Table of ContentsPROSPECTUS SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information contained elsewhere in this prospectus. Because it is a summary, it does not contain all of the information that you should consider before investing in our securities. You should read the entire prospectus carefully, including the Risk Factors section and the other documents we refer to and incorporate by reference, in order to understand this offering fully. In particular, we incorporate important business and financial information into this prospectus by reference.

Columbia Banking System, Inc., a Washington corporation, is a regional bank holding company providing commercial banking services through its subsidiary, Columbia Bank, operating in 55 banking offices in Washington and Oregon, primarily along the Interstate 5 (North-South) corridor.

On November 21, 2008, we entered into a Letter Agreement and related Securities Purchase Agreement Standard Terms, which we refer to collectively as the CPP Agreement, pursuant to which we agreed to issue and sell, and the U.S. Treasury agreed to purchase, (i) 76,898 shares of Columbia's Fixed Rate Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series A, having a liquidation preference of $1,000 per share, and (ii) a ten-year warrant to purchase up to 796,046 shares of Columbia's common stock, no par value per share, at an initial exercise price of $14.49 per share. The warrant was immediately exercisable upon its issuance and will expire on November 21, 2018.

We are registering the shares of the senior preferred stock and the warrant sold to the Treasury pursuant to the transaction described above and elsewhere in this prospectus, as well as shares of Columbia common stock to be issued upon the exercise of the warrant. We have filed with the SEC a registration statement on Form S-3 with respect to the securities offered under this prospectus.

Ratios of Earnings to Fixed Charges and Preferred Dividends

No shares of our senior preferred stock, or any other class of preferred stock, were outstanding during the years ended December 31, 2007, 2006, 2005, 2004 and 2003, or during the nine months ended September 30, 2008, and we did not pay preferred stock dividend during these periods. Consequently, the ratios of earnings to fixed charges and preferred dividends are the same as the ratios of earnings to fixed charges for the same periods listed above. The ratios of earnings to fixed charges for the nine months ended September 30, 2008 and the years ended December 31, 2007, 2006, 2005, 2004 and 2003 are as follows:

	Nine months ended	Years ended December 31,
	September 30, 2008	2007	2006	2005	2004	2003
Excluding interest on deposits	1.05	3.70	4.19	7.79	17.71	14.60
Including interest on deposits	1.01	1.58	1.81	2.29	2.73	2.37

Note: The ratio of earnings to fixed charges is calculated by adding income before income taxes plus fixed charges and dividing that sum by fixed charges.

Our common stock is traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol COLB. Our principal executive offices are located at 1301 A Street, Tacoma, Washington 98402-4200, and our telephone number is (253) 305-1900.

The following is a summary of the general terms of the securities being registered in the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part.

Fixed Rate Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series A

We have designated 76,898 shares of preferred stock as Fixed Rate Cumulative Preferred Stock, Series A, which we refer to in this prospectus as the senior preferred stock. These shares were issued to the U.S. Department of the Treasury on November 21, 2008, pursuant to the U.S. Treasury's Capital Purchase Program, or CPP. The following is a summary of the material provisions of the senior preferred stock.

Ranking

The senior preferred stock ranks senior to our common stock and will rank pari passu with preferred shares other than preferred shares which by their terms rank junior to any existing preferred shares.

Dividend and Repurchase Rights

Cumulative dividends on shares of the senior preferred stock accrue on the liquidation preference of $1,000 per share at a rate of 5% per annum for the first five years following the date of issue, and at a rate of 9% per annum thereafter, if, as and when declared by our board of directors out of funds legally available therefor. Dividends will be payable in arrears on the 15th day of February, May, August and November of each year. Unpaid dividends are compounded (i.e., dividends are paid on the amount of unpaid dividends). The senior preferred stock has no maturity date and ranks senior to our common stock with respect to the payment of dividends and distributions.

As long as the senior preferred stock is outstanding, Columbia will not be able to pay dividends on any common stock shares or any preferred shares ranking pari passu with the senior preferred stock, unless all dividends on the senior preferred stock have been paid in full.

