Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

On November 14, 2008, Harvard Bioscience, Inc. (the Company) appointed Thomas McNaughton, Jr., as the Company's new Chief Financial Officer.

Mr. McNaughton, 48, most recently provided from January 2008 to September 2008 financial consulting services, primarily to an angel-investing group and a silicon manufacturing start-up. From 2005 to 2007, Mr. McNaughton served as Vice President Finance and Chief Financial Officer for Tivoli Audio, LLC, a venture capital-backed global manufacturer of premium audio systems. Prior to joining Tivoli Audio, LLC, from 1990 to 2005, Mr. McNaughton served in various managerial positions in the areas of financial reporting, treasury, investor relations, and acquisitions within Cabot Corporation, a global manufacturer of fine particulate products, and served from 2002 to 2005 as Finance Director, Chief Financial Officer of Cabot Supermetals, a $350 million Cabot division that provides high purity tantalum and niobium products to the electronics and semiconductor industries. Mr. McNaughton practiced from 1982 to 1990 as a Certified Public Accountant in the audit services group of Deloitte & Touche, LLP. Mr. McNaughton holds a B.S. in accounting and finance from Babson College.

On November 14, 2008, the Company entered into an employment agreement, with an effective date of December 15, 2008, with Mr. McNaughton. The agreement is initially for a period of one year; however, the agreement automatically extends for an additional year on each anniversary of the effective date unless either party has given notice, not less than 90 days prior to such date, that it does not wish to extend the agreement. The current term of this agreement will expire in December 2009 unless extended automatically or otherwise. This agreement provides for the payment of base salary and incentive compensation and for the provision of certain other benefits to Mr. McNaughton. Mr. McNaughton's initial salary is $235,000, re-determined annually by the Compensation Committee. The agreement requires Mr. McNaughton to refrain from competing with the Company and from soliciting Company employees for a period of 12 months following termination for any reason. The agreement also provides for certain payments and benefits should his employment with the Company be terminated because of death or disability, by Mr. McNaughton for good reason or by the Company without cause, as further defined in the agreement. In general, in the case of a termination by Mr. McNaughton for good reason, or by the Company without cause, Mr. McNaughton will receive up to one year's salary and bonus, an extension of benefits for one year and an acceleration of vesting for stock options and restricted stock which otherwise would vest during the next 12 months. Upon a change of control, as defined in the agreements, Mr. McNaughton is eligible for payment of up to one year's salary and bonus, an extension of benefits for one year and an acceleration of vesting for all outstanding stock options and restricted stock.

Mr. McNaughton was also appointed as the Company's Principal Accounting Officer on November 14, 2008, replacing Susan Luscinski.
