On June 15, 2002, Arthur Andersen LLP ("Arthur Andersen"), Bank One Corporation's former independent public accountants, was convicted of federal obstruction of justice. Bank One decided to no longer engage Arthur Andersen as its principal accountants in 2001 and selected KPMG LLP to serve as its independent public accountants for fiscal 2001. Arthur Andersen audited Bank One's financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1999 and December 31, 2000. As a result, you may have no effective remedy against Arthur Andersen in connection with a material misstatement or omission in those financial statements, particularly in the event that Arthur Andersen ceases to exist or becomes insolvent as a result of the conviction or other proceedings against it.

The SEC has provided regulatory relief pursuant to Rule 437a under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), that is designed to allow companies that file reports with the SEC to dispense with the requirement to file a consent of Arthur Andersen in certain circumstances. We were unable to obtain, after reasonable efforts, the written consent of Arthur Andersen to our naming it as an expert and as having audited our financial statements incorporated by reference into this prospectus. Because Arthur Andersen has not provided its consent, you may not be able to recover against Arthur Andersen under Section 11 of the Securities Act for any untrue statement of a material fact contained in the financial statements audited by Arthur Andersen or any omissions to state a material fact required to be stated in those financial statements.