Until the earlier of the third anniversary of the Treasury's investment or the date on which the Treasury has transferred all of the senior preferred stock to unaffiliated third parties or such stock is redeemed in full, Columbia may not, without the consent of the Treasury, increase the amount of cash dividends on our common stock. The Treasury's consent is not required where dividends on common stock are payable solely in shares of Columbia common stock.

The Treasury's consent will be required for any repurchase of Columbia common stock or other capital stock or other equity securities of Columbia or any trust preferred securities, other than repurchases of the senior preferred stock and share repurchases in connection with any employee benefit plan in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, until the earlier of the third anniversary of the Treasury's investment or the date on which the senior preferred shares are redeemed in whole or the Treasury has transferred all of the senior preferred shares to unaffiliated third parties.

For so long as the Treasury continues to own any senior preferred stock, Columbia may not repurchase any shares of senior preferred stock from any other holder of such shares unless we offer to repurchase a ratable portion of the senior preferred shares then held by the Treasury on the same terms and conditions.

Table of Contents

Redemption

Subject to the approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the senior preferred stock is redeemable at our option at 100% of the liquidation preference, provided, however, that the senior preferred stock may be redeemed prior to the first dividend payment date falling after November 21, 2011, the third anniversary of the issue date, only if:

we have raised aggregate gross proceeds in one or more offerings of Tier 1 qualifying perpetual preferred stock or common stock for cash in excess of $76,898,000;

the aggregate redemption price does not exceed the aggregate net proceeds from such Qualified Equity Offerings. After November 21, 2011, we may redeem the senior preferred stock, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time, at our option. All redemptions must be at 100% of the issue price plus any accrued and unpaid dividends, and will be subject to the approval of our primary federal banking regulator.

Conversion

Shares of senior preferred stock are not convertible.

Rights Upon Liquidation

The senior preferred stock ranks senior to our common stock with respect to amounts payable upon our liquidation, dissolution and winding up, and will rank pari passu with preferred shares other than preferred shares which by their terms rank junior to any existing preferred shares.

Voting

The senior preferred stock is non-voting, other than class voting rights on:

any authorization or issuance of shares ranking senior to the senior preferred stock;

any amendment to the rights of the senior preferred stock; or any merger, exchange or similar transaction which would adversely affect the rights of the senior preferred stock.

If dividends on the senior preferred stock are not paid in full for six dividend periods, whether or not consecutive, the holder of the senior preferred stock will have the right to elect two directors. The right to elect directors ends when full dividends have been paid for four consecutive dividend periods.

TARP CPP Common Stock Purchase Warrant

The warrant was issued by us to the U.S. Department of the Treasury pursuant to the CPP. The warrant grants the holder the right to purchase up to 796,046 shares of our common stock, no par value per share. The following is a summary of the principal terms of the warrant issued to the U.S. Treasury. The full terms of the warrant are set forth in Exhibit 4.6 to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part and incorporated by reference herein.

Exercise

The warrant is immediately exercisable, in whole or in part, and the initial exercise price is $14.49 per share.

Table of Contents

Anti-Dilution

The exercise price of the warrant automatically adjusts to the number of shares and the exercise price necessary to protect the U.S. Treasury's position upon the following events:

stock splits, stock dividends, subdivisions, reclassifications or combinations of our common stock;

until November 21, 2011, issuance of our common stock for consideration (or having a conversion price per share) of less than 90% of the then current market value, except for issuances in connection with benefit plans, business acquisitions and public offerings;

a determination by our board of directors to make an adjustment to the anti-dilution provisions as is reasonably necessary, in the good faith opinion of the board, to protect the purchase rights of the Warrant holders.

Term

The term of the warrant is 10 years.

