Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

MetLife, Inc. (the Company) and William J. Toppeta entered into an agreement concerning Mr. Toppeta's continued employment (the Agreement) which became final on December 20, 2011.

Under the terms of the Agreement, Mr. Toppeta's employment will continue from November 21, 2011 until May 31, 2012, unless earlier terminated (the Assignment). During the Assignment, Mr. Toppeta will perform duties determined by the Chief Executive Officer of the Company (the CEO), which may include acting as a mentor and consultant to the President of the Company's Europe, Middle East, and Africa (EMEA) division and the President of the Company's Asia division to ensure a smooth transition of responsibilities to them, and serving as MetLife's ambassador in EMEA and Asia to external constituencies on major regulatory and legislative issues that may impact the business of the Company and its affiliates (MetLife). MetLife will continue to compensate Mr. Toppeta at his salary rate of $650,000 per year during the Assignment, and will comply with its bylaws providing indemnification to Mr. Toppeta for acts or omissions during his service as an officer. Mr. Toppeta will be eligible for employee benefits during the Assignment, subject to the terms of applicable benefit plans.

Mr. Toppeta will be eligible for annual and long-term stock-based incentive awards for 2011 performance, assuming he remains employed through specified dates in February and March, 2012. Assuming that Mr. Toppeta has met or exceeded the CEO's performance expectations, and Company management determines that all aspects of the Company's financial performance are at least at the level called for by the Company's 2011 business plan, Company management will recommend that the Company's Compensation Committee make awards to Mr. Toppeta of $1,300,000 in annual cash incentive compensation and $2,000,000 in long-term stock-based compensation. In addition, assuming that Mr. Toppeta remains employed through May 31, 2012 and he has met or exceeded the CEO's performance expectations, Company management will recommend that the Company's Compensation Committee make a cash incentive award to Mr. Toppeta of $1,650,000.

Mr. Toppeta agreed to maintain the confidentiality of information related to MetLife and his employment with MetLife, subject to exceptions for legal or governmental proceedings, and to return all MetLife documents and property. Mr. Toppeta also agreed to cooperate with MetLife in connection with any investigations, administrative proceedings, or litigation involving MetLife, and will give MetLife notice of any subpoenas or government requests for any MetLife information.

Additional severance-related terms of the Agreement will apply if the Assignment ends due to: (1) Mr. Toppeta's continued service through May 31, 2012; (2) his incapacity to perform his job duties due to mental or physical impairment of more than 30 days; or (3) his involuntary termination other than for poor performance, violation of law, violation of duties to MetLife or of MetLife policies, or other wrongful conduct on Mr. Toppeta's part. In such a circumstance, MetLife will pay Mr. Toppeta $812,500 and Mr. Toppeta will: (1) grant MetLife a waiver and release of all employment-related claims as of his execution of the Agreement; and (2) agree not to publish or reveal any information related to his employment with MetLife, the cessation of that employment, claims related thereto, or facts related to those claims, except for providing information to government or self-regulatory agencies or as required by subpoena, and except that Mr. Toppeta may provide a prospective employer with information concerning his former title, salary, job responsibilities and qualifications.

The foregoing description of the Agreement is a summary, is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
