This Proxy Statement is solicited by the Board of Directors of Park Place Entertainment Corporation ("Company" or "Park Place") and is being furnished to the stockholders of Park Place in connection with its annual meeting of stockholders to be held in the Paris Showroom at Paris Las Vegas in Las Vegas, Nevada on May 22, 2002 at 11:30 A.M. local time, and at any adjournments of that meeting. QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE ANNUAL MEETING AND VOTING

What am I being asked to vote on?

Item One: The election of four nominees to the Board of Directors (Stephen F. Bollenbach; Peter G. Ernaut; Thomas E. Gallagher; and William Barron Hilton) for terms of three years.

What constitutes a quorum for purposes of voting?

A majority of the outstanding shares of common stock, represented either in person or by proxy at the meeting, will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. As of the record date on April 3, 2002, there were 301,744,133 shares of common stock outstanding, which constitutes all of the outstanding voting securities of Park Place.

Abstentions and broker non-votes (shares held by a broker or nominee that are represented at the meeting, but with respect to which the broker or nominee is not empowered to vote on a proposal) are included in determining the presence of a quorum.

How many votes are needed to approve each item?

The affirmative vote of a plurality of the votes cast by holders of shares of common stock is required for the election of directors.

Abstentions will have no effect on the outcome of the election of directors. For any other item, abstentions and broker non-votes will not be counted in determining the number of shares necessary for approval.

Broker Voting: Under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange, the election of directors is considered to be a "routine" matter upon which a brokerage firm that holds your shares in its name may vote on your behalf, if you have not furnished the firm voting instructions within a specified period prior to the annual meeting.

How many votes do I have?

Each share of Park Place common stock that you own entitles you to one vote. The proxy card shows the number of shares that you owned as of the record date for voting, which was April 3, 2002.

How does the Board of Directors recommend I vote on the proposal?

The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR each of the nominees for the Board of Directors. If you do not make a specific selection, your proxy will vote your shares, as recommended by the current Board of Directors, FOR the election of these nominees.

How do I vote?

You may vote by proxy card, by telephone, by internet, or you may vote in person at the annual meeting. We encourage you to vote in advance by proxy, telephone, or internet even if you plan to attend the meeting.

By Proxy: To vote by proxy card, you should complete, sign and date the enclosed proxy card and return it promptly in the enclosed pre-addressed, postage pre-paid envelope. One of the individuals named on your proxy card (your "proxy") will vote your shares as you direct on your proxy card.

By Telephone: We have established a toll-free 800 number which is printed on your proxy card. You can use any touch-tone telephone to vote 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The instructions in the message will ask you to enter our 3-digit Company Number and your personal 7-digit Control Number, both of which are printed on your proxy card.

By Internet: We have established a secure website where you can also vote 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The website address is listed on your proxy card. The website will ask you to enter our 3-digit Company Number and your personal 7-digit Control Number, both of which are printed on your proxy card. The website will identify how many shares you are entitled to vote and create a ballot for you to vote and send by e-mail to us.

Can I revoke my proxy after I have sent it in?

Yes. You may revoke your vote at any time before the proxy is exercised in the following ways:

You may attend and vote in person at the meeting, which automatically revokes any previously received vote from you; or

You may send in a later-dated proxy card, or vote again by mail or internet. This will automatically revoke your earlier vote; or

You may notify the Secretary of the Company that you wish to revoke your previously mailed proxy card, your telephone or your internet vote. This must be done in writing and sent to her attention at this address:

Kim Sinatra, Secretary
Park Place Entertainment Corporation
3930 Howard Hughes Parkway
Las Vegas, Nevada 89109

What if my shares are held in the name of my broker, bank, or another institution?

You may vote now by mailing in the enclosed proxy card, or by using our telephone or internet voting. If you want to vote in person at the annual meeting, you must bring to the annual meeting an account statement or a letter from your institution indicating that you were the beneficial owner of the shares on April 3, 2002, the record date for voting.

