Iron Ore Prices for 2004

Rio de Janeiro, January 13, 2004 Companhia Vale do Rio Doce (CVRD), the world's largest iron ore producer, and Arcelor, the world's largest steelmaker, have settled today the price for 2004 of Carajás fines C.JF, of US 37.90 cents per metric ton Fe unit, FOB Ponta da Madeira, Brazil, corresponding to a 18.62% price increase over 2003 price. The price for the Standard Sinter Feed SSF was settled at US 36.45 cents per metric ton Fe unit, FOB Tubarão Port, Brazil, corresponding to a 17.43% price increase over 2003 price.

Such settlement was achieved between the two companies after several rounds of negotiation that started in December 2003.

CVRD will supply in excess of 22 million tons of iron ore to Arcelor during 2004.

In the coming days, CVRD shall reach similar agreements with clients in Europe and Asia, based on the increase of 18.62% agreed for the Carajás fines C.JF.

This press release may contain statements that express management's expectations about future events or results rather than historical facts. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in forward-looking statements, and CVRD cannot give assurance that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors: relating to the Brazilian economy and securities markets, which exhibit volatility and can be adversely affected by developments in other countries; relating to the iron ore business and its dependence on the global steel industry, which is cyclical in nature; and relating to the highly competitive industries in which CVRD operates. For additional information on factors that could cause CVRD's actual results to differ from expectations reflected in forward-looking statements, please see CVRD's reports filed with the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários and the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.
