PROXY STATEMENT OF SBR, INC.

PROSPECTUS OF FORTUNE BRANDS, INC.

A Merger Proposal Your Vote is Important

[•] [•], 2006

To all SBR, Inc. Stockholders:

The boards of directors of both Fortune Brands, Inc. and SBR, Inc. have unanimously approved a merger whereby Fortune Brands will acquire SBR. In the merger, each share of SBR common stock and each option for, or right to purchase, a share of SBR common stock (sometimes referred to collectively herein as fully-diluted SBR shares) will be converted into the right to receive (1) shares of Fortune Brands common stock, (2) cash, or (3) in the event of an undersubscription or oversubscription for Fortune Brands common stock, a combination of cash and shares of Fortune Brands common stock, in each case based on the final merger consideration calculated as of the effective time of the merger pursuant to a formula set forth in the merger agreement. Each holder of fully-diluted SBR shares (sometimes referred to herein as fully-diluted SBR stockholders) may elect to receive all cash, all Fortune Brands common stock, or a combination of cash and Fortune Brands common stock. The stock and cash consideration to be received in the merger may be pro-rated as discussed in the attached proxy statement/prospectus.

Your election form setting forth the allocation of cash and/or Fortune Brands common stock you elect to receive for your fully-diluted SBR shares must be properly completed, signed and actually received no later than 5:00 p.m., [•] time, on [•][•], 2006. If the election form is not received by the election deadline, you will receive the type of consideration received for cash election shares. In order to receive your pro rata share of the merger consideration, your letter of transmittal should be properly completed and signed and accompanied by certificates representing all SBR common stock, endorsed in blank or otherwise in a form acceptable for transfer on SBR's books.

Fortune Brands common stock is quoted on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol FO. On February 9, 2006, the day immediately prior to the announcement of the merger agreement, the closing price of Fortune Brands common stock was $78.58 per share.

Fortune Brands will not acquire Woodcraft Supply Corp., Woodcraft Franchise Corporation and Dovetail Media, Inc. (the Woodcraft entities) in the merger and the merger agreement requires SBR to dispose of the Woodcraft entities prior to the merger. The SBR board of directors has approved the sale or transfer of the Woodcraft entities to Samuel B. Ross, II, or his designee, for $10,948,000. Mr. Ross is the largest stockholder of SBR and also serves as Chief Executive Officer and a director.

SBR's board of directors recommends a vote FOR approval of the merger and adoption of the merger agreement. The merger requires approval by holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding SBR Class A common stock and Class B common stock, voting as separate classes, entitled to vote at the special meeting. SBR stockholders holding approximately 67% of SBR's outstanding Class A common stock and approximately 33% of SBR's outstanding Class B common stock have agreed to vote their stock in favor of adoption of the merger agreement. Each director of SBR is also a stockholder of SBR and, as a result, will receive direct benefits from the consummation of the merger in his or her capacity as stockholder.

Holders of SBR's Class B common stock are only entitled to vote on the proposal to approve the merger and adopt the merger agreement and are not entitled to vote on any other matters that properly come before the special meeting. Holders of SBR options and purchase rights are not entitled to vote at the special meeting, but must properly complete, sign and deliver an election form and a letter of transmittal as discussed above.

Please carefully review all of the accompanying materials, including the risks associated with the merger and owning Fortune Brands stock outlined under Risk Factors beginning on page 13.

Samuel B. Ross, II

Chairman of the Board of SBR, Inc.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission has approved or disapproved of the securities to be issued in the merger or the terms of the merger agreement or passed upon the adequacy or accuracy of this document. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

This proxy statement/prospectus is dated [•] [•], 2006 and is first being mailed to SBR stockholders on or about [•] [•], 2006.

Summary Information

Information About Fortune Brands, Inc. and SBR, Inc.

Fortune Brands, Inc.

520 Lake Cook Road

Deerfield, Illinois 60015

(847) 484-4400

Fortune Brands is a holding company with subsidiaries engaged in the manufacture, production and sale of home and hardware products, spirits and wine and golf products.

Fortune Brands seeks to grow sales and profits by investing in the growth of its leading consumer brands. Fortune Brands' brand investments include support for marketing, advertising and the development of innovative new products. Fortune Brands also seeks to gain market share by developing and expanding customer relationships. While Fortune Brands' first priority is internal growth, Fortune Brands adds to that growth with high-return acquisitions and joint ventures that position its businesses for even stronger growth and higher returns.

Fortune Brands is a reporting company with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), and its common stock trades on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol "FO".

Recent Developments

On April 21, 2005, Fortune Brands announced that it will be acquiring various spirits and wine brands and related assets and liabilities owned by subsidiaries of Goal Acquisitions Limited, a Pernod Ricard S.A. subsidiary that recently acquired all of the shares of Allied Domecq PLC. These include the following (the "Purchased Assets"):

Edgar Filing: FORTUNE BRANDS INC - Form S-4/A

Sauza tequila;

Courvoisier cognac;

Canadian Club whisky;

Maker s Mark bourbon;

Clos du Bois wines and other premium Sonoma and Napa wines;

Laphroaig single malt Scotch whisky;

Teacher s Scotch whisky;

Cockburn s port;

Harveys sherries;

Table of Contents

DYC whisky;

Fundador brandy;

Centenario brandy;

Kuemmerling bitters; and distribution businesses in the United Kingdom, Spain and Germany.

Fortune Brands completed the legal transfers of Courvoisier (July 27, 2005), Maker's Mark (October 28, 2005) and part of the U.S. wines business of Allied Domecq, including Clos du Bois wines and other premium Sonoma and Napa wines (November 16, 2005). The legal transfer of the other Purchased Assets from Pernod Ricard S.A. to Fortune Brands was substantially completed on January 27, 2006.

In addition, on September 8, 2005, Fortune Brands acquired the Larios business, primarily gin, directly from Pernod Ricard S.A.

The Purchased Assets and the Larios business were acquired with proceeds from loans (approximately $4.9 billion) under bank credit facilities Fortune Brands obtained for this purpose. The bank loans for the Purchased Assets were repaid by Fortune Brands during the period from July 27, 2005 through and including July 29, 2005 through the issuance of commercial paper.

On August 16, 2005, Fortune Brands completed the spin-off of its ACCO World Corporation business (ACCO) by means of the pro-rata distribution of all outstanding shares of ACCO common stock held by Fortune Brands to holders of Fortune Brands' common stock. ACCO thereafter became an independent, separately traded, publicly held company.

On January 12, 2006, Fortune Brands issued U.S. $2,000,000,000 aggregate principal amount of senior unsecured notes due 2011 (U.S. $750,000,000), 2016 (U.S. $950,000,000) and 2036 (U.S. $300,000,000) (the U.S. Notes). The U.S. Notes were sold in an offer registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act). The net proceeds of the sale of the U.S. Notes were used to repay commercial paper issued to refinance a portion of the bank loans referred to above. The U.S. Notes rank pari passu with all other direct, unsecured and unsubordinated obligations (except those obligations preferred by statute or operation of law) of Fortune Brands.

On February 1, 2006, Fortune Brands issued 300 million aggregate principal amount of 3.50% notes due 2009 (the 2009 Notes) and 500 million aggregate principal amount of 4.00% notes due 2013 (the 2013 Notes). The 2009 Notes and 2013 Notes (collectively, the Notes) were issued and sold in transactions outside the United States, exempt from registration under Regulation S of the Securities Act. The net proceeds of the sale of the Notes were used to repay a portion of the commercial paper referred to above and the bank loan from the Larios transaction. The Notes are general, direct, unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of Fortune Brands, and rank pari passu with all other direct, unsecured and unsubordinated obligations (except those obligations preferred by statute or operation of law) of Fortune Brands.

The Merger (Page 28)

Fortune Brands will acquire SBR by merging Brightstar Acquisition, LLC, a wholly-owned direct subsidiary of Fortune Brands, with and into SBR, with SBR continuing as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Fortune Brands. In the merger, each share of SBR common stock outstanding immediately before the merger will be exchanged for cash, Fortune Brands common stock or a combination thereof, provided that shares as to which appraisal rights have been properly asserted will be treated in accordance with the applicable provisions of West Virginia law. Subsequent to the closing of the merger, SBR will merge with and into a limited liability company which is a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of Fortune Brands. The merger agreement is attached to this document as Annex A. We encourage you to read the merger agreement carefully.

The Related Mergers (Page 51)

In connection with the proposed merger, Fortune Brands will acquire part of its interest in SBR through the merger of wholly-owned direct subsidiaries of Fortune Brands with and into S. Byrl Ross Enterprises, Inc. (SB Ross) and Tres Investment Company (Tres). SB Ross and Tres own 954,419 and 240,000 shares of class A common stock of SBR, respectively. The shareholders of SB Ross and Tres will receive through the related mergers their pro-rata share of the considerations SB Ross and Tres will receive in the proposed merger.

Edgar Filing: FORTUNE BRANDS INC - Form S-4/A

The SBR special meeting will be held at [•] a.m., [•] time, on [•] [•], 2006, at [•]. If you were a SBR stockholder that owned shares of SBR Class A or Class B common stock as of the close of business ([•] p.m., [•] time) on [•],[•], 2006, the record date, you are entitled to vote, in person or by proxy, at the SBR special meeting. The only items of business are consideration of the proposal to approve the merger and adopt the merger agreement, and, if necessary, a proposal to adjourn the meeting to solicit additional proxies.

Approval of the Merger Agreement (Page 20)

Approval of the merger and adoption of the merger agreement requires approval by holders of a majority of SBR s issued and outstanding Class A common stock and Class B common stock, voting as separate classes, entitled to vote at the special meeting. On [●][●], 2006, SBR's directors and executive officers beneficially owned 4,483,379 shares of SBR Class A common stock and 284,922 shares of SBR Class B common stock, which are entitled to be voted at the meeting. Those shares constitute approximately 84% of the total shares of SBR Class A common stock and approximately 34% of the total shares of SBR Class B common stock outstanding and entitled to vote.

Table of Contents

Voting Agreements (Page 46)

Certain of SBR's directors, executive officers and principal shareholders have entered into voting agreements with Fortune Brands in connection with the merger. Under the terms of the voting agreements, each such person has agreed to vote, and granted to Fortune Brands a proxy to vote, the SBR shares offered thereby in favor of approval of the merger, adoption of the merger agreement and any actions required in furtherance of the merger by the SBR stockholder and against any action that would reasonably be expected to adversely affect or delay the merger. The aggregate SBR shares owned by these persons represents approximately 67% of SBR's outstanding Class A common stock and approximately 33% of SBR's outstanding Class B common stock. In the event the merger agreement is terminated, Fortune Brands has the right, but not the obligation, to acquire the shares subject to the voting agreements. As a result, regardless of the completion of the merger, Fortune Brands has the power to acquire voting and economic control of SBR.

Recommendation of SBR Board of Directors (Page 21)

After careful consideration, the SBR board of directors unanimously recommends that SBR stockholders vote to approve the merger and adopt the merger agreement. Each director of SBR is also a stockholder of SBR and, as a result, will receive direct benefits from the consummation of the merger in his or her capacity as stockholder. For a more complete description of the recommendation of the SBR board of directors, see the sections entitled "The Merger," "SBR's Reasons for the Merger," "Recommendation of Board of Directors" beginning on page 21.

Appraisal Rights of SBR Stockholders (Page 64)

Under West Virginia law, a SBR stockholder will be entitled to seek appraisal for, and obtain payment of the fair value of, such stockholder's shares of SBR common stock if the merger is consummated. For this purpose, the fair value of SBR common stock will be the value of such stock immediately before the completion of the merger, without discount for lack of marketability or minority status. A SBR stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights may not challenge the merger, unless the merger was not effectuated in accordance with applicable statutory provisions regarding mergers or SBR's articles of incorporation, bylaws or authorizing resolution or was otherwise procured by fraud or misrepresentation. These procedures are described more fully later in this document under the heading "Appraisal Rights Under West Virginia Law" beginning on page 64. A copy of the relevant portions of West Virginia law is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Material Federal Income Tax Consequences (Page 51)

The merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of section 368 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Accordingly, no gain or loss will be recognized by a SBR stockholder who exchanges SBR stock solely for Fortune Brands stock in the merger. A SBR stockholder who receives cash will generally recognize gain on the exchange. Subject to certain exceptions, any gain recognized will generally be capital gain. Tax matters are very complicated and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend upon your particular facts and circumstances. You should consult your tax advisor for a full understanding of all of the federal, state, local and foreign income and other tax consequences of the merger.

Table of Contents

Accounting Treatment (Page 30)

The merger will be accounted for under the purchase method of accounting, as such term is used under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Regulatory Clearances and Approvals (Page 32)

The completion of the merger is subject to the expiration or termination of any applicable waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended. See "The Merger Regulatory Clearances and Approvals" on page 30.

Interests of SBR Officers and Directors (Page 32)

Certain members of SBR's management have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, their interests as SBR stockholders. These interests arise out of employment arrangements with certain officers of SBR which take effect upon consummation of the merger, the sale of the Woodcraft entities, the real estate disposition and provisions in the merger agreement relating to indemnification for all former directors and officers of SBR. See "Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger" beginning on page 22.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

Q: Why is SBR proposing the merger?

A: The board of directors of SBR believes the merger is in the best interests of the company and its shareholders. As a Fortune Brands subsidiary, SBR will enjoy many benefits and opportunities, including a broader customer base for the marketing of its products and the benefit of synergies between their product lines. In addition, as SBR's common stock is not publicly traded and no established market exists, SBR stockholders who receive Fortune Brands stock will have a more liquid investment as the Fortune Brands stock is publicly traded on the New York Stock Exchange. The board also believes that the terms of the merger are fair and equitable. Overall, SBR's board of directors believes that combining with Fortune Brands will create a more focused company that will provide significant benefits and opportunities to SBR's stockholders, employees and customers.

To review SBR's reasons for the merger in greater detail, see the section entitled "The Merger - SBR's Reasons for the Merger" beginning on page 30.

Q: What will SBR stockholders receive in the merger?

A: Under the merger agreement, SBR stockholders may elect to receive for each share of SBR common stock either:

cash, or

Fortune Brands common stock.

All elections are subject to the election and allocation procedures described in this proxy statement/prospectus. However, not less than 60% nor more than 85% of the total consideration in the mergers may be in the form of Fortune Brands common stock. As a result, if too many holders of fully-diluted SBR share and SB Ross and Tres shareholders elect one form of consideration over the other, you may not receive the exact merger consideration that you elect. See "The Merger Agreement - Merger Consideration Adjustment" beginning on page 35 for a more detailed discussion of allocation procedures under the merger agreement.

Q: What is the merger consideration?

A: The aggregate merger consideration is $630 million but shall be adjusted on a dollar-for-dollar basis for the following:

reduced by the net outstanding indebtedness for borrowed money of SBR as of the close of business on the date prior to closing (such aggregate indebtedness was approximately $86,293,000 as of January 31, 2006), reduced by unpaid transaction costs incurred by SBR in connection with the merger (such aggregate costs were approximately $150,000 as of January 31, 2006), increased by cash held by SBR as of the close of business on the date prior to closing (such aggregate cash was approximately $18,074,000 as of January 31, 2006), and increased by the aggregate exercise price of all outstanding SBR purchase rights and unpaid subscription amounts (such aggregate amounts were approximately $480,000 as of January 31, 2006).

The dollar values of the adjustments to the aggregate merger consideration as of January 31, 2006 referenced above take into account the Woodcraft Disposition and the Real Estate Disposition discussed on pages 23 and 24 as if such transactions took place on January 31, 2006.

Table of Contents

At the effective time of the merger, Fortune Brands will deposit $15 million of the merger consideration with an escrow agent pursuant to an escrow agreement. Such withheld amount will be placed into two separate escrow accounts consisting of $5 million and $10 million, respectively. The $5 million escrow will be used to pay Fortune Brands in the event SBR's estimated calculations of net indebtedness, cash and transaction costs were inaccurate at the closing of the merger. To the extent any amounts are available to be disbursed from such escrow account, such disbursement will likely occur 15 to 80 days after the merger. The $10 million escrow will be used to indemnify Fortune Brands for any breaches of the representations, warranties or covenants of SBR in the merger agreement. To the extent any amounts are available to be disbursed from such account, such disbursement will occur after the 18 month anniversary of the merger. The escrow agent will not pay to SBR stockholders that portion of the merger consideration to be deposited into the escrow accounts until such time as such amounts are distributable pursuant to the escrow agreement. See The Merger Agreement Adjustment Holdback Escrow beginning on page 36 and Indemnity Escrow beginning on page 37 for a more detailed discussion of the adjustment holdback and indemnity escrows under the merger agreement. Each fully-diluted SBR stockholder shall be entitled to such stockholder's pro rata share of any cash amounts released from the escrows if and when released in accordance with the escrow agreement.

Q: What is the amount of cash or the number of shares of Fortune Brands common stock that I will receive?

A: The actual amount of cash or number of shares of Fortune Brands common stock that you will receive for each of your SBR shares will not be determined until the effective time of the merger. At the effective time, each fully-diluted SBR stockholder will be entitled to convert such stockholder's fully-diluted SBR shares into such stockholder's pro rata share of the aggregate merger consideration. For each fully-diluted SBR share for which a fully-diluted SBR stockholder makes a cash election or no election, the fully-diluted SBR stockholder will be entitled to receive an amount in cash equal to (i) the aggregate merger consideration minus the escrow amount divided by (ii) the total number of fully-diluted SBR shares outstanding as of the closing date. As of the date hereof, there are 6,440,439 fully-diluted SBR shares outstanding. Accordingly, if the aggregate merger consideration (after the price adjustments described above) is $562 million, each fully-diluted SBR stockholder would receive $84.93 per share of SBR common stock if the merger was consummated on the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. This represents the result of $562 million minus $15 million divided by 6,440,493. This cash amount is referred to herein as the per share cash consideration. However, this calculation of net consideration is for example purposes only and will be different when calculated at the time of the merger.

For each fully-diluted SBR share for which a fully-diluted SBR stockholder makes a stock election, the fully-diluted SBR stockholder will be entitled to receive the number of shares of Fortune Brands common stock equal to the per share cash consideration divided by a negotiated assumed value of $82 for each share of Fortune Brands common stock. This stock amount is referred to herein as the per share stock consideration.

As discussed above, such elections are subject to adjustments for oversubscription and undersubscription of Fortune Brands common stock. In addition, each fully-diluted SBR stockholder shall be entitled to such stockholder's pro rata share of any cash amounts released from the escrow in accordance with the escrow agreement. See The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration beginning on page 34 and Merger Consideration Adjustment beginning on page 35 for a more detailed discussion of the merger consideration under the merger agreement.

Q: When do I make my election to receive cash or stock for each share of SBR common stock?

A: Enclosed with this proxy statement/prospectus is an election form that you may use to indicate your preference for cash or Fortune Brands common stock for each fully-diluted SBR share that you own. The deadline for returning your election form is [●][●], 2006. The election form should be returned to SBR in the enclosed envelope.

Q: Am I guaranteed receipt of the merger consideration that I elect?

A: No. Because Fortune Brands will issue no more than 85% and no less than 60% of the consideration in the mergers, not including the escrowed amounts, in shares of Fortune Brands common stock, it is possible that you will receive a portion of your consideration in the form you did not elect. You will not know for certain your final cash/Fortune Brands stock allocation until the closing of the merger.

Q: What if I do not return the election form or fail to make an election?

A: You will be deemed to have elected to receive all cash for any fully-diluted SBR shares owned by you.

Q: May I change or revoke my election?

A: Yes. Generally, to change or revoke your election you must submit written notice to the exchange agent prior to the election deadline on [●][●], 2006.

Q: Should I send in my SBR stock certificates now?

A: Accompanying this proxy statement/prospectus is a letter of transmittal. Please forward the properly completed letter of transmittal along with your SBR stock certificates to the address indicated on such letter of transmittal. If the merger is not completed for any reason, your SBR stock certificate will be returned to you.

As soon as practicable following the closing of the merger, the exchange agent will deliver or forward to former SBR shareholders who have properly submitted the letter of transmittal and SBR stock certificates either cash or certificates representing shares of Fortune Brands common stock, adjusted and determined as provided in the merger agreement.

Q: When do you expect to complete the merger?

A: Fortune Brands and SBR are working to complete the merger as quickly as practicable, and expect to complete the merger in the second quarter of 2006. The merger, however, is subject to several conditions, including, among others, stockholder and federal and state regulatory approvals. Assuming all other conditions to closing have been satisfied or waived, we anticipate that the merger will be completed within twenty days following approval by the SBR stockholders. However, we cannot predict the exact timing for completing the merger.

Q: What are the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger on SBR stockholders?

A: The merger is intended to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of section 368 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Accordingly, no gain or loss will be recognized by a SBR stockholder who exchanges SBR stock solely for Fortune Brands stock in the merger. A SBR stockholder who receives cash will generally recognize gain on the exchange. Subject to certain exceptions, any gain recognized will generally be capital gain.

Edgar Filing: FORTUNE BRANDS INC - Form S-4/A

The material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger are described in more detail in the section entitled "Material Federal Income Tax Consequences" on page 54. The tax consequences of the merger to you will depend upon your particular facts and circumstances. You should consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the federal, state, local and foreign income and other tax consequences of the merger.

Table of Contents

Q: Are Fortune Brands stockholders also required to approve the merger?

A: Fortune Brands has determined that the approval of its stockholders is not necessary in connection with the merger.

Q. How will the sale of the Woodcraft entities and the real estate disposition to Samuel B. Ross, II (or designees thereof) prior to the effective time of the merger benefit the fully-diluted SBR stockholders?

A. The merger agreement requires that those assets be disposed of prior to the merger. In the event the transactions with Samuel B. Ross, II or his designee are not consummated, there can be no assurance that the merger will be consummated. The sale of the Woodcraft entities for $10,948,000 and the real estate disposition for $455,000 will result in additional value to the fully-diluted stockholders of SBR of approximately $1.70 per fully-diluted SBR share. For a more complete description of the sale of the Woodcraft entities and the real estate disposition and the rationale associated therewith, see the sections entitled "Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger - SBR - Woodcraft Disposition; Real Estate Disposition" on page 23.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS ABOUT THE SPECIAL MEETING

Q: What is the purpose of this proxy statement/prospectus?

A: This document serves as a proxy statement for SBR and a prospectus for Fortune Brands, which is issuing common stock in the proposed merger and related mergers. As a proxy statement, it is being provided to you because the board of directors of SBR is soliciting your proxy to vote to approve the merger and adopt the merger agreement at the SBR stockholder meeting. As a prospectus, it is being provided to you by Fortune Brands because fully-diluted SBR stockholders, SB Ross shareholders, and Tres shareholders are being offered shares of Fortune Brands common stock as consideration in the proposed merger and related mergers.

Q: What do I need to know?

A: Carefully read and consider the information contained in this document. There are several ways your shares can be represented at the SBR special meeting. You can attend the SBR special meeting in person or you can indicate on the enclosed proxy card how you want to vote and then sign and mail the proxy card in the enclosed return envelope as soon as possible.

Your vote is important regardless of the number of shares of SBR common stock that you own.

Q: How do I vote?

A: To vote, please indicate on the enclosed proxy card how you want to vote and then sign, date, and return your proxy card in the enclosed postage-paid envelope as soon as possible so that your shares will be represented at the special meeting.

Q: What if SBR stockholders do not vote?

A: Failure by a SBR stockholder to either vote at the SBR special meeting or return a proxy will result in such stockholder's shares of SBR common stock not being counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum at the SBR special meeting, and determining whether SBR has received the votes required to approve the merger and adopt the merger agreement.

If you are a SBR stockholder and return your proxy signed but do not indicate how you want to vote, your proxy will be counted as a vote FOR approval of the merger and adoption of the merger agreement.

If you are a SBR stockholder and do not return your proxy or abstain from voting, it will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST approval of the merger and adoption of the merger agreement.

Q: Can I change my vote after I have delivered my proxy?

A: Yes. You may change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the special meeting. If your shares of SBR common stock are held in your own name, you may change your vote as follows:

You may send a written notice stating that you would like to revoke your proxy and provide new instructions on how to vote;

Edgar Filing: FORTUNE BRANDS INC - Form S-4/A

You may complete and submit a new proxy card; or

You may attend the meeting and vote in person.

If you choose either the first or second method above, you must submit your notice of revocation or your new proxy card prior to the special meeting. If your shares are held in street name by a broker and you have instructed the broker to vote your shares, you must follow instructions received from your broker to change your vote, or to vote in person at the meeting instead.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: We encourage you to read this proxy statement/prospectus in its entirety. Important information is presented in greater detail elsewhere in this document and in its annexes. RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information that we have incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus, you should carefully consider and evaluate the risk factors listed below. Any of these risks could materially and adversely affect Fortune Brands' business, financial condition and results of operations, which in turn could negatively affect the price of Fortune Brands common stock.

Risks Relating to the Mergers

Because the aggregate indebtedness and cash of SBR will fluctuate prior to the effective time of the merger, fully-diluted SBR stockholders and SB Ross and Tres stockholders cannot be sure of the value of the merger consideration they will receive.

The aggregate merger consideration to be received by fully-diluted SBR stockholders (not including SB Ross and Tres) and SB Ross and Tres stockholders is equal to $630,000,000, subject to (i) reduction for outstanding indebtedness of, and expenses incurred in connection with the merger by, SBR and (ii) increase for cash on hand and the aggregate exercise price and unpaid subscription amounts of SBR purchase rights, in each case calculated as of the effective time of the merger. As a result, the aggregate merger consideration to be received by fully-diluted SBR stockholders (not including SB Ross and Tres) and SB Ross and Tres stockholders, whether in the form of Fortune Brands common stock or in cash, will not be ascertainable until the effective time of the merger. Because the effective time of the merger will be later than the date of the special meeting, at the time of the special meeting you will not know the exact value of the merger consideration that you will receive upon completion of the merger.

Because the market price of Fortune Brands common stock will fluctuate, fully-diluted SBR stockholders and SB Ross and Tres stockholders cannot be sure of the value of the Fortune Brands common stock they will receive in the merger.

Prior to completion of the merger, each fully-diluted SBR stockholder and each SB Ross and Tres stockholder will have the right to elect to receive their share of the merger consideration in either shares of common stock of Fortune Brands or cash, in each case based on the final merger consideration calculated as of the effective time of the merger pursuant to a formula set forth in the merger agreement. The number of Fortune Brands shares to be issued is based on a negotiated assumed Fortune Brands share price of $82. At the time of the merger, the actual price of Fortune Brands common stock on the NYSE may be higher or lower than the assumed price. Therefore, changes in the price of Fortune Brands common stock prior to the merger may affect the implied value of the merger consideration that fully-diluted SBR stockholders and SB Ross and Tres stockholders will receive on the date of the mergers. Stock price changes may result from a variety of factors, including general market and economic conditions and changes in Fortune Brands' businesses and operations. Many of these factors are beyond Fortune Brands control. Because the date that the mergers are completed will be later than the date of the SBR special meeting, at the time of your meeting you will not know the exact value of the Fortune Brands common stock that you will receive upon completion of the merger.

