Notes Regarding the Use of Non-GAAP Financial Measures

The Company has provided certain Non-GAAP financial information as additional information for its operating results. These measures are not in accordance with, or an alternative for, generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) and may be different from Non-GAAP measures reported by other companies. The Company believes that its presentation of Non-GAAP measures provides useful information to management and investors regarding certain financial and business trends relating to its financial condition and results of operations.

Non-GAAP revenue, operating expenses, operating income (loss), operating margin, income (loss) from continuing operations, income from discontinued operations, net of tax, net income (loss), net income (loss) attributable to Monster Worldwide, Inc., and diluted earnings (loss) per share attributable to Monster Worldwide, Inc. all exclude certain pro-forma items including: non-cash stock based compensation expense; non-cash impairment charges; transaction costs relating to the merger agreement entered into with a subsidiary of Randstad Holding nv (AMS: RAND) on August 8, 2016; net settlement charges in connection with a settlement term sheet executed in the Talentbin litigation referred to in Note 18 Commitments and Contingencies in the Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements in Item 1 of the Q2 2016 Form 10-Q filed on August 9, 2016; costs incurred in connection with the Company's restructuring programs; certain separation charges; certain management advisory fees; amortization of the debt discount and deferred financing costs associated with our 3.50% convertible senior notes due 2019; the results of our former South Korean subsidiary as it has been classified as discontinued operations; and gain on partial sale of an equity method investment.

In the first quarter of the calendar year 2015, the Company began to utilize a fixed long-term projected Non-GAAP tax rate for reporting operating results and for planning, forecasting, and analyzing future periods. This change provides better consistency across the interim reporting periods by eliminating the effects of non-recurring and period-specific items. When projecting this long-term rate, the Company evaluated a five-year financial projection comprising the current and the next four years that excludes the income tax effects of the Non-GAAP pre-tax items described above, eliminates the effects of non-recurring and period specific items which can vary in size and frequency, and is reflective of the anticipated future geographic mix of income among tax jurisdictions. The projected rate also assumes no new acquisitions or disposals in the five-year period, eliminates the effect of tax valuation allowances, and takes into account other factors including the Company's current tax structure, its existing tax positions in various jurisdictions and key legislation in major jurisdictions where the Company operates. Through Q2 2016, the Non-GAAP tax rate was 35%. The Company re-evaluates this long-term rate on an annual basis or if any significant events that may materially affect this long-term rate occur. This long-term rate could be subject to change for a variety of reasons, which may include (but are not limited to) for example, significant changes in the geographic earnings mix including future acquisition or disposition activity, having less income than anticipated, or fundamental tax law changes in major jurisdictions where the Company operates. As a result of the Company's recent operating results and the impact those results have on the Company's forecasts, the Non-GAAP tax rate was re-evaluated and a 40% rate was utilized in Q3 2016.

Non-GAAP diluted shares includes the impact, based on the average share price for the period, of the Company's outstanding capped call transactions, which are anti-dilutive in GAAP earnings per share, but are expected to mitigate the dilutive effect of the Company's 3.50% convertible senior notes due 2019.

The Company uses these Non-GAAP measures for reviewing the ongoing results of the Company's core business operations and in certain instances, for measuring performance under certain of the Company's incentive compensation plans. These Non-GAAP measures may not be comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies.

Cash EBITDA is defined as income (loss) from continuing operations or net income (loss), as applicable, before income (loss) in equity interests, net, provision for (benefit from) income taxes, interest and other, net, gain on partial sale of equity method investment, depreciation, amortization, non-cash compensation expense and non-cash impairment charges. The Company considers Cash EBITDA to be an important indicator of its operational strength which the Company believes is useful to management and investors in evaluating its operating performance. Cash EBITDA is a Non-GAAP measure and may not be comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies.

Adjusted EBITDA is defined as income (loss) from continuing operations or net income (loss), as applicable, before income (loss) in equity interests, net, provision for (benefit from) income taxes, interest and other, net, gain on partial sale of equity method investment, depreciation, amortization, non-cash compensation expense, non-cash impairment charges, costs incurred with the Company's restructuring programs, and the impact of the pro-forma items discussed above. The Company considers Adjusted EBITDA to be an important indicator of its operational strength which the Company believes is useful to management and investors in evaluating its operating performance. Adjusted EBITDA is a Non-GAAP measure and may not be comparable to similarly titled measures reported by other companies.

Note Regarding Non GAAP Adjustments:

The financial information included herein contains certain Non-GAAP financial measures. This information is not intended to be used in place of the financial information prepared and presented in accordance with GAAP, nor is it intended to be considered in isolation. We believe that the above presentation of Non-GAAP measures provide useful information to management and investors regarding certain core operating and business trends relating to our results of operations, exclusive of certain restructuring related and other special charges.

Non GAAP adjustments consist of the following:

- a Costs related to stock based compensation. Additionally, the Company incurred $0.4 million of separation charges in Q1 2016 primarily relating to the reorganization of the sales force in North America.
- b Restructuring related charges pertaining to the Reallocate to Accelerate program announced in February 2015.
- c Charges incurred in Q3 2016 primarily related to legal and other professional fees of $3.4 million associated with the merger agreement entered into with a subsidiary of Randstad Holdings nv (AMS:RAND) on August 8, 2016. In addition, during Q3 2016, the Company recognized net settlement charges of $0.9 million in connection with a settlement term sheet executed in the Talentbin litigation referred to in the Q2 2016 Form 10-Q filed on August 9, 2016. Further, the Company recognized $0.7 million of charges related to exited facilities during Q3 2016. In the six months ended June 30, 2016, the Company incurred $3.8 million of charges primarily related to management advisory fees. This engagement ended during Q2 2016 and no additional fees are expected in future periods.
- d As referred to in the Q2 2016 Form 10-Q, the Company completed a formal goodwill impairment analysis in accordance with ASC 350, Intangibles - Goodwill and Other, during Q3 2016. This analysis resulted in the recognition of a pre-tax impairment charge of $147.4 million, or $119.2 million on a net of tax basis, recognized in the Careers-North America reporting unit during Q3 2016. The recognition of this additional impairment charge brings the total goodwill impairment recognized during the nine months ended September 30, 2016 to $289.4 million, or $234.1 million on a net of tax basis, in the Careers-North America reporting unit. These charges do not impact our liquidity, cash flows from operations, future operations, or compliance with debt covenants