What if I own shares through Park Place's Employee Stock Purchase Plan?

If you are a Park Place employee participating in Park Place's Stock Purchase Plan, you may be receiving this proxy material because of shares held for you in that plan. In that case, you may use the enclosed proxy card, telephone, or internet proxy to direct the plan trustees how to vote your shares. They are required to vote in accordance with your instructions. The trustees will vote all shares held in the plan. They will vote any shares for which they do not receive instructions in the same proportion as they vote the shares for which they do receive instructions.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Our Board of Directors currently consists of ten members, although the Board has the authority to establish its membership at between one and twenty members. The directors are divided into three classes with staggered terms of office, with four directors currently in two classes and two directors in the third class. At each annual meeting, one class of directors is elected to three-year terms.

The term of office for Stephen F. Bollenbach, Peter G. Ernaut, Thomas E. Gallagher and William Barron Hilton expires at this annual meeting. Each director elected at this annual meeting will hold office until the annual meeting in 2005 or until his successor has been elected. If any director resigns, dies, or is otherwise unable to serve out his term, the Board may fill such vacancy. Each of the nominees has consented to serve if elected. If any of them becomes unavailable to serve as a director, the Board may designate a substitute nominee. In that case, the persons named as proxies will vote for the substitute nominee designated by the Board.

The Board has nominated Stephen F. Bollenbach, Peter G. Ernaut, Thomas E. Gallagher and William Barron Hilton for re-election. The nominees have been selected on the basis of their exemplary service as current directors, their integrity and independence, their understanding of our business environment, and their willingness to devote substantial time to Board duties. For biographical information about each of these nominees, please see "Directors and Executive Officers" beginning on page 5.

The Board recommends a vote "FOR" each of these nominees:

Stephen F. Bollenbach
Peter G. Ernaut
Thomas E. Gallagher
William Barron Hilton

We reimburse all employee and non-employee directors for travel and other related expenses related to their attendance at board meetings, committee meetings, annual meetings, and other Park Place business functions.

Independent Directors' Retirement Plan. Any independent director who retires after reaching age 65, and who has completed ten years of service as a director, is entitled to an annual retirement benefit. Currently, no director has more than four years of service. The benefit is equal to the director's average annual fees, including meeting and committee attendance fees, during the 36 consecutive calendar months for which the director's fees were the highest. The benefits under this plan are payable for a maximum of ten years. If a director dies prior to retirement, but after reaching age 65, the director's surviving spouse is entitled to an annual spouse's benefit equal to one-half the benefit the director would have received had the director retired on the date of death. In the event a retired director dies prior to receiving ten annual payments, one-half of the annual benefit the director was receiving will be paid to the director's surviving spouse for the balance of the ten-year period.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Executive Employment Agreements/Arrangements

Park Place has entered into certain employment agreements with named executive officers and directors. The agreements currently in effect are with Thomas E. Gallagher, Stephen F. Bollenbach, Wallace R. Barr, Harry Hagerty and Kim Sinatra. The key provisions of these agreements are summarized below. Certain agreements with former named executive officers (Clive Cummis, Scott LaPorta and Mark Dodson) are also summarized below.

Thomas E. Gallagher. Park Place has an agreement with Mr. Gallagher to serve as President and Chief Executive Officer for the period from October 23, 2000 through December 31, 2005, with successive automatic renewal periods of one year each, unless either Park Place or Mr. Gallagher elects not to renew. His agreement provides for a minimum annual base salary of $975,000, with annual review by the Board of Directors, and he is eligible to receive an annual bonus in the discretion of the Board. In connection with his relocation to Las Vegas, Nevada from California, Mr. Gallagher received an interest free relocation loan of $1 million, which is payable upon the sale of his former residence in California. The Board will also recommend his re-election to the Board of Directors.

