PROXY STATEMENT

Introduction

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. (the Corporation), on behalf of the Board of Directors (the Board), for the 2007 Annual Meeting of Shareholders. This Proxy Statement and the related proxy card are being distributed on or about April 10, 2007.

Edgar Filing: CODORUS VALLEY BANCORP INC - Form DEF 14A

The Corporation will bear the expense of soliciting proxies. In addition to the use of the mail, directors, officers, and employees of the Corporation and its subsidiaries may, without additional compensation, solicit proxies in person, by telephone, e-mail, or facsimile.

The Annual Meeting of Shareholders will be held on Tuesday, May 15, 2007, at 9:00 a.m. at the Codorus Valley Corporate Center, 105 Leader Heights Road, York, Pennsylvania. Shareholders of record at the close of business on March 1, 2007 are entitled to vote at the meeting.

At the annual meeting, shareholders will vote to:

Elect three Class B directors, each to serve for a three-year term;

Approve the 2007 Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. Employee Stock Purchase Plan;

Approve the 2007 Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. Long-Term Incentive Plan; and Transact any other business that may properly come before the meeting and any adjournment or postponement of the meeting.

Proxies and Voting Procedures

You can vote your shares by completing and returning a written proxy card. You can also vote in person at the meeting. Submitting your voting instructions by returning a proxy card will not affect your right to attend the meeting and will in no way limit your right to vote at the annual meeting if you later decide to attend in person.

If your shares are held in a stock brokerage account or by a bank or other nominee, you are considered the beneficial owner of shares held in street name, and these proxy materials are being forwarded to you by your broker or nominee, who is considered, with respect to those shares, the shareholder of record. As the beneficial owner, you have the right to direct your broker how to vote, and you are also invited to attend the meeting. However, because you are not the shareholder of record, you may not vote your street-name shares in person at the meeting, unless you obtain a proxy executed in your favor from the holder of record. Your broker or nominee has enclosed a voting instruction card for you to use in directing the broker or nominee how to vote your shares.

By properly completing a proxy, you appoint Robert L. Jackson, George E. McCullough, and Bernard F. Young as proxy holders to vote your shares as indicated on the proxy card. Any signed proxy card not specifying to the contrary will be voted FOR election of the nominees identified in this Proxy Statement; FOR approval of the 2007 Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. Employee Stock Purchase Plan and FOR approval of the 2007 Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. Long-Term Incentive Plan.

You may revoke your written proxy by delivering written notice of revocation to Harry R. Swift, Esquire, Secretary of the Corporation, or by executing a later dated proxy and giving written notice of the revocation to Mr. Swift at any time before the proxy is voted at the meeting. Proxy holders will vote shares represented by proxies, if properly signed and returned to the Secretary, in accordance with instructions of shareholders.

Although the Board of Directors knows of no other business to be presented, in the event that any other matters are properly brought before the meeting, any proxy given pursuant to this solicitation will be voted in accordance with the recommendations of the Board of Directors.

Edgar Filing: CODORUS VALLEY BANCORP INC - Form DEF 14A

If you are also a participant in the Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. Dividend Reinvestment and Stock Purchase Plan, the enclosed proxy will serve as a voting instruction card for your shares held in the Plan. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., the Plan administrator, will vote your shares held in the Dividend Reinvestment and Stock Purchase Plan in the same manner as you indicate on your proxy card.

At the close of business on February 28, 2007, Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. had 3,502,919 shares of common stock, par value $2.50 per share, issued and outstanding. Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc.'s Articles of Incorporation authorize the Corporation to issue up to 10,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $2.50 per share. In addition to the common stock, Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. has 1,000,000 shares of preferred stock authorized, no shares of which are issued and outstanding. Each common share is entitled to one vote on all matters submitted to a vote of the shareholders.

Quorum

A majority of the outstanding shares of common stock, represented in person or by proxy, constitutes a quorum for the conduct of business. Under Pennsylvania law and Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc.'s Bylaws, the presence of a quorum is required for each matter to be acted upon at the meeting. Votes withheld and abstentions, while not votes cast, will be counted as present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum. Shares of common stock represented by broker non-votes (i.e., shares of common stock held in record name by brokers or nominees as to which (i) instructions have not been received from the beneficial owners or persons entitled to vote, (ii) the broker or nominee does not have discretionary voting power under applicable rules of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or the instrument under which it serves in such capacity, and (iii) the record holder has indicated on the proxy or otherwise notified Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. that it does not have authority to vote such shares on that matter) will be counted as present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum.

Required Vote

In the case of the election of directors, the candidates receiving the highest number of votes are elected. Thus, an abstention or broker non-vote has no effect with respect to the election of directors. All other matters to be voted upon by the shareholders require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the annual meeting, except in cases where the vote of a greater number of shares is required by law or under Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc.'s Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws. Thus, a majority of the votes cast is required to approve and adopt the 2007 Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. Employee Stock Purchase Plan (ESPP) and the 2007 Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. Long-Term Incentive Plan (LTIP). Although abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted as shares that are present at the meeting, they will not be counted as votes cast on approval of either the ESPP or the LTIP. Therefore, an abstention or broker non-vote has no effect with respect to approval of the ESPP or the LTIP.

GOVERNANCE OF THE CORPORATION

Our Board of Directors believes that the purpose of corporate governance is to ensure that we maximize shareholder value in a manner consistent with legal requirements and the highest standards of integrity. The Board has adopted and adheres to corporate governance practices that the Board and executive management believe promote this purpose, are sound and represent best practices. We continually review these governance practices, Pennsylvania law (the state in which we are incorporated), the rules and listing standards of NASDAQ and Securities Exchange Commission (SEC) regulations, as well as best practices suggested by recognized governance authorities.

Currently, our Board of Directors has eight members. Under applicable NASDAQ and SEC standards for director independence, seven of our eight directors meet the standards for independence: Rodney L. Krebs, Chairman, D. Reed Anderson, Esquire, MacGregor S. Jones, William H. Simpson, Dallas L. Smith, Donald H. Warner, and Michael L. Waugh.

Simpson. The Audit Committee met five times during 2006. The Audit Committee has the authority to engage legal counsel or other experts or consultants as it deems appropriate to carry out its responsibilities.

William H. Simpson has been designated by the Board as the Audit Committee financial expert. In designating Mr. Simpson as the Audit Committee financial expert, the Board considered his qualification in light of the rules of the SEC. Under the rules of the SEC, to qualify as a financial expert, the director must have these five attributes:

an understanding of generally accepted accounting principles; the ability to assess the general application of such principles in connection with the accounting for estimates, accruals, and reserves;

experience preparing, auditing, analyzing, or evaluating financial statements that present a breadth and level of complexity of accounting issues that can reasonably be expected to be presented by the Corporation's financial statements, or experience actively supervising one or more persons engaged in such activities;

an understanding of internal controls and the procedures for financial reporting; and an understanding of audit committee functions.

These attributes may be acquired in one or more of four ways:

education and experience as a principal financial officer, principal accounting officer, controller, public accountant or auditor, or experience in one or more positions that involve the performance of similar functions;

experience actively supervising a principal financial officer, principal accounting officer, controller, public accountant, auditor, or person performing similar functions;

experience overseeing or assessing the performance of companies or public accountants with respect to the preparation, auditing, or evaluation of financial statements; or other relevant experience.

Compensation Committee. All members of the Compensation Committee are independent under applicable NASDAQ and SEC standards. The Compensation Committee operates pursuant to a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors on February 24, 2004. The charter is available on the Corporation's website at www.peoplesbanknet.com. Click on the Investor Relations link and then click on the Compensation Committee link in the right-hand margin. The current members of the Compensation Committee are Rodney L. Krebs, Chairman,

D. Reed Anderson, Esquire, MacGregor S. Jones, William H. Simpson, Dallas L. Smith, Donald H. Warner, and Michael L. Waugh. The Compensation Committee met eight times during 2006. The principal duties of the Compensation Committee include evaluating and approving compensation plans, policies, and programs for the executive officers of the Corporation and its subsidiaries.

Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee. All members of the corporate Governance and Nominating Committee are independent under applicable NASDAQ and SEC standards. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee operates pursuant to a written charter adopted by the Board of Directors on February 24, 2004. The charter is available on the Corporation's website at www.peoplesbanknet.com. Click on the Investor Relations link and then click on the Corporate Governance link in the right-hand margin. Members of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee are Rodney L. Krebs, Chairman, D. Reed Anderson, Esquire, William H. Simpson, MacGregor S. Jones, Dallas L. Smith, Donald H. Warner, and Michael L. Waugh. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee met twice during 2006. The principal duties of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee include developing and recommending to the Board criteria for selecting qualified director candidates, identifying individuals qualified to become Board members, evaluating and selecting, or recommending to the Board, director nominees for each election of directors, considering committee member qualifications, appointment and removal, recommending codes of conduct and codes of ethics applicable to the Corporation, and providing oversight in the evaluation of the Board and each committee.

Director Nomination Process

The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee is responsible for identifying and evaluating individuals qualified to become members of the Board of Directors and to recommend such individuals to the Board of Directors for consideration and nomination. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee and the Board of Directors endeavor to recruit and retain Board members that demonstrate intellectual capacity, strong interpersonal skills, good business instinct, objectivity and the highest level of personal and professional integrity. When evaluating current members of the Board of Directors and prospective candidates for the Board of Directors, the Committee seeks to balance the skill sets and attributes of existing Board members with the need for other complementary skills, talents and qualities that will position the Corporation to successfully implement its strategic vision.

In addition to requiring that each existing director and candidate for nomination possess unquestionable character and a commitment to contribute to the success of the Corporation and the stewardship of the community, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee's evaluation of director candidates includes an assessment of issues and factors regarding the individual's education, business experience, accounting and financial expertise, age, diversity, reputation, civic and community relationships and knowledge and experience in matters that impact diversified community financial institutions. The Committee will also take into account the director candidate's ability to devote adequate time to Corporate matters, including being prepared for and participating in all Board of Directors and committee meetings. When the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee is considering current members of the Board of Directors for nomination for reelection, the Committee considers prior performance, as well as meeting attendance records.