Fortune Brands may fail to realize the anticipated benefits from the merger.

The success of the merger will depend, in part, on the ability of Fortune Brands to realize the anticipated synergies, cost savings and growth opportunities from the joint ownership of the businesses of SBR with those of Fortune Brands. Fortune Brands cannot assure you that this joint ownership will result in the realization of the full benefits of the synergies, cost savings and growth opportunities that Fortune Brands and SBR currently expect from this joint ownership or that these benefits will be achieved within the anticipated time frame. If Fortune Brands does not realize synergies and other anticipated benefits as a result of the merger, the value of Fortune Brands common stock may decline.

Table of Contents

SBR stockholders and SB Ross and Tres stockholders may not receive the type of consideration they elect.

While each fully-diluted SBR stockholder (not including SB Ross and Tres) and SB Ross and Tres stockholders may elect to receive cash or Fortune Brands common stock in the merger, the merger agreement contains a requirement that Fortune Brands will issue to fully-diluted SBR stockholders and shareholders of SB Ross and Tres no more than 85% and no less than 60% of the consideration paid by Fortune Brands in the proposed mergers (not including escrowed amounts) in Fortune Brands common stock. If there is an undersubscription for Fortune Brands common stock, fully-diluted SBR stockholders and SB Ross and Tres stockholders who elected cash will receive a combination of cash and Fortune Brands common stock. If there is an oversubscription for Fortune Brands common stock, fully-diluted SBR stockholders and SB Ross and Tres stockholders who elected stock will receive a combination of cash and Fortune Brands common stock.

Holders of SBR Class A common stock will have less influence as a stockholder of Fortune Brands than as a stockholder of SBR.

Holders of shares of SBR Class A common stock currently have the right to vote in the election of the board of directors of SBR and on other matters affecting SBR. The merger will transfer control of SBR to Fortune Brands and to the stockholders of Fortune Brands. When the merger occurs, each holder of shares of SBR Class A common stock will become a stockholder of Fortune Brands with a percentage ownership of Fortune Brands significantly smaller than such stockholder's percentage ownership of SBR. Because of this, holders of shares of SBR Class A common stock will have significantly less influence on the management and policies of Fortune Brands than they now have on the management and policies of SBR.

Risks Relating to Fortune Brands

We operate in highly competitive markets, and an inability to effectively compete in any of our markets could harm our operating results by lowering our sales and revenue.

We compete with large national, international and regional companies on the basis of product quality, price, service and innovation in response to consumer preferences. Our success depends in part on our ability to anticipate and offer products that appeal to the changing needs and preferences of our customers in the various markets we serve. If we are not able to anticipate, identify, develop and market products that respond to changes in customer preferences, demand for our products could decline which could result in lower sales and revenue. While the competitive importance of product quality, price, service and innovation varies from product to product, price is a factor, and we experience pricing pressures from competitors in our markets.

Continued consolidation of our trade customers and increased competition in the home and hardware industry could negatively impact our margins and our profitability.

There has been consolidation of our trade customers and increased competition in the home and hardware industry. Consolidation increases the size and importance of individual customers, and these larger customers can make significant changes in their volume of purchases, require price reductions and even become competitors for some products. As a result of these factors, further consolidation could negatively impact our margins and profitability, particularly if we were to lose a significant customer.

Our financial results and demand for our products are dependent on consumer preferences and the successful development of new products and processes.

Our success depends on anticipating changes in consumer preferences and on successful new product and process development and product relaunches in response to such changes. Consumer preferences for our products shift due to a variety of factors that affect discretionary spending, including changes in demographic and social trends, changes in travel, vacation or leisure activity patterns and a downturn in general economic conditions. In addition, concerns about health effects due to negative publicity regarding alcohol consumption, negative dietary effects or regulatory actions against the spirits industry may also have an adverse effect on the profitability of our spirits business. Any of these factors could reduce the willingness of consumers to purchase our products.

A substantial portion of the revenues generated by our golf and home and hardware products are generated by new models and designs. We aim to introduce products or new or improved production processes on a timely basis in order to counteract obsolescence and decreases in sales of existing products. While we devote significant focus to the development of new products and to the research, development and technology process functions of our business, we may not be successful in developing new products or processes or our new products or processes may not be commercially successful. New models or changes in the design of existing products are sometimes rejected by consumers. In addition, successful designs may be rendered obsolete within a short period of time as new products are introduced into the marketplace, and the rapid introduction of new designs or products could result in closeouts of existing inventories. There is no guaranty of the profitable lifespan of new or recently developed products. Our future results and ability to maintain or improve our competitive position will depend on our continued ability to successfully identify, develop, manufacture, market and sell new or improved products in these changing markets.

The inability to secure and maintain rights to intellectual property could inhibit our ability to market and sell existing products and develop and create new products and brands.

We have many patents, trademarks, brand names and trade names that are important to our business. The loss of any major brand or infringement of our intellectual property rights by any party may limit our ability to market and sell existing products and to develop, create and sell new products and brands. We are also subject to risks in this area because existing patent, trade secret and trademark laws offer only limited protection, and the laws of some countries in which our products are or may be developed, manufactured or sold may not fully protect our products. In addition, others may assert intellectual property infringement claims against us or our customers.

We may not be able to effectively integrate the operations of newly-acquired businesses or realize the anticipated benefits of our strategic acquisitions.

We have completed a number of acquisitions in recent years, including more than 25 spirits and wine brands and distribution assets acquired last year from Pernod Ricard S.A. We will continue to consider acquisitions as a means of enhancing shareowner value. Acquisitions, including the acquisition of SBR, involve risks and uncertainties, including:

difficulties integrating the acquired company, retaining the acquired business customers, and achieving the expected benefits of the acquisition, such as revenue increases, cost savings, and increases in geographic or product presence, in the desired time frames, if at all;

loss of key employees from the acquired company; implementing and maintaining consistent standards, controls, procedures, policies and information systems; and diversion of management's attention from other business concerns.

Edgar Filing: FORTUNE BRANDS INC - Form S-4/A

Future acquisitions could cause us to incur additional debt, contingent liabilities, increased interest expense and higher amortization expense related to intangible assets, as well as experience dilution in earnings per share. Impairment losses on goodwill and intangible assets with an indefinite life, or restructuring charges, could also occur as a result of acquisitions.

Various external conditions, including economic, weather and business conditions may result in a decrease in our sales and profitability.

Demand for our products is sensitive to certain external factors, including economic conditions; weather conditions; with respect to the golf business, destination travel and corporate spending; and with respect to home and hardware, mortgage and other interest rates affecting the housing market, as well as the number of new housing starts and existing home sales. The impact of these external factors is difficult to predict, and one or more of these factors could result in a decrease in our sales and profitability.

We sell products internationally, and accordingly our profitability is subject to fluctuations in currency exchange rates, which are beyond our control.

We sell products in the United States, Europe and other areas (principally Canada, Mexico and Australia). While we hedge certain foreign currency transactions, a change in the value of currencies and fluctuations in currency exchange rates may affect our operating performance by negatively impacting revenues outside of the United States when we translate into U.S. dollars for financial reporting purposes the sales conducted in foreign currencies. The exchange rates between some of the foreign currencies in which our subsidiaries operate and the U.S. dollar have fluctuated significantly in recent years and may do so in the future.

We manufacture and source our products internationally and are exposed to risks associated with doing business globally.

We manufacture and source our products in the United States, Europe, Canada, Mexico, China, Thailand and other countries. Accordingly, we are subject to risks associated with changes in political, economic and social environments, local labor conditions, changes in laws, regulations and policies of foreign governments, as well as U.S. laws affecting activities of U.S. companies abroad, including tax laws and enforcement of contract and intellectual property rights. Many of these risks are beyond our control. Exchange rate fluctuations may increase the cost of sourced products and reduce our margins and profitability.

Risks associated with commodity and energy price volatility could increase the costs of production and distribution of our products, which could decrease our margins.

We are a large consumer of certain commodities that we use in the production of our products, including steel, copper, brass, titanium, glass, plastic, resins, wood, particle board, grains and grapes. Accordingly, we are exposed to risks associated with commodity price volatility arising from weather, supply conditions, geopolitical and economic variables, and other unpredictable external factors. The price we pay for these commodities can fluctuate significantly in response to these factors over which we have no control. Volatility in the prices of commodities could result in an increase of our costs to produce our products. In addition, because we use a significant amount of energy in making and distributing our products, our profitability is sensitive to changes in energy prices, and a sudden and sharp increase in the cost of energy would increase our production and distribution costs. Any increase in our costs would adversely affect our margins to the extent we are unable to pass such costs on to our customers.

A continued increase in the costs of certain employee and retiree benefits could negatively impact our results of operations.

Increases in the costs of medical and pension benefits to our business could continue and negatively affect our results of operations as a result of:

Edgar Filing: FORTUNE BRANDS INC - Form S-4/A

continued increases in medical costs related to current and retired employees due to increased usage of medical benefits and medical inflation in the United States;

the effect of any decline in the stock and bond markets on the performance of our pension plan assets;

potential reductions in the discount rate used to determine the present value of our benefit obligations; and changes in law and accounting standards that may increase the funding of, and the expense reflected for, employee benefits.

Table of Contents

Our spirits and wine business relies on the performance of wholesale distributors and other marketing arrangements, and the poor performance of major distributors or other disruptions in our distribution channels could decrease the distribution of, and therefore lower the revenues from, our spirits and wine business.

Our spirits and wine products are sold principally through wholesale distributors for resale to retail outlets. The replacement, poor performance or financial default of a major distributor or one of its major customers or any other unplanned disruption to an existing distribution channel could adversely affect the revenues of our spirits and wine business. A disruption could be caused by the sale of a distributor to a competitor, financial instability of the distributor, or other unforeseen events. Because wholesale sales forces are important to the successful distribution of our spirits and wine products, the occurrence of any of the foregoing risks could significantly affect our distribution capabilities and results of operations. We have not been significantly impacted by the foregoing risks related to our wholesale distributors in the past. However, we believe such risks, if they did occur, could harm our future distribution capabilities and results of operations.

Increased excise taxes on distilled spirits and wine could adversely affect the profitability of our spirits and wine business.

Distilled spirits and wine are subject to excise tax in many countries where we operate. In addition, many states in the U.S. and other jurisdictions are considering possible excise tax increases. Historically, increases in excise taxes on distilled spirits have reduced demand for such products. In the 1980 s, U.S. Federal excise taxes on distilled spirits and wine increased, which caused a decrease in the demand for the affected products. Such decrease lowered our revenues and results of operations for the spirits and wine segment during that time period. Any future excise tax increases in any jurisdiction could have an adverse effect on our sales revenue or margin, both through reducing overall consumption and by encouraging consumers to switch to lower-taxed categories of beverage alcohol.

Changes in golf equipment regulatory standards could negatively impact our golf business sales and limit our ability to develop and market our golf products.

Our ability to develop and market new golf products is limited by rules governing equipment standards set by industry associations, such as restrictions on golf club head size and shaft length, and the overall distance standard for golf balls. It is not clear what effect any change in these rules would have upon the demand for our products. This uncertainty adversely affects our research and development operations which must plan and commit resources years in advance of a new product release. New rules could accordingly restrict our ability to develop new products. In addition, general confusion created by the ruling bodies and limits on new golf technology generally have hurt the sales of our golf products.

There is no assurance that our future products will satisfy the rules and standards of industry associations, or that our existing rules and standards will not be changed in ways that negatively affect the sales of our products. Furthermore, any future rule changes could further impair our ability to differentiate our products from our competitors resulting in reduced sales and profitability.

We may incur potential liabilities and costs from litigation.

Our business is subject to various litigation risks, including with respect to alcohol and to tobacco products made and sold by former operations. Alcohol litigation could be time-consuming and could divert management attention from executing its business plan. We have not been significantly impacted by the foregoing risks related to potential liability from litigation in the past. However, the plaintiffs in alcohol and tobacco litigation have typically requested large damages. The plaintiffs in alcohol litigation typically request remedies that, if granted, could materially harm our spirits and wine businesses. It is not possible to predict the outcome of pending litigation, and, as with any litigation, it is possible that some of the actions could be decided unfavorably. If any of the risks related to any litigation matter were to materialize, the resulting costs could impair results of operations, cash flow and financial condition.

An impairment in the carrying value of goodwill or other acquired intangibles could decrease our earnings and net worth.

The carrying value of goodwill represents the fair value of acquired businesses in excess of identifiable assets and liabilities as of the acquisition date. The carrying value of other intangibles represents the fair value of trademarks, trade names, and other acquired intangibles as of the acquisition date. Goodwill and other acquired intangibles expected to contribute indefinitely to our cash flows are not amortized, but must be evaluated by our management at least annually for impairment. If carrying value exceeds current fair value as determined based on the discounted future cash flows of the related business and brands, the intangible is considered impaired and is reduced to fair value via a charge to earnings. Events and conditions that could result in impairment include changes in the industries in which we operate, as well as competition and advances in technology, a significant product liability or intellectual property claim, or other factors leading to reduction in expected sales or profitability. If the value of goodwill or other acquired intangibles is impaired, our earnings and net worth could decrease.

Historical financial statements may not be reflective of our future financial condition and results of operation due to our recent portfolio realignment or other reasons.

We made significant changes in our business last year, as discussed in Summary Description of Fortune Brands Business Recent Developments, including spinning-off our office products business, buying more than 25 spirits and wine brands and other assets of Allied Domecq PLC and borrowing to finance that acquisition. Although we believe that this proxy statement/prospectus contains all material information that is necessary to make an informed assessment of our assets and liabilities, financial position, profit and losses and prospects, historical financial statements do not necessarily provide all the financial information investors may consider relevant in evaluating our business after these changes or represent what our results of operations or financial position will be for any future periods.

Downgrades of our credit ratings could result in an increase in our cost of capital.

If Moody's, S&P or Fitch were to downgrade our credit rating, such a downgrade could result in loss of access to the commercial paper market and increase our cost of capital. Downgrades of our credit ratings could also affect the value or marketability of our notes.

INTERESTS OF CERTAIN PERSONS IN THE MERGER

Fortune Brands

Certain information regarding stock ownership, biographies, compensation and transactions of Fortune Brands management and executive directors is included in Fortune Brands' annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2005 at Items 10, 11, 12 and 13 and is incorporated herein by reference. See "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 81.

SBR

Voting and Option Agreements. Certain principal stockholders, directors, executive officers, affiliates and certain of their family members who hold approximately 67% of SBR's outstanding Class A common stock and approximately 33% of SBR's outstanding Class B common stock have entered into voting and option agreements (referred to herein as "voting agreements") with Fortune Brands in which they agreed, subject to certain limited exceptions, to vote, and granted to Fortune Brands irrevocable proxies to vote, certain shares of SBR common stock which are beneficially owned by each of them in favor of approval of the merger, adoption of the merger agreement and any action required in furtherance of the merger by the SBR stockholders and against any action that would reasonably be expected to adversely affect or delay the merger. Each such stockholder also granted to Fortune Brands the option to purchase such stockholder's shares of SBR common stock subject to the voting agreements upon termination of the merger agreement. As a result, in the event the merger is not consummated, Fortune Brands has the right, but not the obligation, to acquire economic and voting control of SBR. See "The Merger Agreement Related Agreements Voting and Option Agreements" on page 49 for additional information regarding the voting agreements.

Employment Arrangements. As required by the merger agreement, certain individuals will enter into employment arrangements with SBR prior to the effective time of the merger. The employment arrangements contain confidentiality, proprietary information and non-competition and non-solicitation clauses customary for arrangements of this type. These employment arrangements are to become effective after the consummation of the mergers. To the extent any of these individuals are also stockholders of SBR, each such individual will receive his or her proportionate share of the merger consideration based on the aggregate SBR shares owned by such individual or shares for which such individuals hold options or subscription rights. See "Merger Consideration Payable to SBR's Executive Officers" below. SBR does not believe that the executive officers of SBR party to these employment arrangements will receive amounts or benefits materially different than are currently provided under their existing arrangements. The employment arrangements may provide that the employee is eligible to receive severance payments upon termination of his or her employment by SBR, or its successor, for reason other than cause (as that term may be defined in an employment agreement), death or disability in an amount equal to the employee's continued base salary, insurance and benefits for the period stated in any employment agreement. These payments are contingent upon, and prior to the merger it is SBR's intention to request, the holders of the Class A common stock to approve such payments but only to the extent such approval is necessary to preclude them from being treated as "parachute payments" within the meaning of section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code.

Related Merger Agreements. Fortune Brands has entered into separate merger agreements for the acquisition of each of SB Ross and Tres. SB Ross and Tres own 954,419 and 240,000 shares of Class A common stock, respectively, of SBR. Under the related merger agreements, each of SB Ross and Tres will be merged with and into wholly-owned subsidiaries of Fortune Brands, followed in each case by the merger of the respective surviving corporations with and into limited liability companies which are also wholly-owned subsidiaries of Fortune Brands. Samuel B. Ross II exercises voting and investment control with respect to the outstanding shares of SBR owned by SB Ross and Tres. Execution of the related merger agreements and consummation of the transactions contemplated therein are conditions to the consummation of the SBR merger. See "The Related Mergers" on page 51 for additional information regarding the related merger agreements.

Table of Contents

Option Agreements. Concurrently with the execution of the merger agreement, Fortune Brands entered into option agreements with each stockholder of Tres and each stockholder of SB Ross. Collectively, the stockholders of Tres and SB Ross indirectly own 1,194,419 shares of SBR Class A common stock, which represents approximately 19.2% of SBR's outstanding capital stock and approximately 22.3% of SBR's outstanding Class A common stock. Pursuant to the option agreements, if (1) the SBR merger is not consummated by July 31, 2006 and the merger agreement is terminated due to the parties' failure to consummate the merger by such date or (2) SBR materially breaches the merger agreement or the stockholder materially breaches the option agreement, and Fortune Brands has not materially breached the merger agreement, then such stockholder grants Fortune Brands the option to purchase the shares subject to the option agreement. If Fortune Brands exercises the option due to the parties' failure to consummate the merger by July 31, 2006 or SBR's material breach of the merger agreement or the voting agreement, Fortune Brands must at the time of such exercise, exercise its option to purchase all shares of stock subject to the other option agreements. In the event of the exercise of these options, Fortune Brands will acquire direct ownership of SB Ross and Tres and indirect ownership of SBR shares representing approximately 18.5% of the fully-diluted SBR shares. The option terminates on the earlier of the effective time or sixty days following the termination of the merger agreement due to the parties' failure to consummate the merger by July 31, 2006.

Woodcraft Disposition. As a condition to Fortune Brands' obligations to consummate the merger under the merger agreement, SBR has agreed to, prior to the effective time, effectuate the disposition of the Woodcraft entities, through either (1) a distribution of the Woodcraft entities, (2) one or more forward cash mergers or other transactions treated as a sale of the assets of the Woodcraft entities for federal income tax purposes, or (3) a sale of the Woodcraft entities or a cash reverse subsidiary merger, in each case, on terms and conditions mutually satisfactory to Fortune Brands and SBR. The board of directors of SBR consisting of all directors other than Samuel B. Ross, II and Susan S. Ross has determined that $10,948,000 is reflective of the fair market value of the Woodcraft entities and has approved the sale, transfer or other disposition of the Woodcraft entities to Samuel B. Ross, II or his designee for $10,948,000. The board of directors of SBR made its determination based on economic, market, financial and other conditions as they existed on, and on the information available to them as of, the date of the determination. In reaching this decision, the board of directors of SBR considered the historical performance and the future growth potential of the Woodcraft entities, the standard multiple of earnings paid for similarly situated companies in Woodcraft's industry, the book value of the Woodcraft entities and a valuation based upon discounted cash flow.

Specifically, the board of directors of SBR reached its conclusion primarily based on the following information:

The sale price of the Woodcraft entities reflects a multiple of 8.9 times the average annual operating income of the Woodcraft entities for the prior three years;

The board of directors of SBR expected that revenue would be flat over the next three years, as a decline in catalog revenue was expected to offset internet revenue growth;

The board of directors of SBR believed that the book value of the Woodcraft entities was not indicative of the fair market value of the Woodcraft entities as the board of directors of SBR believes it is more customary for going concerns to be valued on a multiple of earnings; and

The board of directors of SBR expected that revenue from new franchise fees and royalty income would be flat as franchises already existed in most major metropolitan areas.

The board of directors of SBR considered a distribution of the Woodcraft entities to the SBR shareholders, but rejected such distribution due to the likely adverse tax treatment imposed upon SBR stockholders compared to the increase in value which could be achieved through a sale. The sale of the Woodcraft entities for $10,948,000 and the Real Estate Disposition discussed below will result in additional value to the fully-diluted stockholders of approximately $1.70 per fully-diluted SBR share.

Real Estate Disposition. As a condition to Fortune Brands' obligations to consummate the merger under the agreement, SBR has agreed to, prior to the effective time, effectuate the disposition of its real property located at (1) 170 Brighton Ave, Portland, Maine and (2) 42 Main Street, Sanford, Maine, referred to herein as the Real Estate Disposition, on terms and conditions mutually satisfactory to Fortune Brands and SBR. The board of directors of SBR consisting of all directors other than Samuel B. Ross, II and Susan S. Ross has determined that $455,000 is reflective of the fair market value of such real estate and has approved the sale of these properties to Samuel B. Ross, II, or his designee, for the sum of $455,000.

Airplane Lease. SBR currently leases an airplane from Ross Airplane, LLC, a limited liability company owned jointly by Samuel B. Ross, II, and his wife Susan S. Ross. Susan S. Ross is currently a director of SBR. SBR makes monthly rent payments of approximately $102,000 for the lease of the airplane and it is expected that the lease arrangement will continue after the merger until July 2009.

Options. Certain executive officers of SBR hold unvested options to acquire shares of SBR Class A and Class B common stock, which options, like the options held by all other SBR plan participants, will become fully vested by reason of the merger and be converted into the right to receive Fortune Brands stock or cash as a fully-diluted SBR stockholder.

Payment to Option Holders. Certain holders of options on SBR stock may be eligible to receive a cash payment in connection with the exercise of their stock options which are intended to make up the difference between taxes payable with respect to the options at the ordinary income tax rate and the taxes that would have been payable had the capital gains rate applied. Such payments are contingent upon receipt of the approval of the holders of the SBR Class A common stock, prior to the merger, to the extent shareholder approval is necessary to preclude such payments from being treated as parachute payments within the meaning of section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code. Such payments are further subject to the consent and approval of Fortune Brands under the merger agreement. The aggregate amount of such cash payments is expected to be $835,157. Executive officers holding options on SBR common stock and entitled to receive such payments include Gregory Schorr ($109,573), Charlene Crooks ($132,624), John Brunett ($151,353), Rick Keup ($230,430) and Samuel B. Ross, II ($0). Other holders of options may be eligible to receive cash payments totaling $211,177 in the aggregate.

Indemnification of SBR Directors. The merger agreement requires Fortune Brands to maintain in effect, for three (3) years following the merger, the directors' and officers' liability insurance policies currently maintained by SBR (or policies materially similar to such policies); provided that Fortune Brands is not required to spend an amount which is more than 200% of the current annual premiums paid by SBR and its subsidiaries for such insurance.

Merger Consideration Payable to SBR's Executive Officers. As of March 31, 2006, the executive officers of SBR held in the aggregate (a) 3,505,728 shares of Class A and Class B common stock, (b) options to acquire 12,248 shares of SBR Class A common stock, (c) options to acquire 91,843 shares of SBR Class B common stock, and (d) subscriptions to acquire 1,415 shares of SBR Class B common stock. Assuming (i) the impact of the price adjustments set forth on page 34 under Merger Consideration and (ii) 6,440,439 fully-diluted SBR shares outstanding on the date of the proxy statement/prospectus, SBR's executive officers will receive cash or shares of Fortune Brands common stock equal to approximately $304,861,621. Such amount is net of the officers' exercise price to purchase the options held by them and net of the balance of the subscription price for any stock subscribed to by them and does not include any amount which SBR option holders may receive upon consummation of the merger concerning tax effects. See Payment to Option Holders above. Set forth below is the estimated value of the merger consideration to be received by each of the executive officers of SBR. Each of these calculations assumes that the merger consideration in all cases will be $84.93 for each fully-diluted SBR share. Because the aggregate merger consideration and the value of Fortune Brands common stock at the effective time of the merger are not presently known, the true and actual merger consideration to be paid to SBR's executive officers cannot be presently calculated. See The Merger Agreement Merger Consideration.

THE MERGER

Background of the Merger

On an annual basis, SBR's board of directors discussed the market value of SBR and strategic alternatives. During these discussions, the board considered the growth and prospects of the building materials industry generally, the current and future prospects of SBR's products, potential acquirors of SBR's business, contacts initiated by potential acquirors and multiples of earnings being paid by similarly situated companies in the same industry. SBR's Chief Financial Officer also maintained close contact with a number of industry analysts who were active in the building materials industry. As a result, he maintained familiarity with values being paid for companies similarly situated to SBR.

Potential acquirors who confidentially contacted SBR in the past year included:

A national window company. SBR's board of directors rejected this inquiry due to perceived cultural differences, conflict in channels of distribution, the probability that cost synergies would result in significant layoffs of personnel and the lack of any publicly traded stock as merger consideration.

A regional window company. The structure of this inquiry was in the form of a merger where SBR shareholders would retain majority ownership. SBR's board of directors rejected this inquiry because the regional window company was owned by a private equity firm that required shareholder rights disproportional to their proposed minority ownership.

Financial acquirors. Certain financial acquirors by whom SBR was contacted were not deemed strategically or structurally attractive as any such transaction would consist of all cash consideration in a taxable transaction and due to the typical short-term investment horizon of a financial buyer.

In August 2005, SBR's board affirmatively decided to explore a potential sale of SBR. In the course of this deliberation, Fortune Brands was deemed the most attractive and viable acquiror due to:

Fortune Brands' status as a strategic acquiror (rather than a financial buyer);

The viability of a tax-free stock transaction with Fortune Brands and the desirability of ownership of Fortune Brands stock;

The undesirability of public auction which was viewed as disruptive to SBR's business; and Fortune Brands' industry-wide respect and reputation relating to its treatment of employees.

Samuel B. Ross, II, chief executive officer of SBR, and Bruce Carbonari, chief executive officer of Fortune Brands Home and Hardware, became acquainted over the past five years, as the leaders of two fast growing, U.S. home products businesses. During the course of their acquaintance, Mr. Carbonari expressed an interest in exploring a possible acquisition of SBR if it ever became available for sale.