Transferability and Registration Rights

The warrant is not subject to any contractual restrictions on transfer, provided that the Treasury may only transfer or exercise an aggregate of one-half of the warrant prior to the earlier of (i) the date on which we have received aggregate gross proceeds of not less than $76,898,000 from one or more offerings of common stock or perpetual preferred stock for cash and (ii) December 31, 2009.

We have granted to the warrant holder piggyback registration rights for the warrant and the common stock underlying the warrant and we have agreed to take such other steps as may be reasonably requested to facilitate the transfer of the warrant and the common stock underlying the warrant.

We have applied for the NASDAQ listing of the common stock underlying the warrant and will take such other steps as may be reasonably requested to facilitate the transfer of the warrant or the common stock underlying the warrant.

Voting

The U.S. Treasury, the initial holder of the warrant, has agreed not to exercise voting power with respect to any shares of common stock issued upon exercise of the warrant.

Reduction

In the event that we have received aggregate gross proceeds of not less than $76,898,000 from one or more Qualified Equity Offerings of common stock or perpetual preferred stock for cash on or prior to December 31, 2009, the number of shares of common stock underlying the warrants then held by the U.S. Treasury will be reduced by a number of shares equal to the product of (i) the number of shares originally underlying the warrant (taking into account all adjustments) and (ii) 0.5.

Substitution

In the event we are no longer listed or traded on a national securities exchange or securities association, the warrants will be exchangeable, at the option of the U.S. Treasury, for senior debt or another economic instrument or security issued by us such that the U.S. Treasury is appropriately compensated for the value of the warrant, as determined by the U.S. Treasury.

Table of Contents

Common Stock

Introduction

The following section describes the material features and rights of our common stock. The summary does not purport to be exhaustive and is qualified in its entirety by reference to our Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation (Articles of Incorporation), Restated and Amended Bylaws (Bylaws), each of which is filed as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part, and to applicable Washington law.

General

The holders of our common stock have one vote per share on all matters submitted to a vote of our shareholders. There are no cumulative voting rights for the election of directors. Holders of common stock are entitled to receive ratably such dividends as may be declared by the board of directors out of legally available funds, subject to preferences that may be applicable to any outstanding series of preferred stock. In the event of a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company, the holders of common stock are entitled to share ratably in all assets remaining after payment of liabilities and the liquidation preference of any outstanding preferred stock. Holders of shares of our common stock have no preemptive, subscription, redemption, sinking fund or conversion rights.

Dividends

The holders of our common stock are entitled to receive dividends declared by our board of directors out of funds legally available therefor. Our ability to pay dividends basically depends on the amount of dividends paid to us by our subsidiaries. The payment of dividends is subject to government regulation, in that regulatory authorities may prohibit banks and bank holding companies from paying dividends in a manner that would constitute an unsafe or unsound banking practice. In addition, a bank may not pay cash dividends if doing so would reduce the amount of its capital below that necessary to meet minimum regulatory capital requirements. State laws also limit a bank's ability to pay dividends. Accordingly, the dividend restrictions imposed on our subsidiaries by statute or regulation effectively may limit the amount of dividends we can pay.

Holders of preferred stock and debt securities, however, have a priority right to distributions and payment over our common stock. The dividend rights of holder of our common stock are qualified and subject to the dividend rights of holders of our outstanding preferred stock as described above.

Transfer Agent

The transfer agent and registrar for our common stock is American Stock Transfer & Trust Co.

Antitakeover Effects of Certain Provisions in our Articles, Bylaws and Washington Law

Some provisions of our Articles of Incorporation, our Bylaws, and Washington law may be deemed to have an antitakeover effect and may collectively operate to delay, defer or prevent a tender offer or takeover attempt that a shareholder might consider in his or her best interest, including those attempts that might result in a premium over the market price for the shares held by our shareholders. These provisions include:

Preferred Stock Authorization. As noted above under Description of Capital Securities, our board of directors, without shareholder approval, has the authority under our Articles of Incorporation to issue preferred stock with rights superior to the rights of the holders of common stock. As a result, preferred stock, while not intended as a defensive measure against takeovers, could be issued quickly and easily, could adversely affect the rights of holders of common stock and could be issued with terms calculated to delay or prevent a change of control of Columbia or make removal of management more difficult.