Edgar Filing: CODORUS VALLEY BANCORP INC - Form DEF 14A

The current practice of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee is to identify potential director candidates through a variety of sources. The Committee considers recommendations made by current or former directors or members of executive management. Potential candidates also may be identified through contacts in the business, civic, academic, legal and non-profit communities. The Chairman of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee determines how to approach director candidates.

Regarding new director candidates, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee will evaluate whether the nominee is independent, as independence is defined under applicable NASDAQ and SEC Rules, and whether the nominee meets the qualifications for director outlined above as well as any special qualifications applicable to membership on any committee on which the nominee may be appointed to serve if elected. A majority of the Board of Directors must meet the criteria for independence established by NASDAQ, and the Committee will consider any conflicts of interest that might impair that independence.

The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee will consider recommendations by Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. shareholders of qualified director candidates for possible nomination by the Board. Shareholders may recommend qualified director candidates by writing to:

Harry R. Swift, Esq.

Corporate Secretary

Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc.

P.O. Box 2887

York, PA 17405-2887

Submissions must include information regarding a candidate's citizenship, age, background, business and personal addresses, qualifications, experience, principal occupation or employment, directorships and other positions held by the candidate in business, charitable and community organizations and his/her willingness to serve as a member of the Board of Directors. Based on a preliminary assessment of the candidate's qualifications, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee may conduct interviews with, and request additional information from, the candidate.

Under its current practices, there are no differences in how the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee evaluates a nominee for director based on whether the nominee is recommended by the Committee or by a shareholder.

The Board of Directors

The Board of Directors of Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. met twenty-two times during 2006. There were twenty-eight meetings of the Board of Directors of PeoplesBank, A Codorus Valley Company, in 2006. While the Corporation has no formal policy in place, directors are strongly encouraged to attend the Annual Meeting of Shareholders. All but one of our directors attended the 2006 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, and we anticipate that all directors will attend this year's meeting.

Communicating with Directors

The Board of Directors has established a process for shareholders and other interested parties to communicate directly with the Chairman of the Board of Directors or other non-management directors individually or collectively, by submitting written correspondence to the following address:

Edgar Filing: CODORUS VALLEY BANCORP INC - Form DEF 14A

Submission of Shareholder Proposals

If a shareholder wants us to include a proposal in our Proxy Statement for presentation at our 2008 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, the proposal must be received by us c/o Harry R. Swift, Esq., Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc., P.O. Box 2887, York, PA 17405-2887, no later than December 12, 2007. Any such proposal must comply with Rule 14a-8 of Regulation 14A of the proxy rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

If a shareholder proposal is submitted to the Corporation after December 12, 2007, it is considered untimely; and, although the proposal may be considered at the annual meeting, it will not be included in the Corporation's 2008 Proxy Statement. Written notice of shareholder proposals relating to the 2008 Annual Meeting, other than those intended for inclusion in the Corporation's proxy statement, must be received at the Corporation's principal executive offices no later than February 25, 2008.

PROPOSAL 1 Election of Directors

Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc.'s Bylaws provide that the Board of Directors consists of not less than five nor more than twenty-five persons. The Board of Directors is divided into three classes with directors elected to staggered three-year terms. Each class consists, as nearly as possible, of one-third of the directors. The Bylaws also provide that the directors of each class are elected for a term of three years, so that the term of office of one class of directors expires at the annual meeting each year. The Board of Directors determines the number of directors in each class.

Edgar Filing: CODORUS VALLEY BANCORP INC - Form DEF 14A

A majority of the Board of Directors may increase the number of directors between meetings of the shareholders. Any vacancy occurring on the Board of Directors, whether due to an increase in the number of directors, resignation, retirement, death, or any other reason, may be filled by appointment by the remaining directors. Any director who is appointed to fill a vacancy holds office until the expiration of the term of the class of directors to which he or she was appointed. There is a mandatory retirement provision in the Bylaws that provides for the retirement of directors at age 70.

The Board of Directors has fixed the number of directors at eight. There are three nominees for the Board of Directors for election at the 2007 Annual Meeting. The Board of Directors has nominated the following three persons for election to the Board of Directors, each for a three-year term:

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Overview of Compensation Program

The Compensation Committee (the Committee) has responsibility for establishing, implementing and continually monitoring adherence with the Corporation's executive compensation philosophy. This philosophy was formally adopted by the Committee and approved by the Board on February 13, 2007.

The Compensation Committee is charged with discharging the Board's responsibilities relating to compensation of the Corporation's executive officers. The Committee has overall responsibility for evaluating and approving officer compensation plans, policies, and programs for the Corporation. Specifically, the Committee establishes compensation for Named Executive Officers, reviews the Corporation's compensation programs, and oversees the implementation of the Corporation's equity and cash compensation plans.

This Compensation Discussion and Analysis provides general information concerning compensation for the Named Executive Officers of the Corporation (meaning, for the purposes of these disclosures, Mr. Miller, the Corporation's Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Weaver, the Corporation's Chief Financial Officer, and Mr. Swift, the Corporation's Secretary and General Counsel) and its principal subsidiary, PeoplesBank, a Codorus Valley Company. (References to executives of the Corporation in this discussion and analysis include executives of the Corporation's subsidiaries.)

Compensation Committee Oversight

The Compensation Committee reviews the operation and effectiveness of the executive compensation program on a continuous basis, discussing current regulatory issues, industry trends, and internal Corporation needs with respect to executive compensation.

The Committee may request information from management about the Corporation, the performance of the business and the executive compensation program to evaluate effectiveness and to recommend program modifications and changes for Board consideration. It may also recommend to the Board changes in the scope of its responsibilities beyond the positions currently designated as executive to include other critical positions in the Corporation. Although many compensation decisions are made in the first quarter of the fiscal year, the compensation planning process neither begins nor ends with any particular Committee meeting.

Role of Executive Officers in Compensation Decisions

Compensation Committee meetings typically have included not only the committee members, but also the chief executive officer and the director of human resources. For compensation decisions relating to executive officers other than the chief executive officer, the Committee considers recommendations from the chief executive officer and the director of human resources. The Committee can exercise discretion in modifying any recommended adjustments or awards to executives.

- 14 -

Compensation Philosophy and Objectives

The Corporation is committed to providing all of its executive officers, including the Named Executive Officers, with a comprehensive program of compensation and benefit opportunities consistent with the median level of prevailing practices among publicly-traded community banking and diversified financial services companies of the same or slightly larger asset size having similar market profiles and operating circumstances. The Committee used the results of compensation studies by Peter R. Johnson and Company and by Strategic Compensation Planning, Inc. to determine median practices. The Compensation Committee believes that this level of market competitiveness provides sufficient opportunity to attract, motivate, reward and retain the caliber of executive talent required to help the organization achieve its long-term strategic goals and objectives. In some instances, position values will be established based on compensation practices of larger institutions with which the Corporation competes for executive talent in its local and regional labor market. The Compensation Committee has the authority to retain and compensate advisors that it deems necessary to fulfill its duties.

The executive compensation program is intended to provide participating executives with an array of fixed and performance-based variable compensation and benefit provisions. The variable compensation features will include annual cash incentives to reward short-term performance and may include other incentives, in the forms of cash and/or equity grants, to recognize the longer-term performance of the Corporation. Short- and longer-term incentives are designed to focus executives' efforts on the strategic goals and objectives of the business and to link executives' financial rewards with the interests of the Corporation's shareholders. The Corporation endorses the philosophy that executive compensation should reflect Corporation performance and the contribution of such officers to that performance. The executive compensation program is designed to support the Corporation's core values and strategic objectives. Moreover, the compensation philosophy is intended to align the interests of management with those of the Corporation's shareholders.

While fixed compensation features (salary, certain benefit provisions) are set at the median of industry practice, the variable incentive award opportunities allow executives to earn total compensation over time which is well above the median of industry norms (around the 75th percentile), when their individual and collective performances exceed established goals and objectives as outlined in the Corporation's strategic plan or goals and objectives established for their positions.

Components of Executive Compensation

The Corporation's executive compensation program has seven (7) components:

Edgar Filing: CODORUS VALLEY BANCORP INC - Form DEF 14A

A base salary set at the median level of practices among similar organizations for positions of comparable scope and responsibility. Specific salary levels are established for each executive based on the position's relative worth to the Corporation, the individual's qualifications, experience in comparable positions, and recent actual performance. Changes in market value of the job are considered when determining annual salary increases, but increases are based primarily on the most recent performance of the individual.

- 15 -

Participation in the Corporation's all-employee health and welfare benefits program under the same terms and conditions afforded all other employees.

An annual cash incentive award opportunity based on a combination of corporate, business unit/function, and individual performances measured against the Corporation's strategic plan and/or other goals and objectives approved by the Board of Directors.

Longer-term incentive award opportunities, which may include intermediate-term incentive plans designed to reward executives with cash or equity based on the performance trend of the Corporation over a designated time period, i.e. 3-5 years, and traditional long-term incentives, usually in the form of equity compensation.

Perquisites are a smaller, less significant feature in the program, but, consistent with industry practices, they may include use of a company-provided vehicle, club memberships, financial planning services, executive medical plans or similar services or plans for some or all of the Corporation's executive positions.

For designated executives, a formal employment contract defining the terms and conditions of the executive's relationship with the Corporation and the rewards to be afforded the executive. In some instances, the executive will have a change of control severance agreement in lieu of a full employment contract.

For designated executives, participation in non-qualified benefit plans, such as the supplemental executive retirement plan and other supplemental insurances.

Assessing Industry Competitiveness

The types and levels of compensation provisions included in the Corporation's executive compensation program are consistent with current features and programming trends among similar size and type organizations nationally and regionally, as defined by the Compensation Committee. The executive compensation study performed by Strategic Compensation Planning, Inc. assisted the Committee in assessing the Corporation's competitiveness in the executive compensation area.