Mr. Gallagher may defer any compensation into his personal deferred compensation program or into the Company's Executive Deferred Compensation Plan. The payment of any portion of salary and bonus which would not be deductible by Park Place on a current basis because of the $1 million limitation on deductible compensation required by Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") will be deferred unless the Compensation Committee determines otherwise.

Mr. Gallagher is entitled to receive a supplemental retirement benefit in the form of a 100 percent joint and survivor annuity equal to 3 percent of his total cash compensation for each year of service through December 31, 2005. The benefit vests 20 percent per year, beginning December 31, 2001 through December 31, 2005, provided he remains employed by Park Place on each such vesting date, and the benefit will commence on the latest of (a) January 1, 2006, (b) a date he elects on or before January 1, 2005, or (c) the date of his termination from employment with Park Place.

Edgar Filing: PARK PLACE ENTERTAINMENT CORP - Form DEF 14A

If Mr. Gallagher's employment with Park Place is terminated (1) by Park Place for reasons other than cause, disability, or by reason of Mr. Gallagher's death, or (2) by Mr. Gallagher for good reason, Park Place will be required to pay Mr. Gallagher his base salary and target bonus for the greater of (a) two years, or (b) the balance of the term of the agreement. In addition, Park Place will provide Mr. Gallagher with all benefits due under any applicable employee benefit plans. If a termination occurs following a change of control of Park Place, Mr. Gallagher will receive a lump-sum cash payment equal to 2.99 times the sum of his annual base salary and his annual bonus for the fiscal year ending during the term of the agreement (or, if higher, his annual bonus for the last full fiscal year prior to the change of control).

Park Place will reimburse Mr. Gallagher for any excise tax incurred by him under Section 4999 of the Code on any payments paid by Park Place to him, under the agreement or otherwise, which constitute "parachute payments" under Section 280G of the Code. Park Place will bear the cost of all income, excise and employment taxes imposed on any gross-up payment.

Mr. Gallagher has agreed not to compete with the Company during any period for which he is receiving payments from the Company after the expiration or termination of his employment and has further agreed that he will not solicit from the Company any managerial employee for a period of two years after the expiration or termination of his employment.

Stephen F. Bollenbach. Park Place has an employment agreement with Mr. Bollenbach in which he has agreed to serve as Chairman and advisor to the Park Place Board of Directors for the period from December 31, 1998 through July 1, 2005. Under the agreement, Mr. Bollenbach is paid an annual base salary of $100,000 per year, is not entitled to receive a bonus, and is not entitled to receive any benefits provided to Park Place employees other than an annual vacation and reimbursement of expenses he may incur in providing his services under the agreement.

Wallace R. Barr. Park Place employs, pursuant to an employment agreement, Mr. Barr as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer from November 1, 2001 to March 31, 2006, which term will be automatically renewed for successive one year periods unless either Park Place or Mr. Barr elects not to renew. Mr. Barr's minimum base salary is $800,000 with an annual bonus depending upon the performance of the Company and Mr. Barr and subject to the discretion of the Chief Executive Officer and the Board of Directors. Park Place maintains a $2.2 million term life insurance policy for the benefit of Mr. Barr's designated beneficiary during the term of Mr. Barr's employment. Pursuant to the employment agreement, Mr. Barr was granted 128,000 stock options under the Company's 1998 Stock Incentive Plan and 120,000 rights under the Company's Supplemental Retention Plan, which options and rights vest over time. If Mr. Barr is terminated without cause, Mr. Barr shall be entitled to: (a) his base salary for the balance of the term of the employment agreement or twelve months, whichever is greater; plus (b) the average of the annual bonuses paid for the last three years or the annual bonus paid in the prior year, whichever is greater; plus (c) any remaining unvested stock options and rights that would have vested during the term of the employment agreement will immediately vest and become exercisable; and (d) health and dental benefits will be continued as provided in the employment agreement.

