Item 8.01 Other Events.

On May 30, 2013, Chart Industries, Inc. was informed of the death of our director James M. Tidwell. Mr. Tidwell died on May 30, 2013 due to illness. As a long-term member of Chart's Board of Directors, Mr. Tidwell served our stockholders with extraordinary dedication and commitment. We will miss his many contributions to our Board and its committees.

Mr. Tidwell served as a member of Chart's Board since July 2007. He was most recently a member of our Audit Committee and Nominations and Corporate Governance Committee. Mr. Tidwell began his career in public accounting and later served in senior management positions and held directorships with several public companies, primarily in the energy industry. He spent the last twelve years of his career with Houston's WEDGE Group, retiring in October 2012 as Vice-Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. In addition to his exceptional intellect and substantial business experience, Mr. Tidwell was active in the battle against multiple sclerosis, serving as a director of the National MS Society and director of its local chapter in his hometown of Houston, Texas.