Table of Contents

Articles of Incorporation Limitation on Business Combinations. Our Articles of Incorporation include certain provisions that could make more difficult the acquisition of Columbia by means of a tender offer, a proxy contest, merger or otherwise. These provisions include: (a) certain non-monetary factors that our board of directors may consider when evaluating a takeover offer, as described below, and (b) a requirement that any Business Combination (as defined in the Articles of Incorporation) be approved by the affirmative vote of no less than $\frac{66}{3}\%$ of the total shares attributable to persons other than a Control Person (as defined in the Articles of Incorporation), unless certain conditions are met.

Our Articles of Incorporation allow our board of directors to consider non-monetary factors in evaluating certain takeover bids. Specifically, the Articles of Incorporation allow the board of directors, in determining what is in the best interests of Columbia and its shareholders, to consider all relevant factors, including, without limitation, the social and economic effects on its employees, customers, suppliers and other constituents of Columbia and its subsidiaries and on the communities in which we and our subsidiaries operate or are located.

The requirement for Super-Majority approval of certain business transactions does not apply if our board of directors has approved the transaction or if certain other conditions concerning non discrimination among shareholders, receipt of fair value and the mailing of a proxy statement responsive to the requirements of the Exchange Act to our public shareholders, are satisfied.

The matters described above may have the effect of lengthening the time required for a person to acquire control of Columbia through a tender offer, proxy contest, or otherwise, and may deter any potentially unfriendly offers or other efforts to obtain control of Columbia. This could deprive our shareholders of opportunities to realize a premium for their Columbia stock, even in circumstances where such action was favored by a majority of our shareholders.

In addition to the provisions contained in our Articles of Incorporation, Washington law also requires prior approval by a majority of the board of directors of a target company in certain acquisition transactions. Washington law prohibits corporations that have a class of voting stock registered under the Exchange Act, such as Columbia, from engaging in any Significant Business Transaction (defined to include mergers or consolidations, certain sales, termination of 5% or more of a corporation's employees, sales of assets, liquidation or dissolution, and other specified transactions) for a period of five years after a person or group acquires 10% or more of a corporation's outstanding voting stock, unless the acquisition is approved in advance by a majority vote of the board of directors, or, at or subsequent to the acquiring person or group's acquisition of shares of the corporation, such Significant Business Transaction is approved by a majority vote of the target corporation's board of directors and authorized by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the corporation's outstanding voting shares (except those beneficially owned or under voting control of the acquiring person).

Amendment of Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. Under the WBCA, the Articles of Incorporation of Columbia, as a public company, may be amended upon the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of our outstanding voting stock. However, the provisions of Article 9 of our Articles of Incorporation, relating to Business Combinations (as defined in the Articles of Incorporation), may not be amended or repealed without the affirmative vote of $\frac{66}{3}\%$ of our outstanding voting stock. Our board of directors may make certain amendments, as listed in the WBCA, to the Articles of Incorporation without shareholder approval. Our board of directors may, by a majority vote, amend or repeal our Bylaws.

USE OF PROCEEDS

This prospectus relates to the described securities that may be offered and sold from time to time by the selling security holders, who will receive all of the proceeds from the sale of the securities. We will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of the securities by the selling security holders. The costs and expenses incurred in connection with the registration under the Securities Act of the offered securities will be paid by us.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The selling security holders and their successors, including their transferees, may sell all or a portion of the offered securities directly to purchasers or through underwriters, broker-dealers or agents, who may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling security holders or the purchasers of the securities. These discounts, concessions or commissions as to any particular underwriter, broker-dealer or agent may be in excess of those customary in the types of transactions involved.

The securities may be sold in one or more transactions at fixed prices, at prevailing market prices at the time of sale, at varying prices determined at the time of sale or at negotiated prices. These sales may also be effected in transactions, which may involve crosses or block transactions.