Harry C. Hagerty, III. Park Place employs, pursuant to an employment agreement, Mr. Hagerty as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer from March 25, 2002 to February 28, 2005, which term will be automatically renewed for successive one year periods unless either Park Place or Mr. Hagerty elects not to renew. Mr. Hagerty's minimum base salary is $500,000, with an annual bonus depending upon the performance of the Company and Mr. Hagerty and subject to the discretion of the Chief Executive Officer and the Board of Directors. Pursuant to the employment agreement, Mr. Hagerty was granted 400,000 stock options under the Company's 1998 Stock Incentive Plan, which options vest over time. If Mr. Hagerty is terminated without cause, Mr. Hagerty shall be entitled to: (a) his base salary for the balance of the term of the employment agreement or twelve months, whichever is greater; plus (b) the average of the annual bonuses paid for the last three years or the annual bonus paid in the prior year, whichever is greater; plus (c) any remaining unvested stock options that would have vested during the term of the employment agreement will immediately vest and become exercisable; and (d) health and dental benefits will be continued as provided in the employment agreement.

Kim Sinatra. Park Place employs, pursuant to an employment agreement, Ms. Sinatra as Executive Vice President and Chief Legal Officer from February 1, 2002 to January 31, 2005, which term will be automatically renewed for successive one year periods unless either Park Place or Ms. Sinatra elects not to renew. Ms. Sinatra's minimum base salary is $500,000, with an annual bonus depending upon the performance of the Company and Ms. Sinatra and subject to the discretion of the Chief Executive Officer and the Board of Directors. Pursuant to the employment agreement, Ms. Sinatra was granted 45,000 stock options under the Company's 1998 Stock Incentive Plan and 25,000 rights under the Company's Supplemental Retention Plan, which options and rights vest over time. If Ms. Sinatra is terminated without cause, Ms. Sinatra shall be entitled to: (a) her base salary for the balance of the term of the employment agreement or twelve months, whichever is greater; plus (b) the average of the annual bonuses paid for the last three years or the annual bonus paid in the prior year, whichever is greater; plus (c) any remaining unvested stock options and rights that would have vested during the term of the employment agreement will immediately vest and become exercisable; and (d) health and dental benefits will be continued as provided in the employment agreement.

Clive S. Cummis. Mr. Cummis was employed as Executive Vice President, Law and Corporate Affairs and Secretary pursuant to an employment agreement from January 1, 1999. On December 31, 2001, the Company and Mr. Cummis agreed that Mr. Cummis would resign his executive officer positions with the Company, effective December 31, 2001. In full and complete satisfaction of all the obligations of the Company under Mr. Cummis' prior employment agreement, the Company agreed to pay him the sum of $1,464,000, payable in equal installments through December 31, 2004. Mr. Cummis continues to serve as Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors of Park Place and serves as a senior advisor to the Chief Executive Officer until December 31, 2004.

Scott A. LaPorta. Mr. LaPorta was employed as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer pursuant to an employment agreement from January 1, 1999. Mr. LaPorta exercised a voluntary termination right under his employment agreement and resigned his executive positions effective February 1, 2002. The Company paid Mr. LaPorta $945,000 as full and complete satisfaction of all the Company's obligations under the employment agreement. Mr. LaPorta will serve as a senior advisor to the Chief Executive Officer until December 31, 2002.

Mark R. Dodson Mr. Dodson was employed as Executive Vice President pursuant to an employment agreement from January 1, 1999. Mr. Dodson resigned from his positions with the Company effective July 10, 2001. Under the terms of his then-existing employment agreement, Mr. Dodson received a one-time payment of $1,655,788.

Change of Control Agreements. The Company's Board of Directors has approved a Change of Control Agreement ("Control Agreement") which has been entered into with Mr. Barr, Mr. Hagerty and Ms. Sinatra and certain other senior officers of the Company (collectively, "Participants").