Edgar Filing: FORTUNE BRANDS INC - Form S-4/A

In September of 2005, Samuel B. Ross, II contacted Bruce Carbonari to discuss a possible merger of their respective businesses and the growth opportunities available to SBR as a part of a larger home products organization. In October 2005, Mr. Ross further contacted Mr. Carbonari to indicate that Fortune Brands was the preferred buyer of SBR's board and suggested that Mr. Carbonari coordinate an acquisition proposal. In late October 2005, SBR and Fortune Brands entered into a confidentiality and exclusivity agreement pursuant to which each party agreed to provide due diligence materials to the other party. As a result of Mr. Carbonari's expressed interest in pursuing a transaction, SBR prepared and delivered a memorandum describing SBR's business in greater detail to Fortune Brands in November 2005.

In early December 2005, members of SBR's and Fortune Brands' respective management teams met and reviewed information about SBR for purposes of better understanding opportunities available between the two companies, and to develop an appropriate transaction structure and valuation. The SBR representatives present at this meeting included Samuel B. Ross, II, Chief Executive Officer, John Brunett, Senior Vice President, Charlene Crooks, Senior Vice President, Gregory Q. Schorr, President & Chief Operating Officer, Donna M. Smith, Secretary, Brian Standley, Controller, and Rick Keup, President of Simonton Building Products, Inc., Simonton Windows, Inc. and Simonton Industries, Inc. The Fortune Brands representatives present at this meeting included Bruce Carbonari, Chief Executive Officer of Fortune Brands Home and Hardware, Christopher J. Klein, Senior Vice President - Strategy & Business Development, Mark A. Roche, Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary, Allan Snape, Vice President, Business Development, and Carl Hedlund, President of Therma-Tru Corp.

On December 14, 2005, Messrs. Carbonari and Klein met with Mr. Ross and John Staley, a member of SBR's board of directors, to discuss an offer. At this time, Fortune Brands proposed aggregate merger consideration of $620 million (on a cash-free, debt-free basis) which reflected a 7.8x multiple of forecasted EBITDA for fiscal year end 2006. The assumed share price of Fortune Brands common stock with respect to the stock consideration was proposed as $83 per share. Mr. Ross asked Messrs. Carbonari and Klein to increase their cash offer to $630 million and to reconsider the assumed value of their stock as the differential between stock value and cash value per share was too great based upon the market price as of that day. The parties departed without reaching an agreement as Mr. Klein wanted to consult with Mr. Wesley, Fortune Brands' CEO.

On December 16, 2005, SBR's board of directors reviewed a revised offer of $630 million (on a cash-free, debt-free basis) and an assumed value of $82 per share of Fortune Brands common stock. The SBR board of directors reviewed precedent transactions in the building materials industry, and they determined that the multiple of forecasted EBITDA offered for SBR was equal to or exceeded any transaction within the previous two years. The board of directors reviewed ten transactions of which four involved companies that primarily sold products similar to SBR. The average multiple of projected first year EBITDA for these ten transactions was 6.8, and the highest multiple was 7.9. The following day the parties agreed to a non-binding term sheet for the proposed merger, containing the economic terms which are incorporated in the merger agreement, subject to completion of due diligence, and negotiation of other acceptable contract terms.

Fortune Brands conducted due diligence over a six-week period beginning in late December 2005, and concluding in early February 2006. SBR met with members of Fortune Brands management team to better understand the Fortune Brands group of companies. Representatives of Fortune Brands reviewed SBR financial information, visited SBR production facilities, conducted environmental due diligence, met with the leadership team of SBR, and completed legal due diligence.

Throughout the month of January 2006, attorneys from Fortune Brands and SBR, together with outside counsel, drafted and negotiated the merger agreement and the supporting documents and schedules. On February 9, 2006 the parties agreed to and signed the merger agreement.

Fortune Brands' Reasons for the Merger

The management and board of directors of Fortune Brands believes the merger is in the best interests of Fortune Brands and its shareholders. In approving the merger agreement the board of directors of Fortune Brands considered the financial terms and legal structure of the merger. In evaluating the business and strategic benefits of this transaction, the board considered the following factors:

The $10 billion dollar U.S. windows market is growing and most participants seem to earn attractive margins;

The window market exhibits strong fundamentals, with a fragmented marketplace of many suppliers particularly in vinyl window manufacture, and attractive customer demographics;

Edgar Filing: FORTUNE BRANDS INC - Form S-4/A

SBR is focused on the fast growing vinyl replacement segment of the market, not the more volatile new construction segment;

SBR is focused on quality and service (7-day delivery) consistent with Fortune Brands Home and Hardware quality culture;

Table of Contents

SBR is well positioned in the Coastal / Hurricane product segment, which should grow, particularly if the eastern or southeastern United States are entering a period of increased hurricane activity;

SBR is the only vinyl window maker with national market coverage and possesses strong customer base;

There are sales and cost synergies and growth opportunities between Fortune Brands and SBR; and

The transaction value is consistent with other Fortune Brands Home and Hardware acquisition multiples (5 to 8 times EBITDA) and industry comparables.

In course of the board's evaluation of the merger, it also considered the following mitigating factors:

Makers of wood windows may begin making vinyl windows increasing competition and reducing margins;

The pace of growth in vinyl window sales could slow;

New competition could come from China;

Prices of petroleum based raw materials and natural gas, which are integral components of SBR's products, could increase;

Members of SBR's management could decide to leave SBR after a change of control; and

The Sarbanes-Oxley Act imposes burdens on corporations that require large expenditures for compliance, which could reduce SBR's operating margins.

The above discussion of the information and factors considered by Fortune Brands' board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors Fortune Brands' board of directors considered. In reaching its determination to approve the merger agreement, Fortune Brands' board of directors did not assign any relative or specific weights to any of the foregoing factors and individual directors may have given differing weights to different factors.

SBR's Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of Board of Directors

SBR's board of directors believes that the merger is in the best interests of SBR and its shareholders. Accordingly, SBR's board has unanimously approved the merger agreement and unanimously recommends that SBR's stockholders vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement.

Edgar Filing: FORTUNE BRANDS INC - Form S-4/A

In approving the merger agreement, SBR's board of directors consulted with its legal counsel as to its legal duties and the terms of the merger agreement and related agreements. SBR believes that combining with Fortune Brands will create a stronger and more focused company that will provide significant benefits to SBR's shareholders, employees and customers alike. The terms of the merger agreement, including the consideration to be paid to SBR shareholders, were the result of arm's length negotiations between representatives of Fortune Brands and SBR. In evaluating whether to merge with Fortune Brands, SBR's board of directors considered a number of factors, including, without limitation, the following:

the potential for broader marketing of SBR's subsidiaries' products which the SBR board believed was substantial given Fortune Brands' reputation for marketing consumer products and SBR's excellence in service and quality;

the benefit of synergies between SBR and Fortune Brands' product lines including the manufacturing of entry doors which SBR customers have demanded; the benefits provided by the sharing of SBR and Fortune Brands' respective customer base which should expand as each company's channels of distribution are complimentary;

the additional capital, liquidity and resources needed for SBR's operations to continue to grow;

information regarding the business, financial condition and operations of Fortune Brands and future prospects of Fortune Brands and its capital stock which was significant given SBR's shareholders' interest in a tax-free stock transaction;

the merger consideration to be paid to SBR stockholders which was deemed fair and attractive in the context of SBR's book value;

the tax-free nature of the exchange of SBR common stock for Fortune Brands common stock offered to SBR shareholders as part of the merger consideration for federal income tax purposes;

the fact that Fortune Brands common stock is publicly traded on the New York Stock Exchange and is therefore a more liquid investment than SBR stock, for which a public market does not exist;

the non-economic terms of the transaction, including the impact on existing customers and employees which, in the context of an acquisition by a strategic purchaser, are more attractive given the long-term strategy of Fortune Brands as compared to a typical financial acquirer;

the compatibility of Fortune Brands' management team with that of SBR and the general strategic fit of the entities; and SBR management's assessment that Fortune Brands has the ability to help improve the operations of SBR.

SBR's board of directors determined that SBR's competitive position and the value of its stock could best be enhanced by becoming a wholly owned subsidiary of Fortune Brands. The aggregate price to be paid to holders of SBR stock resulted from negotiations which considered the historical earnings and dividends of Fortune Brands and SBR; the potential growth in SBR's market and earnings, both as an independent entity and as a part of a larger organization such as Fortune Brands, SBR's asset quality; and the effect of the merger on the shareholders, employees and customers of SBR and the communities that SBR serves. The terms of the agreement contained no negative factors which SBR's board of directors could identify.

The above discussion of the information and factors considered by SBR's board is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors SBR's board considered. In reaching its determination to approve and recommend the merger, SBR's board did not assign any relative or specific weights to any of the foregoing factors and individual directors may have given differing weights to different factors. Based on the reasons stated, the board of directors of SBR believes that the merger is in the best interest of SBR and its shareholders. The board of directors of SBR therefore unanimously approved the merger and the merger agreement and unanimously recommends that the SBR shareholders vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement.

No Opinion of Independent Financial Advisor

Edgar Filing: FORTUNE BRANDS INC - Form S-4/A

Neither Fortune Brands nor SBR has engaged an independent financial advisor to review and report on the fairness of the transaction, from a financial point of view, to either party or their respective stockholders.

Appraisal Rights under West Virginia Law

Under West Virginia law, a SBR stockholder will be entitled to seek appraisal for, and obtain payment of the fair value of such stockholder's shares of SBR common stock if the merger is consummated. For this purpose, the fair value of SBR common stock will be the value of such stock immediately before the completion of the merger, without discount for lack of marketability or minority status. A SBR stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights may not challenge the merger, unless the merger was not effectuated in accordance with applicable statutory provisions regarding mergers or SBR's articles of incorporation, bylaws or authorizing resolution or was otherwise procured by fraud or misrepresentation. These procedures are described more fully later in this document under the heading Appraisal Rights under West Virginia Law beginning on page 67. A copy of the relevant portions of West Virginia law is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement/prospectus.

Accounting Treatment

The acquisition of SBR will be accounted for using the purchase method of accounting by Fortune Brands under generally accepted accounting principles. Accordingly, using the purchase method of accounting, the assets and liabilities of SBR will be recorded by Fortune Brands at their respective fair values at the time of the merger. The excess of Fortune Brands purchase price, if any, over the net fair value of assets acquired including identifiable intangible assets and liabilities assumed is recorded as goodwill. Goodwill will be periodically assessed for impairment but no less frequently than on an annual basis. Prior period financial statements are not restated and results of operation of SBR will be included in Fortune Brands consolidated statement of operations after the date of the merger. The intangible assets will be amortized against the Fortune Brands earnings following completion of the merger.

Regulatory Clearances and Approvals

SBR and Fortune Brands cannot complete the merger until they give notification and furnish information to the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice and observe a statutory waiting period requirement. SBR and Fortune Brands filed the required notification and report forms with the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division on March 7, 2006. On April 7, the statutory waiting period expired. As of April 10, 2006, the Company had not received a response or other communication from the FTC or Antitrust Division. At any time before or after the effective time of the merger, and notwithstanding that the waiting period has terminated or the merger may have been consummated, the Federal Trade Commission, the Antitrust Division or any state could take such action under the applicable antitrust or competition laws as it deems necessary or desirable. This action could include seeking to enjoin the completion of the merger. Private parties may also institute legal actions under the antitrust laws under some circumstances.

Federal Securities Laws Consequences

The shares of Fortune Brands common stock to be issued in the mergers will be registered under the Securities Act. These shares will be freely transferable under the Securities Act, except for Fortune Brands common stock issued to any person who is deemed to be an affiliate of SBR, Tres, SB Ross or Fortune Brands. Persons who may be deemed to be affiliates include individuals or entities that control, are controlled by, or are under common control with such entities and includes such entities respective officers and directors, as well as principal stockholders. Affiliates may not sell their Fortune Brands common stock acquired in the mergers, except pursuant to:

an effective registration statement under the Securities Act covering the resale of those shares;

an exemption under paragraph (d) of Rule 145 under the Securities Act; or any other applicable exemption under the Securities Act.

Management Following the Merger

Neither the board of directors nor the executive officers of Fortune Brands will change with the consummation of the merger. Information about Fortune Brands' directors and executive officers, including biographical information, executive compensation and relationships and related transactions between management and Fortune Brands, can be found in Fortune Brands' proxy statement for the 2006 annual meeting of shareholders and annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, both of which are filed with the SEC and incorporated by reference herein. For more details about how you can obtain copies of Fortune Brands' annual meeting proxy statement and Form 10-K see "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 81.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of the material provisions of the merger agreement. However, the following is not a complete description of all provisions of the merger agreement. You should refer to the full text of the merger agreement, which is attached as Annex A to this proxy statement/prospectus, for precise legal terms of the merger agreement and other information that may be important to you. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the merger agreement.

The merger agreement has been included to provide you with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the parties to the merger agreement. Please be advised that the representations and warranties of the parties thereto are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties have exchanged in connection with signing the merger agreement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the merger agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the parties' public disclosures.

The Merger

The merger agreement provides that upon the closing, Brightstar Acquisition, LLC, a wholly-owned direct subsidiary of Fortune Brands that was created to effect the merger, referred to herein as "Merger Sub", will merge with and into SBR, with SBR continuing as a wholly-owned, direct subsidiary of Fortune Brands. The merger will become effective on the date of filing of articles of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Illinois and the Secretary of State of the State of West Virginia, which the parties have agreed to file as soon as practicable upon or before the closing. This is referred to as the "effective time" of the merger. At the effective time, the articles of incorporation and bylaws of SBR in effect shall be the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the surviving entity until thereafter changed or amended as provided therein or by applicable law.

As soon as reasonably practicable after the merger, Fortune Brands will cause the surviving entity to merge into a direct, wholly-owned limited liability company with such limited liability company as the surviving entity (such action referred to herein as the "subsequent merger").

Conversion or Cancellation of Shares in the Merger

At the effective time of the merger:

each share of SBR common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time (other than dissenting shares), will be converted into the right to receive at the election of the holder of such share of SBR common stock, Fortune Brands common stock or cash, or in the event of an undersubscription or oversubscription for shares of Fortune Brands common stock, a combination of cash and shares of Fortune Brands common stock as described below, in each case based on the final merger consideration calculated as of the effective time of the merger as described below;

each outstanding option, warrant, subscription right, conversion right, purchase right or any other right that grants the holder the right to receive or purchase SBR common stock, referred to as "SBR purchase rights", that is not exercised as of the effective time will no longer be exercisable, but will be converted into the right to receive at the election of the holder of such share, Fortune Brands

common stock or cash, or in the event of an undersubscription or oversubscription for shares of Fortune Brands common stock, a combination of cash and shares of Fortune Brands common stock as described below, in each case based on the final merger consideration calculated as of the effective time of the merger as described below;

each membership interest of Merger Sub outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will be converted into a share of common stock in the surviving entity; and each share of SBR common stock as to which a dissenting shareholder has properly perfected dissenters' rights of appraisal under West Virginia law will not be converted into the right to receive merger consideration, and shall instead be treated in accordance with the provisions of the West Virginia Business Corporation Act.

Merger Consideration

In the aggregate, the SBR stockholders and holders of SBR purchase rights (sometimes referred to collectively herein as fully-diluted SBR stockholders) shall be entitled to aggregate merger consideration equal to $630,000,000 (subject to certain adjustments described below) to be paid in a combination of cash and shares of Fortune Brands common stock as elected by each SBR stockholder and holder of SBR purchase rights as described below. The merger consideration shall be adjusted from $630,000,000 on a dollar-for-dollar basis for the following:

reduced by net outstanding indebtedness for borrowed money of SBR as of the close of business on the date prior to closing (such aggregate indebtedness was approximately $86,293,000 as of January 31, 2006), reduced by unpaid transaction costs incurred by SBR in connection with the merger (such aggregate costs were approximately $150,000 as of January 31, 2006), increased by cash held by SBR as of the close of business on the date prior to closing (such aggregate cash was approximately $18,074,000 as of January 31, 2006), and increased by the aggregate exercise price of all outstanding SBR purchase rights and unpaid subscription amounts (such aggregate amounts were approximately $480,000 as of January 31, 2006).

The dollar values of the adjustments to the aggregate merger consideration as of January 31, 2006 referenced above take into account the Woodcraft Disposition and the Real Estate Disposition discussed on pages 23 and 24 as if such transactions took place on January 31, 2006.

At the effective time of the merger, Fortune Brands shall deposit $15,000,000 of the merger consideration with a mutually acceptable exchange agent pursuant to an escrow agreement, entered into pursuant to the merger agreement, for the adjustment holdback and the indemnity escrow described herein. (See Adjustment Holdback and Indemnity Escrow). The exchange agent shall not pay to the fully-diluted SBR stockholders that portion of the merger consideration to be deposited into adjustment holdback or the indemnity escrow until such time as such amounts are distributable pursuant to the escrow agreement. The amount of any distributions or payments to be made to, or on behalf of, a fully-diluted SBR stockholder from the adjustment holdback or the indemnity escrow pursuant to the terms of the escrow agreement will be determined based on the percentage ownership (calculated on a fully-diluted basis) of shares of SBR common stock and SBR purchase rights owned by such fully-diluted SBR stockholder immediately prior to the effective time.

At the effective time of the merger, each fully-diluted SBR stockholder shall be entitled to convert such stockholder's SBR common stock and SBR purchase rights into such stockholder's pro rata share of the aggregate merger consideration. For each fully-diluted SBR share for which a fully-diluted SBR stockholder makes a cash election or no election, the fully-diluted SBR stockholder will be entitled to receive an amount in cash equal to (i) the aggregate merger consideration minus the escrow amount divided by (ii) the total number of fully-diluted SBR shares outstanding as of the closing date. This cash amount is referred to herein as the per share cash consideration. For each fully-diluted SBR share for which a fully-diluted SBR stockholder makes a stock election, the fully-diluted SBR stockholder will be entitled to receive the number of shares of Fortune Brands common stock equal to the per share cash consideration divided by a negotiated assumed value of $82 for each share of Fortune Brands common stock. This stock amount is referred to herein as the per share stock consideration. In addition, each fully-diluted SBR stockholder shall be entitled to such stockholder's pro rata share of any amounts released from the escrow if and when released in accordance with the escrow agreement.

Table of Contents

As an example, as referenced above, if at the effective time, the sum of the net outstanding indebtedness for borrowed money and unpaid transaction costs are equal to $68.5 million and the purchase rights costs are equal to $480,000, the aggregate merger consideration shall be $562 million. Based upon the aggregate merger consideration and an estimated 6,440,439 fully-diluted SBR shares as of the closing date, a fully-diluted SBR share that is designated a cash election or no election share shall receive $84.93 for each fully-diluted SBR share, and a fully-diluted SBR stockholder that makes a stock election shall receive 1.036 shares of Fortune Brands common stock for each fully-diluted SBR share (after reduction by $15 million for the escrows). In each instance, the foregoing is subject to the adjustments described under Merger Consideration Adjustment. However, this calculation of net consideration is for example purposes only and will be different when calculated at the time of the merger.

Merger Consideration Adjustment

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, Fortune Brands will issue no more than 85%, and no less than 60%, of the consideration in the mergers in shares of Fortune Brands common stock. Therefore, all elections for cash and stock are subject to adjustment to preserve these limitations on the number of shares of Fortune Brands common stock to be issued in the mergers. For purposes of calculating the thresholds, the aggregate Fortune Brands shares to be issued to Tres and SB Ross are excluded from such calculations. However, the aggregate Fortune Brands shares to be issued to the Tres and SB Ross stockholders in the related mergers is included for purposes of such calculations.

If the aggregate number of shares of Fortune Brands common stock that Fortune Brands would issue to fully-diluted SBR stockholders in the merger and the Tres and SB Ross stockholders in the related mergers exceeds 85% of the aggregate consideration in the mergers, the number of shares of Fortune Brands common stock issued to each fully-diluted SBR stockholder and related merger stockholders who elected to receive shares of Fortune Brands common stock shall be reduced pro rata so that the total number of shares of Fortune Brands common stock issued in the merger and the related mergers will equal 85% of the consideration in the mergers. The fully-diluted SBR stockholders whose stock elections are reduced will receive for each share of SBR common stock for which stock has been elected, a pro rata portion of the per share cash consideration to make up for the reduction in shares of Fortune Brands common stock.

If the aggregate number of shares of Fortune Brands common stock that Fortune Brands would issue to fully-diluted SBR stockholders in the merger and the Tres and SB Ross stockholders in the related mergers is less than 60% of the aggregate consideration in the mergers, the cash issued to each fully-diluted SBR stockholder and related merger stockholder who elected to receive cash or made no election shall be reduced pro rata so that the total number of shares of Fortune Brands common stock in the merger and the related mergers will equal 60% of the consideration in the mergers. The fully-diluted SBR stockholders whose cash elections are reduced will receive a pro rata portion of the per share stock consideration to make up for the reduction in cash.

As a result, even if a fully-diluted SBR stockholder makes elections to receive only cash or only shares of Fortune Brands common stock for all of his fully-diluted SBR shares, the fully-diluted SBR stockholder may nevertheless receive a combination of cash and shares of Fortune Brands common stock. In addition, because any adjustments to shares of Fortune Brands common stock issued or cash paid in the event of an oversubscription or undersubscription for shares of Fortune Brands common stock does not take into consideration a fully-diluted SBR stockholder's total election, there may be some fully-diluted SBR stockholders that still receive more than 85% or less than 60% of their total consideration in Fortune Brands common stock.

Election Procedures

Edgar Filing: FORTUNE BRANDS INC - Form S-4/A

The merger agreement provides that at the time this proxy statement/prospectus is made available to stockholders, fully-diluted SBR stockholders will be provided with an election form and other appropriate and customary transmittal materials. Each election form will allow the holder (other than any holder of dissenting shares) to make for each fully-diluted SBR share held by such holder, a cash election, a stock election or no election.

Table of Contents

Holders of fully-diluted SBR shares who wish to elect the type of merger consideration they will receive in the merger should carefully review and follow the instructions set forth in the election form.

To make an election, a holder of fully-diluted SBR shares must submit a properly completed election form so that it is actually received by the exchange agent at or prior to the 5:00 p.m., [●] time, on [●][●], 2006 in accordance with the instructions on the election form.

Generally, an election form may be revoked or changed, but only by written notice received by the exchange agent prior to the election deadline. If an election form is revoked or not received prior to the election deadline, the fully-diluted SBR shares represented by such election form will become no election shares, except to the extent (if any) a subsequent election is properly made with respect to such fully-diluted SBR shares. Subject to the terms of the merger agreement and of the election form, the exchange agent will have the reasonable discretion to determine whether any election, revocation or change has been properly or timely made. Regarding election forms received by the exchange agent no later than three business days prior to the election deadline, SBR and the exchange agent will exercise reasonable diligence to notify any person of any defect in such election form, and each such person will be permitted to correct such defect prior to the election deadline.

Surrender and Payment; Exchange of Certificates

Accompanying this proxy statement/prospectus is a letter of transmittal. The letter of transmittal contains instructions on how to surrender certificates representing shares of SBR common stock in exchange for the merger consideration the holder is entitled to receive under the merger agreement. Until so surrendered, each such certificate shall, after the effective time, represent for all purposes only the right to receive such merger consideration. After the effective time, there shall be no further registration of transfers of fully-diluted SBR shares.

Fractional Shares

No Fortune Brands fractional shares will be issued in the merger. Instead, each fully-diluted SBR stockholder who would otherwise have been entitled to a fraction of a share of Fortune Brands common stock pursuant to the merger agreement will receive from the exchange agent a cash payment representing such stockholder's proportionate interest in the proceeds from the sale by the exchange agent in one or more transactions of shares of Fortune Brands common stock equal to the excess of (1) the aggregate number of shares of Fortune Brands common stock to be issued by Fortune Brands in accordance with the merger agreement over (2) the aggregate number of whole shares of Fortune Brands common stock to be distributed to the holders of fully-diluted SBR shares under the merger agreement. As soon as practicable after the effective time, the exchange agent will sell the aggregate of all fractional shares of Fortune Brands common stock at the prevailing prices on the New York Stock Exchange.

Withholding Rights

Each of Fortune Brands and the surviving entity will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the merger consideration payable to any person pursuant to the merger agreement the amounts it is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payments under any law relating to taxes. If Fortune Brands or the surviving entity deducts or withholds any amounts, these amounts will be treated for all purposes of the merger as having been paid to the fully-diluted SBR stockholders from whom they were withheld.

Adjustment Holdback Escrow

At closing, an aggregate amount equal to the sum of $5,000,000 in cash, referred to herein as the adjustment holdback, will be deducted from the merger consideration otherwise to be paid by the exchange agent to the fully-diluted SBR stockholders pursuant to the merger agreement to cover the amount by which actual adjustments to the merger consideration, such as net indebtedness and transaction costs, differ from estimated adjustments made at the time of the closing of the merger. Each fully-diluted SBR stockholder will only be obligated to contribute such fully-diluted SBR stockholder's pro rata portion of the merger consideration to the adjustment holdback.

If the actual adjustments determined following the closing exceed the estimated adjustments used for purposes of calculating merger consideration at closing, the holders representative and Fortune Brands will promptly direct the exchange agent to disburse an aggregate amount of the adjustment holdback equal to such excess to Fortune Brands in accordance with the terms of the escrow agreement; provided, in the event such difference exceeds the adjustment holdback, such excess will be deducted from the indemnity escrow, as defined below. In the event the estimated adjustments exceed the actual adjustments, Fortune Brands will promptly pay the exchange agent an amount in cash equal to such excess and direct the exchange agent to disburse such excess amount and the adjustment holdback to the fully-diluted SBR stockholders pro rata pursuant to the escrow agreement; provided, however, Fortune Brands will pay such excess amount (1) with respect to the initial $3,000,000 (referred to herein as the "initial excess") of such excess amount, in cash and (2) with respect to such excess amounts exceeding $3,000,000 (referred to herein as the "extra excess"), in the form of an amount of Fortune Brands common stock equal to (i) the extra excess divided by (ii) $82.00; provided, further, however, if the merger consideration is less than $430,000,000, the initial excess will not be paid in cash, but will be paid in the form of an aggregate amount of shares of Fortune Brands common stock equal to (i) the amount of the initial excess divided by (ii) $82.00.

The remaining amount of the adjustment holdback, if any, after payment to Fortune Brands as described in the preceding paragraph will be disbursed by the exchange agent to the fully-diluted SBR stockholders pro rata pursuant to the escrow agreement. For a summary of the terms of the escrow agreement, see "Related Agreements, Escrow and Exchange Agent Agreement" on page 48.

Indemnity Escrow

At closing, an aggregate amount equal to the sum of $10,000,000 in cash, referred to herein as the "indemnity escrow," will be deducted from the merger consideration otherwise to be paid by the exchange agent to the fully-diluted SBR stockholders pursuant to the merger agreement. Such amount shall be used to satisfy amounts due and owing to Fortune Brands in connection with SBR's indemnity obligations under the merger agreement. Each fully-diluted SBR stockholder will only be obligated to contribute such fully-diluted SBR stockholder's pro rata portion of the merger consideration to the indemnity escrow. The indemnity escrow will be disbursed by the exchange agent pursuant to the terms of the escrow agreement.

