Item 3.03 Material Modification to Rights of Security Holders.

Effective May 15, 2012, Altair Nanotechnologies, Inc. (the "Company") changed its jurisdiction of incorporation from Canada to the State of Delaware by means of a domestication (the "Domestication") under Section 188 of the Canada Business Corporations Act and Section 388 of the Delaware General Corporation Law.

The rights of holders of the Company's common stock are now governed by its Delaware certificate of incorporation, its Delaware by-laws and the Delaware General Corporation Law, each of which is described in the Company's final prospectus supplement dated January 20, 2012 relating to the Domestication, which was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) on January 20, 2012 (the "Final Prospectus"). The Final Prospectus is part of the Company's registration statement on Form S-4, File No. 333-178729. The sections of the Final Prospectus entitled "Comparison of Shareholder Rights" and "Proposed Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of Altair Delaware" are hereby incorporated by reference into this Item 3.03 and Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K. The Delaware certificate of incorporation and the Delaware by-laws are filed as Exhibits 3.1 and 3.2 to this Current Report on 8-K, respectively, and are hereby incorporated by reference into this Item 3.03. The description of the certificate of incorporation and by-laws referenced above is a summary and does not purport to be a complete description of those documents and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the copies of those documents filed as exhibits hereto.

The Company's common stock continues to be listed for trading on The NASDAQ Capital Market under the symbol "ALTI".

Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

The information included in Item 3.03 above is hereby incorporated by reference into this Item 5.03.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

In the Domestication, each of the Company's outstanding shares remains outstanding as a share of common stock governed by the Delaware General Corporation Law. The number of outstanding shares of the Company's common stock is not affected by the Domestication. Rights to acquire the Company's common stock remain outstanding.

It is not necessary for stockholders to exchange their existing Company share certificates for new stock certificates of the Company. Until surrendered and exchanged, each certificate evidencing the Company's shares will be deemed for all purposes of the Company to evidence the identical number of shares of the Company's common stock. Holders of uncertificated shares of the Company immediately prior to the Domestication continue as holders of uncertificated common stock of the Company upon effectiveness of the Domestication.

The business, assets and liabilities of the Company and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis, as well as its principal locations and fiscal year, are the same immediately after the Domestication as they were immediately prior to the Domestication. In addition, the directors and executive officers of the Company immediately after the Domestication were the same individuals who were directors and executive officers, respectively, of the Company immediately prior to the Domestication.

In accordance with Rule 12g-3(a) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"), the shares of common stock of the Company are deemed to be registered under Section 12(b) of the Exchange Act.