The Compensation Committee periodically reviews national and regional compensation practice survey reports for the community banking and diversified financial services companies with assets of approximately $500 million to $1 billion, representing institutions that are somewhat smaller and somewhat larger than the Corporation. This asset range will be modified from time to time as the Corporation's circumstances change.

Setting Executive Compensation

Edgar Filing: CODORUS VALLEY BANCORP INC - Form DEF 14A

The Committee views the components of executive compensation as related but distinct. Although the Committee reviews total compensation of its executive officers, the Committee does not believe that significant compensation derived from one component of compensation should negate or reduce compensation from other components. The Committee determines the appropriate level for each compensation component based in part, but not exclusively, on competitive analysis provided by the Committee's external advisors consistent with its hiring and retention goals, its view of internal equity and consistency, overall Corporation performance and other considerations that the Committee deems relevant. To this end, the Committee reviews surveys of executive compensation information for the peer group financial service companies identified below (collectively the Compensation Peer Group) when making executive compensation decisions.

The Compensation Peer Group, which is periodically reviewed and updated by the Committee, consists of companies which represent similar sizes and types of organizations. The companies currently comprising the Compensation Peer Group are:

American Bank Inc.	Penseco Financial Services
AmeriServ Financial, Inc.	QNB Corp.
DNB Financial	Union National Financial Corp.
Fidelity D & D Bancorp.	BCSB Bankcorp
First Chester County	Tri-County Financial Corp.
Leesport Financial Corp.	Centra Financial Holdings
Penns Wood Bancorp.	Premier Financial Bancorp

The Committee's current intent is to perform at least annually a strategic review of its executive officers' overall compensation packages to determine whether or not they compensate the executive officers relative to comparable officers in other Compensation Peer Group companies. The Compensation Committee's most recent overall review occurred on January 23, 2007.

At the senior-most levels, the Committee designs the incentive compensation to reward company-wide performance through tying awards primarily to earnings growth. At lower levels, the Committee designs incentive compensation to reward the achievement of specific operational goals within areas under the control of the relevant employees although company-wide performance is also a factor.

The Compensation Committee has not adopted any formal policy or guidelines for allocating compensation between long-term and current compensation, between cash and non-cash compensation or among different forms of non-cash compensation. Income from incentive compensation is realized as a result of the performance of the Corporation or the individual, depending on the type of award compared to established goals. Historically, and in 2006, the Committee has granted a majority of total compensation to Corporation executives in the form of base salary and cash bonuses. The Committee engaged in a thorough review of the Corporation's executive compensation program during 2006. It engaged Strategic Compensation Planning, Inc., a well recognized consulting firm, to perform a study of the compensation of executive management at the Corporation and at comparable companies and for research, survey information and design expertise in reviewing the Corporation's executive compensation program. Based on the results of this study, the committee plans, over time, to move toward a program that is balanced among cash, non-cash and incentive elements. While the Committee used the information provided by the Committee's external advisors in setting cash compensation for 2007, other elements of compensation discussed in the study have not yet been implemented.

On February 13, 2007, the Compensation Committee adopted the 2007 Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. Long-Term Incentive Plan (the "LTIP") and on the same date, the Board directed that the LTIP be submitted to shareholders for approval upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by holders of shares of Common Stock voting in person or by proxy at the meeting. If approved by the shareholders, the LTIP will permit stock awards to key employees designated by the Committee in 2007 and subsequent years. The LTIP is described beginning on page 42 and is attached as Appendix B.

Executive Compensation Components

For the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, the compensation components for Named Executive Officers were:

base salary;

performance cash bonuses;

retirement and other benefits; and perquisites and other personal benefits.

For 2007, compensation components remain the same. As previously stated, the Committee's intent is to move toward a compensation strategy which balances cash, non-cash, and incentive elements.

Base Salary

The Corporation provides Named Executive Officers and other employees with a base salary. Base pay is a critical element of executive compensation because it provides executives with a base level of monthly income. The Corporation wants to provide its executive management with a level of assured cash compensation in the form of base salary that facilitates an appropriate lifestyle given their professional status and accomplishments. Base salary ranges for Named Executive Officers are determined for each executive based on his or her position and responsibility by using market data. With the exception of the Corporation's Chief Executive Officer, base salary ranges are designed so that salary opportunities for a given position will be between 35% above or 35% below the midpoint of the base salary established for each position. The Chief Executive Officer's base salary range is designed so that his salary opportunity will be between 37.5% above or 37.5% below the midpoint of the base salary established for his position.

During its review of base salaries for executives, the Committee primarily considers:

market data provided from time to time by outside consultants; internal review of the executive's compensation, both individually and relative to the other executive officers; and individual performance of the executive.

Specifically, in establishing base salaries for 2006, the Committee considered the following accomplishments:

the Corporation earned $4.6 million in 2005, an increase of 15% compared with 2004;

the Corporation achieved its 2005 earnings per share goal;

the Corporation's assets grew almost 17% in 2005 compared with 2004;

the Corporation's financial subsidiary, PeoplesBank, successfully opened two full service financial centers and materially remodeled two others in 2005;

the Bank continued to enhance its credit risk profile and overall asset quality remained strong;

executive management continued its commitment to enhance alternative sources of income; and the Corporation's relationship with its regulators remained strong.

For 2007, the Committee set base salaries for the Named Executive Officers as follows: Mr. Miller, $250,000, Mr. Swift, $184,000, and Mr. Weaver, $109,000. In establishing these base salaries, the Committee considered the following accomplishments:

the Corporation earned $5.3 million in 2006, an increase of 15% compared with 2005;

the Corporation achieved its earnings per share goal;

the Corporation assets grew 15% in 2006 compared with 2005;

the Bank continued to enhance its credit risk profile and overall asset quality remained strong;

executive management continued its commitment to enhance alternative sources of income; and

the Corporation's relationship with its regulators remained strong.

Salary levels are typically considered annually as part of the Corporation's performance review process, as well as upon promotion or other change in job responsibility.

Performance Cash Bonuses

The performance of the Corporation in fiscal year 2006 was assessed by the Committee following the year end. The Committee's practice is to award cash bonuses based upon growth in net income. Based on the Corporation's net income, the Committee established a cash bonus pool for all executives. The cash bonus pool was equal to 30% of the difference between the

- 19 -

Corporation's net income for fiscal year 2006 and 90% of the Corporation's budgeted net income. Applying this formula to the Corporation's performance for fiscal year 2006 led to a cash bonus pool of $209,850. The division of the bonus pool among the Corporation's executives was based on the discretion of the Committee taking into account such factors as:

the recommendations of the chief executive officer (except with respect to his bonus award) and the director of human resources;

the overall responsibility of the executive for the management of the Corporation; and the executive's contribution to the achievement of Corporation goals and objectives, financial and otherwise.

On February 13, 2007, the Committee adopted and the Board approved a formal Leadership Cash Incentive Plan (the "LCIP") to be applied in calculating cash incentive bonuses for fiscal year 2007. This plan provides guidelines for the calculation of annual cash incentive compensation, subject to the Committee's oversight and modification. The LCIP includes various incentive levels based on the participant's accountability and impact on Corporation operations, with target awards that are established as a percentage of base salary. The targets range from 7.5% to 22.5% of the Incentive Pool for the Corporation's Named Executive Officers.

The Committee established the following guidelines for performance bonuses for fiscal year 2007:

No participant may receive more than 35% of base salary through cash incentives or cash bonuses under all Corporation plans;

No payment will be made under the LCIP unless the Corporation achieves the minimum performance level which, for fiscal year 2007, was defined as 90% of budgeted net income; and

The Incentive Pool for fiscal year 2007 will be equal to 30% of the positive difference between the Corporation's net income and 90% of budgeted net income.

Cash Bonus awards made to Named Executive Officers in 2006 are reflected in column (d) of the Summary Compensation Table on page 27.

Stock Incentive Plans

The Corporation maintains the 1996 and 2000 Stock Incentive Plans. The purpose of the Stock Incentive Plans is to advance the development, growth and financial condition of the Corporation. The plans provide incentives through participation in the appreciation of capital stock of the Corporation in order to secure, retain, and motivate personnel responsible for the operation and management of the Corporation.

The Committee strongly supports share ownership by its executives. The Committee believes that the ownership of shares of the Corporation's stock by the management team properly aligns its financial interests with the interests of the Corporation's stockholders. The Committee believes that the payment of this form of incentive helps to fulfill this goal.

The Plan provide for awards of qualified stock options and non-qualified stock options to officers and other employees. The Committee administers the 2000 Stock Incentive Plan and the full Board administers the 1996 Stock Incentive Plan. There are no shares available for award under the 1996 Stock Incentive Plan. Persons eligible to receive awards under the 2000 Stock Incentive Plan are those key officers and other management employees of the Corporation as determined by the Committee.

The Corporation made no awards to Named Executive Officers under the 2000 Stock Incentive Plan for 2006. The decision to refrain from making awards was based in part on the tax considerations described on page 26 under the heading, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation. On December 31, 2006, there were 37,082 shares available for future issuance under the 2000 Stock Incentive Plan. While there were no awards to Named Executive Officers in 2006, in the past, the proximity of any awards to earnings announcements or other market events was coincidental.

Employee Stock Bonus Plan

In 2001, the Corporation implemented an Employee Stock Bonus Plan, administered by non-employee members of the Corporation's Board of Directors, under which the Corporation may issue shares of its common stock to employees as performance-based compensation. As of December 31, 2006, 13,037 shares of common stock were reserved for possible issuance under this plan, subject to future adjustment in the event of specified changes in the Corporation's capital structure. No shares of stock were issued to Named Executive Officers under the Employee Stock Bonus Plan during 2006.

401(k) Retirement Plan

The Bank maintains and sponsors a defined contribution 401(k) savings and investment plan. The 401(k) plan is administered by a committee which is appointed by the Board of Directors. The 401(k) plan is subject to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and to the regulations promulgated thereunder. Participants are entitled to certain rights and protection under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.