Stock Election

If the aggregate number of shares of SBR common stock to be exchanged for shares of Fortune Brands common stock upon receipt of the stock elections is less than 2,750,000 (excluding for this purpose any shares of SBR common stock owned by S. Byrl Ross Enterprises, Inc. and Tres Investment Company), then, upon Fortune Brands' delivery of written notice to each stockholder that is party to a voting agreement, each Class A stockholder executing a voting agreement will be deemed to have made a stock election under the merger agreement with respect to an aggregate number of shares of SBR common stock beneficially owned (referred to herein as the "additional share amount") by such SBR stockholder such that the aggregate number of shares of SBR common stock exchanged for shares of Fortune Brands common stock pursuant to a stock election under the merger agreement (excluding any shares of SBR common stock owned by S. Byrl Ross Enterprises, Inc. and Tres Investment Company) will equal 2,750,000 (after giving effect to each other voting agreement executed by such Class A stockholders); provided, that each such Class A stockholder will be allocated an aggregate amount of additional share amounts pro rata based on the number of shares of SBR common stock beneficially owned by such Class A stockholder immediately prior to the effective time as compared to the number of shares of SBR common stock beneficially owned by all Class A stockholders (excluding for this purpose any shares of SBR common stock owned by S. Byrl Ross Enterprises, Inc. and Tres Investment Company) subject to voting agreements.

Representations and Warranties of SBR

The merger agreement contains customary representations and warranties of SBR, that are subject, in some cases, to specified exceptions and qualifications contained in the merger agreement or in the disclosure schedules, with respect to itself and its subsidiaries (excluding the Woodcraft entities), relating to, among other things, the following matters:

corporate existence, corporate power, good standing and qualification to conduct business;

corporate power and valid authorization to execute, deliver and perform obligations under the merger agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement;

the absence of conflicts between the articles of incorporation, bylaws, agreements, applicable laws, on the one hand, and the merger agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, on the other hand;

except as specifically contemplated in the merger agreement, the absence of any required governmental consents, approvals, authorizations or permits with respect to the execution of the merger agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the agreements;

the absence of conflicts between any authorizations, consents, approvals or licenses currently in effect on the one hand, and the merger agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, on the other hand;

capitalization;

compliance with articles of incorporation, bylaws, debt instruments agreements and applicable laws;

financial statements;

the absence of undisclosed liabilities;

In addition, between the date of the merger agreement and the effective time, SBR has agreed that it and each of its subsidiaries will not, without Fortune Brands' prior written consent:

except for normal increases in the ordinary course that, in the aggregate, are not inconsistent with customary historical anniversary increases, but in no event greater than 3% per individual, or as required by the terms of any agreement previously disclosed to Fortune Brands, increase the compensation, bonus or other benefits payable to any director, officer, other employee, consultant or independent contractor;

increase the total head count of SBR and its subsidiaries in an amount greater than an increase in the ordinary course.

Between the date of the merger agreement and the effective time, SBR has agreed that it will use commercially reasonable best efforts to maintain in full force and effect all of its and its subsidiaries' presently existing insurance policies or insurance comparable to the coverage afforded by such policies. No Solicitation SBR has agreed that it will immediately cease and terminate any existing solicitation, initiation, encouragement, activity, discussion or negotiation with any persons conducted prior to the date of the merger agreement by SBR, its subsidiaries or any of their respective representatives with respect to any proposed, potential or contemplated acquisition proposal.

SBR has agreed that from and after the date of the merger agreement, without Fortune Brands' prior written consent, it will not, nor authorize any of its subsidiaries to, and will use its reasonable best efforts to cause each of its and its subsidiaries' respective officers, directors, employees, financial advisors, agents or representatives (each referred to as a representative) not to, solicit, initiate or encourage or take any other action to facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal which constitutes or may reasonably be expected to lead to an acquisition proposal from any person, or engage in any discussion or negotiations relating thereto or accept any acquisition proposal. SBR will as promptly as practicable communicate to Fortune Brands any inquiry received by it relating to any actual or potential acquisition proposal and the material terms of any such inquiry or proposal, including the identity of the person making the same. SBR will as promptly as practicable inform Fortune Brands of any developments with respect to the foregoing.

In addition, SBR has agreed not to release any person from, or waive any provision of, any standstill agreement to which it is a party or any confidentiality agreement between it and another person who has made, or who may reasonably be considered likely to make, an acquisition proposal or who SBR or any of its representatives have had discussions with regarding a proposed, potential or contemplated company acquisition transaction, as defined below.

For purposes of the merger agreement, the term acquisition proposal means with respect to SBR, any inquiry, proposal or offer from any person relating to any (1) direct or indirect acquisition or purchase of a business of SBR or any of its subsidiaries, (2) direct or indirect acquisition or purchase of any class of SBR's or any of its subsidiaries' equity securities (other than pursuant to an exercise of SBR purchase rights outstanding as of the date of the merger agreement), (3) tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any person beneficially owning SBR common stock, or (4) merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving SBR or any of its subsidiaries. Each of the transactions referred to in clauses (1) through (4) of this paragraph, other than any such transaction to which Fortune Brands or any of its subsidiaries is a party, is referred to herein as a company acquisition transaction.

Additional Covenants and Agreements

Stockholder Meeting. SBR has agreed to, as promptly as possible following the date of the merger agreement and in consultation with Fortune Brands, call and hold a meeting of its stockholders to act upon the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated under the merger agreement, to the extent required by applicable law. SBR will, through its board of directors, recommend to its stockholders approval of such matters. SBR will use its best efforts to hold such meeting as soon as practicable after the date that the registration statement on Form S-4, of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part, has been declared effective.

Access to Information. Upon reasonable notice, SBR has agreed, and has agreed to cause its subsidiaries, to afford to Fortune Brands and its authorized representatives reasonable access, during normal business hours throughout the period prior to the effective time, to its real property, assets, books and records and, during such period, will and will cause its subsidiaries to furnish promptly to such authorized representatives all information concerning SBR's and its subsidiaries' business, real property, assets and personnel. SBR has acknowledged that Fortune Brands may request full and complete access and cooperation of SBR and its personnel for additional due diligence, including Phase II investigation of the real property, and has agreed to provide any support and to take any actions reasonably requested by Fortune Brands in this regard. Fortune Brands will promptly deliver to SBR copies of all reports with respect to any environmental laws received by or on behalf of Fortune Brands or any of Fortune Brands' representatives or agents. Any entry by Fortune Brands onto any of SBR's real property is subject to the following conditions: (1) such entry shall be without cost or expense to SBR, (2) Fortune Brands shall, or shall cause its authorized representatives to return each location to substantially its original condition, and (3) Fortune Brands will indemnify SBR against claims for injuries to persons or property or other liability arising out of or related to the activities of Fortune Brands or its authorized representatives on SBR's real property, unless such liability arises from SBR's gross neglect or willful misconduct. Such indemnity obligation survives termination of the merger agreement.

Representations and Warranties. Both SBR and Fortune Brands have agreed to give prompt notice to the other of any circumstances that would cause any of their respective representations and warranties set forth in the merger agreement not to be true and correct in all material respects at and as of the effective time. Delivery of such notice will not cure or be deemed to cure any breach of a representation or warranty.

Filings; Reasonable Best Efforts to Consummate Transactions. Subject to the terms and conditions specified in the merger agreement, each of SBR and Fortune Brands have agreed that they will: (1) promptly make their respective filings and make any other required submissions under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act ("HSR Act") or any other antitrust or competition laws of any applicable jurisdiction, and any other applicable law with respect to the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated under the merger agreement; (2) cooperate in the preparation of such filings or submissions; and (3) use their reasonable best efforts promptly to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and do, or cause to be done, all other things necessary, proper or appropriate to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement as soon as practicable. SBR has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to transfer any environmental permit to Fortune Brands prior to the effective time as required by applicable environmental laws.

Plan of Reorganization. The merger agreement is intended to constitute a plan of reorganization within the meaning of section 1.368-2(g) of the income tax regulations promulgated under the Code. From and after the date of the merger agreement and until the effective time, each of SBR and Fortune Brands has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the merger to qualify, and will not knowingly take any action, cause any action to be taken, fail to take any action or cause any action to fail to be taken which action or failure to act could prevent the merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Code section 368(a).

Directors and Officers Indemnification. Subject to certain exceptions, the merger agreement provides that from and after the effective time, Fortune Brands, the surviving entity and SBR will, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law, indemnify and hold harmless, and provide advancement of expenses to, each present and former director or officer of SBR and its subsidiaries to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law or to the fullest extent permitted under SBR's articles of incorporation and bylaws.

In addition, Fortune Brands will cause to be maintained for three years after the effective time the directors' and officers' liability insurance and fiduciary liability insurance maintained by SBR with respect to claims arising from facts or events that occurred at or prior to the effective time, provided that Fortune Brands will not, with respect to any of these policies, be required to expend in any one year an amount in excess of 200% of the premiums currently paid by SBR and its subsidiaries.

Post-Closing Obligation. As soon as reasonably practicable after the merger, Fortune Brands will effectuate the subsequent merger.

Conditions to the Consummation of Merger

Conditions to Each Party's Obligations. The respective obligations of SBR and Fortune Brands to consummate the merger are subject to the following conditions:

there be no judgment, order, decree, statute, law, ordinance, rule or regulation, entered, enacted, promulgated, enforced or issued by any court or other governmental authority or other legal restraint or prohibition that:

has the effect of making the consummation of the merger or the other transactions contemplated under the merger agreement illegal;

materially restricts, prevents or prohibits consummation of the merger or any of the transactions contemplated under the merger agreement; or would impair Fortune Brands' ability to own the outstanding shares of the surviving entity, or operate its or any of its subsidiaries' businesses (including the businesses of the surviving entity or any of its subsidiaries), following the effective time;

there be no suit, action or proceeding pending by any governmental authority or third party which would have any of the foregoing effects, provided however that each of the parties will use their reasonable best efforts to prevent the entry of such restraints and to appeal as promptly as possible any such restraints that may be entered;

the expiration of the applicable waiting period under the HSR Act or antitrust or competition laws of any applicable jurisdiction; and the mergers of S. Byrl Ross Enterprises, Inc. and Tres Investment Company with and into direct wholly-owned subsidiaries of Fortune Brands shall have been consummated.

Additional Conditions to SBR's Obligations. The obligations of SBR to consummate the merger are subject to the fulfillment at or prior to the effective time of the following additional conditions:

(1) Fortune Brands' representations and warranties relating to financial statements and filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission are true and correct; and (2) all other representations and warranties of Fortune Brands, are true and correct in all material respects, except where any such failure to be true and correct would not individually or in the aggregate result in a Fortune Brands material adverse effect, in each case as of the date of the merger agreement, and as of the effective time with the same force and effect as if made on and as of the effective time (except to the extent expressly made as of an earlier date, in which case as of such date), and Fortune Brands shall have delivered to SBR a certificate of any senior executive officer of Fortune Brands to the effect that each of the conditions specified in clauses (1) and (2) is satisfied;

Fortune Brands has obtained all consents, approvals, orders, releases or authorization from, and Fortune Brands has made all filings and registrations to or with, any person, including any governmental authority, necessary to be obtained or made in order for the SBR to consummate the merger, unless the failure to obtain such consents or make such filings would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect;

each of Fortune Brands, Merger Sub and the exchange agent have executed and delivered the escrow agreement;

Fortune Brands has delivered or has caused Merger Sub to deliver the merger consideration to the exchange agent as provided for in the merger agreement;

Table of Contents

SBR has received any required approval of the merger agreement and the merger from SBR stockholders;

SBR will have received the opinion of counsel that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Code Section 368 and that each of Fortune Brands, Merger Sub and SBR will be a party to the reorganization within the meaning of Code Section 368(b); and no event has occurred that could reasonably be expected to prevent the ability of Fortune Brands or SBR to consummate the merger.

At this time, SBR does not anticipate that it would waive any conditions to its obligation to consummate the merger which would affect the fundamental economics or structure of the transaction, such as receipt of the agreed upon merger consideration, receipt of an opinion of counsel that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Code Section 368, satisfaction of any material covenant obligation including the filing and effectiveness of the registration statement, or any other condition which, if waived, would materially diminish the ability of the SBR stockholders to receive the agreed upon merger consideration.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, with respect to other closing conditions, SBR may elect to waive such conditions to the extent it does not believe such waiver materially affects the fundamental economics or structure of the transaction and is in the best interests of its stockholders to do so. Each such condition would be considered on a specific basis given the facts and circumstances in existence at the time of consideration.

Additional Conditions to Fortune Brands Obligations. The obligations of Fortune Brands to consummate the merger are subject to the fulfillment at or prior to the effective time of the following additional conditions:

(1) SBR's representations and warranties relating to corporate power, financial statements, absence of certain changes, litigation and governmental orders, certain intellectual property matters, and disclosure are true and correct; and (2) all other representations and warranties of SBR, are true and correct in all material respects, except where any such failure to be true and correct would not individually or in the aggregate result in a material adverse effect, in each case as of the date of the merger agreement, and as of the effective time with the same force and effect as if made on and as of the effective time (except to the extent expressly made as of an earlier date, in which case as of such date);

SBR and its subsidiaries shall have performed or complied in all material respects with its agreements and covenants under the merger agreement as of or prior to the effective time;

SBR shall have delivered to Fortune Brands a certificate of any senior executive officer of SBR to the effect that each of the conditions specified in the preceding two paragraphs are satisfied;

from the date of the merger agreement to the effective time, there shall not have been any event or development which has had, or could reasonably be expected to have, a material adverse effect;

SBR will have obtained all consents from, and SBR will have made all filings to or with, any person, including any governmental authority, necessary to be obtained or made in order for Fortune Brands to consummate the merger, unless the failure to obtain such consents or make such filings would not, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect;

Edgar Filing: FORTUNE BRANDS INC - Form S-4/A

the requisite stockholder approval of SBR's stockholders of the merger agreement and the merger shall have been obtained and remain in full force and effect;

each of the SBR and the holders representative have executed and delivered the escrow agreement; not more than 5% of the company common stock outstanding as of the effective time shall constitute dissenting shares;

prior to the effective time, SBR shall have effectuated (1) the disposition of the Woodcraft entities, (2) the Real Estate Disposition, each on terms and conditions mutually satisfactory to Fortune Brands and SBR and (3) the sale of certain securities set forth on the disclosure schedules; each of Tres Investments Company and S. Byrl Ross Enterprises, Inc. shall have made stock elections with respect to all of the shares of SBR common stock owned thereby;

Fortune Brands and Merger Sub will have received the opinion of Winston & Strawn LLP that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Code Section 368 and that each of Fortune Brands, Merger Sub and SBR will be a party to the reorganization within the meaning of Code Section 368(b); and the holders representative will have delivered to Fortune Brands a certificate certifying as to the aggregate amount of tax liabilities incurred or to be incurred by SBR or its subsidiaries arising in connection with, or related to, the disposition of the Woodcraft entities and the Real Estate Disposition, which aggregate amount shall be satisfactory to Fortune Brands.

At this time, Fortune Brands does not anticipate that it would waive any of the conditions to its obligation to consummate the merger which would affect the fundamental economics or structure of the transaction, or expose Fortune Brands to increased liability or risk with respect to the operations of the SBR business or diminish the intended benefits of the merger. Such conditions include a change in the amount or structure of the merger consideration, receipt of stockholder approval of the merger, disposition of the Woodcraft entities, and satisfaction of the aggregate minimum or maximum stock and cash elections by the SBR stockholders.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, with respect to other closing conditions, Fortune Brands may elect to waive such conditions to the extent it does not believe such waiver materially affects the fundamental economics or structure of the transaction, exposes Fortune Brands to increased liability or risk with respect to the operations of the SBR business or diminish the intended benefits of the merger. Each such condition would be considered on a specific basis given the facts and circumstances in existence at the time of consideration.

Indemnification

Survival Periods. The respective representations and warranties of the parties set forth in the merger agreement will survive the effective time and will remain in full force and effect for the 18 month period following the effective time. The covenants of the merger agreements will survive in accordance with their terms.

Indemnification by the Fully-Diluted SBR Stockholders. Following the merger, the fully-diluted SBR stockholders of SBR will, jointly and severally, indemnify and hold harmless Fortune Brands, the surviving entity and its subsidiaries and each of their respective directors, officers, employees and agents (other than the fully-diluted SBR stockholders, referred to collectively herein as the Fortune Brands indemnified parties), for losses arising from (1) any breach by SBR of its covenants and agreements or representations and warranties (provided, if any such representation or warranty is qualified by materiality or material adverse effect or knowledge, such qualification will be ignored and deemed not included in such representation or warranty) in the merger agreement or (2) any breach of SBR's representations and warranties with respect to environmental matters arising from or related to SBR and its subsidiaries or its real property prior to the effective time to the extent such loss is not covered by valid claims previously made under, and prior to the expiration of, SBR's insurance policy with respect to such environmental matters (including any condition, violation or alleged violation of environmental laws or environmental permits or any release or threatened release of hazardous materials continuing as of the effective time); provided that (1) the fully-diluted SBR stockholders will be required to indemnify with respect to the representations and warranties only to the extent that indemnifiable losses exceed $500,000 in the aggregate, and (2) any indemnification claim with respect to matters described in this paragraph must be made during the applicable survival period set forth in the merger agreement; provided further that the limitations described in clauses (1) and (2) above will not apply to losses resulting from SBR's fraud or intentional misrepresentation or any breach of the representation or warranty with respect to tax matters.

(referred to collectively herein as the stockholder indemnified parties), for any breach by Fortune Brands or Merger Sub of its covenants or representations and warranties (provided, if any such representation or warranty is qualified by materiality or material adverse effect, or knowledge, such qualification will be ignored and deemed not included in such representation or warranty) in the merger agreement; provided that (1) Fortune Brands will be required to indemnify with respect to the representations and warranties only to the extent that indemnifiable losses exceed $500,000 in the aggregate, and (2) any indemnification claim with respect to matters described in this paragraph must be made during the applicable survival period set forth in the merger agreement; provided further that the limitations described in clauses (1) and (2) above will not apply to losses resulting from Fortune Brands fraud or intentional misrepresentation.

Third Party Claims. If a third party claim is made against a Fortune Brands indemnified party or a stockholder indemnified party, and if such indemnified party seeks indemnity under the merger agreement, such indemnified party will promptly notify the indemnifying party of such claims. With respect to a claim by a Fortune Brands indemnified party or a stockholder indemnified party, Fortune Brands will undertake the settlement or defense thereof, and the indemnified party will cooperate with Fortune Brands in this respect. An indemnifying party may not, without the indemnified party's consent, enter into any settlement that (1) does not include as an unconditional term the giving by the person or persons asserting such claim to all indemnified parties of unconditional release from all liability with respect to such claim or consent to entry of any judgment or (2) imposes any restriction, condition or obligation on, or requires any undertaking or admission by, SBR, its subsidiaries or the indemnified parties.

Termination

Termination by Mutual Consent. The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the effective time by the mutual written consent of SBR and Fortune Brands.

Termination by either SBR or Fortune Brands. The merger agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the effective time by either SBR or Fortune Brands if:

the merger has not been consummated by July 31, 2006, provided that the terminating party's failure to fulfill any obligation under the merger agreement is not the cause of the merger not being consummated by July 31, 2006;

a judgment, order, decree, statute, law, ordinance, rule or regulation, entered, enacted, promulgated, enforced or issued by any court or other governmental authority or other legal restraint or prohibition prohibiting the completion of the merger becomes final and nonappealable, provided that the terminating party has used its reasonable best efforts remove the prohibition before it becomes final and nonappealable.

Termination by SBR. The merger agreement may be terminated upon written notice to Fortune Brands at any time prior to the effective time by SBR if Fortune Brands breaches or fails to perform any of the representations, warranties, covenants or other agreements contained in the merger agreement, or if any representation or warranty of Fortune Brands becomes untrue, in either case such that (1) any of the conditions described above with respect to the accuracy of Fortune Brands representations and warranties or the performance by Fortune Brands of its covenants and agreements is not capable of being satisfied, and (2) such breach or failure to be true is not or is incapable of being cured within thirty business days following Fortune Brands receipt of notice of such breach or failure to comply.

Termination by Fortune Brands. The merger agreement may be terminated upon written notice to SBR at any time prior to the effective time by Fortune Brands if:

SBR breaches or fails to perform any of the representations, warranties, covenants or other agreements contained in the merger agreement, or if any representation or warranty of SBR becomes untrue, in either case such that (1) any of the conditions described above with respect to the accuracy of SBR s representations and warranties or the performance by SBR of its covenants and agreements is not capable of being satisfied, and (2) such breach or failure to be true is not or is incapable of being cured within thirty business days following SBR's receipt of notice of such breach or failure to comply; or any principal stockholder, as defined in the merger agreement, breaches or fails to perform in any material respect its covenants or other agreements in the applicable voting agreement.

Effect of Termination. If either Fortune Brands or SBR terminates the merger agreement, the merger agreement will become void and neither party will have any liability or obligation except (1) with respect to the payment of expenses pursuant to the merger agreement, (2) to the extent that such termination results from a party's willful breach of any of its representations or warranties or any of its covenants or agreements, or (3) with respect to a party's intentional or knowing misrepresentation in connection with the merger agreement or the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Payment of Expenses

Subject to the merger agreement's terms and conditions, whether or not the merger is consummated, each of Fortune Brands, SBR and each fully-diluted SBR stockholder shall pay its own expenses incident to preparing for, entering into and carrying out the merger agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. The filing fee for the required filing under the HSR Act will be borne by Fortune Brands.

Modification or Amendment

Subject to applicable law, at any time prior to the effective time the parties may modify or amend the merger agreement by written agreement executed and delivered by authorized officers of the respective parties.

Related Agreements

Escrow and Exchange Agent Agreement. Pursuant to an escrow and exchange agent agreement, at the effective time, Fortune Brands will deposit $15 million of the merger consideration with The Bank of New York, as escrow agent. Such withheld amount will be placed into two separate escrow accounts consisting of $5 million and $10 million, for the adjustment holdback escrow and indemnity escrow, respectively. Pursuant to the escrow agreement, The Bank of New York, as escrow agent will hold the indemnity escrow and the adjustment holdback escrow for the benefit of Fortune Brands or the fully-diluted SBR stockholders, as the case may be.

The $5 million escrow will be used to pay Fortune Brands in the event the calculations of net indebtedness, cash and transaction costs were inaccurate at the closing of the merger. If the actual amount exceeds the estimated amount at closing, the escrow agent will disburse an aggregate amount of the adjustment holdback escrow equal to such excess to Fortune Brands, provided, in the event such difference exceeds the adjustment holdback escrow, such excess will be deducted from the indemnity escrow. The remaining amount of the adjustment holdback escrow, if any, after payment to Fortune Brands, will be disbursed by the escrow agent to the fully-diluted SBR stockholders pro rata. In the event the estimated amount exceeds the actual amount, Fortune Brands will pay the exchange agent an amount in cash equal to such excess and direct the escrow agent to disburse such excess amount and the adjustment holdback escrow to the fully-diluted SBR stockholders pro rata. To the extent any amounts are available to be disbursed from such adjustment holdback escrow, such disbursement will likely occur 15 to 80 days after the merger.

The $10 million escrow will be used to indemnify Fortune Brands for any breaches of the representations, warranties or covenants of SBR in the merger agreement. To the extent any amounts are available to be disbursed from such indemnity escrow, such disbursement will occur after the 18 month anniversary of the merger. The remaining amount of the indemnity escrow at such time, if any, will be disbursed by the escrow agent to the fully-diluted SBR stockholders pro rata.

The escrow agent will not pay to SBR stockholders that portion of the merger consideration to be deposited into the escrow accounts until such time as such amounts are distributable pursuant to the escrow agreement. The complete text of the escrow agreement is attached as Exhibit C of Annex A. You should read the escrow agreement in its entirety.

Voting and Option Agreements. Concurrently with the execution of the merger agreement, certain SBR stockholders including directors, executive officers, affiliates and certain of their family members who collectively hold approximately 67% of SBR's outstanding Class A common stock and approximately 33% of SBR's outstanding Class B common stock have entered into voting and option agreements (referred to herein as "voting agreements") with Fortune Brands in which they agreed, subject to certain limited exceptions, to vote and granted to Fortune Brands irrevocable proxies to vote all of the shares of SBR common stock which are beneficially owned by each of them as follows:

in favor of approval of the merger, adoption of the merger agreement and any actions required by the SBR stockholders in furtherance of the merger agreement;

against any action or agreement that would result in a breach in any respect of any covenant, representation or warranty, or any other obligation or agreement, of SBR under the merger agreement or of the stockholder under the voting and option agreement;

against any proposed, potential or contemplated acquisition proposal;

against any change in a majority of the individuals who constitute SBR's board of directors;

against any change in the present capitalization of SBR or any amendment of SBR's certificate of incorporation or bylaws;

against any material change in SBR's corporate structure or business unless specifically contemplated in the merger agreement; and against any other action which is intended, or could reasonably be expected, to impede, interfere with, delay, postpone, or materially and adversely affect the merger and the transactions contemplated by the voting and option agreement and the merger agreement.

If (1) the merger is not consummated by July 31, 2006 and the merger agreement is terminated due to the parties' failure to consummate the merger by such date or (2) SBR or the stockholder materially breaches the merger agreement or the voting and option agreement, and Fortune Brands has not materially breached the merger agreement, then such stockholder grants Fortune Brands the option to purchase the shares subject to the voting and option agreement, provided that if Fortune Brands exercises the option due to the parties' failure to consummate the merger by July 31, 2006 or SBR's material breach of the merger agreement or the voting and option agreement, Fortune Brands must at the time of such exercise, exercise its option to purchase the other shares of SBR common stock subject to the other voting and option agreements. The option terminates on the earlier of the effective time or sixty days following the termination of the merger agreement due to the parties' failure to consummate the merger by July 31, 2006. As a result, Fortune Brands has the right, but not the obligation, to acquire economic and voting control of SBR.

