Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

We announced that J. Murry Bowden, Founder / Chairman / Chief Executive Officer of the Hanover Company, submitted his letter of resignation to our board of trust managers effective October 31, 2006. Mr. Bowden joined the board in 2003.

His resignation letter states, “As real estate development moves towards more mixed use projects, I am confident that there will be opportunities for Weingarten and The Hanover Company to jointly develop such future projects. Therefore, to avoid any conflicts of interest, I have, with great regret, concluded that I should resign from the board at this time. I have the greatest respect for the trust managers, senior management and associates of WRI. It is an outstanding company with the highest ethical standards. This move enables our companies to work together on projects of mutual interest. I will be of much greater value to both Weingarten and my company in this capacity.”

The Hanover Company is a privately held, nationally focused, real estate development company. It develops garden, mid- rise, and high-rise apartment projects. The Hanover Company is based in Houston, Texas.