Each Bank employee who attains the age of 21, successfully completes any probationary period(s), and if a part time employee completes 1,000 hours of service per year, may participate in the 401(k) plan. An eligible employee may elect to contribute certain portions of salary, wages, commissions, or other direct remuneration to the 401(k) plan. Generally, eligible employees may not contribute more than 50% of their compensation. In 2006, the Bank matched 50% of the first 6% of the employee's contributions. The Bank's contributions to the 401(k) plan for each participant vest after three years of service. The employee's contributions to the 401(k) plan vest immediately.

Perquisites and Other Personal Benefits

The Corporation provides Named Executive Officers with perquisites and other personal benefits that the Corporation and the Committee believe are reasonable and consistent with its overall compensation program to better enable the Corporation to attract and retain superior employees for key positions. The Corporation's Chief Executive Officer and General Counsel are provided the use of Corporate automobiles. In addition the Corporation's Chief Executive Officer is provided with membership in the Outdoor Country Club of York County. The Committee wants to encourage the Chief Executive Officer to belong to a golf or social club so that he has an appropriate entertainment forum for customers and appropriate interaction with the business community.

Each Named Executive Officer and certain other members of senior management are entitled to receive a cash payment upon the executive's death through the Corporation's Officer's Group Term Replacement Plan. Payments are funded through insurance policies. The Plan provides for a payment at death equal to three times the Named Executive Officer's base annual salary. Such Plans are a common and expected form of executive benefit in the financial services industry. The Committee believes that this benefit helps the Corporation attract and retain talented individuals to the executive management team. It also believes that it is an appropriate compensation strategy to provide for the continuing lifestyle of the executives' families in the case of death.

Senior management also participates in the Corporation's other benefit plans on the same terms as other employees. These plans include medical and dental insurance, short and long-term disability insurance, and discounts on the Corporation's products and services. In certain limited situations relocation benefits are reimbursed, but are individually negotiated when they occur.

Attributed costs of the perquisites described above for each Named Executive Officer for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, were less than $10,000 for each such Named Executive Officer.

Employment Agreement

In 1993, the Corporation and Mr. Miller entered into an employment agreement. On December 27, 2005, a new agreement was entered into for a term of three years, which term renews automatically for an additional 12 months at the end of each calendar year unless the Corporation and Bank provide written notice to Mr. Miller of non-renewal. The agreement specifies Mr. Miller's positions and duties, compensation and benefits, and indemnification and termination provisions. The agreement also contains a non-competition provision and a confidentiality provision.

The non-competition provision contained in Mr. Miller's employment contract prohibits him from competing with the Corporation or with its financial subsidiary, PeoplesBank, within fifty miles of the Bank's registered office for a period of one year following his termination of employment for any reason other than a change of control.

Under the terms of his employment agreement, Mr. Miller serves as the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation and of the Bank and as a member of the Boards of Directors of the Corporation and of the Bank. Pursuant to his employment agreement, Mr. Miller was entitled to an annual direct salary of $230,000 in 2006. This salary was increased to $250,000 in 2007 and may be increased in subsequent years as the Boards of Directors of the Corporation and the Bank deem appropriate. In addition, the Boards of Directors have discretion to pay a periodic bonus to Mr. Miller. Mr. Miller is not entitled to receive director's fees or other compensation for serving on the Corporation's or the Bank's Board of Directors or their committees. Mr. Miller is also entitled to receive the employee benefits made available to Bank employees, to use a vehicle provided by the Bank, and for reimbursement for country club dues.

The agreement with Mr. Miller provides that if his employment is terminated by the Corporation or the Bank due to death, disability or "for cause", then he is entitled to the full annual direct salary and any accrued benefits through the date of termination. "For cause" termination includes termination for willful failure to perform his duties, engaging in misconduct injurious to the Corporation or the Bank, violation of certain terms of the employment agreement, dishonesty or gross negligence in the performance of his duties, violation of banking laws and regulations, failure to win election or to serve on the Board of Directors of the Corporation or moral turpitude which brings public discredit to the Corporation or the Bank. If Mr. Miller's employment is terminated by the Corporation or the Bank other than pursuant to death, disability or "for cause", then he is entitled to his full annual direct salary from the date of termination through the last day of the term of the agreement, or an amount equal to his current annual direct salary, whichever is greater and a continuation of employee benefits for one year. If Mr. Miller terminates his employment for "good reason", then he is entitled to an amount equal to his direct annual salary and a continuation of employee benefits for one year. If Mr. Miller's employment is terminated as a result of a change in control of the Corporation and the Bank, he is entitled to receive a lump sum payment equal to three times the sum of his then current direct annual salary and the highest bonus paid to him with respect to one of the last three years of employment and will continue his eligibility to participate in all employee benefit plans and programs in which he was previously entitled to participate for a period of three years.

Edgar Filing: CODORUS VALLEY BANCORP INC - Form DEF 14A

In the event the amounts and benefits payable under the agreement as a result of change of control when added to all other benefits and amounts which may become payable to Mr. Miller by the Corporation and/or the Bank are such that they become subject to the excise tax provisions of Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, then Mr. Miller is to be paid the additional amount necessary to reimburse him for the economic detriment of the excise tax.

An employment agreement provides the Corporation with a reasonable expectation of an executive's continued dedication and loyalty to the Corporation. Additionally, the Committee believes that the Corporation should provide reasonable severance benefits to its Chief Executive Officer. These severance arrangements are intended to provide the Chief Executive Officer with a sense of security in making the commitment to dedicate his or her professional career to the success of the Corporation. These severance benefits should reflect the fact that it may be difficult for the Chief Executive Officer to find comparable employment within a short period of time.

Information regarding applicable payments under the employment agreement for Mr. Miller is provided in the chart describing payments to Mr. Miller in the case of termination of employment or change of control on page 33.

Long-Term Nursing Care Agreement

On December 27, 2005, the Corporation and the Bank entered into a Long-Term Nursing Care Agreement with Mr. Miller. The agreement provides that the Corporation will pay the premiums on a long term nursing care insurance policy for Mr. Miller and his spouse. The policy was purchased on May 27, 2003. Pursuant to the Agreement, upon a change in control, the Corporation will accelerate the ten-year annual premiums due on the policy.

The cost of long-term nursing care is a growing concern among executives as they transition through life phases. The Committee believes that good health care planning reduces the amount of time and attention that Mr. Miller must spend on that topic and maximizes the net financial reward to Mr. Miller of the compensation he received from the Corporation.

Change of Control Agreements

On October 1, 1997, the Corporation, the Bank, and Harry R. Swift, Esquire, Secretary and Vice President of the Corporation and General Counsel, Executive Vice President, and Cashier of the Bank, entered into a change of control agreement that provides certain benefits to Mr. Swift in the event of a change of control of the Corporation or the Bank or other specified events. On December 27, 2005, a new agreement was executed. The agreement provides that upon termination of his employment in connection with a change of control, Mr. Swift's compensation will continue for two and one-half years; and he will continue, during that time period, his eligibility to participate in all employee benefit plans and programs in which he was previously entitled to participate. Compensation is the sum of the current direct annual salary and the highest bonus paid to him with respect to one of the last three years of employment. In addition, Mr. Swift may elect to receive the present value of the amount payable under the agreement in a lump sum payment. In the event the amounts and benefits payable under the agreement when added to all other benefits and amounts which may become payable to Mr. Swift by the Corporation and/or the Bank are such that they become subject to the excise tax provisions of Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code, then Mr. Swift is to be paid the additional amount necessary to reimburse him for the economic detriment of the excise tax.

On October 1, 1997, the Corporation, the Bank, and Jann Allen Weaver, CPA, Treasurer/Assistant Secretary of the Corporation and Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Bank, entered into a change of control agreement that provides certain benefits to Mr. Weaver in the event of a change of control of the Corporation or the Bank or other specified event. On December 27, 2005, a new agreement was executed. The agreement provides that upon termination of his employment in connection with a change of control Mr. Weaver's compensation will be continued for one year, and he will continue, during that time period, his eligibility to participate in all employee benefit plans and programs in which he was previously entitled to participate. Compensation is the sum of the current direct annual salary and the highest bonus paid to him with respect to one of the last three years of employment. In addition, Mr. Weaver may elect to receive the present value of the amount payable under the agreement in a lump sum payment.

The Named Executive Officers and other employees have built the Corporation into the successful enterprise that it is today, and the Committee believes that it is important to protect them in the event of a change in control. Further, it is the Committee's belief that the interests of stockholders will be best served if the interests of the senior management are aligned with them, and providing change in control benefits should eliminate, or at least reduce, the reluctance of senior management to pursue potential change in control transactions that may be in the best interests of shareholders. Relative to the overall value of the Corporation, these potential change in control benefits are relatively minor.

Supplemental Executive Retirement Plans

On October 1, 1998, the Bank entered into salary continuation agreements with Larry J. Miller, Harry R. Swift, Esquire, and Jann Allen Weaver, CPA, which were subsequently amended on December 27, 2005. These agreements provide for certain payments to these named executives following the executive's normal retirement date and continuing for 240 months for Mr. Miller and for 180 months for Messrs. Swift and Weaver. The agreements contain provisions for early retirement, disability benefits, death benefits and payments on specified changes of control. The agreements also contain non-competition provisions.

The non-competition provision contained in Mr. Miller's plan prohibits him from competing with the Corporation or with its financial subsidiary, PeoplesBank, within fifty miles of the Bank's registered office for a period of three years following his termination of employment for any reason other than a change of control.

The non-competition provision contained in Mr. Swift's plan prohibits him from competing with the Corporation or with its financial subsidiary, PeoplesBank, within fifty miles of the Bank's registered office for a period of three years following his termination of employment for any reason other than a change of control. The provision permits Mr. Swift to engage in the private practice of law following termination.

The non-competition provision contained in Mr. Weaver's plan prohibits him from competing with the Corporation or with its financial subsidiary, PeoplesBank, within twenty-five miles of the Bank's registered office for a period of one year following his termination of employment for any reason other than a change of control.