Employment Arrangements. As required by the merger agreement, certain individuals will enter into employment arrangements with SBR prior to the effective time of the merger. The employment arrangements will contain confidentiality, proprietary information and non-competition and non-solicitation clauses customary for arrangements of this type. These employment arrangements are to become effective after the consummation of the mergers. To the extent any of these individuals are also stockholders of SBR, each such individual will receive his or her proportionate share of the merger consideration based on the aggregate SBR shares owned by such individual or shares for which such individuals hold options or subscription rights. See "Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger - Merger Consideration Payable to SBR's Executive Officers." SBR does not believe that the executive officers of SBR party to these employment arrangements will receive amounts or benefits materially different than are currently provided under their existing arrangements. The employment arrangements may provide that the employee is eligible to receive severance payments upon termination of his or her employment by SBR, or its successor, for reason other than cause (as that term may be defined in any employment agreement), death or disability in an amount equal to the employee's continued base salary, insurance and benefits for the period stated in any employment agreement. These payments are contingent upon, and prior to the merger it is SBR's intention to request, the holders of the Class A common stock to approve such payments but only to the extent such approval is necessary to preclude them from being treated as parachute payments within the meaning of section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code.

Option Agreements. Concurrently with the execution of the merger agreement, Fortune Brands entered into option agreements with each stockholder of Tres and each stockholder of SB Ross. Collectively, the stockholders of Tres and SB Ross own 1,194,419 shares of SBR Class A common stock, which represents approximately 19.2% of SBR's outstanding capital stock and approximately 22.3% of SBR's outstanding Class A common stock. Pursuant to the option agreements, if (1) the merger is not consummated by July 31, 2006 and the merger agreement is terminated due to the parties' failure to consummate the merger by such date or (2) SBR materially breaches the merger agreement or the stockholder materially breaches the option agreement, and Fortune Brands has not materially breached the merger agreement, then such stockholder grants Fortune Brands the option to purchase the shares subject to the option agreement, provided that if Fortune Brands exercises the option due to the parties' failure to consummate the merger by July 31, 2006 or SBR's material breach of the merger agreement or the voting agreement, Fortune Brands must at the time of such exercise, exercise its option to purchase the other shares of stock subject to the other option agreements. In the event of the exercise of these options, Fortune Brands will acquire indirect ownership of SBR shares representing approximately 18.5% of the fully-diluted SBR shares. The option terminates on the earlier of the effective time or sixty days following the termination of the merger agreement due to the parties' failure to consummate the merger by July 31, 2006.

THE RELATED MERGERS

Fortune Brands has entered merger agreements for the acquisition of (1) S. Byrl Ross Enterprises, Inc. ("SB Ross"), and (2) Tres Investment Company ("Tres"). SB Ross and Tres own 954,419 and 240,000 shares of Class A common stock, respectively, of SBR. Under the related merger agreements, each of SB Ross and Tres will be merged with and into direct, wholly-owned subsidiaries of Fortune Brands, followed in each case by the merger of the respective surviving corporations with and into limited liability companies which are each a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of Fortune Brands. Samuel B. Ross II exercises voting and investment control with respect to the outstanding shares of SBR owned by SB Ross and Tres. Execution of the related merger agreements and consummation of the transactions contemplated therein are conditions to the consummation of the merger between Fortune Brands and SBR (the "SBR merger").

The following is a summary of the material provisions of the related merger agreements. However, the following is not a complete description of all provisions of related merger agreements. You should refer to the full text of the related merger agreements, incorporated by reference into this proxy statement/prospectus, for precise legal terms of the related merger agreements and other information that may be important to you. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the related merger agreements.

SB Ross Merger

The SB Ross merger will become effective on the date of filing of certificates of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and articles of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of West Virginia, which the parties have agreed to file as soon as practicable upon or before the closing. The effective time of the SB Ross merger will be upon the closing and immediately prior to the effective time of the SBR merger.

As merger consideration, the shareholders of SB Ross will be entitled to receive aggregate merger consideration equal to the aggregate merger consideration SB Ross will be entitled to receive as a stockholder of SBR in the SBR merger. Each shareholder of SB Ross will be entitled to receive their pro rata share of such merger consideration.

At the effective time of the SB Ross merger, Fortune Brands will deposit into separate escrow accounts, pursuant to an escrow agreement, amounts equal to SB Ross's pro rata share of the $5 million and $10 million escrows deposited with the escrow agent in the SBR merger. In the event that Fortune Brands receives any escrow amounts from the escrows in the SBR merger, Fortune Brands shall receive an amount equal to SB Ross's pro rata share of the escrow amount from the escrows in the SB Ross merger. The escrow agent will not pay to SB Ross shareholders that portion of the merger consideration to be deposited into the escrow accounts until such time as such amounts are distributable pursuant to the escrow agreement. Each SB Ross shareholder shall be entitled to such shareholder's pro rata share of any amounts released from the escrow if and when released in accordance with the escrow agreement.

Each shareholder of SB Ross shall be entitled to elect the percentage of the merger consideration it wishes to receive in Fortune Brands stock (the stock election percentage) and the percentage of the merger consideration it wishes to receive in cash (the cash election percentage). Each shareholder of SB Ross will be entitled to receive:

Aggregate shares of Fortune Brands common stock equal to the quotient of (1) the product of (i) such shareholder's allocable non-escrowed merger consideration (equal to the non-escrowed merger consideration SB Ross is entitled to in the SBR merger times such shareholder's percentage of ownership of SB Ross) times (ii) such shareholder's stock election percentage, divided by (2) $82.00 (the product of such formula referred to herein as the "elected parent shares"); and an amount of cash equal to the product of (1) such shareholder's allocable non-escrowed merger consideration times (2) such shareholder's cash election percentage.

Table of Contents

If the aggregate shares of Fortune Brands common stock that Fortune Brands would issue to fully-diluted SBR stockholders in the SBR merger (not including SB Ross and Tres) and the stockholders of SB Ross and Tres in the related mergers exceeds 85% of the aggregate consideration in the SBR merger and related mergers, the number of shares of Fortune Brands common stock issued to each fully-diluted SBR stockholder in the SBR merger (not including SB Ross and Tres) and the stockholders of SB Ross and Tres in the related mergers who elected to receive shares of Fortune Brands common stock shall be reduced pro rata so that the total number of shares of Fortune Brands common stock issued will equal 85% of the consideration in the SBR merger and related mergers. The cash election percentages for those SB Ross stockholders whose shares of Fortune Brands common stock are reduced will be increased to make up for the reduction in shares of Fortune Brands common stock.

If the aggregate shares of Fortune Brands common stock that Fortune Brands would issue to fully-diluted SBR stockholders in the SBR merger (not including SB Ross and Tres) and the stockholders of SB Ross and Tres in the related mergers is less than 60% of the aggregate consideration in the SBR merger and related mergers, the aggregate cash paid to each fully-diluted SBR stockholder in the SBR merger (not including SB Ross and Tres) and the stockholders of SB Ross and Tres in the related mergers who elected to receive cash or made no election shall be reduced pro rata so that the aggregate shares of Fortune Brands common stock issued in the SBR merger and related mergers will equal 60% of the consideration in the SBR merger and related mergers. The stock election percentages for those SB Ross stockholders whose cash election percentages are reduced will be increased to make up for the reduction in cash consideration.

Prior to the closing of the SB Ross merger, SB Ross will contribute all of the assets and liabilities of SB Ross to a wholly-owned subsidiary, whose capital stock shall be distributed to the shareholders of SB Ross on a pro rata basis, except that SB Ross shall retain the SBR shares that it owns and cash in an amount equal to the tax liability arising from the distribution of the capital stock of the wholly-owned subsidiary.

The SBR merger agreement contains customary representations and warranties of SB Ross and its shareholders, on the one hand, and of Fortune Brands and the Related Merger Sub, on the other hand. The respective obligations of Fortune Brands and SB Ross to consummate the related mergers are subject to customary conditions described in the SB Ross merger agreement. The SB Ross shareholders have agreed to indemnify Fortune Brands for all pre-closing liabilities of SB Ross, other than taxes, if any, that arise as a result of the SB Ross merger.

Tres Merger

The Tres merger will become effective on the date of filing of certificates of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and articles of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of West Virginia, which the parties have agreed to file as soon as practicable upon or before the closing. The effective time of the Tres merger will be upon the closing and immediately prior to the effective time of the SBR merger.

As merger consideration, the shareholders of Tres will be entitled to receive aggregate merger consideration equal to the aggregate (a) merger consideration Tres will be entitled to receive as a stockholder of SBR in the SBR merger plus (b) cash equal to $1.25 million for the real property owned by Tres located in Eatonton, Georgia. Each shareholder of Tres will be entitled to receive their pro rata share of such merger consideration.

At the effective time of the Tres merger, Fortune Brands will deposit into separate escrow accounts, pursuant to an escrow agreement, amounts equal to Tres' pro rata share of the $5 million and $10 million escrows deposited with the escrow agent in the SBR merger. In the event that Fortune Brands receives any escrow amounts from the escrows in the SBR merger, Fortune Brands shall receive an amount equal to Tres' pro rata share of the escrow amount from the escrows in the Tres merger. The escrow agent will not pay to Tres shareholders that portion of the merger consideration to be deposited into the escrow accounts until such time as such amounts are distributable pursuant to the escrow agreement. Each Tres shareholder shall be entitled to such shareholder's pro rata share of any amounts released from the escrow if and when released in accordance with the escrow agreement.

Table of Contents

With respect to the merger consideration consisting of the merger consideration Tres will be entitled to receive in the SBR merger, each shareholder of Tres shall be entitled to elect the percentage it wishes to receive in stock (the stock election percentage) and the percentage it wishes to receive in cash (the cash election percentage). Specifically, each shareholder of Tres will be entitled to receive in the merger:

Aggregate shares of Fortune Brands common stock equal to the quotient of (1) the product of (i) such shareholder's allocable non-escrowed merger consideration (equal to the non-escrowed merger consideration Tres is entitled to in the SBR merger times such shareholder's percentage of ownership of SB Ross) times (ii) such shareholder's stock election percentage, divided by (2) $82.00 (the product of such formula referred to herein as the "elected parent shares");

an amount of cash equal to the product of (1) such shareholder's allocable non-escrowed merger consideration times (2) such shareholder's cash election percentage; and an amount of cash equal to the product of (1) $1.25 million times (2) such shareholder's cash election percentage.

If the aggregate shares of Fortune Brands common stock that Fortune Brands would issue to fully-diluted SBR stockholders in the SBR merger (not including SB Ross and Tres) and the stockholders of SB Ross and Tres in the related mergers exceeds 85% of the aggregate consideration in the SBR merger and related mergers, the number of shares of Fortune Brands common stock issued to each fully-diluted SBR stockholder in the SBR merger (not including SB Ross and Tres) and the stockholders of SB Ross and Tres in the related mergers who elected to receive shares of Fortune Brands common stock shall be reduced pro rata so that the total number of shares of Fortune Brands common stock issued will equal 85% of the aggregate consideration in the SBR merger and related mergers. The cash election percentages for those Tres stockholders whose shares of Fortune Brands common stock are reduced will be increased to make up for the reduction in shares of Fortune Brands common stock.

If the aggregate shares of Fortune Brands common stock that Fortune Brands would issue to fully-diluted SBR stockholders in the SBR merger (not including SB Ross and Tres) and the stockholders of SB Ross and Tres in the related mergers is less than 60% of the aggregate consideration in the SBR merger and related mergers, the aggregate cash paid to each fully-diluted SBR stockholder in the SBR merger (not including SB Ross and Tres) and the stockholders of SB Ross and Tres in the related mergers who elected to receive cash or made no election shall be reduced pro rata so that the aggregate shares of Fortune Brands common stock issued in the SBR merger and related mergers will equal 60% of the aggregate consideration in the SBR merger and related mergers. The stock election percentages for those Tres stockholders whose cash consideration is reduced will be increased to make up for the reduction in cash consideration.

Prior to the closing of the Tres merger, Tres will contribute all of the assets and liabilities of Tres to a wholly-owned subsidiary, whose capital stock shall be distributed to the shareholders of Tres on a pro rata basis, except that Tres shall retain (a) the SBR shares that it owns, (b) cash in an amount equal to the tax liability arising from the distribution of the capital stock of the wholly-owned subsidiary, and (c) the real property owned by Tres located in Eatonton, Georgia.

The Tres merger agreement contains customary representations and warranties of Tres and its shareholders, on the one hand, and of Fortune Brands and the Related Merger Sub, on the other hand. The respective obligations of Fortune Brands and Tres to consummate the related mergers are subject to customary conditions described in the Tres merger agreement. The Tres shareholders have agreed to indemnify Fortune Brands for all pre-closing liabilities of Tres, other than taxes, if any, that arise as a result of the Tres merger.

MATERIAL FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

In the opinion of Winston & Strawn LLP, the following is a discussion of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger and each related merger to U.S. holders (as defined below) of SBR stock, SB Ross stock and Tres stock. This summary is limited to U.S. holders who hold their SBR stock, SB Ross stock, and Tres stock as capital assets within the meaning of section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), and whose functional currency as defined in the Code is the U.S. dollar. This discussion is based on the Code, applicable Treasury regulations, administrative interpretations and court decisions as in effect as of the date hereof, all of which may change, possibly with retroactive effect. Any such change could affect the continuing validity of the following discussion. This discussion assumes that the related mergers will be completed in accordance with the terms of the related merger agreements and the merger will be completed in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, including that the entity surviving the merger and each related merger will be merged into a limited liability company wholly owned by Fortune Brands.

This summary discussion does not address all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be important to a U.S. holder in light of that holder's particular circumstances or to a U.S. holder subject to special rules, such as: tax-exempt organizations; a stockholder that is not a U.S. person; a financial institution or insurance company; a dealer or broker in securities; traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting; a partnership or other entity classified as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes; a stockholder exercising dissenter's rights; a person liable for the alternative minimum tax; stockholders who acquired their shares of stock pursuant to the exercise of options or similar derivative securities, through a tax-qualified retirement plan or otherwise as compensation; or stockholders who hold their shares as part of a hedge, straddle or other risk reduction, constructive sale or conversion transaction.

This discussion of material U.S. federal income tax consequences is not a complete analysis or description of all potential U.S. federal income tax consequences of the mergers. This discussion does not address tax consequences that may vary with, or are contingent on, individual circumstances. In addition, it does not address any non-income tax or any foreign, state or local tax consequences of the mergers.

For purposes of this discussion, a U.S. holder is a beneficial owner of stock that is: a citizen or individual resident of the U.S.; a corporation or other entity taxable as a corporation, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any political subdivision thereof; an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or any trust if a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust.

STOCKHOLDERS ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS AS TO THE SPECIFIC TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGERS, INCLUDING THE APPLICABLE FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND FOREIGN TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THEM OF THE MERGERS.

Tax Opinions/IRS Rulings

The consummation of the merger is conditioned upon the receipt by Fortune Brands of an opinion from Winston & Strawn LLP and the receipt by SBR of an opinion from Mayer, Brown, Rowe and Maw LLP substantially to the effect that the merger will be a reorganization within the meaning of section 368(a) of the Code. It is a condition to Fortune Brands' obligations to consummate the related mergers that Fortune Brands receive an opinion of Winston & Strawn LLP to the effect that each related merger will be a reorganization within the meaning of section 368(a) of the Code. Fortune Brands could waive this condition, however. It is not a condition to either related merger that SBR, SB Ross or Tres receive an opinion of counsel that such related mergers are reorganizations within the meaning of section 368(a) of the Code. However, the parties have agreed to cooperate to cause each related merger to be a reorganization under section 368(a) of the Code, and SB Ross and Tres each expect to receive an opinion from Mayer, Brown, Rowe & Maw LLP substantially to the effect that each related merger will constitute a reorganization under section 368(a) of the Code. Any opinion issued with respect to the merger or related mergers will be based on then-existing law, will assume the absence of changes in existing facts and will rely on customary assumptions and representations contained in certificates executed by officers of SBR, SB Ross, Tres and Fortune Brands, dated on or before the completion of the mergers, which will not have been withdrawn or modified in any material respect as of the effective time of the mergers. The opinions will neither bind the Internal Revenue Service (the IRS) nor preclude the IRS from adopting a contrary position. Neither SBR nor Fortune Brands intends to seek a ruling from the IRS with respect to the tax consequences of any of the mergers.

Consequences of the Mergers to U.S. Holders if Each Merger is a Reorganization

In accordance with counsels' opinions, and subject to the conditions and limitations therein, each of the related mergers and the merger will constitute a reorganization within the meaning of section 368(a) of the Code. Qualification as a reorganization means the tax consequences of a merger to you will be as follows:

Treatment of stockholders who exchange stock solely for Fortune Brands stock. If you exchange your SBR stock, SB Ross stock or Tres stock solely for Fortune Brands stock in a merger, you will not recognize any gain or loss in such merger, and the aggregate tax basis of the Fortune Brands stock you receive in such merger (including any fractional share interest, discussed below) will be the same as the aggregate tax basis of the stock exchanged therefore in such merger.

Treatment of stockholders who exchange stock solely for cash. If you exchange your SBR stock, SB Ross stock or Tres stock solely for cash consideration pursuant to a merger, you generally will recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between the amount of cash consideration received in such merger and your adjusted tax basis in the stock surrendered in such merger. In general, any gain you recognize pursuant to such merger will be treated as capital gain, and will be long-term capital gain if the holding period for your shares was greater than one year at the time of the consummation of such merger.

Treatment of stockholders who exchange stock for a combination of Fortune Brands stock and cash. If you exchange your SBR stock, SB Ross stock, or Tres stock in a merger for a combination of Fortune Brands stock and cash, you generally will recognize gain, but not loss with respect to such exchange. In general, the amount of gain, if any, that you recognize in such merger will equal the lesser of (1) the gain that you realize in such merger and (2) the amount of cash you receive in such merger. For this purpose, your realized gain generally is equal to the amount by which the consideration you receive in such merger exceeds your tax basis in the stock you surrender in such merger. In general, in each merger, a shareholder must calculate gain or loss separately for each identifiable block of shares of stock exchanged by such shareholder, and a shareholder cannot offset a loss recognized on one block of such shares against a gain recognized on another block of such shares. In general, the aggregate tax basis of the Fortune Brands stock you receive in a merger (including any fractional share interest, discussed below) will be the same as the aggregate tax basis of the stock exchanged therefore in such merger, increased by any gain you recognize in such merger and decreased by the amount of cash consideration you receive in such merger, other than cash received in lieu of fractional shares. Subject to the discussion below regarding Possibility of Dividend Treatment, in general, any gain you recognize pursuant to a merger will be treated as capital gain, and will be long-term capital gain if the holding period for your shares surrendered in such merger was greater than one year at the time of the consummation of such merger.

Escrow Account and Use of Installment Sale Method of Tax Accounting. If you recognize gain with respect to a merger, you may be eligible to use the installment sale method for reporting the gain with respect to the cash held in escrow with respect to such merger. Reporting a sale on the installment method could alter the usual rule for determining tax basis in the Fortune Brands stock you receive or otherwise alter the U.S. federal income tax consequences described above. To the extent there are earnings on a cash escrow, the portion of any payments you are entitled to receive out of such cash escrow that is attributable to such earnings will be treated as ordinary income, and you must include that portion as taxable ordinary income in the year it is earned. You may also be subject to imputed interest income taxed at ordinary rates on the receipt of escrow payments. YOU SHOULD CONSULT YOUR TAX ADVISOR REGARDING THE TAX CONSEQUENCES TO YOU OF THE ESCROW ACCOUNTS AND USING THE INSTALLMENT SALE METHOD, INCLUDING HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR BASIS IN ANY FORTUNE BRANDS STOCK YOU RECEIVE, HOW IT IMPACTS YOUR ALTERNATIVE MINIMUM TAX COMPUTATION, THE POSSIBILITY OF PAYING INTEREST TO THE IRS IF YOU HAVE INSTALLMENT SALE OBLIGATIONS ARISING IN ANY YEAR EXCEEDING $5 MILLION, AND THE POSSIBILITY OF TREATING SOME OF THE ESCROW PROCEEDS AS IMPUTED INTEREST INCOME TAXED AT ORDINARY INCOME TAX RATES.

Possibility of Dividend Treatment. If you receive a combination of Fortune Brands stock and cash in connection with a merger, it is possible that some or all of any gain you recognize will be treated as a dividend if your receipt of such cash has the effect of a dividend. If your receipt of cash has the effect of the distribution of a dividend, the amount of cash you receive in connection with such merger will be treated first, as a dividend to the extent of your allocable portion of accumulated earnings and profits, and thereafter as a capital gain. In general, if you satisfy certain holding period requirements, such dividends are eligible for a maximum tax rate of 15%, without reduction for the tax basis of the shares deemed exchanged for cash, and no loss will be recognized.

For purposes of determining whether your receipt of cash in connection with such merger has the effect of the distribution of a dividend, you should be treated for United States federal income tax purposes as if you exchanged all of your stock surrendered in such merger solely for Fortune Brands stock and Fortune Brands then immediately redeemed (the Deemed Fortune Brands Redemption) a portion of such Fortune Brands stock in exchange for the cash you actually received in connection with such merger. Generally, under that analysis, the receipt of cash in connection with the Deemed Fortune Brands Redemption will not be treated as a dividend if such Deemed Fortune Brands Redemption (i) results in a complete termination of your equity interest in Fortune Brands, (ii) results in a substantially disproportionate redemption with respect to you (i.e., your percentage ownership of Fortune Brands stock immediately after the redemption is less than 80% of your percentage ownership immediately before the redemption) or (iii) is not essentially equivalent to a dividend with respect to you. If a holder's percentage ownership of Fortune Brands is minimal and the holder exercises no control over the affairs of Fortune Brands, even a small reduction in the holder's percentage ownership should satisfy the not essentially equivalent to a dividend test. In determining whether any of these tests are satisfied, holders must generally take into account not only the stock they own or are deemed to own directly, but also stock that they are treated as owning constructively by reason of certain attribution rules under section 318 of the Code, including, generally, stock owned by certain family members, stock issuable upon the exercise of options, stock owned by certain estates and trusts of which the stockholder is a beneficiary, and stock owned by certain affiliates. BECAUSE THE APPLICATION OF THE ABOVE-DESCRIBED TESTS, WHICH ARE CONTAINED IN SECTION 302 OF THE CODE, DEPENDS UPON EACH STOCKHOLDER'S PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES, YOU ARE URGED TO CONSULT YOUR OWN TAX ADVISOR REGARDING THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF A DEEMED FORTUNE BRANDS REDEMPTION.

Holding Period. The holding period of a share of Fortune Brands stock you receive in a merger (including any fractional share interest) will include your holding period in the stock surrendered in exchange therefore.

Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares. If you receive cash in a merger instead of a fractional share interest in Fortune Brands stock, you will be treated as having received such fractional share pursuant to such merger and then as having exchanged such fractional shares for cash in redemption by Fortune Brands. Subject to the discussion above in Possibility of Dividend Treatment, you will recognize capital gain or loss on the deemed redemption in an amount equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and your adjusted tax basis allocable to such fractional share. Any capital gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if you have held your surrendered shares for more than one year.

Consequences of each Related Merger to U.S. Holders if Such Related Merger is not a Reorganization

If a related merger does not constitute a reorganization within the meaning of section 368(a) of the Code, an exchange by a stockholder of SB Ross stock or Tres stock in such merger for Fortune Brands shares (or Fortune Brands shares and cash) would be a taxable transaction for federal income tax purposes. In such case, each stockholder would recognize capital gain or loss, measured by the difference between the fair market value of the Fortune Brands shares and cash received by such stockholder and such stockholder's tax basis in the stock surrendered in such merger. This gain or loss generally would be long-term capital gain or loss if such stockholder had held such stock for more than one year at the effective time of such merger. Such a stockholder's aggregate tax basis in the Fortune Brands shares received in the exchange would equal its fair market value as of the effective time of such merger, and such stockholder's holding period for tax purposes would begin the day after the effective time of merger. YOU SHOULD CONSULT YOUR OWN TAX ADVISOR AS TO THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF A RELATED MERGER IF THE TRANSACTION IS A TAXABLE TRANSACTION.

Other Federal Income Tax Considerations

Tax Reporting. To the extent you exchange SBR stock, SB Ross stock, or Tres stock for Fortune Brands shares in a merger constituting a reorganization, you are required to incorporate in your tax return for the year of the merger certain information prescribed in Treasury Regulation section 1.368-3(b).

Backup Withholding. Unless you complete the Form W-9 or otherwise comply with certain reporting and/or certification procedures or are an exempt recipient under applicable provisions of the Code and Treasury regulations, you may be subject to a backup withholding tax (currently at a 28% rate) with respect to any cash payments (including payments of earnings from the escrow) you receive pursuant to the mergers. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules may be allowed as a refund or a credit against the holder's federal income tax liability, provided the required information is furnished to the IRS.

THE FOREGOING DISCUSSION IS NOT INTENDED TO BE A COMPLETE ANALYSIS OR DESCRIPTION OF ALL POTENTIAL UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGERS. IN ADDITION, THE DISCUSSION DOES NOT ADDRESS TAX CONSEQUENCES WHICH MAY VARY WITH, OR ARE CONTINGENT ON, YOUR INDIVIDUAL CIRCUMSTANCES. MOREOVER, THE DISCUSSION DOES NOT ADDRESS ANY NON-INCOME TAX OR ANY FOREIGN, STATE OR LOCAL TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGERS. ACCORDINGLY, YOU ARE STRONGLY URGED TO CONSULT WITH YOUR TAX ADVISOR TO DETERMINE THE PARTICULAR UNITED STATES FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL OR FOREIGN INCOME OR OTHER TAX CONSEQUENCES TO YOU OF THE MERGERS.

Table of ContentsCOMPARISON OF STOCKHOLDER RIGHTS

Fortune Brands is incorporated under the laws of the state of Delaware. SBR is incorporated under the laws of West Virginia. Therefore, any differences in the rights of holders of Fortune Brands capital stock and SBR capital stock arise from differences in the Delaware General Corporation Law, or the DGCL, as compared to the West Virginia Business Corporation Act, or the WVBCA, as well as Fortune Brands and SBR's respective certificates of incorporation and bylaws. After the effective time of the merger, the rights of former stockholders of SBR will be determined by reference to the DGCL and Fortune Brands' restated certificate of incorporation and bylaws. The material differences between the rights of holders of SBR common stock and the rights of holders of Fortune Brands common stock, resulting from the differences in their governing documents and governing state laws, are summarized below.

Copies of the governing corporate instruments of Fortune Brands and SBR are available, without charge, to any person, including any beneficial owner to whom this proxy statement/prospectus is delivered, by following the instructions listed under Additional Information.

Currently the board of directors consists of ten (10) directors.
Right of holders of Preferred Stock to Elect Directors:	If payment of six or more quarterly dividends payable on any series of preferred stock is in default, the holders of $2.67 Preferred (in addition to other rights of holders of any series of preferred stock to vote) are entitled, until all such dividends are paid in full, at each annual meeting of stockholders, voting separately as a class with all other holders of preferred stock entitled to vote for directors, to elect two of the directors then being elected.	SBR does not have any preferred stock. Directors are elected by the holders of Class A common stock.

