Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

New Jersey General Corporation Law.

The Company is a corporation organized under the laws of the State of New Jersey. The New Jersey Business Corporation Act, as amended (the “NJBCA”), provides that a New Jersey corporation has the power to indemnify a director or officer against his or her expenses and liabilities in connection with any proceeding involving the director or officer by reason of his or her being or having been such a director or officer, other than a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation, if such a director or officer acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal proceeding, such director or officer had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

In addition, a New Jersey corporation has the power to indemnify a director or officer against his or her expenses in connection with any proceeding brought by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor, which involves the director or officer by reason of his or her being or having been such a director or officer, if such director or officer acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation; however, no indemnification is permitted in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such director or officer shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that there is a judicial determination upon application that despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all circumstances of the case, such director or officer is fairly and reasonably entitled to such indemnification. Expenses incurred by a director or officer in connection with a proceeding may be, under certain circumstances, paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding as authorized by the board of directors.

The NJBCA requires a New Jersey corporation to indemnify a director or an officer against all expenses to the extent that such director or officer has been successful on the merits or otherwise in any proceeding involving such director or officer by reason of his or her having been a director or officer or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein.

The indemnification permitted or required and advancement of expenses permitted by the NJBCA does not exclude any other rights, including the right to be indemnified against liabilities and expenses incurred in proceedings by or in the right of the corporation, to which a director or officer may be entitled under a certificate of incorporation, by-law, agreement, vote of shareholders, or otherwise; provided that no indemnification shall be made to or on behalf of a director or officer if a judgment or other final adjudication adverse to the director or officer establishes that his or her acts or omissions (a) were in breach of his or her duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders, (b) were not in good faith or involved a knowing violation of law or (c) resulted in receipt by the director or officer of an improper personal benefit.

All of the foregoing powers of indemnification granted to a New Jersey corporation may be exercised by such corporation notwithstanding the absence of any provision in its certificate of incorporation or by-laws authorizing the exercise of such powers. However, a New Jersey corporation may, with certain limitations, provide in its certificate of incorporation that a director or officer shall not be personally liable, or shall be liable only to the extent therein provided, to the corporation or its shareholders for damages for breach of a duty owed to the corporation or its shareholders, except that such provision will not relieve a director or officer from liability for any breach of duty based upon an act or omission (a) in breach of such person’s duty of loyalty to the corporation or its shareholders, (b) not in good faith or involving a knowing violation of the law, or (c) resulting in receipt by such person of an improper personal benefit. The Company’s Certificate of Incorporation includes limitations on the liability of officers and directors to the full extent permitted by New Jersey law.

Under the NJBCA, a New Jersey corporation has the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any director or officer against any expenses incurred in any proceeding and any liabilities asserted against him or her by reason of his or her being or having been a director or officer, whether or not the corporation has the power to indemnify him or her against such expenses and liabilities under the NJBCA. The Company has purchased such insurance covering its directors and officers.

Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws.

The registrant's certificate of incorporation contains a provision stating that the personal liability of the officers and directors of the Corporation is limited to the fullest extent permitted by the applicable provisions of the NJBCA, as the same may be amended and supplemented.

The registration's bylaws contain provisions which provide, among other things, that the registration shall indemnify, to the full extent from time to time permitted by law, any present, former or future director or officer ("Corporate Agent") made, or threatened to be made, a party to, or a witness or other participant in, any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitrative, legislative, investigative, or of any other kind, including by or in the right of the Company ("Proceeding"), by reason of the fact that such person is or was a Corporate Agent of the Company or any subsidiary of the Company or, while serving as a Corporate Agent of the Company or any subsidiary of the Company, serves or served another enterprise (including, without limitation, any sole proprietorship, association, corporation, partnership, joint venture or trust), whether or not for profit, at the request of the Company as a director, officer, employee or agent thereof (including service with respect to any employee benefit plan of the Company or any subsidiary of the Company), against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, penalties, excise taxes and amounts paid in settlement, actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such Proceeding or any appeal therein. Additionally, the bylaws state that no indemnification is required with respect to any settlement or other non-adjudicated disposition of any threatened or pending Proceeding unless the Company has given its prior consent to such settlement or other disposition. The Company will pay expenses incurred in connection with a Proceeding for any Corporate Agent of the Company in advance of the final disposition of such Proceeding promptly upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such person to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that such person is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company. Furthermore, the Company's bylaws provide that the provisions relating to indemnification and advancement of expenses shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which any person indemnified may be entitled.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed.

Item 9. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer, or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