If underwriters are used in an offering of offered securities, such offered securities will be acquired by the underwriters for their own account and may be resold in one or more transactions:

on any national securities exchange or quotation service on which the senior preferred stock or the common stock may be listed or quoted at the time of sale, including as of the date of this prospectus the Nasdaq Global Market in the case of the common stock;

in the over-the-counter market;

in transactions otherwise than on these exchanges or services or in the over-the-counter market; or through the writing of options, whether the options are listed on an exchange or otherwise.

In addition, any securities that qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act may be sold under Rule 144 rather than pursuant to this prospectus.

In connection with the sale of the securities or otherwise, the selling security holders may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers, which may in turn engage in short sales of the common stock issuable upon exercise of the warrant and deliver common stock to close out short positions, or loan or pledge the senior preferred stock or the common stock issuable upon exercise of the warrant to broker-dealers that in turn may sell these securities.

The aggregate proceeds to the selling security holders from the sale of the securities will be the purchase price of the securities less discounts and concessions, if any.

In effecting sales, broker-dealers or agents engaged by the selling security holders may arrange for other broker-dealers to participate. Broker-dealers or agents may receive commissions, discounts or concessions from the selling security holders in amounts negotiated immediately prior to the sale.

In offering the securities covered by this prospectus, the selling security holders and any broker-dealers who execute sales for the selling security holders may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of Section 2(a)(11) of the Securities Act in connection with such sales. Any profits realized by the selling security holders and the compensation of any broker-dealer may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions. Selling security holders who are underwriters within the meaning of Section 2(a)(11) of the Securities Act will be subject to the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act and may be subject to certain statutory and regulatory liabilities, including liabilities imposed pursuant to Sections 11, 12 and 17 of the Securities Act and Rule 10b-5 under the Securities and Exchange Act .

In order to comply with the securities laws of certain states, if applicable, the securities must be sold in such jurisdictions only through registered or licensed brokers or dealers. In addition, in certain states the securities may not be sold unless they have been registered or qualified for sale in the applicable state or an exemption from the registration or qualification requirement is available and complied with.

Table of Contents

The anti-manipulation rules of Regulation M under the Exchange Act may apply to sales of securities pursuant to this prospectus and to the activities of the selling security holders. In addition, we will make copies of this prospectus available to selling security holders for the purpose of satisfying the prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act, including Rule 153 under the Securities Act.

At the time a particular offer of securities is made, if required, a prospectus supplement will set forth the number and type of securities being offered and the terms of the offering, including the name of any underwriter, dealer or agent, the purchase price paid by any underwriter, any discount, commission and other item constituting compensation, any discount, commission allowed or reallocated or paid to any dealer and the proposed selling price to the public.

We do not intend to apply for listing of the senior preferred stock on any securities exchange or for inclusion of the senior preferred stock in any automated quotation system unless requested by the initial selling security holder. No assurance can be given as to the liquidity of the trading market, if any, for the senior preferred stock.

We have agreed to indemnify the selling security holders against certain liabilities, including certain liabilities under the Securities Act. We have also agreed, among other things, to bear substantially all expenses (other than underwriting discounts and selling commissions) in connection with the registration and sale of the securities covered by this prospectus.

SELLING SECURITY HOLDERS

On November 21, 2008, we issued the securities covered by this prospectus to the U.S. Department of Treasury, which is the initial selling security holder under this prospectus, in a transaction exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. The initial selling security holder, or its successors, including transferees, may from time to time offer and sell, pursuant to this prospectus or a supplement to this prospectus, any or all of the securities they own. The securities to be offered under this prospectus for the account of the selling security holders consist of:

76,898 shares of senior preferred stock, representing beneficial ownership of 100% of the senior preferred stock outstanding as of the date of this prospectus;

a warrant to purchase 796,046 shares of our common stock; and 796,046 shares of our common stock issuable upon exercise of the warrant, which shares, if issued, would represent approximately 4.38% of our common stock outstanding as of November 30, 2008.