	Fortune Brands' restated certificate of incorporation contains additional rights of the holders of $2.67 Preferred regarding the filling of vacancies of the directors elected by the holders of the preferred stock.
Vacancy of Directors:	Under Fortune Brands' restated certificate of incorporation, except as otherwise provided with respect to the rights of the holders of any class or series of preferred stock, newly created directorships resulting from any increase in the number of directors or any vacancy on the board of directors are filled by the vote of a majority of the remaining directors then in office or by a sole remaining director. Any director elected in such process shall hold office for the remainder of the full term of the class of directors in which the new directorship was created or the vacancy occurred and until such director's successor is elected and qualified. Decreases in the number of directors do not shorten the term of any incumbent director.	SBR's bylaws provide that any vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation, removal, increase in the number of directors or any other cause, unless filled as provided in Section 2.10 of SBR's bylaws shall be filled by a majority of the then members of the board, whether or not a quorum. Each such director shall hold office until that director or a successor is elected by the holders of the Class A common stock at a meeting called for the purpose of electing directors, or until his or her prior death, resignation or removal. Section 2.10 of SBR's bylaws provides that if any director is removed by the holders of a majority of the Class A common stock, any vacancy or vacancies resulting in the board of directors as a result of such removal may, but need not be, filled by the holders of the Class A common stock at the same meeting or at a special meeting of the stockholders of all classes called for such purpose.
Shareholder Nomination of Directors:	Subject to the rights of the holders of preferred stock, nominations for the election of directors may be made by the board of directors or by any record owner of stock authorized to be issued under Fortune Brands' restated certificate of incorporation and entitled to be voted in the election of directors. Such stockholders may nominate one or more persons for election as a director at a meeting only if written notice of such stockholder's intent to make such nomination(s) is given at least 120 days prior to the annual meeting of stockholders or, with respect to a special meeting of stockholders for the election of directors, the close of business on the seventh day following the earlier of (i) the date on which notice of such meeting is first given to stockholders or (ii) the date on which a public announcement of such meeting is first made.	SBR's bylaws, articles of incorporation, and West Virginia law do not provide any procedure for the nomination of directors.

Removal of Directors:	Under Fortune Brands' restated certificate of incorporation, subject to the rights of holders of any class or series of preferred stock entitled to elect additional directors under specified circumstances, any one or more directors may be removed, only for cause, only by the vote of at least 80% of the combined voting power of the then outstanding shares of voting stock, voting together as a single class, at any annual meeting of stockholders or at any special meeting of stockholders. The notice of such meeting of the stockholders shall state that the removal of a director or directors is among the purposes of the meeting.	SBR's bylaws provide that the entire board or any individual director may be removed at any time for cause by the holders of a majority of the Class A common stock then entitled to vote for the election of directors. West Virginia law provides that a director may be removed with or without cause at a meeting called for that purpose. Only the group or class of stockholders who were entitled to vote for the election of the director may vote for his or her removal, and a director may not be removed if the number of votes sufficient to elect him or her under cumulative voting is voted against his or her removal. To the extent of any inconsistency between the bylaw provision and state law, state law will govern. West Virginia law further provides that a circuit court may remove a director from office in a proceeding commenced by either the corporation or its stockholders holding at least 10% of the outstanding shares of any class if the court finds (1) the director engaged in fraudulent or dishonest conduct or gross abuse of authority or discretion with respect to the corporation, and (2) removal is in the best interest of the corporation.
Stockholder Action Without a Meeting:	Under Fortune Brands' restated certificate of incorporation, any action required or permitted to be taken by the stockholders may be taken only at an annual or special meeting of the stockholders and not by written consent.	SBR's bylaws provide that any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the stockholders may be taken without a meeting if written consents, setting forth the action approved, are signed by the holders of Class A common stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting of the stockholders. The written consents must be delivered to the corporation and notice must be given to any Class A common stockholder who did not consent to the action in writing. West Virginia law provides that any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the stockholders may be taken by written consents describing the action and signed by all of the stockholders entitled to vote on the action. Special Meetings of Stockholders:	The bylaws provide that special meetings of the stockholders may be called only by the Chairman of the Board, the President or the board of directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the entire board. Delaware law and the bylaws require that written notice of any meeting be given not less than 10 days before the date of the meeting to each stockholder entitled to vote at such meeting.	SBR's bylaws provide that a special meeting of the stockholders may be called by the President, the Board of Directors or the holders of at least 20% of the Class A common stock and the Class B common stock. The meeting must be held not less than 10 or more than 20 days after receipt of the request. All stockholders of the corporation are entitled to notice of the meeting and have an opportunity to be heard on all matters that come before the meeting notwithstanding that they may have no right to vote. The bylaws provide that except as otherwise required by law, all notices of a stockholders' meeting must be given at least 10 and not more than 20 days prior to the date of such meeting.
		West Virginia law provides that holders of at least 10% of the votes entitled to be cast on an issue proposed to be considered at a special meeting may demand a meeting to be held but that the articles of incorporation may fix a lower or higher percentage not to exceed 25% of all votes entitled to be cast on an issue proposed to be considered.
		To the extent of any inconsistency between the bylaw provision and state law, state law will govern.
Amendment of Charter:	Except as otherwise provided in Fortune Brands' restated certificate of incorporation, in addition to any vote required by law, the restated certificate of incorporation or the bylaws, the vote of at least 66 2/3% of the votes cast by the stockholders, voting together as a single class at a meeting, is required for the adoption of any amendment to, or repeal of any provision of, the restated certificate of incorporation (other than the adoption by the board of directors of certain amendments with respect to preferred stock).	West Virginia law provides that any amendment to the articles of incorporation of a corporation must first be adopted by its directors. Except for certain limited amendments permitted to be taken without stockholder approval as set forth in W. Va. Code § 31D-10-1005, all amendments must be approved by the holders of the shares of common stock entitled to vote on the amendment. With respect to a charter amendment requiring stockholder approval, unless the articles of incorporation or the board of directors require a greater vote or a greater number of shares to constitute a quorum, a charter amendment must be approved by the shareholders at a meeting at which a quorum consisting of at least a

In addition, if any class or series of shares is entitled to vote as a separate group on the charter amendment, West Virginia law generally requires that the separate voting group approve the amendment at a meeting at which a quorum of the voting group consisting of at least a majority of the shares entitled to vote on the amendment by that voting group exists. Holders of non-voting stock have the right under West Virginia law to vote as a separate voting group on certain issues relating to such shares or class of shares as more fully described in W. Va. Code § 31D-10-1004.
Amendment of Bylaws:	Except as otherwise provided in Fortune Brands' bylaws or restated certificate of incorporation, the board of directors is authorized to alter, amend or repeal the bylaws at any meeting by the vote of two-thirds of the directors then in office, provided, among other things, that any section requiring a specified minimum number of directors for alteration, amendment or repeal may not be altered, amended or repealed without the presence or vote or both, as the case may be, of the minimum number so specified. Any amendment of the section of Fortune Brands' bylaws which governs the authorized number of directors may be adopted at any regular or special meeting of the board of directors by the vote of at least two-thirds of all the directors then in office.	West Virginia law states that a corporation's stockholders may amend or repeal its bylaws. The board of directors may amend or repeal the corporation's bylaws unless (1) that power is reserved exclusively to the stockholders, in whole or in part, in the corporation's articles of incorporation, or (2) the stockholders in amending, repealing or adopting a bylaw expressly provided that such bylaw could not be amended, repealed or reinstated by the board of directors. A bylaw adopted by the stockholders that increases a quorum or voting requirement for the board of directors may be amended or repealed only by the stockholders, unless otherwise provided by the bylaw. If the directors adopt a bylaw increasing a quorum or voting requirement for the board of directors, it may be amended or repealed by either the stockholders or the board of directors. SBR's articles of incorporation do not reserve to the stockholders the power to amend SBR's bylaws.
Voting Rights:	Each holder of Fortune Brands common stock is entitled to one vote for each share held of record.	West Virginia law provides that except in certain limited situations or unless otherwise provided in a corporation's articles of incorporation, each share, regardless of class, is entitled to one vote on each matter voted on at a stockholders' meeting. 		SBR's articles of incorporation provide that the Class A common stock is the only class of stock with voting rights.
Preemptive Rights:	Under Fortune Brands' restated certificate of incorporation, no holder of common stock or preferred stock has or is entitled to any preemptive rights.	Under West Virginia law, unless otherwise provided in a corporation's articles of incorporation, a stockholder does not have any preemptive rights to acquire the corporation's unissued shares. SBR's articles of incorporation do not grant its stockholders any preemptive rights.
Stockholders' Votes on Merger or Consolidation:	Under Delaware law, an agreement of merger or consolidation shall be adopted, approved, certified, executed and acknowledged by each of the constituent corporations in accordance with the laws under which it is formed and, in the case of a Delaware corporation, the board of directors shall approve such agreement and recommend approval to the stockholders. Under Fortune Brands' restated certificate of incorporation, in addition to any vote required by law, the certificate of incorporation or the by-laws of the company and except as otherwise expressly provided, the vote of at least 66 2/3% of the votes cast by the stockholders, voting together as a single class at a meeting, is required for (A) any merger or consolidation of Fortune Brands with or into any other corporation (provided , that no such vote is required in the case of a merger (i) with a company 90% of the outstanding stock of which is owned by Fortune Brands or (ii) mergers in which Fortune Brands is the surviving corporation, and, among other things, the securities issued by Fortune Brands in the merger do not exceed 20% of Fortune Brands common stock outstanding immediately prior to the merger), (B) dissolution, or (C) the sale or lease of all or substantially all Fortune Brands' assets.	Under West Virginia law a plan of merger or share exchange must be approved by its board of directors. Except in certain limited instances, as described in W. Va. Code § 31D-11-1104, a plan of merger or share exchange must be approved by the corporation's stockholders. Unless the corporation's articles of incorporation or board of directors requires a greater vote or quorum the plan must be approved by a majority of the votes entitled to be cast at a meeting at which a quorum is present, and, if any class or series of shares is entitled to vote as a separate voting group, the plan must be approved by a majority vote of each voting group at a meeting at which a quorum of the voting group is present. Separate voting on a plan of merger or share exchange by voting groups is required in certain instances, including by each class or series of shares that (1) are to be converted under a plan of merger into shares or other securities, interest, obligations, rights to acquire shares or other securities, cash, other property or any combination of the foregoing, or (2) under a plan of exchange if such shares are included in the exchange.

Conversion Rights:	Subject to certain provisions for adjustment set forth in the restated certificate of incorporation, each share of $2.67 Preferred is convertible, at the option of the holder of such share, into 1.02 of a share of Fortune Brands common stock.	Neither the Class A common stock nor the Class B common stock is convertible into any other shares of stock of SBR.
Dividends:	Under Delaware law, Fortune Brands may declare and pay dividends, subject to limitations in its restated certificate of incorporation, either out of its surplus or if there is no surplus, out of its net profits for the fiscal year in which the dividend is declared and/or the preceding year. The rights of holders of common stock to receive dividends or to share in the distribution of assets in the event of liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of Fortune Brands are subject to the preferences and other rights of the preferred stock as may be fixed in Fortune Brands restated certificate of incorporation or in the resolution(s) of Fortune Brands board of directors providing for the issue of such preferred stock.	Under West Virginia law, a board of directors and corporation may make distributions to its stockholders, subject to any restrictions in the corporation's articles of incorporation or West Virginia Code § 31D-6-640. State law provides that no distribution may be made if, after giving effect to such distribution (1) the corporation would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of business, or (2) unless otherwise permitted by the corporation's articles of incorporation, the corporation's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount needed, if the corporation was dissolved at the time of such distribution, to satisfy any preferential dissolution rights.
Appraisal and Dissenters Rights:	Under Delaware law, the rights of dissenting stockholders to obtain the fair value for their shares (appraisal rights) are available in certain circumstances in connection with a statutory merger or consolidation. APPRAISAL RIGHTS UNDER WEST VIRGINIA LAW

The following does not purport to be a complete statement of the procedures to be followed by a stockholder of SBR who wants to exercise his or her appraisal rights under Article 13 of the West Virginia Business Corporation Act, and is qualified in its entirety by reference thereto. A copy of Article 13 of the West Virginia Business Corporation Act is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement/prospectus.

As the preservation and exercise of appraisal rights require strict adherence to the provisions of this law, each stockholder who might want to exercise such rights should consult this law and adhere to the provisions thereof.

Under West Virginia Code § 31D-13-1302, a SBR stockholder will be entitled to seek appraisal for, and obtain payment of the fair value of such stockholder's shares of SBR common stock if the merger is consummated. For this purpose, the fair value of SBR common stock will be the value of such stock immediately before the completion of the merger, without discount for lack of marketability or minority status. A SBR stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights may not challenge the merger, unless the merger was not effectuated in accordance with applicable statutory provisions regarding mergers or SBR's articles of incorporation, bylaws or authorizing resolution or was otherwise procured by fraud or misrepresentation.

If a SBR stockholder of record is a nominee for several SBR beneficial stockholders, the record stockholder may assert appraisal rights as to fewer than all of the SBR shares registered in his or her name only if (i) he or she objects with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one person, and (ii) notifies SBR in writing of the name and address of each beneficial stockholder on whose behalf he or she asserts appraisal rights. The rights of the SBR record stockholder who asserts appraisal rights for only part of the shares held in his or her name of record will be determined as if the SBR shares as to which he or she objects, and his or her other SBR shares were registered in the names of different stockholders.

A SBR beneficial stockholder may assert appraisal rights as to shares held on his or her behalf only if:

1. The SBR beneficial stockholder submits to SBR the record stockholder's written consent to the assertion of the appraisal rights no later than the date by which stockholders asserting appraisal rights must return to SBR the Appraisal Form, discussed below; and
2. The SBR beneficial stockholder does so with respect to all shares of the class of SBR stock beneficially owned by him or her.

A SBR stockholder of record who wishes to assert appraisal rights with respect to any class of SBR stock must:

1. Deliver to SBR before the vote is taken, written notice of the stockholder's intent to demand payment if the merger is effectuated; and
2. Not vote, or cause or permit any of his or her shares to be voted in favor of the merger.

Edgar Filing: FORTUNE BRANDS INC - Form S-4/A

A SBR stockholder who does not satisfy the above two requirements is not entitled to assert appraisal rights or receive payment for his or her shares under Article 13 of the West Virginia Business Corporation Act.

If the merger becomes effective, SBR, as the surviving corporation, will deliver to each SBR stockholder who made timely demand of his or her appraisal rights and did not vote (or cause or permit) any of his or her SBR stock in favor of the merger (a Dissenting Stockholder) a written appraisal notice (the Appraisal Notice) and form (the Appraisal Form). The Appraisal Notice and the Appraisal Form will not be sent before the merger becomes effective or more than 10 days after the merger becomes effective. The Appraisal Notice must include the following:

1. The Appraisal Form which states the date SBR first announced to its stockholders the principal terms of the merger (the Announcement Date);

Table of Contents

2. The address where the completed Appraisal Form must be sent and the date by which the Appraisal Form must be received by SBR together with a statement that the Dissenting Stockholder will have waived his or her right to demand appraisal with respect to his or her SBR stock unless the Appraisal Form is received by SBR by that date;

3. The address or place where the Dissenting Stockholder's stock certificates must be deposited and the date by which the stock certificates must be deposited;

4. SBR's estimate of the fair value of the SBR stock;

5. A statement, that upon the Dissenting Stockholder's written request, SBR will provide to the Dissenting Stockholder the number of stockholders who have timely returned the Appraisal Forms and the total number of shares of SBR stock owned by them;

6. The date by which SBR must receive a notice of withdrawal by a Dissenting Stockholder; and

7. A copy of Article 13 of the West Virginia Business Corporation Act.

A Dissenting Stockholder must complete, sign and timely return the Appraisal Form to SBR and timely deposit his or her stock certificates in accordance with the Appraisal Notice. On the Appraisal Form the Dissenting Stockholder must certify:

1. Whether the Dissenting Stockholder acquired beneficial ownership of his or her SBR stock prior to the Announcement Date; and

2. That the Dissenting Stockholder did not vote for the merger.

Once a Dissenting Stockholder deposits his or her stock certificates, the Dissenting Stockholder loses all rights as a stockholder, unless the stockholder withdraws his or her demand for appraisal rights. A Dissenting Stockholder may decline to exercise appraisal rights and withdraw from the appraisal proceeding by notifying SBR in writing by the date set forth in the Appraisal Notice. A Dissenting Stockholder who fails to withdraw from the appraisal process by that date may not withdraw without SBR's written consent.

A SBR stockholder who does not complete, sign and return the Appraisal Form and deposit his or her stock certificates where required, each by the date set forth in the Appraisal Notice, will not be entitled to payment for his or her shares under Article 13 of the West Virginia Business Corporation Act.

Edgar Filing: FORTUNE BRANDS INC - Form S-4/A

With respect to a Dissenting Stockholder who acquired his SBR stock prior to the Announcement Date and who returned the Appraisal Form and deposited his or her stock certificates as and when required under the Appraisal Notice, SBR will pay, within 30 days after the date the Appraisal Form was due, to the Dissenting Stockholder, in cash, SBR's estimated fair value of the SBR stock, plus interest from the effective date of the merger to the date of payment. With the payment, SBR will deliver to the Dissenting Stockholder:

1. SBR's financial statements, consisting of a balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, a statement of changes in stockholders' equity for that year and the latest available interim financial statements, if any;
2. A statement of SBR's estimate of the fair value of the SBR stock which estimate must equal or exceed the estimate given in the Appraisal Notice; and
3. A statement that if the Dissenting Stockholder is dissatisfied with the payment made, he or she has the right to demand further payment by notifying SBR, within 30 days after receipt of the payment, of the Dissenting Stockholders' estimate of the fair value of the SBR stock and demanding payment of that estimate plus interest, less any payment made and that if the Dissenting Stockholder does not make a demand within the stated time period, the Dissenting Stockholder will be deemed to have accepted the payment in full satisfaction of his or her appraisal right.

Table of Contents

A Dissenting Stockholder who has received payment and is dissatisfied with the amount of the payment must notify SBR in writing, within 30 days after receipt of the payment, of the Dissenting Stockholder's estimate of the fair value of the SBR stock and demand payment of that estimate plus interest, less the amount of the payment made. A Dissenting Stockholder who fails to do so will have waived any right to demand further payment and will be entitled only to the payment made.

With respect to a Dissenting Stockholder who does not certify that he or she had acquired beneficial ownership of all of his or her SBR stock prior to the Announcement Date, SBR may elect to withhold payment, and if it does so, then within 30 days after the date the Appraisal Form was due, SBR must:

1. Deliver to the Dissenting Stockholder SBR's financial statements, consisting of a balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, a statement of changes in stockholders' equity for that year and the latest available interim financial statements, if any;
2. Deliver to the Dissenting Stockholder a statement of SBR's estimate of the fair value of the shares which estimate must equal or exceed the estimate given in the Appraisal Notice;
3. Notify the Dissenting Stockholder that he or she may accept SBR's estimate of fair value, plus interest, in full satisfaction of his or her appraisal demands;
4. Notify the Dissenting Stockholder that if he or she wants to accept the offer the Dissenting Stockholder must notify SBR of his or her acceptance of the offer within 30 days after receipt of the offer; and
5. Notify the Dissenting Stockholder that if he or she is dissatisfied with the offer, the Dissenting Stockholder must notify SBR within 30 days after receipt of the offer that he or she is rejecting the offer and demanding payment of the Dissenting Stockholder's stated estimate of the fair value of the SBR stock plus interest and that if the Dissenting Stockholder fails to do so, he or she will be deemed to have accepted the offer.

A Dissenting Stockholder who notifies SBR in writing that he or she accepts the offer in full satisfaction of his or her appraisal demands will receive payment of such amount within 10 days after SBR receives the Dissenting Stockholder's written notice of acceptance.

A Dissenting Stockholder who has received an offer and is dissatisfied with the amount of the offer must notify SBR in writing within 30 days after receipt of the offer that the Dissenting Stockholder rejects the offer and demands payment of the Dissenting Stockholder's stated estimate of the fair value of the SBR stock plus interest. A Dissenting Stockholder who fails to do so will have waived any right to demand payment of any additional amount and will be entitled only to the payment offered, which will be paid by SBR within 40 days after SBR sent the notice and accompanying information to the Dissenting Stockholder.

If a demand made by a Dissenting Stockholder who is dissatisfied with the payment made or offered, and who has complied with the notification requirements described above, remains unsettled, then SBR will, within 60 days after receiving demand for payment, commence a proceeding in

All Dissenting Stockholders whose demands remain unsettled, whether or not residents of West Virginia, will be named as parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares. All parties must be served with a copy of the petition. Non-residents may be served by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law. The court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the question of fair value. The dissenting appraisers will be entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings. There is no right to a jury trial.

Each Dissenting Stockholder who is made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment (1) for the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of his or her shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount paid by SBR to the Dissenting Stockholder for the SBR stock; or (2) for the fair value, plus interest, of the Dissenting Stockholder's SBR stock for which SBR elected to withhold payment as described above.

If SBR does not commence the proceeding within the 60 day period, it shall pay in cash to each such Dissenting Stockholder the amount the Dissenting Stockholder demanded plus interest.

The court in an appraisal proceeding shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of any appraisers appointed by the court. The court will assess the costs against SBR, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the Dissenting Stockholders, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds the Dissenting Stockholders acted arbitrarily, vexatiously or not in good faith in demanding payment. With respect to fees and expenses of counsel and experts, the court in an appraisal proceeding may assess such fees and expenses in amounts the court finds equitable:

1. Against SBR and in favor of any or all of the Dissenting Stockholders if the court finds SBR did not substantially comply with certain statutory requirements of Article 13 of the West Virginia Business Corporation Act;
2. Against either SBR or a Dissenting Stockholder and in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed, acted arbitrarily, vexatiously or not in good faith in demanding payment.

If the court in an appraisal proceeding finds the services of counsel for any Dissenting Stockholder were of substantial benefit to other Dissenting Stockholders similarly situated and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against SBR, the court may award to counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded to the Dissenting Stockholders who were benefited.

If SBR fails to make certain payments to Dissenting Stockholders as required under Article 13 of the West Virginia Business Corporation Act, a Dissenting Stockholder may sue directly for the amount owed and to the extent the Dissenting Stockholder is successful, he or she is entitled to recover from SBR all costs and expenses of the suit, including counsel fees.

FORTUNE BRANDS, INC.

INTRODUCTION TO THE UNAUDITED

PRO FORMA COMBINED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The following unaudited pro forma statement of income presents the unaudited pro forma combined statement of income of Fortune Brands, Inc. (Fortune Brands or the Company) for the year ended December 31, 2005, to give effect to the acquisition of certain acquired businesses and the issuance of new long-term debt in each case as if the acquisition and legal transfer of the acquired businesses and issuance of new long-term debt occurred as of January 1, 2005. The acquired businesses are more than 25 spirits and wine brands and distribution assets described in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005. The actual legal transfer of the acquired businesses occurred in a series of transactions during the six-month period commencing on July 26, 2005 and ending January 27, 2006.

The historical financial information of Fortune Brands set forth below has been derived from the historical consolidated financial statements of the Company included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005. This information is based on historical results of operations and is adjusted as described above and in the notes.

Historical results for the acquired businesses include pre-acquisition one-time and unusual charges, such as adjustments to compensation expense for changes in the fair value of the stock of Allied Domecq PLC (the prior owner of the acquired businesses), as well as allocations of selling and marketing and general and administrative expenses that are not representative of expenses on an ongoing basis. The pro forma adjustments are based on available information and certain assumptions that management believes are reasonable. In the opinion of management, all adjustments required to fairly present the unaudited interim pro forma financial information have been made. The adjustments are directly attributable to the transactions and are expected to have a continuing impact on the results of operations of Fortune Brands.

The unaudited pro forma financial information presented does not purport to represent what the results of operations of Fortune Brands would actually have been had the acquisition occurred January 1, 2005 or to project the results of operations of Fortune Brands for any future periods.

The Company expects to incur restructuring charges as a result of the acquisition. Additional restructuring costs will be recorded when factually supportable information is available in order to estimate these costs. The pro forma adjustments do not reflect any operating efficiencies or cost savings that may be achievable with respect to the combined business of Fortune Brands and the acquired businesses.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated statement of income should be read in conjunction with Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations and the historical financial statements and related notes thereto of Fortune Brands included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005.

- (a) The reporting currency of acquired businesses is the pound sterling. The historical combined statements of revenues and direct expenses of the acquired businesses for the six months and 25 days ended July 25, 2005 were translated into U.S. dollars at the average exchange rate for the related period of 1.8396 U.S. dollars to one pound sterling.
- (b) Financial reporting for the period ended December 31, 2005 was in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Board Interpretation No. 46(R), (FIN 46R), Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities. Many of the acquired businesses were assets commingled in entities that own other assets which were not acquired by Fortune Brands and were acquired by Pernod Ricard S.A. Determination of the fair values of the acquired assets under FIN 46R required management to make estimates and assumptions related to the commingled interests that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, sales and expenses for the reporting periods. Actual results for future periods could differ from those estimates. In accordance with FIN 46R, some of these entities were consolidated and we recognized minority interest for any Pernod Ricard assets at estimated fair values, and other of these entities were not consolidated and were accounted for as an investment using the cost method. Because the pro forma information must be reported as if the acquired businesses were transferred to Fortune Brands as of January 1, 2005, the information in this column adjusts reported financial information to a basis as if all of the Fortune interests in the acquired businesses were consolidated as of January 1, 2005.
- (c) Reduction in excise taxes to exclude duties paid in countries other than the U.S. to align reported acquired businesses with the Company's reported U.S. federal excise taxes.
- (d) Represents depreciation expense resulting from the fair value adjustment to fixed assets acquired based on the estimated useful lives, which is an average of 15 years. Depreciation of the fair value adjustment is amortized over a period of 10 to 40 years based on the estimated remaining useful life of the assets. It excludes any adjustment to the acquisition-related fair value step-up of inventory due to the non-recurring nature of this expense.
- (e) Represents the incremental pension cost to adjust pension expense from a cash contribution basis to an actuarial basis.
- (f) Represents amortization expense of finite-lived intangible assets recorded as a result of the acquisition. Pro forma amortization expense was based on straight-line amortization over the estimated weighted average useful life of 29.8 years for tradenames and 2 years for customer relationships.
- (g) Represents increased interest expense based on the following pro forma amounts of debt giving effect to the financing contemplated in connection with the acquisition as if the financing was outstanding during the entire period shown. The acquisition was initially financed with short-term borrowings under bank credit agreements and sales of commercial paper. In January 2006, the Company issued dollar- and euro-denominated long-term debt securities of $2 billion and 800 million (approximately $1 billion) with maturities ranging from 3 years to 30 years. A portion of the new long-term debt may be denominated in other currencies. As a result of the acquisition, the debt structure as of the date of this report, is:

	(in millions)
Fixed rate debt	$ 3,000.0
Commercial paper	1,815.2
	<hr/>
Total borrowings (excluding Larrios)	$ 4,815.2

Table of Contents

The weighted average interest rate on the fixed rate debt is 4.86%. The pro forma interest rate on commercial paper was determined based on the actual Fortune Brands interest rate during 2005, adjusted for the credit rating subsequent to the acquisition.