Payments due under the plans vest gradually over a period of time. Thus, the plans serve to encourage longevity. The Committee believes that it is appropriate to reward long-term executives with benefits that provide for a retirement life style commensurate with that they experienced during their professional careers.

Officer Group Term Replacement Plans

In 1998, the Bank provided group term life insurance replacement plans for specific executive officers, including the Named Executive Officers. These plans are the funding vehicle for payments to the executives upon certain specified events. The specified events include a change of control and the executive's normal retirement. (In addition, the Bank provided a director approved group term life insurance replacement plan for the benefit of the Corporation's directors. This plan provides for payments to accrue to the directors following termination of their service as a member of the Board of Directors. These supplemental retirement plans replaced, in part, other insurance coverages.)

Tax and Accounting Implications

Deductibility of Executive Compensation

Edgar Filing: CODORUS VALLEY BANCORP INC - Form DEF 14A

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code disallows the deductibility of any compensation over $1 million per year paid to the Chief Executive Officer and the other four most highly compensated executive officers, unless certain criteria are satisfied. No executive officer of the Corporation received compensation in excess of such amount.

Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation

Historically, the primary form of equity compensation that the Corporation awarded consisted of non-qualified stock options. The Corporation selected this form because of the favorable accounting and tax treatments and the expectation by employees in the Corporation's industry that they would receive stock options. However, beginning in 2006 the accounting treatment for stock options changed as a result of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123(R), making the accounting treatment of stock options less attractive. As a result, the Corporation is currently assessing the desirability of granting shares of restricted stock to employees, particularly members of senior management. Restricted stock would provide an equally motivating form of incentive compensation while permitting the Corporation to issue fewer shares, thereby reducing potential dilution.

POTENTIAL PAYMENTS UPON TERMINATION OR CHANGE OF CONTROL

The tables below reflect the amount of compensation to each Named Executive Officer of the Corporation in the event of termination of such executive's employment. The amount of compensation payable to each Named Executive Officer upon voluntary termination, early retirement, involuntary not-for-cause termination, for cause termination, termination following a change of control and in the event of disability or death of the executive are shown below. The amounts shown assume that such termination was effective as of December 31, 2006, and thus include amounts earned through such time and are estimates of the amounts which would be paid out to the executive upon his termination. The actual amounts to be paid out can only be determined at the time of such executive's separation from the Corporation.

Payments Made Upon Termination

Regardless of the manner in which a Named Executive Officer's employment terminates, he may be entitled to receive amounts earned during his term of employment. Such amounts may include:

non-equity incentive compensation earned during the fiscal year;

unused vacation pay; and amounts accrued and/or vested through the Corporation's Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan.

- 30 -

Payments Made Upon Retirement

In the event of the retirement of a Named Executive Officer, in addition to the items identified above:

he will continue to vest in all outstanding options and retain such options for the remainder of the outstanding ten-year term; and he will continue to receive life insurance benefits until his death.

Payments Made Upon Death and Disability

In the event of the death or disability of a Named Executive Officer, in addition to the benefits listed under the headings "Payments Made Upon Termination" and "Payments Made Upon Retirement" above, the Named Executive Officer will receive benefits under the Corporation's disability plans or payments under the Corporation's life insurance plans, as appropriate.

Payments Made Upon Change of Control

The Corporation has entered into contracts containing change of control severance agreements with each Named Executive Officer. Pursuant to these agreements, if an executive's employment is terminated following a change of control (other than termination by the Corporation for cause or by reason of death or disability):

The Named Executive Officer will receive

- o a lump sum severance payment based on a multiple of the sum of the executive's base salary and the highest annual bonus earned by the executive pursuant to incentive compensation plans maintained by the Corporation in any of the three prior fiscal years; and
- o for Messrs. Miller and Swift, an amount equal to the excise tax charged to the Named Executive Officer as a result of the receipt of any change-of-control payments.

All stock options held by the executive will automatically vest and become exercisable.

For Mr. Miller, the Long-Term Nursing Care Agreement will vest.

The Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan will be fully vested.

Edgar Filing: CODORUS VALLEY BANCORP INC - Form DEF 14A

Generally, pursuant to the agreements, a change of control is deemed to occur:

if any person acquires 25% or more of the Corporation's voting securities (other than securities acquired directly from the Corporation or its affiliates);

if a majority of the directors as of the date of the agreement are replaced other than in specific circumstances;

- 31 -

upon the consummation of a merger of the Corporation or any subsidiary of the Corporation other than (a) a merger which would result in the voting securities of the Corporation outstanding immediately prior to the merger continuing to represent at least 60% of the voting power of the securities of the Corporation outstanding immediately after such merger, or (b) a merger effected to implement a recapitalization of the Corporation in which no person is or becomes the beneficial owner of securities of the Corporation representing 25% or more of the combined voting power of the Corporation's then-outstanding securities; or upon the liquidation or sale of the Corporation's assets, other than a sale or disposition by the Corporation of the Corporation's assets to an entity of which at least 60% of the voting power is owned by stockholders of the Corporation.

Director Compensation

The Corporation uses a combination of cash and stock-based compensation to attract and retain qualified candidates to serve on the Board. In setting director compensation, the Corporation considers the significant time commitment required of directors in fulfilling their duties to the Corporation.

Cash Compensation Paid to Board Members

In 2006, the Bank's non-employee directors were compensated for their services rendered as follows:

a monthly retainer of $800;

directors' fees of $450 for each regular or special meeting attended; and committee meeting fees paid at the rate of $150 per hour.

The Bank's Chairman of the Board received a monthly retainer of $900 in 2006. In addition, each director recognized imputed income for insurance premiums paid on behalf of the non-employee Bank directors, which totaled $2,107 in 2006. In the aggregate, the Bank paid $160,317 to the Board of Directors in 2006.

Independent Directors' Deferred Compensation Plan

Edgar Filing: CODORUS VALLEY BANCORP INC - Form DEF 14A

The Corporation maintains a deferred compensation plan for independent directors. Participants may elect to defer receipt of compensation in order to gain certain tax benefits under Internal Revenue Code Section 451. This plan is not funded by the Corporation.

Independent Directors Stock Option Plan

The Corporation maintains the Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. 1998 Independent Directors Stock Option Plan. The Corporation's shareholders approved the plan at the 1998 annual meeting and the Board of Directors originally reserved 100,000 shares, or 135,823 shares as of December 31, 2006 as adjusted for stock dividends, for issuance under the plan. The purposes of the plan are to advance the Corporation's and the Bank's development, growth and financial condition by providing additional incentives to non-employee members of the Corporation's Board of Directors by encouraging them to acquire stock ownership in the Corporation and to secure, retain and motivate non-employee directors.

Directors who are not employees of the Corporation or its subsidiaries are eligible to receive awards under the plan. Pursuant to the terms of the plan, each non-employee director who attended at least 75% of the total number of Board of Directors and committee meetings during the previous fiscal year is granted non-qualified stock options at each annual reorganization meeting of the Corporation. The first award under the plan was made at the 1998 organization meeting. The purchase price of common stock subject to each stock option granted is the fair market value at the time of grant. The recipient may exercise these stock options for ten years from the grant date. In prior periods, the Corporation granted all 135,823 stock options available for issuance under this plan, as adjusted for applicable stock dividends and/or stock splits. This aggregate amount includes stock options that may have been cancelled and/or exercised in those prior periods. Accordingly, there were no grants of stock options to non-employee directors for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006.

On February 13, 2007, the Compensation Committee adopted the 2007 Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. Long-Term Incentive Plan (the LTIP) and on the same date, the Board directed that the LTIP be submitted to shareholders for approval upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by holders of shares of Common Stock voting in person or by proxy at the meeting. If approved by the shareholders, the LTIP will permit awards of non-qualified stock options to non-employee directors in 2007 and subsequent years. The LTIP is described on beginning on page 42 and is attached as Appendix B.

Compensation Committee Interlocks And Insider Participation

The Compensation Committee reviews and determines compensation arrangements for the Corporation's Chief Executive Officer and its other executive officers and administers the Corporation's equity compensation plans. All members of the Compensation Committee are independent directors.

- 37 -

No member of the Compensation Committee (other than Rodney L. Krebs, who is Chairman of the Boards of the Corporation and the Bank) during fiscal year 2006 was an officer or employee of the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries or was formerly an officer of the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries. No member of the Compensation Committee had any relationship requiring disclosure by the Corporation under the proxy rules promulgated under the Exchange Act.

Related Person Transactions

Some of Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc.'s directors and executive officers and the companies with which they are associated were customers of and had banking transactions with Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc.'s subsidiary Bank during 2006. All loans and loan commitments made to them and to their companies were made in the ordinary course of business, on substantially the same terms, including interest rates, collateral and repayment terms, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other customers of the Bank, and did not involve more than a normal risk of collectibility or present other unfavorable features. The principal loan balance outstanding for these persons on December 31, 2006, was approximately $4,662,000, which did not include unfunded commitments of approximately $778,000. The Bank anticipates that it will enter into similar transactions in the future.

Related person transactions are reviewed and voted on by the Board of Directors of the Corporation or the Bank, as applicable. Interested parties do not participate in the review and vote.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee met with management periodically during the year to consider the adequacy of the Corporation's internal controls and the objectivity of its financial reporting. The Audit Committee discussed these matters with the Corporation's independent registered public accountants.

The Audit Committee met privately at its regular meetings with both the independent registered public accountants and the internal auditors, each of whom has unrestricted access to the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee appointed and the Board approved Beard Miller Company LLP as the independent registered public accountants for the Corporation after reviewing the firm's performance and independence from management.