For purposes of this prospectus, we have assumed that, after the completion of the offering, none of the securities covered by this prospectus will be held by the selling security holders.

Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with rules of the SEC and includes voting and investment power with respect to the securities. To our knowledge, the initial selling security holder has sole voting and investment power with respect to the securities.

We do not know when or in what amounts the selling security holders may offer the securities for sale. The selling security holders might not sell any or all of the securities offered by this prospectus. Because the selling security holders may offer all or some of the securities pursuant to this offering, and because currently no sale of the securities is subject to any agreements, arrangements or understandings, we cannot estimate the number of the securities that will be held by the selling security holders after completion of the offering.

Other than with respect to the acquisition of the securities, the initial selling security holder has not had a material relationship with us.

Table of Contents

Information about the selling security holders may change over time and changed information will be set forth in one or more supplements to this prospectus if and when necessary.

LEGAL MATTERS

The validity of the securities offered pursuant to this prospectus has been passed upon by Graham & Dunn PC.

Item 15. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Sections 23B.08.500 through 23B.08.600 of the WBCA contain specific provisions relating to indemnification of directors and officers of Washington corporations. In general, the statute provides that (a) a corporation must indemnify a director or officer who is wholly successful in his defense of a proceeding to which he is a party because of his status as such, unless limited by the articles of incorporation, and (b) a corporation may indemnify a director or officer if he is not wholly successful in such defense, if it is determined as provided in the statute that the director meets a certain standard of conduct, provided that when a director is liable to the corporation or was adjudged liable on the basis that the personal benefit was improperly received, the corporation may not indemnify him. The statute also permits a director or officer of a corporation who is a party to a proceeding to apply to the courts for indemnification or advance of expenses, unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, and the court may order indemnification or advancement of expenses under certain circumstances set forth in the statute. The statute further provides that a corporation may in its articles of incorporation or bylaws or by resolution provide indemnification in addition to that provided by statute, subject to certain conditions set forth in the statute.

The Articles of Incorporation of Columbia provide, among other things, for the indemnification of directors, and authorize the board of directors to pay reasonable expenses incurred by, or to satisfy a judgment or fine against, a current or former director in connection with any personal legal liability incurred by the individual while acting for Columbia within the scope of his employment, and which was not the result of conduct finally adjudged to be egregious conduct. Egregious conduct is defined in the Articles of Incorporation as intentional misconduct, a knowing violation of law, conduct violating the WBCA, or participation in any transaction from which the person will personally receive a benefit in money, property or services to which that person is not legally entitled. The Articles of Incorporation also include a provision that limits the liability of directors of Columbia from any personal liability to Columbia or its shareholders for monetary damages for conduct not found to have been egregious.

Columbia has entered into Indemnification Agreements with each of its directors. The Indemnification Agreements codify procedural mechanisms pursuant to which directors may enforce the indemnification rights that such directors are granted under Columbia's Articles of Incorporation and the WBCA.

Item 17. Undertakings

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

1. To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i), (a)(1)(ii) and (a)(1)(iii) above do not apply if the registration statement is on Form S-3 and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Securities and Exchange Commission by the registrant pursuant to section 13 or section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement.

2. That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

3. To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

4. That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act to any purchaser:

(i) Each prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and

(ii) Each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5), or (b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii), or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by section 10(a) of the Securities Act shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date.

5. That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities:

The undersigned registrant undertakes that in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:

(i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;

(ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;

Table of Contents

(iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and

(iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.

6. That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

7. That:

(i) For purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, the information omitted from the form of prospectus filed as part of this registration statement in reliance upon Rule 430A and contained in a form of prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 434(b)(1) of (4) or 497(h) under the Securities Act shall be deemed to be part of this registration statement as of the time it was declared effective.

(ii) For the purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each post-effective amendment that contains a form of prospectus shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering hereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