If there is a Change of Control (as defined below), the Company agrees to continue to employ each Participant for a three-year period (or the expiration of the Participant's employment agreement, if longer) or until the Participant's retirement, if earlier ("Employment Period"), in a position which is at least commensurate with the Participant's position prior to the Change of Control. During the Employment Period, Park Place will provide the Participant with base salary, annual bonuses and incentive, savings, retirement and benefit plans which are at least equal to the coverage in effect prior to the Change of Control. If, following a Change of Control, the Participant is terminated without cause or terminates for good reason (as both terms are defined in the Control Agreement), each Participant who is an executive vice president will receive payments aggregating up to 2.99 times annual salary and bonus. The Participant is also entitled to receive benefits under the Company's benefit plans during the remainder of the Employment Period. The Control Agreements generally continue for renewable three-year terms or until the Participant's normal retirement date, if earlier.

Change of Control is defined to be: (i) an acquisition by any individual, entity or group (within the meaning of Section 13(d)(3) or 14(d)(2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) (excluding the Company, any employee benefit plan or trust sponsored or maintained by the Company, Barron Hilton or the Conrad N. Hilton Fund) of beneficial ownership (within the meaning of Rule 13d-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act) of 20% or more of either the then outstanding shares of common stock of the Company or the combined voting power of the Company's then outstanding voting securities entitled to vote generally in the election of directors; (ii) a majority of the membership of the incumbent Board of Directors changes other than in the ordinary course; (iii) a reorganization, merger or consolidation or sale or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company that results in the Company's pre-transaction stockholders owning 60% or less of the successor entity; or (iv) a complete liquidation or dissolution of the Company.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Compensation Committee ("Committee") of the Board of Directors is composed entirely of independent outside directors. The Committee is responsible for establishing and administering the compensation philosophy, policies and programs applicable to the executive officers of the Company, including specific decisions regarding each executive officer's compensation and the overall compensation practices of the Company.

Park Place is largely dependent upon the judgment, initiative, and effort of its executive officers for the successful conduct of its business. Therefore, the Committee's primary objective is to establish plans that will attract, retain, and motivate highly skilled and talented executives in a dynamic and competitive industry. This is accomplished through implementation of the following policies:

ensuring that executive compensation is competitive within the gaming industry as well as within the realm of other public companies of similar size, scope, and revenues;

providing incentives to executives to increase stockholder value, both in the short-term and in the long-term;

providing executives with a personal financial interest in the Company similar to the interests of our stockholders;

linking executive compensation to Company performance; and reflecting the performance and contribution of each executive officer in the Committee's compensation determinations.

Our executive officers are compensated through a combination of salary, performance bonuses, stock options, and a deferred compensation program.

Salaries

The Company entered into employment agreements with Mr. Gallagher, Mr. Barr, Mr. Hagerty and Ms. Sinatra. The employment agreements establish minimum annual base salaries for each executive. In setting salaries, we compare our salaries with those of other public companies, gaming and non-gaming, of similar size, scope of operations, and revenues. We also consider each officer's performance and responsibility level, as well as the Company's current financial condition and performance during the past fiscal year, such as growth in revenues, EBITDA, earnings per share, and strategic acquisition or disposition of assets.

Performance Bonuses

At the beginning of each fiscal year, the Committee establishes performance objectives and the maximum potential bonus award for each executive officer, including the Chief Executive Officer. At the end of the performance period, the Committee determines the results achieved relative to such objectives, and establishes each executive officer's annual bonus.

In May 2000, stockholders approved the Company's Executive Incentive Plan, which is intended to qualify certain compensation paid to executive officers for deductibility under Section 162(m) of the Code, which otherwise limits deductibility to $1 million for the Chief Executive Officer and each of the four other most highly compensated officers. In making compensation decisions, the Committee will take into account the effect of Section 162(m) and the Executive Incentive Plan, while retaining the flexibility to approve compensation that it deems to be in the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, but which may not always qualify for full tax deductibility.

