not be personally liable to the Company or its shareholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a directors, except as other provided by law, for: (i) any breach of a director's duty of loyalty to the Company or its shareholders; (ii) actions or omissions which are not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; (iii) authorizing the unlawful payment of a dividend or other distribution of the Company's common capital stock or the unlawful purchase of its capital stock; (iv) any transaction from which the director received an improper personal benefit; or (v) any violation of Section 10-041 of the Arizona Revised Statutes. The indemnification rights provided in the Second Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation are not exclusive.

Under Section 7.1 of the Company's 2013 Amended and Restated Bylaws, the Company shall indemnify and save harmless all of its existing and former directors from and against all expenses incurred by them, including, but not limited to, legal fees, judgments, penalties and amounts paid in settlement or compromise, to the fullest extent permitted by law, as it now exists or may hereafter be amended. Indemnification under Section 7.1 is not available if it is established that: (i) the act or omission of the indemnified party was committed in bad faith; (ii) the indemnified party did not believe such act or omission to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Company; (iii) in the case of any criminal proceeding, the indemnified party had reasonable cause to believe that the act or omission was unlawful; or (iv) the indemnified party is adjudged to be liable to the Company unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines that such person is entitled to indemnity. Under Section 7.2, the Board of Directors determines whether indemnification is available under Section 7.1. Under Section 7.3, the Board of Directors may authorize the Corporation to indemnify directors, officers, or employees to the fullest extent permitted by law. Section 7.1 permits the Company to make advances for expenses as permitted by Arizona law. The indemnification rights provided in the 2013 Amended and Restated Bylaws are not exclusive. Section 7.4 provides that officers of the Company shall have the same rights to indemnity as a director of the Company.

The Company has entered into agreements to provide indemnification for its directors (including actions in their capacity as officers), in addition to the indemnification provided for in the Company's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. These agreements, among other things, indemnify the Company's directors to the fullest extent permitted by law for certain expenses, (including attorneys' fees, judgments, fines and settlement agreement obligations) incurred by indemnitee in any action or proceeding. The Company's indemnity obligation covers any proceedings brought in the right of the Company, on account of services rendered as a director or officer of the Company, or rendered to any subsidiary of the Company, or as the director or officer of any other company or enterprise to which the person provides services at the request of the Company. Amounts paid in indemnification are subject to reimbursement by a director if it is determined that indemnification is not permitted. Under the agreements, the Company must also advance the costs and expenses of directors seeking to enforce their rights under the indemnification agreements, and must cover directors under the Company's director's or officer's liability insurance, to the extent such coverage is available on reasonable terms. Although the indemnification agreements offer substantially the same scope of coverage as is afforded by the Company's Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws, the indemnification agreements provide greater assurance to directors that indemnification will be available because, as a contract, the indemnification agreement cannot be modified unilaterally by the Board of Directors or by shareholders. The Company provides directors and officers liability insurance for claims up to $30,000,000.

Item 8. Exhibits.

For a list of exhibits, see the Exhibit Index in this Registration Statement, which information is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9. Undertakings.

(a) The Company hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this registration statement or any material change to such information in this registration statement;

provided, however, that (A) paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the registration statement is on Form S-8, and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. 78m or 78o(d)) that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement; and

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned Company hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in this registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question as to whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