Edgar Filing: CODORUS VALLEY BANCORP INC - Form DEF 14A

Management has primary responsibility for the Corporation's financial statements and the overall reporting process, including the Corporation's system of internal controls. The independent registered public accountants audited the annual financial statements prepared by management, expressed an opinion as to whether those financial statements fairly present the financial position, results of operations and cash flows of the Corporation in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles and discussed with the Audit Committee any issues they believe should be raised with the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee reviewed with management and Beard Miller Company LLP, the Corporation's independent registered public accountants, the Corporation's audited financial statements and met separately with both management and Beard Miller Company LLP to discuss and review those financial statements and reports prior to issuance. Management has represented, and Beard Miller Company LLP has confirmed to the Audit Committee, that the financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

The Audit Committee received from and discussed with Beard Miller Company LLP the written disclosure and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees). These items relate to that firm's independence from the Corporation. The Audit Committee also discussed with Beard Miller Company LLP matters required to be discussed by the Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 (Communication with Audit Committees) of the Auditing Standards Board of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants to the extent applicable. The Audit Committee monitored certified public accountant independence and reviewed audit and non-audit services performed by Beard Miller Company LLP.

Based on the reviews and discussions referred to above, the Committee recommended to the Board of Directors and the Board has approved that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006, for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

PROPOSAL 2

Approval of 2007 Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. Employee Stock Purchase Plan

Summary and Vote Required

You are being asked to approve the 2007 Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. Employee Stock Purchase Plan (the ESPP). On February 13, 2007, the Compensation Committee adopted the ESPP and on the same date, the Board directed that the ESPP be submitted to shareholders for approval upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by holders of shares of Common Stock voting in person or by proxy at the meeting.

The following is a summary of the ESPP. The full text of the ESPP is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix A. Appendix A is an integral part of this proxy statement and we urge you to read it in its entirety. The material terms of the ESPP are as follows:

Eligibility. Any employee of the Corporation, or of any of its subsidiaries, except employees whose customary employment is less than 20 hours per week (part-time employees) and employees whose customary employment is for not more than five months in any calendar year (seasonal employees) is eligible to participate in the ESPP.

Purchase of Shares through ESPP. A Participant may purchase shares through the ESPP by payroll deduction. An amount established by the participant will be deducted from the participant's pay for a six-month period. This amount will be accumulated for the benefit of the participant and used to purchase Corporation stock at the end of that period.

Purchase Price for Shares Purchased through the ESPP. The purchase price for each share purchased by a participant through the ESPP is eighty-five percent (85%) of the share's fair market value. For purposes of the ESPP, the share's fair market value is the lesser of the closing bid price as reported on the stock exchange on which the shares are traded at the beginning of the six-month term or the closing bid price as reported on the stock exchange on which the shares are traded on the last day of the six-month term.

Limitations Applicable to ESPP. The ESPP has a five (5) year term and provides for ten (10) six-month offerings. The first offering is intended to commence July 1, 2007 and end December 31, 2007. The maximum number of shares to be offered under the ESPP is 175,000 subject to future adjustment for stock splits and stock dividends. No participant may purchase more than 250 shares during any single offering. No employee is allowed to purchase shares under all employee stock purchase plans at a rate which exceeds $25,000 of fair market value of such shares for each calendar year.

Federal Income Tax Implications. In accordance with Section 423 of the Internal Revenue Code, if the stock is transferred to an individual under an ESPP and if applicable holding periods are satisfied (two years from the date the ESPP offering begins and one year from the date the employee acquires the shares), no deduction of the wage expense for tax purposes is allowable. However, if the holding period requirements are not satisfied, the Corporation recognizes compensation expenses (for tax purposes only) equal to the employee's compensation income at the time the stock is transferred.

In accordance with the Internal Revenue Code, payroll deductions for ESPP shares are after-tax deductions. When the stock is transferred, the employee recognizes ordinary income for the lesser of (a) the fair market value of the shares at the time of the transfer less the amount the employee paid for the shares or (b) the fair market value of the shares at the time the employee purchased the shares less the amount the employee paid for the shares. The balance of any gain is treated under the rules controlling the sale or other disposition of a capital gain asset.

PROPOSAL 3

Approval of 2007 Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. Long-Term Incentive Plan

Summary and Vote Required

You are being asked to approve the 2007 Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. Long-Term Incentive Plan (the "LTIP"). On February 13, 2007, the Compensation Committee adopted the LTIP and on the same date, the Board directed that the LTIP be submitted to shareholders for approval upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by holders of shares of Common Stock voting in person or by proxy at the meeting.

Important facts about the LTIP:

The number of shares of the Corporation's common stock that can be issued under the LTIP is 175,000 subject to future adjustment for stock splits and stock dividends;

The LTIP provides for many forms of equity awards including incentive stock options, non-statutory stock options, performance restricted shares, restricted stock awards, stock appreciation rights and stock awards;

No awards have yet been granted under the LTIP;

Edgar Filing: CODORUS VALLEY BANCORP INC - Form DEF 14A

The purposes of the LTIP are to align the interest of eligible participants with the interests of shareholders to secure, retain, and motivate personnel who may be responsible for the Corporation's operation and management and to encourage eligible participants to contribute to enhanced corporate performance;

The price at which each share covered by an option may be acquired is determined by the Committee at the time the option is granted and shall not be less than the fair market value of the underlying shares of common stock on the day the option is granted; and

No option may be exercised after the expiration of ten years from the date the option was granted.

The following is a summary of the LTIP. The full text of the LTIP is attached to this proxy statement as Appendix B. Appendix B is an integral part of this proxy statement and we urge you to read it in its entirety. The material terms of the LTIP are as follows:

Eligibility: All employees of the Corporation and all non-employee directors are eligible to receive awards under the LTIP.

Administration: The Compensation Committee administers and interprets the LTIP. The Committee also determines which employees qualify for awards under the LTIP and the associated terms and conditions of each award.

Awards: The Compensation Committee may issue awards under the LTIP in the form of:

Incentive Stock Options - options to purchase stock intended to qualify under Internal Revenue Code Sections 421 and 422. These options have specific tax benefits to recipients;

Non-Qualified Options - options to purchase stock not intended to qualify for tax treatment under Internal Revenue Code Sections 421 through 424;

Stock Appreciation Rights - rights that entitle the holder, upon exercise of the right, to receive from the issuer, in cash or common stock, an amount equal to the excess of the market value of the underlying common stock over the exercise price of the right;

Restricted Stock - stock that is restricted as to transferability and subject to forfeiture for a set period of time unless certain conditions are met;

Performance Restricted Shares - shares that vest if performance criteria established by the Compensation Committee are achieved;

Stock Awards - shares that have no restrictions on ownership; and Cash Awards - Cash awards outside of any other plan.

The Compensation Committee, in its sole discretion, determines the awards and their terms and conditions; provided, however, that a member of the committee may not vote on any awards to himself or herself. Generally awards may be exercised in whole or in part. The Corporation will use funds received from the exercise of awards for general corporate purposes. The Compensation Committee may permit the acceleration of any award's exercise terms when the situation warrants. However, the Compensation Committee may impose other requirements and conditions consistent with the LTIP's objective. In addition, the LTIP provides for acceleration of the exercise terms of all outstanding awards if a change of control of the Corporation occurs.

Federal Income Tax Implications

A participant who receives qualified options will not recognize taxable income on the grant or the exercise of the option. If the stock acquired by the exercise of an incentive stock option is held until the later of (i) 12 months from the award's grant date, and (ii) one year from the award's exercise date any gain (or loss) recognized on the stock's sale or exchange will be treated as long-term capital gain, and the Corporation will not receive any income tax deduction. If stock acquired by the exercise of an incentive stock option is sold or exchanged before the expiration of the required holding period, the participant recognizes ordinary income in the year the disposition occurred in an amount equal to the difference between the option price and the lesser of the stock's fair market value on the exercise date, or the selling price. In the event of a disqualifying disposition, the Corporation is entitled to an income tax deduction in the year the disposition occurred in an amount equal to the amount of ordinary income the employee recognized.

A participant who receives a non-qualified option will not recognize taxable income on the grant of the award. However, upon exercise, he or she will recognize ordinary income in an amount equal to the excess of the fair market value of the stock on the date that the option is exercised over the purchase price paid for the stock. The participant will recognize capital gain on the differential between the fair market value on the date of exercise and the sale price. The Corporation is entitled to an income tax deduction in the year of the exercise in an amount equal to the amount of the income the employee recognized.

A participant who receives stock appreciation rights will not recognize taxable income on the grant of the award. However, upon exercise, he or she will recognize ordinary income in an amount equal to the cash or fair market value of the stock received. The Corporation is entitled to an income tax deduction in the year the participant exercises the stock appreciation right in an amount equal to the amount of income the employee recognized.

A participant who receives restricted stock will not recognize taxable income on the grant of the award if the restricted stock is non-transferable and subject to substantial risk of forfeiture. The participant will recognize taxable income the first time the restricted shares are transferable or the restricted shares are not subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture, whichever occurs first. The participant will recognize ordinary income in an amount equal to the excess of the fair market value of the restricted stock at that time.

Restricted stock received pursuant to awards will be considered subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture for federal income tax purposes. If a participant who receives such restricted stock does not make the election described below, the participant realizes no taxable income upon the receipt of restricted stock and the Corporation is not entitled to a deduction at such time. When the forfeiture restrictions with respect to the restricted stock lapse the participant will realize ordinary income equal to the fair market value of the shares at that time, and, subject to section 162(m) of the Code, the Corporation will be entitled to a corresponding deduction. A participant's tax basis in restricted stock will be equal to the fair market value when the forfeiture restrictions lapse, and the participant's holding period for the shares will begin when the forfeiture restrictions lapse. Upon sale of the shares, the participant will realize short-term or long-term gain or loss, depending upon whether the shares have been held for more than the then applicable holding period at the time of sale. Such gain or loss will be equal to the difference between the amount realized upon the sale of the shares and the tax basis of the shares in the participant's hands.