A change in the interest rate of one-fourth of one percent would affect interest expense, net of taxes, for the year ended December 31, 2005 as follows:

	(in millions)
Fixed rate debt	$ 4.9
Commercial paper	2.9
	<hr/>
Total	$ 7.8
	<hr/>

- (h) Represents amortization of estimated deferred debt issuance costs ($16.1 million) using the effective interest method over the life of the related debt (maturities range from 3 to 30 years).
- (i) Represents the estimated tax effect on the excess of revenues over direct expenses of the acquired businesses and other pro forma adjustments at a worldwide blended statutory rate.

MERGER CONSIDERATION; CONVERSION OR

CANCELLATION OF SHARES IN THE MERGER

4.1 Effect of the Merger on the Shares.

(a) Conversion of the Company Common Shares. Each Company Common Share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (excluding any Company Common Share described in Section 4.1(d)), shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof, be converted automatically into the right to receive the following consideration:

(i) Subject to clause (iv) below, each Company Common Share with respect to which an election to receive cash (a Cash Election) has been effectively made and not revoked or lost pursuant to

A-2

Table of Contents

Section 4.2 (each, a Cash Election Share), and each No Election Share with respect to any applicable Company Common Share, shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Cash Election Consideration.

(ii) Subject to clause (iii) below, each Company Common Share with respect to which an election to receive stock consideration (a Stock Election) is properly made and not revoked or lost pursuant to Section 4.2 (each, a Stock Election Share) shall be converted into the right to receive a number of validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable shares of common stock of Parent, par value $3.125 per share (Parent Shares) equal to the Exchange Ratio (together with any cash in lieu of fractional Parent Shares to be paid pursuant to Section 4.4, the Per Share Stock Election Consideration).

(iii) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that the sum of (A) the aggregate number of Stock Election Shares (excluding Stock Election Shares held by Tres Investment Company and S. Byrl Ross Enterprises, Inc.) plus (B) the Related Pro Forma Stock Election Shares (collectively, the Aggregate Stock Election Shares), exceeds 5,474,420, then, without any further action of the parties hereto, each Stock Election Share (excluding Stock Election Shares held by Tres Investment Company and S. Byrl Ross Enterprises, Inc.) shall be converted into a right to receive (A) a number of validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable Parent Shares (the Adjusted Exchange Ratio) equal to (1) the Exchange Ratio minus (2) (x) the difference between (i) the Aggregate Stock Election Shares minus (ii) 5,474,420 times (y) the Exchange Ratio divided by (z) the Aggregate Stock Election Shares, and (B) an amount of cash equal to (1) the Per Share Cash Election Consideration minus (2) the product of (x) the Adjusted Exchange Ratio times (y) the Assumed Share Value. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, in no event shall the Stock Election Shares held by Tres Investment Company or S. Byrl Ross Enterprises, Inc. be subject to the foregoing adjustment.

(iv) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, in the event that the Aggregate Stock Election Shares is less than 3,864,296, then, without any further action by the parties hereto, each Cash Election Share and each No Election Share shall be converted into a right to receive (A) a number of validly issued fully paid and non-assessable Parent Shares (the Cash Election Exchange Ratio) equal to (1) the difference between (x) 3,864,296 minus (y) the Aggregate Stock Election Shares times (2) the Exchange Ratio times (3) the Merger Cash Percentage divided by (3) the aggregate number of Cash Election Shares and No Election Shares, and (B) an amount of cash equal to the difference between (1) the Per Share Cash Election Consideration minus (2) the product of (x) the Cash Election Exchange Ratio times (y) the Assumed Share Value.

(b) Conversion of Company Purchase Rights. Prior to the Effective Time, the Company's Board of Directors (or, if appropriate, any committee thereof) shall adopt appropriate resolutions and take all other actions necessary to (i) provide for the cancellation or exercise, effective at the Effective Time, of all the outstanding options, warrants, subscription rights, conversion rights, purchase rights or any other right that grants the holder thereof the right to receive or purchase Company Common Shares, whether or not exercisable and whether or not vested (each, a Company Purchase Right) without any payment therefor except as otherwise provided in this Section 4.1(b), and (ii) terminate the Company Purchase Plans as of the Effective Time. Each Company Purchase Right, to the extent unexercised as of the Effective Time (excluding any Company Purchase Right described in Section 4.1(d)), shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of the holder thereof no longer be exercisable and, upon execution of a termination and waiver letter in form reasonably satisfactory to Parent, shall be converted into the right to receive the following consideration in cancellation and settlement therefor:

(i) Each Company Purchase Right Share for which a Cash Election has been effectively made and not revoked or lost pursuant to Section 4.2, and each No Election Share with respect to any applicable Company Purchase Rights Share, shall be converted into the right to receive a payment equal to the excess, if any, of the Per Share Cash Election Consideration (subject to adjustment pursuant to Section 4.1(a)(iii) and (iv) above) over the exercise (or unpaid portion of the purchase) price per Company Common Share subject to such Company Purchase Right.

(ii) Each Company Purchase Right Share for which a Stock Election was made and not revoked or lost pursuant to Section 4.2 shall be converted into a number of Parent Shares calculated pursuant to Section 4.1(a)(ii) (subject to adjustment pursuant to Section 4.1(a)(iii) and (iv) above); provided, however, that for purposes of the calculation of the Exchange Ratio or the Adjusted Exchange Ratio, as applicable, the Per Share Cash Election Consideration shall be deemed to be the excess, if any, of the Per Share Cash Election Consideration over the exercise (or unpaid portion of the purchase) price per Company Common Share subject to such Company Purchase Right.

(c) Conversion of Merger Sub Common Stock. At the Effective Time, each membership interest of Merger Sub issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, by virtue of the Merger and without any further action on the part of the holder thereof be converted into and become one validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable share of common stock, no par value of the Surviving Entity.

(d) Dissenting Shares. To the extent that holders thereof are entitled to appraisal rights under Section 31D-13-1302 of the WVBCA, Company Common Shares issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and held by a holder who has properly exercised and perfected such holder's demand for appraisal rights under Section 31D-13-1323 of the WVBCA (the Dissenting Shares), shall not be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration, but the holders of Dissenting Shares shall be entitled to receive from the Surviving Entity such consideration as shall be determined pursuant to Section 31D-13-1324 of the WVBCA; provided, however, that if any such holder shall have failed to perfect or shall effectively withdraw or lose such holder's right to appraisal and payment under the WVBCA, each of such holder's Company Common Shares shall thereupon be deemed to have been converted as of the Effective Time into the right to receive the Merger Consideration, without any interest thereon, upon surrender of the certificate formerly representing such Company Common Shares and such shares shall not be deemed to be Dissenting Shares.

4.2 Election Procedures.

(a) An election form and other appropriate and customary transmittal materials in such form as Parent shall specify and as shall be reasonably acceptable to the Company (the Election Form) shall be mailed together with the Proxy Statement and the Form S-4 or at such other time as the Company and Parent may agree (the Mailing Date) to each holder of record of Company Common Shares as of the close of business on the record date for notice of the Stockholders Meeting (the Election Form Record Date) and to each holder of Company Purchase Rights as of the Mailing Date.

(b) Each Election Form shall permit the holder (or the beneficial owner through appropriate and customary documentation and instructions), other than any holder of Dissenting Shares, to specify (i) the number of such holder's Company Common Shares and Company Purchase Rights Shares with respect to which such holder elects to receive the Per Share Stock Election Consideration, (ii) the number of such holder's Company Common Shares and Company Purchase Rights Shares with respect to which such holder elects to receive the Per Share Cash Consideration, or (iii) that such holder makes no election with respect to such holder's Company Common Shares and Company Purchase Rights Shares (the No Election Shares). Any Company Common Shares and Company Purchase Rights Shares with respect to which the Exchange Agent has not received an effective, properly completed Election Form on or before 5:00 p.m., New York time, on the twentieth Business Day following the Mailing Date (or such other time and date as Parent and the Company shall agree) (the Election Deadline) (other than any Company Common Shares and Company Purchase Rights Shares that constitute Dissenting Shares as of such time) shall also be deemed to be No Election Shares.

(c) Parent shall make available one or more Election Forms as may reasonably be requested from time to time by all Persons who become holders (or beneficial owners) of Company Common Shares or Company Purchase Rights Shares between the Election Form Record Date and the close of business on the Business Day prior to the Election Deadline, and the Company shall provide to the Exchange Agent all information reasonably necessary for it to perform as specified herein.

Table of Contents

(d) Any such election shall have been properly made only if the Exchange Agent shall have actually received a properly completed Election Form by the Election Deadline. Any Election Form may be revoked or changed by the Person submitting such Election Form, by written notice received by the Exchange Agent prior to the Election Deadline. In the event an Election Form is revoked prior to the Election Deadline, the Company Common Shares and Company Purchase Rights Shares represented by such Election Form shall become No Election Shares, except to the extent (if any) a subsequent election is properly made with respect to any or all of such Company Common Shares and Company Purchase Rights Shares. Subject to the terms of this Agreement and of the Election Form, the Exchange Agent shall have reasonable discretion to determine whether any election, revocation or change has been properly or timely made and to disregard immaterial defects in the Election Forms, and any good faith decisions of the Exchange Agent regarding such matters shall be binding and conclusive. With respect to any Election Form received by the Escrow Agent no later than three (3) Business Days prior to the Election Deadline, the Company, and the Exchange Agent shall exercise reasonable diligence to notify any Person of any defect in such Election Form, and each such Person shall be permitted to correct any such defect or defects in the Election Form prior to the Election Deadline.

4.3 Surrender and Payment; Exchange of Certificates.

(a) Prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall appoint The Bank of New York or such other exchange agent acceptable to the Company (the Exchange Agent) for the purpose of exchanging Certificates representing Company Common Shares (Certificates) for the Merger Consideration. Parent will make available to the Exchange Agent, as needed, (i) an aggregate amount of cash equal to the product of (A) the aggregate Cash Election Shares times (B) the Per Share Cash Election Consideration to be delivered in respect of the Fully-Diluted Company Common Shares (as adjusted pursuant to Section 4.1(a)(ii)) and (ii) the Escrowed Merger Consideration to be held in accordance with the terms of the Escrow Agreement. To the extent not received prior to the Effective Time, promptly thereafter, Parent will send, or will cause the Exchange Agent to send, to each Fully-Diluted Stockholder as of the Effective Time (other than any holder which has previously and properly surrendered all of its Certificates(s) to the Exchange Agent in accordance with Section 4.2 (each, an Electing Stockholder)), a letter of transmittal for use in such exchange (which shall specify that the delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title shall pass, only upon proper delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent) in such form as the Company and Parent may reasonably agree, for use in effecting delivery of such Fully-Diluted Company Common Shares to the Exchange Agent.

(b) Each Fully-Diluted Company Common Share that has been converted into a right to receive the Merger Consideration, upon (i) with respect to any Electing Stockholder, completion of the calculations required by Section 4.1(a) or (ii) with respect to any holder that is not an Electing Stockholder, surrender to the Exchange Agent of a Certificate, together with a properly completed letter of transmittal, will be entitled to receive (A) one or more Parent Shares (which shall be in non-certificated book-entry form unless a physical certificate is requested) representing, in the aggregate, the whole number of Parent Shares, if any, that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to Section 4.1(a) and (B) a check or wire transfer to an account designated by any Fully Diluted Stockholder in the amount equal to the cash portion of the Merger Consideration, if any, that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to Section 4.1(a) and this Section 4.3, including cash payable in lieu of fractional shares pursuant to Section 4.4 and dividends and other distributions pursuant to Section 4.3(f). No interest shall be paid or accrued on any Merger Consideration, cash in lieu of fractional shares or on any unpaid dividends and distributions payable to holders of Certificates. Until so surrendered, each such Certificate shall, after the Effective Time, represent for all purposes only the right to receive such Merger Consideration.

(c) If any portion of the Merger Consideration is to be registered in the name of a Person other than the Person in whose name the applicable surrendered Certificate is registered, it shall be a condition to the registration thereof that the surrendered Certificate shall be properly endorsed or otherwise be in proper form for transfer and that the Person requesting such delivery of the Merger Consideration shall pay to the

Exchange Agent any transfer or other similar Taxes required as a result of such registration in the name of a Person other than the registered holder of such Certificate or establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such Tax has been paid or is not payable.

(d) After the Effective Time, there shall be no further registration of transfers of Company Common Shares or Company Purchase Rights. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates are presented to the Exchange Agent, the Surviving Entity or the Parent, they shall be canceled and exchanged for the consideration provided for, and in accordance with the procedures set forth, in this Article IV.

(e) Any portion of the Merger Consideration (other than the Escrowed Merger Consideration) made available to the Exchange Agent pursuant to Section 4.1(a) that remains unclaimed by the Fully-Diluted Stockholders one year after the Effective Time shall be returned to Parent, upon demand, and any such holder who has not exchanged his Company Common Shares for the Merger Consideration in accordance with this Section 4.3 prior to that time shall thereafter look only to Parent for delivery of the Merger Consideration in respect of such holder's shares. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Parent shall not be liable to any holder of shares for any Merger Consideration delivered to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property laws. Any Merger Consideration remaining unclaimed by Fully-Diluted Stockholders five years after the Effective Time (or such earlier date immediately prior to such time as such amounts would otherwise escheat to or become property of any governmental entity) shall, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, become the property of Parent free and clear of any claims or interest of any Person previously entitled thereto.

(f) No dividends or other distributions with respect to Parent Shares issued in the Merger shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificates until such Certificates are surrendered as provided in this Section 4.3. Following such surrender, there shall be paid, without interest, to the record holder of the Parent Shares issued in exchange therefor (i) at the time of such surrender, all dividends and other distributions payable in respect of such Parent Shares with a record date after the Effective Time and a payment date on or prior to the date of such surrender and not previously paid and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the dividends or other distributions payable with respect to such Parent Shares with a record date after the Effective Time but with a payment date subsequent to such surrender. For purposes of dividends or other distributions in respect of Parent Shares, all Parent Shares to be issued pursuant to the Merger shall be entitled to dividends pursuant to the immediately preceding sentence as if issued and outstanding as of the Effective Time.

(g) Any portion of the Merger Consideration deposited with the Exchange Agent pursuant to this Section 4.3 to pay for Company Common Shares for which appraisal rights shall have been perfected shall be returned to Parent, upon demand.

(h) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Exchange Agent shall not pay to the Fully-Diluted Stockholders an aggregate amount of the Merger Consideration equal to (i) the Indemnity Escrow plus (ii) the Adjustment Holdback until such time as such amounts are distributable pursuant to the Escrow Agreement (the Escrowed Merger Consideration).

4.4 Fractional Shares.

(a) No fractional Parent Shares shall be issued in the Merger, but in lieu thereof each Fully-Diluted Stockholder otherwise entitled to a fractional Parent Share will be entitled to receive, from the Exchange Agent in accordance with the provisions of this Section 4.4, a cash payment in lieu of such fractional Parent Share representing such holder's proportionate interest, if any, in the proceeds from the sale by the Exchange Agent in one or more transactions of Parent Shares equal to the excess of (x) the aggregate number of Parent Shares to be issued by Parent pursuant to the terms of this Agreement over (y) the aggregate number of whole Parent Shares to be distributed to the holders of Fully-Diluted Company Common Shares hereunder (such excess being herein called the Excess Shares). The parties acknowledge that payment of the cash consideration in lieu of issuing fractional shares was not separately bargained-for consideration but merely represents a mechanical rounding off for purposes of avoiding the expense and inconvenience to Parent that would otherwise be caused by the issuance of fractional shares. As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent, as agent for the holders of the Certificates representing Company Common Shares, shall sell the Excess Shares at then prevailing prices on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) in the manner provided in the following paragraph.

(b) The sale of the Excess Shares by the Exchange Agent, as agent for the holders that would otherwise receive fractional shares, shall be executed on the NYSE through one or more member firms of the NYSE and shall be executed in round lots to the extent practicable. The compensation payable to the Exchange Agent and the expenses incurred by the Exchange Agent, in each case, in connection with such sale or sales of the Excess Shares, and all related commissions, transfer taxes and other out-of-pocket transaction costs, will be paid by the Surviving Entity out of its own funds and will not be paid directly or indirectly by Parent, nor charged against Fully Diluted Stockholders. Until the proceeds of such sale or sales have been distributed to the Fully-Diluted Stockholders, the Exchange Agent shall hold such proceeds in trust for the Fully-Diluted Stockholders (the Common Shares Trust). The Exchange Agent shall determine the portion of the Common Shares Trust to which each Fully-Diluted Stockholder shall be entitled, if any, by multiplying the amount of the aggregate proceeds comprising the Common Shares Trust by a fraction, the numerator of which is the amount of the fractional share interest to which such Fully-Diluted Stockholder would otherwise be entitled and the denominator of which is the aggregate amount of fractional share interests to which all Fully-Diluted Stockholders would otherwise be entitled.

(c) As soon as practicable after the determination of the amount of cash, if any, to be paid to Fully-Diluted Stockholders in lieu of any fractional Parent Shares, the Exchange Agent shall pay such amounts to such Fully-Diluted Stockholders without interest, subject to and in accordance with Section 4.3.

4.5 Lost Certificates. If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Parent or the Surviving Entity, the posting by such Person of a bond, in such reasonable amount as the Surviving Entity may direct, as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the Merger Consideration to be paid in respect of the Company Common Shares represented by such Certificate as contemplated by this Article IV.

4.6 Withholding Rights. Each of the Surviving Entity and Parent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable to any Person pursuant to this Article IV such amounts as it is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under any provision of any Law relating to Taxes. To the extent that amounts are so deducted or withheld by the Surviving Entity or Parent, as the case may be, and paid over to the applicable governmental entity, such deducted or withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the Fully-Diluted Stockholders in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by the Surviving Entity or Parent, as the case may be.

4.7 Further Assurances. At and after the Effective Time, the officers and directors of the Surviving Entity will be authorized to execute and deliver, in the name and on behalf of the Company or Merger Sub, as applicable, any deeds, bills of sale, assignments or assurances and to take and do, in the name and on behalf of the Company or Merger Sub, any other actions and things to vest, perfect or confirm of record or otherwise in the Surviving Entity any and all right, title and interest in, to and under any of the rights, properties or assets acquired or to be acquired by the Surviving Entity as a result of, or in connection with, the Merger.

4.8 Adjustment Holdback.

Edgar Filing: FORTUNE BRANDS INC - Form S-4/A

(a) At least three (3) Business Days prior to the Closing Date, the Chief Financial Officer of the Company shall prepare and deliver a certificate (the Adjustment Certificate) to Parent setting forth the Company's estimated calculation of Net Indebtedness and Transaction Costs as of the Effective Time. Such calculation shall be prepared in accordance with GAAP and on a basis using the same methods, principles, practices and policies used in the preparation of the Financial Statements and shall be acceptable to Parent in its sole discretion. The aggregate amounts set forth in such Adjustment Certificate are hereafter referred to as the Estimated Adjustments. At Closing, an aggregate amount equal to the sum of $5,000,000 in cash (the Adjustment Holdback), shall be deducted from the Merger Consideration otherwise to be paid by the Exchange Agent to the Fully-Diluted Stockholders pursuant to Section 4.3. For the avoidance of doubt, each Fully-Diluted Stockholder shall only be obligated to contribute such Fully-Diluted Stockholder's pro rata portion (based on the Fully-Diluted Company Common Shares) of the Merger Consideration to the Adjustment Holdback.

(b) Within fifteen (15) days following the Closing Date, Parent shall prepare and deliver to the Holders Representative a certificate setting forth Parent's calculation of Net Indebtedness and Transaction Costs. Such calculation shall be prepared in accordance with GAAP using the same methods, principles, practices and policies as was required to be used in the preparation of the Estimated Adjustments. The aggregate amounts set forth in such certificate are hereafter referred to as the Actual Adjustments. Within ten (10) days of receipt of the Parent's calculation of the Actual Adjustments, the Holders Representative may provide notice that it disagrees with the Parent's calculation of the Actual Adjustments. If such notice is delivered, Parent and the Holders Representative shall have ten (10) days from the delivery of the notice to agree on the Actual Adjustments. If the Parent and Holder Representative do not agree, then the matter shall be submitted to an independent nationally recognized accounting firm selected in writing by Parent and Holder Representative who shall make a final determination of the Actual Adjustments within thirty (30) days of submission of the matter to it.

The Company acknowledges that Parent may request full and complete access and cooperation of the Company and its personnel for additional due diligence, including Phase II investigation of the Real Property, and agrees to provide any support and to take any actions reasonably requested by Parent in this regard. 6.5 Publicity. The Parties agree that they will consult with each other concerning any proposed press release or public announcement pertaining to this Agreement or the Merger in order to agree upon the text of any such press release or the making of such public announcement, which agreement shall not be unreasonably withheld, except as may be required by applicable Law or by obligations pursuant to any listing agreement with a national securities exchange or national automated quotation system, in which case the Party proposing to issue such press release or make such public announcement shall use its reasonable best efforts to consult in good faith with Parent or the Company, as applicable, before issuing any such press release or making any such public announcement.

6.6 Representations and Warranties. Each of the Company and Parent shall give prompt notice to the other of any circumstances that would cause any of their respective representations and warranties set forth in Section 5.1 or 5.2, as the case may be, not to be true and correct in all material respects at and as of the Effective Time; provided, that delivery of such notice shall not cure or be deemed to cure any breach of a representation or warranty.

6.7 Filings; Reasonable Best Efforts to Consummate Transactions. 6.9 Tax Matters.

(a) Subject to Section 8.1, the Fully-Diluted Stockholders shall, jointly and severally, indemnify Parent, the Company and the Surviving Entity for all Taxes of the Company (including Taxes of any other person for which the Company is liable as a result of transferee liability, joint and several liability, under a contract, or otherwise) other than Company Taxes, if any, that arise as a result of the Merger or the Subsequent Merger (which shall not be the responsibility of the Fully-Diluted Stockholders) to the extent such Taxes are not adequately provided for as current taxes on the Company's Recent Financial Statements (i) for taxable periods ending on or before the Closing Date and (ii) for any period not ending on or before the Closing Date, for the portion of any Taxes attributable to the period ending on the Closing Date.

Edgar Filing: FORTUNE BRANDS INC - Form S-4/A

(b) For any period that includes but does not end on the Closing Date, (i) liability for any Taxes determined by reference to income, capital gains, gross income, gross receipts, sales, net profits, windfall profits or similar items or resulting from a transfer of assets shall be allocated between the Fully-Diluted Stockholders and the Company based on the date on which such items accrued; and (ii) liability for all other Taxes shall be allocated between the Fully-Diluted Stockholders and the Company, pro rata based on the number of days in the taxable period for which each party is liable for Taxes hereunder.

(c) The Holders Representative shall cause the Company to prepare and file all Tax Returns of the Company due on or prior to the Closing Date, which returns and reports shall be prepared and filed timely and on a basis consistent with existing procedures for preparing such returns and reports and in a manner consistent with prior practice with respect to the treatment of specific items on the returns or reports; provided, however, that if the treatment of an item on any such return or report has not been provided by prior practice, the Holders Representative shall cause the Company to report such items in a manner that would result in the least amount of Tax liability to the Company and Parent for periods ending after the Closing Date. Parent shall cause the Company to prepare and file all Tax Returns of the Company due after the Closing Date, which returns and reports, to the extent they relate to taxable periods beginning prior to, but including the Closing Date, and for the purpose of determining the liability for Taxes of the Fully-Diluted Stockholders, shall be prepared and filed timely and on a basis consistent with existing procedures for preparing such returns and in a manner consistent with prior practice with respect to the treatment of specific items on the returns and reports, unless such treatment does not have sufficient legal support to avoid the imposition of penalties. In the event the Fully-Diluted Stockholders are liable under Section 6.9(a) hereof for Taxes due in connection with the returns described in the preceding sentence, the Fully-Diluted Stockholders shall pay the amount of such liability to the Company immediately upon request or at least three (3) business days prior to the filing of such returns, whichever is later.

(d) Parent, the Company and the Holders Representative shall provide each other with such assistance as may reasonably be requested by the others in connection with the preparation of any Tax Return, any audit or other examination by any taxing authority, or any judicial or administrative proceedings relating to liabilities for Taxes. Such assistance shall include making employees available on a mutually convenient basis to provide additional information or explanation of material provided hereunder and shall include providing copies of relevant tax returns and supporting material. The party requesting assistance hereunder shall reimburse the assisting party for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in providing assistance. Parent, the Company and the Holders Representative will retain for the full period of any statute of limitations and provide the others with any records or information which may be relevant to such preparation, audit, examination, proceeding or determination.

(e) If in connection with any examination, investigation, audit or other proceeding in respect of any Tax Return covering the operations of the Company on or before the Closing Date, any Governmental Authority issues to the Company a written notice of deficiency, a notice of reassessment, a proposed adjustment, an assertion of claim or demand concerning the taxable period covered by such return, Parent or the Company shall notify the Holders Representative of its receipt of such communication from the Governmental Authority within thirty (30) business days after receiving such notice of deficiency, reassessment, adjustment or assertion of claim or demand. No failure or delay of Parent or the Company in the performance of the foregoing shall reduce or otherwise affect the obligations or liabilities of the Fully-Diluted Stockholders pursuant to this Agreement, except to the extent that such failure or delay shall preclude the Holders Representative from defending against any liability or claim for Taxes that the Fully-Diluted Stockholders are obligated to pay hereunder. Except as provided below, the Holders Representative shall, at its expense, have the nonexclusive right to participate in the contest of any such assessment, proposal, claim, reassessment, demand or other proceedings in connection with any Tax Return covering taxable periods of the Company ending on or before the Closing Date. Parent and the Company will not be obligated to settle or resolve any issue related to Taxes for such a period, which, if so settled or resolved, could have an effect on the Company or Parent for periods after the Closing Date, unless the Holders Representative agrees in writing with Parent and the Company, in terms reasonably satisfactory to Parent and the Company, that the Fully-Diluted Stockholders shall indemnify Parent, any affiliate of Parent, and the Company from any cost, damage, loss or expense relating to such settlement or resolution. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, if any examination, investigation, audit or other proceeding relates to a Tax Return for a period that begins before and ends after the Closing Date, Parent and the Company shall solely participate in, control and resolve such examination, investigation, audit or other proceeding, provided that Parent shall communicate with the Holders Representative regarding the status of such examination, investigation, audit or proceeding.