The Committee established criteria for year 2001 bonus awards that were based on the Company reaching certain targeted EBITDA objectives. Because these objectives were not fully met, maximum bonus awards were not made.

Stock Options

Annual stock option grants are a critical component of the Company's long-term executive compensation program by linking a major portion of executive financial interests to the performance of our stock. Options increase the executive's motivation and incentive to continue with the Company and grow the value of its stock by providing the executive with the same opportunity to benefit from appreciation in the stock as do other stockholders. Pursuant to their employment agreements, we awarded options to purchase shares of common stock to Mr. Gallagher, Mr. Barr, Mr. Hagerty and Ms. Sinatra. The size of the option grants to the chief executive officer and the executive officers reflects the Committee's judgment as to the current and potential contribution of the individual executive officer to the current and future growth and profitability of the Company and to the creation of stockholder value.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

Edgar Filing: PARK PLACE ENTERTAINMENT CORP - Form DEF 14A

Mr. Gallagher's employment agreement provides for a minimum annual salary of $975,000, with annual review by the Board of Directors. Mr. Gallagher is also eligible to receive an annual bonus in the discretion of the Board. He was awarded a bonus for 2001 that was commensurate with those being paid to our other executive officers.

In 2001, Mr. Gallagher received 146,791 shares of restricted Park Place stock, which represented the value of restricted Hilton Hotels Corporation stock Mr. Gallagher forfeited when he joined Park Place. Mr. Gallagher also received 259,310 Park Place options which represented the value of Hilton Hotel Corporation options Mr. Gallagher forfeited when he joined Park Place.

Supplemental Retention Plan

Effective November 1, 2001, Park Place adopted the Supplemental Retention Plan ("SRP"). Under the SRP, senior executives of Park Place and its subsidiaries may be granted supplemental retention rights ("Rights"). The Rights vest 20 percent on each of the 1st and 2nd anniversary of the date the Rights were granted and 30 percent on each of the 3rd and 4th anniversaries of the date the Rights were granted. The Rights are payable in shares of Park Place's common stock, on a one-for-one basis, upon the grantee's retirement, or the grantee may make a one-time election upon the grantee attaining retirement eligibility (age 65 or age plus years of service equal to 55) to have an "in service" distribution while still employed by Park Place of up to 50 percent of the vested Rights. The SRP also provides for an adjustment in the number of Rights in a participant's account based upon dividends and distributions paid by Park Place on the underlying shares of common stock from the date of grant.

The grants of Rights to the named executive officers are set forth in the Summary Compensation Table under the caption "Restricted Stock." None of the named executive officers had any vested interest in the Rights granted under the SRP as of December 31, 2001.

Executive Deferred Compensation Plan

Executive officers also may participate in a plan under which they may elect to defer any portion of their compensation in accordance with plan provisions. The Company provides a matching contribution of 50 percent of the first 10 percent of compensation deferred by the executive. The executive's interest in the Company's match vests at the rate of one-third per annum, with 100 percent acceleration in the event of death, permanent disability, change of control, or retirement at age 55 or thereafter.

Executive Death Benefit Plan

The Company adopted an Executive Death Benefit Plan in fiscal year 2000 for the purpose of providing benefits to a select group of management employees. Each of the five most highly compensated executive officers qualifies for this plan. The plan provides, in the event of the executive's death, for the Company to pay a benefit equal to 150 percent of the sum of (a) the executive's base salary at the time of death plus (b) the bonus paid for the fiscal year in which the death occurs, with a maximum cap of $5 million, plus an amount to reimburse the executive's estate for taxes on the amount of the benefit paid.

The Committee continues to monitor the compensation and benefits paid to our executive officers to ensure that they are effective, appropriate, competitive and tax efficient.

Approved by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, March 18, 2002:

P. X. Kelley, Chairman
Barbara Coleman
A. Steven Crown
William Barron Hilton