Participants receiving restricted stock may make an election under section 83(b) of the Code with respect to the shares. By making a section 83(b) election, the participant elects to realize compensation income with respect to the shares when the shares are received rather than at the time the forfeiture restrictions lapse. The amount of such compensation income will be equal to the fair market value of the shares when the participant receives them (valued without taking the restrictions into account), and the Corporation will be entitled to a corresponding deduction at that time. By making a section 83(b) election, the participant will realize no additional compensation income with respect to the shares when the forfeiture restrictions lapse, and will instead recognize gain or loss with respect to the shares when they are sold. The participant's tax basis in the shares with respect to which a section 83(b) election is made will be equal to their fair market value when received by the participant, and the participant's holding period for such shares begins at that time. If, however, the shares are subsequently forfeited to the Corporation, the participant will not be entitled to claim a loss with respect to the shares to the extent of the income realized by the participant upon the making of the section 83(b) election. To make a section 83(b) election, a participant must file an appropriate form of election with the Internal Revenue Service and with his or her employer, each within 30 days after shares of restricted stock are granted, and the participant must also attach a copy of his or her election to his or her federal income tax return for the year in which the shares are granted.

Generally, during the restriction period, dividends and distributions paid with respect to restricted stock will be treated as compensation income (not dividend income) received by the Participant. Dividend payments received with respect to shares of restricted stock for which a section 83(b) election has been made will be treated as dividend income, assuming the Corporation has adequate current or accumulated earnings and profits.

A participant realizes no taxable income and the Corporation is not entitled to a deduction when restricted stock units payable in the future and subject to conditions such as the passage of time or achievement of performance goals are granted. When restricted stock units vest and become payable as a result of the satisfaction of the terms and conditions on such award, including, if applicable, achievement of performance goals, the participant will realize ordinary income equal to the amount of cash received or the fair market value of the shares received.

minus any amount paid for the shares, and, subject to section 162(m) of the Code, the Corporation will be entitled to a corresponding deduction.

A participant's tax basis in shares of common stock received upon payment will be equal to the fair market value of such shares when the participant receives them. Upon sale of the shares, the participant will realize short-term or long-term capital gain or loss, depending upon whether the shares have been held for more than one year at the time of sale. Such gain or loss will be equal to the difference between the amount realized upon the sale of the shares and the tax basis of the shares in the participant's hands.

The Committee may, but need not, permit a participant to defer receipt of payment in satisfaction of restricted stock units, provided that any such deferral shall be administered in good faith compliance with section 409A of the Code and the Treasury regulations or other authoritative guidance issued under that section. The Committee is authorized to take such action as it deems necessary and reasonable to avoid the application of the additional tax described in section 409A(a)(1)(B) of the Code to any award deferred hereunder.

Section 162(m) of the Code limits the deductibility of compensation paid to certain executive officers, unless the compensation is a qualified performance-based award. If awards to such persons are intended to qualify as qualified performance-based awards, the LTIP limits the maximum number of shares of Common Stock that may be granted to the recipient during any calendar year to 500,000 shares.

The Corporation is entitled to deduct from the payment of any award (whether made in stock or in cash) all applicable income and employment taxes required by federal, state, local, or foreign law to be withheld, or may require the participant to pay such withholding taxes to the Corporation as a condition of receiving payment of the award. The Committee may allow a participant to satisfy his or her withholding obligations by directing the Corporation to retain the number of shares necessary to satisfy the withholding obligation, or by delivering shares held by the participant to the Corporation in an amount necessary to satisfy the withholding obligation.

A participant who receives a stock award or cash bonus will recognize taxable income on the grant of the award equal to the fair market value of the stock on such date or the amount of the cash award. The Corporation is entitled to an income tax deduction in the year of the award.

New Plan Benefits

There have been no grants made under the ESPP or the LTIP. Because benefits under these Plans will depend on the actions of the Board and/or employee participation as well as the value of the Corporation's Common Stock, it is not possible to determine the benefits that will be received if these Plans are approved by shareholders. The closing price for the Corporation's shares as of February 13, 2007 was $20.19.

OTHER MATTERS

The Board of Directors knows of no matters other than those discussed in this Proxy Statement that will be presented at the Annual Meeting. However, if any other matter should be properly presented for consideration and voting at the annual meeting or any adjournments of the meeting, the proxy holders will vote the proxies in what they determine to be the Corporation's best interests.

APPENDIX A

2007 Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. Employee Stock Purchase Plan

CODORUS VALLEY BANCORP, INC.

2007 EMPLOYEE STOCK PURCHASE PLAN

Codorus Valley Bancorp, Inc. (the Company) does hereby establish its 2007 Employee Stock Purchase plan as follows:

1. Purpose of the plan. The purpose of this Plan is to provide eligible employees who wish to become shareholders in the Company a convenient method of doing so and to link employee and shareholder interests.

2. Definitions
 - 2.1 Account shall mean the funds accumulated with respect to an individual employee as a result of deductions from the employee's paycheck for the purpose of purchasing stock under this Plan. The funds allocated to an employee's account shall remain the property of the respective employee at all times but may be commingled with the general funds of the Company.
 - 2.2 Base Pay means regular straight time earnings and does not include bonuses and overtime payments, payments for incentive compensation, and other special payments.
 - 2.3 Committee means the Board's compensation committee.
 - 2.4 Board means the Company's Board of Directors.

3. Employee Eligible to Participate. Any employee of the Company, or any of its subsidiaries, who is in the employ of the Company or subsidiary on an offering commencement date is eligible to participate in that offering, except (a) employees whose customary employment is less than 20 hours per week, or (b) employees whose customary employment is for not more that five months in any calendar Year.

4. Offerings. There will be separate consecutive six-month offerings pursuant to the Plan. The first offering shall commence on July 1, 2007. Thereafter, offerings shall commence on each subsequent July and January and the final offering under this Plan shall commence on January, 2012 and terminate on June 30, 2012. In order to become eligible to purchase shares, an employee must sign an Enrollment Agreement and any other necessary papers on or before the commencement date (January 1 or July 1) of the particular offering in which the employee wishes to participate. Participation in one offering under the Plan shall neither limit, nor require, participation in any other offering.

5. Price. The purchase price per share shall be the lesser of (a) 85% of the fair market value of the stock on the offering date; or (b) 85% of the fair market value of the stock on the last business day of the offering. Fair market value shall mean the closing bid price as reported on the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation System or, if the stock is traded on a stock exchange, the closing price for the stock on such exchange.

6. Offering Date. The offering date as used in this Plan shall be the commencement date of the offering, if such date is a regular business day, or the first regular business day following such commencement date. A different date may be set by resolution of the Board.

7. Number of Shares to be Offered. The maximum number of shares that will be offered under the plan is 175,000 shares. The shares to be sold to participants under the Plan will be common stock of the Company. If the total number of shares for which options are to be granted on any date in accordance with Section 10 exceeds the number of shares then available under the Plan (after deduction of all shares for which options have been exercised or are then outstanding), the Company shall make a pro rata allocation of the shares remaining available in as nearly a uniform manner as shall be practicable and as it shall determine to be equitable. In such event, the payroll deductions to be made pursuant to the authorization therefore shall be reduced accordingly, and the Company shall give written notice of such reduction to each employee affected thereby.

8. Participation.

8.1 An eligible employee may become a participant by completing an Enrollment Agreement provided by the Company and by filing it with Human Resources prior to the commencement of the offering to which it relates.

Edgar Filing: CODORUS VALLEY BANCORP INC - Form DEF 14A

8.2 Payroll deductions for a participant shall commence on the offering date, and shall end on the termination date of such offering unless earlier terminated by the employee as provided in Paragraph 14.

8.3 Payroll deduction shall be the sole means of accumulating funds in a participant's account.

9. Payroll Deductions.

9.1 At the time a participant files his authorization for a payroll deduction, he shall elect to have deductions made from his pay on each payday during the time he is a participant in an offering at any non-fractional percentage rate between 1% and 10%.

9.2 All payroll deductions made for a participant shall be credited to his account under the Plan. A participant may not make any separate cash payment into such account nor may payment for shares be made other than by payroll deduction.

9.3 A participant may discontinue his participation in the Plan as provided in Section 14, but no other change can be made during an offering, and, specifically, a participant may not alter the rate of his payroll deduction for that offering.

10. Granting of Option. On the offering date, this Plan shall be deemed to have granted to the participant an option for as many full shares as he will be able to purchase with the payroll deductions credited to his account during his participation in that offering. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no participant may purchase more than 250 shares of stock during any single offering.

11. Exercise of Option. Each employee who continues to be a participant in an offering on the last business day of that offering shall be deemed to have exercised his option on such date and shall be deemed to have purchased from the Company such number of full shares of common stock reserved for the purpose of the Plan as his accumulated payroll deductions on such date will pay for at the option price.

12. Employee Rights as a Shareholder. No participating employee shall have any right as a shareholder with respect to any shares until the shares have been purchased in accordance with Section 11 above and the stock has been issued by the Company.

13. Evidence of Stock Ownership.

13.1 Promptly following the end of each offering, the number of shares of common stock purchased by each participant shall be deposited into an account established in the participant's name at a stock brokerage or other financial services firm designated by the Company (the "ESPP Broker").

13.2 A participant shall be free to undertake a disposition (as that term is defined in Section 424 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code")) of the shares in the participant's account at any time, whether by sale, exchange gift, or other transfer of legal title, but in the absence of such a disposition of the shares, the shares must remain in the participant's account at the ESPP Broker until the holding period set forth in Section 423 (a) of the Code has been satisfied. With respect to shares for which the Section 423 (a) holding period has been satisfied, the participant may move those shares to another brokerage account of participant's choosing or request that a stock certificate be issued and delivered to the participant.

14. Withdrawal.

14.1 An employee may withdraw from an offering, in whole but not in part, at any time prior to the last business day of such offering by delivering a Withdrawal Notice to the Company, in which event the Company will refund the entire balance of his payroll deductions as soon as practicable thereafter.

14.2 To re-enter the Plan, an employee who has previously withdrawn must file a new Enrollment Agreement in accordance with Section 8.1. The employee's re-entry into the Plan will not become effective before the beginning of the next offering following his withdrawal, and if the withdrawing employee is an officer of the Company within the meaning of Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the officer may not re-enter the Plan before the beginning of the second offering following withdrawal.