(f) If there is an adjustment to any Tax Return for the Company which creates a deficiency in any Taxes for which the Fully-Diluted Stockholders are liable under the provisions of Section 6.9(a) hereof, the Fully-Diluted Stockholders shall pay to Parent the amount of such deficiency in Taxes. No liability of the Fully-Diluted Stockholders under this Section 6.9(f) shall be payable until the occurrence of any action by any Tax authority that is final or, if not final, is acquiesced in by the Holders Representative during the course of any audit or any proceeding relating to Taxes.

(g) All federal, state, local, foreign and other transfer, sales, use or similar Taxes applicable to, imposed upon or arising out of the transfer of the Company Common Shares or any other transaction contemplated by this Agreement shall be paid by the Parent.

8.2 Indemnification by the Fully-Diluted Stockholders. From and after the Closing Date, the Fully-Diluted Stockholders shall, jointly and severally, indemnify and hold harmless Parent, the Surviving Entity and its Subsidiaries, each of their respective directors, officers, employees and agents (other than the Fully-Diluted Stockholders), and each of the heirs, executors, successors and assigns of any of the foregoing (collectively, the Parent Indemnified Parties) from and against any and all Losses (after giving effect to any after tax effect actually realized by such Parent Indemnified Party) actually paid, incurred or suffered by any of the Parent Indemnified Parties in connection with or arising from (i) any breach by the Company of its covenants and agreements contained herein, (ii) any breach (after giving effect to the disclosures set forth in the Disclosure Schedules) by the Company of its representations and warranties contained herein; (provided, that for purposes of this clause (ii), if any such representation or warranty is qualified by knowledge, materiality, Material Adverse Effect, the word knowledge, material or by words of similar impact, such qualification or exception will in all respects be ignored and deemed not included in such representation or warranty) and (iii) notwithstanding, and without giving any effect to, the disclosure of any matter set forth in the Disclosure Schedules hereto, any breach of Section 5.1(o) arising from or related to the Company and its Subsidiaries or the Real Property prior to the Effective Time to the extent such Loss is not covered by valid claims previously made under, and prior to the expiration of, that certain insurance policy (#UST92000209) with Lloyds of London (including any condition, violation or alleged violation of Environmental Laws or Environmental Permits or any Release or threatened Release of Hazardous Materials continuing as of the Effective Time); provided, that (A) the Fully-Diluted Stockholders shall be required to indemnify the Parent Indemnified Parties pursuant to Section 8.2(ii) only to the extent that the aggregate Losses indemnifiable pursuant to Section 8.2(ii) exceed $500,000 in the aggregate (the Threshold); provided, that once the aggregate Losses exceed the Threshold, the Fully Diluted Stockholders shall be liable for the payment of all Losses pursuant to Section 8.2(ii) from the first dollar thereof and not merely the amounts in excess of the Threshold); and (B) any claim for indemnification under this Section 8.2 must be made during the survival period set forth in Section 8.1; provided, further, that the limitations described above in Section 8.2(A) and (B) shall not apply to any Losses resulting from the fraud or intentional misrepresentation of the Company. To the extent that any of the Fully-Diluted Stockholders undertakings set forth in this Section 8.2 may be unenforceable, each of the Fully-Diluted Stockholders shall, pursuant to the Escrow Agreement, contribute the maximum amount that is permitted under applicable law to the payment and satisfaction of all indemnifiable liabilities incurred by the Parent Indemnified Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall the Parent Indemnified Parties be entitled to indemnification for any Loss (i) which, individually, is in an aggregate amount less than $5,000 or (ii) which arises from or relates to the failure to have any Environmental Permit to the extent Parent has not used commercially reasonable efforts to apply for and diligently pursue obtaining such Environmental Permit within the six (6) month period after the Closing.

8.3 Indemnification by Parent. From and after the Closing Date, Parent shall indemnify and hold harmless the Fully-Diluted Stockholders, each of their respective directors, officers, employees and agents, and each of the heirs, executors, successors and assigns of any of the foregoing (collectively, the Stockholder Indemnified Parties) from and against any and all Losses (after giving effect to any after tax effect actually realized by such Stockholder Indemnified Parties) actually paid, incurred or suffered by any of the Stockholder Indemnified Parties in connection with or arising from (i) any breach by Parent or Merger Sub of its covenants and agreements contained herein or (ii) any breach by Parent or Merger Sub of its representations and warranties contained herein (provided, that for purposes of this clause (ii), if any such representation or warranty is qualified by materiality, Parent Material Adverse Effect, the word material or by words of similar impact, such qualification or exceptions will, in all respects be ignored and deemed not included in such representation or warranty); provided that (A) Parent shall be required to indemnify the Stockholder Indemnified Parties pursuant to Section 8.3(ii) only to the extent that the aggregate Losses indemnifiable pursuant to Section 8.3(ii) exceed the Threshold (provided, that once the aggregate Losses exceed the Threshold, Parent shall be liable for the payment of all Losses from the first dollar thereof and not merely the amounts in excess of the Threshold); and (B) any claim for indemnification under this Section 8.3 must be made during the survival period set forth in Section 8.1; provided, further, that the limitations described in Sections 8.3(A) and (B) shall not apply to any Losses resulting from fraud or intentional misrepresentation of Parent. If a claim by a third party is made against a Parent Indemnified Party or a Stockholder Indemnified Party (an Indemnified Party), and if such Indemnified Party intends to seek indemnity with respect thereto under this Article VIII, such Indemnified Party shall promptly notify indemnifying party of such claims. The failure to provide such notice shall not result in a waiver of any right to indemnification hereunder except to the extent the indemnifying party is actually materially prejudiced by such failure. With respect to a claim by a Stockholder Indemnified Party or by a Parent Indemnified Party, Parent shall undertake, conduct and control, through counsel of its own choosing, the settlement or defense thereof, and the Indemnified Party shall cooperate with it in connection therewith. An indemnifying party shall not, except with the consent of the Indemnified Party, enter into any settlement that (i) does not include as an unconditional term thereof the giving by the Person or Persons asserting such claim to all Indemnified Parties of unconditional release from all liability with respect to such claim or consent to entry of any judgment or (ii) imposes any restriction, condition or obligation on, or requires any undertaking or admission by, the Company, its Subsidiaries or the Indemnified Parties.

8.5 Tax Treatment of Indemnification Payments. All indemnification payments under this Article VIII and under Section 6.9 shall be treated as adjustments to the Merger Consideration.

8.6 Escrow Agreement. In addition to any right or remedy available to Parent hereunder or otherwise, Parent may pursue collection of any indemnification claims against the Fully-Diluted Stockholders under the Escrow Agreement.

§31D-13-1303. Assertion of rights by nominees and beneficial owners.

(a) A record shareholder may assert appraisal rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in the record shareholder's name but owned by a beneficial shareholder only if the record shareholder objects with respect to all shares of the class or series owned by the beneficial shareholder and notifies the corporation in writing of the name and address of each beneficial shareholder on whose behalf appraisal rights are being asserted. The rights of a record shareholder who asserts appraisal rights for only part of the shares held of record in the record shareholder's name under this subsection are to be determined as if the shares as to which the record shareholder objects and the record shareholder's other shares were registered in the names of different record shareholders.

(b) A beneficial shareholder may assert appraisal rights as to shares of any class or series held on behalf of the shareholder only if the shareholder:

(1) Submits to the corporation the record shareholder's written consent to the assertion of the rights no later than the date referred to in paragraph (D), subdivision (2), subsection (b), section one thousand three hundred twenty-two [§ 31D-13-1322] of this article; and

(2) Does so with respect to all shares of the class or series that are beneficially owned by the beneficial shareholder.

PART 2. PROCEDURE FOR EXERCISE OF APPRAISAL RIGHTS.

(2) Must not vote, or cause or permit to be voted, any shares of the class or series in favor of the proposed action.

(b) A shareholder who does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (a) of this section is not entitled to payment under this article.

§31D-13-1322. Appraisal notice and form.

(a) If proposed corporate action requiring appraisal rights under subsection (a), section one thousand three hundred two [§ 31D-13-1302] of this article becomes effective, the corporation must deliver a written appraisal notice and form required by subdivision (1), subsection (b) of this section to all shareholders who satisfied the requirements of section one thousand three hundred twenty-one [§ 31D-13-1321] of this article. (b) The appraisal notice must be sent no earlier than the date the corporate action became effective and no later than ten days after that date and must:

(1) Supply a form that specifies the date of the first announcement to shareholders of the principal terms of the proposed corporate action and requires the shareholder asserting appraisal rights to certify: (A) Whether or not beneficial ownership of those shares for which appraisal rights are asserted was acquired before that date; and (B) that the shareholder did not vote for the transaction;

(2) State:

(B) A date by which the corporation must receive the form which date may not be fewer than forty nor more than sixty days after the date the appraisal notice and form required by subsection (a) of this section are sent and state that the shareholder is deemed to have waived the right to demand appraisal with respect to the shares unless the form is received by the corporation by the specified date;

(C) The corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares;

(D) That, if requested in writing, the corporation will provide, to the shareholder so requesting, within ten days after the date specified in paragraph (B) of this subdivision the number of shareholders who return the forms by the specified date and the total number of shares owned by them; and corporation whether the beneficial owner of the shares acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before the date required to be set forth in the notice pursuant to subdivision (1), subsection (b), section one thousand three hundred twenty-two of this article. If a shareholder fails to make this certification, the corporation may elect to treat the shareholder's shares as after-acquired shares under section one thousand three hundred twenty-five [§ 31D-13-1325] of this article. In addition, a shareholder who wishes to exercise appraisal rights must execute and return the form and, in the case of certificated shares, deposit the shareholder's certificates in accordance with the terms of the notice by the date referred to in the notice pursuant to paragraph (B), subdivision (2), subsection (b), section one thousand three hundred twenty-two of this article. A shareholder who fails to withdraw from the appraisal process by that date may not withdraw without the corporation's written consent.

(c) A shareholder who does not execute and return the form and, in the case of certificated shares, deposit the shareholder's share certificates where required, each by the date set forth in the notice described in subsection (b), section one thousand three hundred twenty-two [§ 31D-13-1322] of this article, is not entitled to payment under this article.

§31D-13-1324. Payment.

(a) Except as provided in section one thousand three hundred twenty-five [§ 31D-13-1325] of this article, within thirty days after the form required by paragraph (B), subdivision (2), subsection (b), section one thousand three hundred twenty-two [§ 31D-13-1322] of this article is due, the corporation shall pay in cash to those shareholders who complied with subsection (a), section one thousand three hundred twenty-three [§ 31D-13-1323] of this article the amount the corporation estimates to be the fair value of their shares, plus interest.

(b) The payment to each shareholder pursuant to subsection (a) of this article must be accompanied by:

(1) Financial statements of the corporation that issued the shares to be appraised, consisting of a balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than sixteen months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, a statement of changes in shareholders equity for that year and the latest available interim financial statements, if any;

(2) A statement of the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares, which estimate must equal or exceed the corporation's estimate given pursuant to paragraph (C), subdivision (2), subsection (b), section one thousand three hundred twenty-two [§ 31D-13-1322] of this article; and

(3) A statement that shareholders described in subsection (a) of this section have the right to demand further payment under section one thousand three hundred twenty-six [§ 31D-13-1326] of this article and that if any shareholder does not make a demand for further payment within the time period specified, shareholder is deemed to have accepted the payment in full satisfaction of the corporation's obligations under this article.

§31D-13-1325. After-acquired shares.

(a) A corporation may elect to withhold payment required by section one thousand three hundred twenty-four [§ 31D-13-1324] of this article from any shareholder who did not certify that beneficial ownership of all of the shareholder's shares for which appraisal rights are asserted was acquired before the date set forth in the appraisal notice sent pursuant to subdivision (1), subsection (b), section one thousand three hundred twenty-two [§ 31D-13-1322] of this article.

(b) If the corporation elected to withhold payment under subsection (a) of this section, it must, within thirty days after the form required by paragraph (B), subdivision (2), subsection (b), section one thousand three hundred twenty-two [§ 31D-13-1322] of this article is due, notify all shareholders who are described in subsection (a) of this section:

(1) Of the information required by subdivision (1), subsection (b), section one thousand three hundred twenty-four [§ 31D-13-1324] of this article;

(2) Of the corporation's estimate of fair value pursuant to subdivision (2), subsection (b), section one thousand three hundred twenty-four [§ 31D-13-1324] of this article;

(3) That they may accept the corporation's estimate of fair value, plus interest, in full satisfaction of their demands or demand appraisal under section one thousand three hundred twenty-six [§ 31D-13-1326] of this article;

(c) Within ten days after receiving the shareholder's acceptance pursuant to subsection (b) of this section, the corporation must pay in cash the amount it offered under subdivision (2), subsection (b) of this section to each shareholder who agreed to accept the corporation's offer in full satisfaction of the shareholder's demand.

(d) Within forty days after sending the notice described in subsection (b) of this section, the corporation must pay in cash the amount it offered to pay under subdivision (2), subsection (b) of this section to each shareholder described in subdivision (5), subsection (b) of this section.

§31D-13-1326. Procedure if shareholder dissatisfied with payment or offer.

(a) A shareholder paid pursuant to section one thousand three hundred twenty-four [§ 31D-13-1324] of this article who is dissatisfied with the amount of the payment must notify the corporation in writing of that shareholder's estimate of the fair value of the shares and demand payment of that estimate plus interest and less any payment due under section one thousand three hundred twenty-four of this article. A shareholder offered payment under section one thousand three hundred twenty-five [§ 31D-13-1325] of this article who is dissatisfied with that offer must reject the offer and demand payment of the shareholder's stated estimate of the fair value of the shares plus interest.

Edgar Filing: FORTUNE BRANDS INC - Form S-4/A

(b) A shareholder who fails to notify the corporation in writing of that shareholder's demand to be paid the shareholder's stated estimate of the fair value plus interest under subsection (a) of this section within thirty days after receiving the corporation's payment or offer of payment under sections one thousand three hundred twenty-four [§ 31D-13-1324] or one thousand three hundred twenty-five [§ 31D-13-1325] of this article, respectively, waives the right to demand payment under this section and is entitled only to the payment made or offered pursuant to those respective sections.

PART 3. JUDICIAL APPRAISAL OF SHARES.

§31D-13-1330. Court action.

(a) If a shareholder makes demand for payment under section one thousand three hundred twenty-six [§ 31D-13-1326] of this article which remains unsettled, the corporation shall commence a proceeding within sixty days after receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the corporation does not commence the proceeding within the sixty-day period, it shall pay in cash to each shareholder the amount the shareholder demanded pursuant to section one thousand three hundred twenty-six of this article plus interest.

Table of Contents

(b) The corporation shall make all shareholders, whether or not residents of this state, whose demands remain unsettled parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares, and all parties must be served with a copy of the petition. Nonresidents may be served by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law.

(c) The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers have the powers described in the order appointing them, or in any amendment to it. The shareholders demanding appraisal rights are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings. There is no right to a jury trial.

(d) Each shareholder made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment: (1) For the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the shareholder's shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount paid by the corporation to the shareholder for the shares; or (2) for the fair value, plus interest, of the shareholder's shares for which the corporation elected to withhold payment under section one thousand three hundred twenty-five [§ 31D-13-1325] of this article.

§31D-13-1331. Court costs and counsel fees.

(a) The court in an appraisal proceeding commenced under section one thousand three hundred thirty [§ 31D-13-1330] of this article shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall assess the costs against the corporation, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the shareholders demanding appraisal, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds the shareholders acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this article.

(b) The court in an appraisal proceeding may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable:

(1) Against the corporation and in favor of any or all shareholders demanding appraisal if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements of section one thousand three hundred twenty [§ 31D-13-1320], one thousand three hundred twenty-two [§ 31D-13-1322], one thousand three hundred twenty-four [§ 31D-13-1324] or one thousand three hundred twenty-five [§ 31D-13-1325] of this article; or

(2) Against either the corporation or a shareholder demanding appraisal, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this article.

(c) If the court in an appraisal proceeding finds that the services of counsel for any shareholder were of substantial benefit to other shareholders similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award to counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the shareholders who were benefited.

Edgar Filing: FORTUNE BRANDS INC - Form S-4/A

(d) To the extent the corporation fails to make a required payment pursuant to section one thousand three hundred twenty-four [§ 31D-13-1324], one thousand three hundred twenty-five [§ 31D-13-1325], or one thousand three hundred twenty-six [§ 31D-13-1326] of this article, the shareholder may sue directly for the amount owed and, to the extent successful, are to be entitled to recover from the corporation all costs and expenses of the suit, including counsel fees.

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Section 145 of the General Corporation Law of Delaware provides in part as follows:

(a) A corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the person's conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful.

(b) A corporation shall have power to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Chancery or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which the Court of Chancery or such other court shall deem proper.

(c) To the extent that a present or former director or officer of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsections (a) and (b) of this section, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith.

(d) Any indemnification under subsections (a) and (b) of this section (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the present or former director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because the person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in subsections (a) and (b) of this section. Such determination shall be made, with respect to a person who is a director or officer at the time of such determination, (1) by a majority vote of the directors who are not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, even though less than a quorum, or (2) by a committee of such directors designated by majority vote of such directors, even though less than a quorum, or (3) if there are no such directors, or if such directors so direct, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (4) by the stockholders.

(e) Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by an officer or director in defending any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this section. Such expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by former directors and officers or other employees and agents may be so paid upon such terms and conditions, if any, as the corporation deems appropriate.

(f) The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, the other subsections of this section shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in such person's official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office.

(g) A corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against such person and incurred by such person in any such capacity, or arising out of such person's status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify such person against such liability under this section.

(h) For purposes of this section, references to the corporation shall include, in addition to the resulting corporation, any constituent corporation (including any constituent of a constituent) absorbed in a consolidation or merger which, if its separate existence had continued, would have had power and authority to indemnify its directors, officers, and employees or agents, so that any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of such constituent corporation, or is or was serving at the request of such constituent corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, shall stand in the same position under this section with respect to the resulting or surviving corporation as such person would have with respect to such constituent corporation if its separate existence had continued.

(i) For purposes of this section, references to other enterprises shall include employee benefit plans; references to fines shall include any excise taxes assessed on a person with respect to any employee benefit plan; and references to serving at the request of the corporation shall include any service as a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation which imposes duties on, or involves services by, such director, officer, employee, or agent with respect to an employee benefit plan, its participants or beneficiaries; and a person who acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries of an employee benefit plan shall be deemed to have acted in a manner not opposed to the best interests of the corporation as referred to in this section.

(j) The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by, or granted pursuant to, this section shall, unless otherwise provided when authorized or ratified, continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

(k) The Court of Chancery is hereby vested with exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all actions for advancement of expenses or indemnification brought under this section or under any bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise. The Court of Chancery may summarily determine a corporation's obligation to advance expenses (including attorneys' fees).

Article XIII of Fortune Brands' by-laws provides as follows:

Edgar Filing: FORTUNE BRANDS INC - Form S-4/A

Section 1. (A) Each person (an indemnitee) who was or is made or threatened to be made a party to or was or is involved (as a witness or otherwise) in any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (hereinafter a proceeding), by reason of the fact that he or she or a person of whom he or she is the legal representative was or is a director, officer or employee of the Company or was or is serving at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including service with respect to employee benefit plans, whether the basis of such proceeding was or is alleged action in an official capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent or in any other capacity while serving as a director, officer, employee or agent, shall be indemnified and held harmless by the Company to the fullest extent permitted by the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware as the same exists or may hereafter be amended (but, in the case of any such amendment, only to the extent that such amendment permits the Company to provide broader indemnification rights than said law permitted the Company to provide prior to such amendment), against all expense, liability and loss (including attorneys' fees and retainers therefor, judgments, fines, excise taxes or penalties under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection therewith and such indemnification shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of his or her heirs, executors and administrators; provided, however, that except as provided in Section 3 of this Article XIII with respect to proceedings seeking to enforce rights to indemnification, the Company shall indemnify any such person seeking indemnification in connection with a proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by such person only if such proceeding (or part thereof) was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Company.

(B) The right to indemnification conferred in this Article XIII is and shall be a contract right. The right to indemnification conferred in this Article XIII shall include the right to be paid by the Company the expenses (including attorneys' fees and retainers therefor) reasonably incurred in connection with any such proceeding in advance of its final disposition, such advances to be paid by the Company within 20 days after the receipt by the Company of a statement or statements from the indemnitee requesting such advance or advances from time to time; provided, however, that if the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware requires, the payment of such expenses incurred by a director or officer in his or her capacity as a director or officer (and not in any other capacity in which service was or is rendered by such person while a director or officer, including, without limitation, service to an employee benefit plan) in advance of the final disposition of a proceeding, shall be made only upon delivery to the Company of an undertaking by or on behalf of such director or officer, to repay all amounts so advanced if it shall ultimately be determined that such director or officer is not entitled to be indemnified under this Article XIII or otherwise.

Section 2. (A) To obtain indemnification under this Article XIII, an indemnitee shall submit to the Company a written request, including therein or therewith such documentation and information as is reasonably available to the indemnitee and is reasonably necessary to determine whether and to what extent the indemnitee is entitled to indemnification. Upon written request by an indemnitee for indemnification pursuant to the first sentence of this Section 2(A), a determination, if required by applicable law, with respect to the indemnitee's entitlement thereto shall be made as follows: (1) if requested by the indemnitee, by Independent Counsel (as hereinafter defined), or (2) if no request is made by the indemnitee for a determination by Independent Counsel, (a) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of Disinterested Directors (as hereinafter defined), or (b) if a quorum of the Board of Directors consisting of Disinterested Directors is not obtainable or, even if obtainable, such quorum of Disinterested directors so directs, by Independent Counsel in a written opinion to the Board of Directors, a copy of which shall be delivered to the indemnitee, or (c) by the stockholders of the Company. In the event the determination of entitlement to indemnification is to be made by Independent Counsel at the request of the indemnitee, the Independent Counsel shall be selected by the indemnitee unless the indemnitee shall request that such selection be made by the Board of Directors, in which event the Independent Counsel shall be selected by the Board of Directors. If it is so determined that the indemnitee is entitled to indemnification, payment to the indemnitee shall be made within 10 days after such determination.

(B) In making a determination with respect to entitlement to indemnification hereunder, the person, persons or entity making such determination shall presume that the indemnitee is entitled to indemnification under this Article XIII, and the Company shall have the burden of proof to overcome that presumption in connection with the making by any person, persons or entity of any determination contrary to that presumption.

Section 3. (A) If a claim under Section 1 of this Article XIII is not paid in full by the Company within 30 days after a written claim pursuant to Section 2(A) of this Article XIII has been received by the Company, or if an advance is not made within 20 days after a request therefor pursuant to Section 1(B) of this Article XIII has been received by the Company, the indemnitee may at any time thereafter bring suit (or, at the indemnitee's option, an arbitration proceeding before a single arbitrator pursuant to the rules of the American Arbitration Association) against the Company to recover the unpaid amount of the claim or the advance and, if successful in whole or in part, the indemnitee shall be entitled to be paid also the expense of prosecuting such claim. It shall be a defense to any such suit or proceeding (other than a suit or proceeding brought to enforce a claim for expenses incurred in connection with any proceeding in advance of its final disposition where the required undertaking, if any is required, has been tendered to the Company) that the indemnitee has not met the standards of conduct which make it permissible under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware for the Company to indemnify the indemnitee for the amount claimed or that such indemnification otherwise is not permitted under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, but the burden of proving such defense shall be on the Company.

(B) Neither the failure of the Company (including its Board of Directors, Independent Counsel or stockholders) to have made a determination prior to the commencement of such action that indemnification of the indemnitee is proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, nor an actual determination by the Company (including its Board of Directors, Independent Counsel or stockholders) that the indemnitee has not met such applicable standard of conduct, shall be a defense to the action or create a presumption that the indemnitee has not met the applicable standard of conduct.

(C) If a determination shall have been made pursuant to Section 2(A) of this Article XIII that the indemnitee is entitled to indemnification, the Company shall be bound by such determination in any judicial proceeding or arbitration commenced pursuant to paragraph (A) of this Section 3.

(D) The Company shall be precluded from asserting in any judicial proceeding or arbitration commenced pursuant to paragraph (A) of this Section 3 that the procedures and presumptions of this Article XIII are not valid, binding and enforceable and shall stipulate in any such court or before any such arbitrator that the Company is bound by all the provisions of this Article XIII.

Section 4. The right to indemnification and the payment of expenses incurred in connection with a proceeding in advance of its final disposition conferred in this Article XIII shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of the Certificate of Incorporation, By-laws, agreement, vote of stockholders or Disinterested Directors or otherwise.

Section 5. The Company may maintain insurance, at its expense, to protect itself and any director, officer, employee or agent of the Company or another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any expense, liability or loss, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify such person against such expense, liability or loss under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware. To the extent that the Company maintains any policy or policies providing such insurance, each such director, officer or employee, and each such agent to which rights to indemnification have been granted as provided in Section 6 of this Article XIII, shall be covered by such policy or policies in accordance with its or their terms to the maximum extent of the coverage thereunder for any such director, officer, employee or agent.

Section 6. The Company may, to the extent authorized from time to time by the Board of Directors, grant rights to indemnification, and rights to be paid by the Company the expenses incurred in connection with any proceeding in advance of its final disposition, to any agent of the Company to the fullest extent of the provisions of this Article XIII with respect to the indemnification and advancement of expenses of directors, officers and employees of the Company.

Section 7. If any provision or provisions of this Article XIII shall be held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable for any reason whatsoever: (A) the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Article XIII (including without limitation, each portion of any Section of this Article XIII containing any such provision held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that is not itself invalid, illegal or unenforceable) shall

Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement, and;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement;

(b) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(d) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act to any purchaser, each prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) as part of a Registration Statement relating to an offering, other than Registration Statements relying on Rule 430B or other than prospectuses filed in reliance on Rule 430A, shall be deemed to be part of and included in the Registration Statement as of the date it is first used after effectiveness; provided, however, that no statement made in a Registration Statement or prospectus that is part of the Registration Statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the Registration Statement or prospectus that is part of the Registration Statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such first use, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the Registration Statement or prospectus that was part of the Registration Statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such date of first use.

(e) That, for the purpose of determining liability of Fortune Brands under the Securities Act to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities, Fortune Brands undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of Fortune Brands pursuant to this Registration Statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, Fortune Brands will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

(i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of Fortune Brands relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;

(ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of Fortune Brands or used or referred to by Fortune Brands;

(iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about Fortune Brands or its securities provided by or on behalf of Fortune Brands; and

(iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by Fortune Brands to the purchaser.

Fortune Brands hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, each filing of Fortune Brands annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Fortune Brands hereby undertakes:

(a) that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other Items of the applicable form; and

(b) that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to the immediately preceding paragraph, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Fortune Brands hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of Form S-4, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

Fortune Brands hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of Fortune Brands pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, Fortune Brands has been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by Fortune Brands of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of Fortune Brands in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, Fortune Brands will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
