Preliminary Results of Election Regarding Merger Consideration Announced in Capital One s

Acquisition of North Fork

McLean, VA and Melville, NY (Nov. 28, 2006) Capital One Financial Corporation (NYSE: COF) and North Fork Bancorporation, Inc. (NYSE: NFB) today announced the preliminary results of elections made by North Fork stockholders regarding their preferences as to the form of merger consideration they will receive in the pending acquisition of North Fork by Capital One. The election deadline for North Fork stockholders to have made merger consideration elections in connection with the proposed merger expired at 5 p.m., New York City time, on November 27, 2006.

Of the 466,336,770 shares of North Fork common stock outstanding as of November 27, 2006:

125,536,221 shares, or 26.9%, elected to receive cash;

278,987,204 shares, or 59.8%, elected to receive Capital One common stock; and 61,813,345 shares, or 13.3%, did not make a valid election.

Edgar Filing: NORTH FORK BANCORPORATION INC - Form 425

The elections with respect to approximately 19,358,544 of the foregoing shares electing to receive cash and approximately 27,367,448 of the foregoing shares electing to receive stock were made pursuant to the notice of guaranteed delivery procedure, which requires the delivery of North Fork shares to the exchange agent for the merger by 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on November 30, 2006. If the exchange agent does not receive the required share certificates or book-entry transfer of shares by this guaranteed delivery deadline, the North Fork shares subject to such election will be treated as shares that did not make a valid election.

After the final results of the election process are determined, the actual merger consideration, and the allocation of the merger consideration, will be computed using the formula in the merger agreement and will be based on, among other things, the actual number of shares of North Fork common stock outstanding immediately prior to the closing date, the final results of the election process and the value of Capital One common stock for the five trading days immediately preceding the date of the effective time of the merger. The aggregate amount of cash that will be paid in the merger is fixed at $5.2 billion. A press release announcing the final merger consideration will be issued after the final merger consideration is determined.

A more complete description of the merger consideration and the proration procedures applicable to elections is contained in the joint proxy statement/prospectus dated July 11, 2006, mailed to North Fork stockholders of record on or about July 14, 2006. North Fork stockholders are urged to read the joint proxy statement/prospectus carefully and in its entirety. Copies of the joint proxy statement/prospectus may be obtained for free by following the instructions below under Additional Information About the Capital One North Fork Transaction.

Capital One and North Fork expect to complete the merger on December 1, 2006. The proposed merger remains subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions contained in the merger agreement.