15. Carryover of Account. At the termination of each offering the Company shall automatically re-enroll the employee in the next offering, and the balance in the employee's account shall be used for option exercises in the new offering, unless the employee has advised the Company otherwise. Upon termination of the Plan, the balance of each employee's account shall be refunded to the employee.

16. Interest. No interest will be paid or allowed on any money in the accounts of participation employees.

17. Rights Not Transferable. Each such Performance Period shall commence on January 1 of the calendar year in which grants are made. 6.2 DEFERRAL OF PAYMENT

At the discretion of the Committee, a Participant may be offered the right to defer the receipt of all or any portion of Performance Restricted Shares or Restricted Stock Awards otherwise distributable to such Participant. Such right shall be exercised by execution of a written agreement by the Participant (i) with respect to Restricted Stock Awards, prior to the expiration of the applicable Restriction Period and (ii) with respect to Performance Restricted Shares, prior to the expiration of the applicable vesting period. Upon any such deferral, the number of shares of Common Stock subject to the deferral shall be converted to stock units and a stock unit account shall be maintained by the Company on behalf of the Participant. Such stock units shall represent only a contractual right and shall not represent any interest in or title to Common Stock. Such units shall be entitled to earn dividend equivalents. All other terms and conditions of deferred payments shall be as contained in said written agreement.

ARTICLE VII.

CASH INCENTIVE AWARDS

7.1 GRANTING OF AWARDS

The Committee, in its discretion, may grant Cash Incentive Awards to participants. Each Cash Incentive Award shall be conditioned upon the Company's achievement of one or more Performance Goals with respect to the Performance Measure(s) beginning with the applicable Performance Period and set forth in the Award agreement evidencing such Cash Incentive Award. An award may be made in conjunction with the grant hereunder of Stock Options, Stock Appreciation Rights, Performance Restricted Shares, Restricted Stock Awards or Stock Awards. In making a Cash Incentive Award, the Committee shall establish a performance level below which the Cash Incentive Award shall not be payable. The Committee may adjust the performance goals and measurements to reflect significant unforeseen events; provided, however, that the Committee may not make any such adjustment with respect to any award to an individual who is then a covered employee as such term is defined under Section 162(m), if such adjustment would cause compensation pursuant to such award to cease to be performance-based compensation under Section 162(m).

7.2 OTHER AWARD TERMS

The Committee may, in its sole discretion, establish certain additional performance based conditions that must be satisfied by the Company, a business unit or the Participant as a condition precedent to the payment of all or a portion of any Cash Incentive Awards. Such conditions precedent may include, among other things, the receipt by a Participant of a specified annual performance rating and the achievement of specified performance goals by the Company, business unit or Participant.

7.3 MAXIMUM AMOUNT AVAILABLE FOR AWARDS

The aggregate maximum amount of cash incentives paid under all Company plans to a Participant in any calendar year shall not exceed 35% of his or her annual base compensation.

ARTICLE VIII.

OTHER PROVISIONS

8.1 ADJUSTMENT IN NUMBER OF SHARES AND OPTION PRICES

Grants of Stock Options, Stock Appreciation Rights, Performance Restricted Shares, and Restricted Stock Awards and Stock Awards shall be subject to adjustment by the Committee as to the number and price of shares of Common Stock or other considerations subject to such grants in the event of changes in the outstanding shares by reason of stock dividends, stock splits, recapitalizations, reorganizations, mergers, consolidations, combinations, exchanges, or other relevant changes in capitalization occurring after the date of grant. In the event of any such change in the outstanding shares, the aggregate number of shares available under the Plan may be appropriately adjusted by the Committee.

8.2 NO RIGHT TO EMPLOYMENT

Nothing contained in the Plan, or in any grant pursuant to the Plan, shall confer upon any Participant any right with respect to continuance of employment by the Company or its subsidiaries, nor interfere in any way with the right of the Company or its subsidiaries to terminate the employment or change the compensation of any employee at any time.

8.3 NONTRANSFERABILITY

A Participant's rights under the Plan, including the right to any shares or amounts payable may not be assigned, pledged, or otherwise transferred except, in the event of a Participant's death, to the Participant's designated beneficiary or, in the absence of such a designation, by will or by the laws of descent and distribution; provided, however, that the Committee may, in its discretion, at the time of grant of a Nonstatutory Stock Option or by amendment of an option agreement for an Incentive Stock Option or a Nonstatutory Stock Option, provide that Stock Options granted to or held by a Participant may be transferred, in whole or in part, to one or more transferees and exercised by any such transferee, provided further that (i) any such transfer must be without consideration, (ii) each transferee must be a member of such Participant's immediate family or a trust, family limited partnership or other estate planning vehicle established for the exclusive benefit of one or more members of the Participant's immediate family; and (iii) such transfer is specifically approved by the Committee following the receipt of a written request for approval of the transfer; and provided further that any Incentive Stock Option which is amended to permit transfers during the lifetime of the Participant shall, upon the effectiveness of such amendment, be treated thereafter as a Nonstatutory Stock Option. In the event a Stock Option is transferred as contemplated in this Section, such transfer shall become effective when approved by the Committee and such Stock Option may not be subsequently transferred by the transferee other than by will or the laws of descent and distribution. Any transferred Stock Option shall continue to be governed by and subject to the terms and conditions of this Plan and the relevant option agreement, and the transferee shall be entitled to the same rights as the Participant as if no transfer had taken place. As used in this Section, "immediate family" shall mean, with respect to any person, any spouse, child, stepchild or grandchild, and shall include relationships arising from legal adoption.

8.4 COMPLIANCE WITH GOVERNMENT REGULATIONS

(a) The Company shall not be required to issue or deliver shares or make payment upon any right granted under the Plan prior to complying with the requirements of any governmental authority in connection with the authorization, issuance, or sale of such shares.

(b) The Plan shall be construed and its provisions enforced and administered in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania applicable to contracts entered into and performed entirely in such State.

8.5 RIGHTS AS A SHAREHOLDER

The recipient of any grant under the Plan shall have no rights as a shareholder with respect thereto unless and until certificates for shares of Common Stock are issued in the name of such recipient.

8.6 UNFUNDED PLAN

Unless otherwise determined by the Committee, the Plan shall be unfunded and shall not create (or be construed to create) a trust or separate funds. With respect to any payment not yet made to a Participant, nothing contained herein shall give any Participant any rights that are greater than those of a general creditor of the Company.

8.7 OTHER COMPENSATION PLANS

Nothing contained in this Plan shall prevent the Company from adopting other or additional compensation arrangements, subject to shareholder approval if such approval is required.

8.8 TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT -- CERTAIN FORFEITURES

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan (other than provisions regarding Change in Control, including without limitation Sections 2.5(d), 4.12 and 5.7 which shall apply in all events) and except for Performance Restricted Shares or Restricted Stock Awards which would otherwise be free of restrictions and the receipt of which has been deferred pursuant to Section 6.2, a Participant shall have no right to exercise any Stock Option or Stock Appreciation Right or receive payment of any Performance Restricted Share or Restricted Stock Award if the Participant is discharged for willful, deliberate, or gross misconduct as determined by the Committee in its sole discretion. Furthermore, notwithstanding any other provision of the Plan to the contrary, in the event that a Participant receives or is entitled to cash or the delivery or vesting of Stock pursuant to an Award during the 12 month period prior to the Participant's termination of employment with the Company, then the Committee, in its sole discretion, may require the Participant to return or forfeit the cash and/or Stock received with respect to an Award (or its economic value as of (i) the date of the exercise of Stock Options or Stock Appreciation Rights; (ii) the date immediately following the end of the Restricted Period for Restricted Stock Awards or the end of the vesting period for Performance Restricted Shares, (iii) the date of grant or payment with respect to Stock Awards or Cash Awards, as the case may be) in the event that the Participant: (y) is discharged for willful, deliberate or gross misconduct, as determined by the Committee in its sole discretion, or (z) engages in any business or enters into any employment which the Committee in its sole discretion determines to be (1) directly or indirectly competitive with the business of the Company or (2) substantially injurious to the Company's financial interest. A Participant may request the Committee in writing to determine whether any proposed business or employment activity would justify such a forfeiture. Such a request shall fully describe the proposed activity and the Committee's determination shall be limited to the specific activity so described. The Committee's right to require forfeiture under this Section 8.9 must be exercised within 90 days after the discovery of an occurrence triggering the Committee's right to require forfeiture but in no event later than 24 months after the Participant's termination of employment with the Company.

8.9 NON-EMPLOYEE DIRECTOR ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS

A Non-Employee Director shall not be entitled to receive any award under this Plan for any calendar year during which he or she has failed to attend at least 75% of the total number of meetings of the Boards of Directors of the Company, of its principal subsidiary, PeoplesBank, a Codorus Valley Company, and of any committees of the foregoing of which he or she is a member. The Committee may, in its discretion, waive the attendance requirement for good cause.

ARTICLE IX.

AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION

9.1 AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION

The Board of Directors may modify, amend, or terminate the Plan at any time except that, to the extent then required by applicable law, rule, or regulation, approval of the holders of a majority of shares of Common Stock represented in person or by proxy at a meeting of the shareholders will be required to increase the maximum number of shares of Common Stock available for distribution under the Plan (other than increases due to adjustments in accordance with the Plan). No modification, amendment, or termination of the Plan shall adversely affect the rights of a Participant under a grant previously made to him without the consent of such Participant.

ARTICLE X.

EFFECTIVE DATE AND DURATION OF PLAN

10.1 EFFECTIVE DATE AND DURATION OF PLAN

The Plan shall become effective as of February 13, 2007, subject to its approval and adoption at the Annual Meeting of the shareholders on May 15, 2007. All rights granted under the Plan must be granted within ten years from its adoption date by the shareholders of the Company. Any rights outstanding ten years after the adoption of the Plan may be exercised within the periods prescribed under or pursuant to the Plan.
