PROXY STATEMENT

GENERAL INFORMATION

The accompanying proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of OM Group, Inc. (the "Company") and will be voted in accordance with the instructions given in the proxy if it is returned duly executed and is not revoked. A stockholder may revoke a proxy at any time before it is voted by giving notice to the Company in writing or at the meeting. Attendance at the meeting will not in and of itself revoke a proxy.

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying proxy were first mailed to stockholders on or about April 4, 2003. The record date for determination of stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting was the close of business on March 14, 2003. On that date, the outstanding voting securities of the Company were 28,452,163 shares of Common Stock, par value $.01 per share. Each share of Common Stock is entitled to one vote. Abstentions will be counted for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present at the meeting, but will not be counted as voting on the matters to which the abstention applies.

The Company is not aware of any matters other than those stated in the notice that will be presented to the meeting for action by the stockholders. If any other matters are properly brought before the meeting, it is the intention of the persons named in the accompanying proxy to vote the shares represented by the proxy in their best judgment.

The cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by the Company. The Company will, upon request, reimburse brokerage houses, custodians, nominees and others for their out-of-pocket and reasonable clerical expenses incurred in connection with the solicitation. For purposes of obtaining broad stockholder representation at the meeting, Proxy Express has been retained by the Company for distribution services, at an anticipated cost of approximately $5,000 plus postage costs. In addition, directors, officers and employees of the Company, without being additionally compensated, may make additional requests by letter, telephone or in person for the return of proxies.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS (ITEM 1 ON THE PROXY)

The authorized number of directors of the Company is presently fixed at eight, divided into three classes, with two classes having three members and one class having two members. Directors are elected to serve three-year terms, so that the term of office of one class of directors expires at each annual meeting.

For election as directors at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held on May 6, 2003, the Board of Directors has recommended the election of John E. Mooney and Markku Toivanen to serve as directors for three-year terms expiring in 2006. If either of the nominees becomes unavailable for election, the accompanying proxy may be voted for a substitute, or in favor of holding a vacancy to be filled by the directors. The Company has no reason to believe that either nominee will be unavailable. The nominees receiving the largest number of votes will be elected to the director positions to be filled.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

Executive Compensation Policy. The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors, comprised solely of outside directors of the Company, is responsible for setting the policies and approving the practices of the Company in its compensation to officers of the Company and its subsidiaries, including those executive officers named in the compensation tables in this Proxy Statement. The Committee's general policy on executive compensation is to provide a significant incentive to management to achieve annual profit goals and to increase the value of the Company's stock. The policy is intended to cause a significant portion of total executive compensation to be contingent upon Company performance and in the form of annual and longer-term incentives.

In carrying out its responsibilities in 2002, the Committee considered the following:

- 1. the Company's financial performance;
- 2. the Company's general policies and practices for compensation of employees;
- 3. the recommendations of the Company's management concerning compensation of individual key employees; and
- 4. advice from independent compensation consultants concerning the Company's compensation policies, including how its policies and practices compare to the policies and practices of other comparable companies.

The three major components of the Company's executive officer compensation program are (1) base compensation and annual adjustments paid pursuant to employment contracts with named executive officers, (2) annual bonuses paid pursuant to the Bonus Program for Key Executives and Middle Management, and (3) stock options issued at fair market value pursuant to the Company's 1998 Long-Term Incentive Compensation Plan and 2002 Stock Incentive Plan.

Employment Contracts with Current Named Executive Officers. The Company has entered into employment contracts with each of its named executive officers. The employment contracts establish the position of each named executive officer and provide that the named executive officer will devote his full professional attention to the Company, and that the Company will not materially decrease his level of responsibility. Each contract provides for automatic yearly renewals unless the contract is terminated by either party upon six months' prior notice, and the contracts for Messrs. Mooney and Miklich will have a remaining term of 36 months following each renewal.

Each contract provides for base compensation that may be increased annually, but not decreased. In considering annual adjustments to a named executive officer's base compensation, the Committee considers both Company and individual performance. In addition, executive officers' base salaries are targeted between the median and 75th percentile of comparably sized companies in the chemical and non-durable goods manufacturing industries. Each contract also provides that annual bonuses may be paid pursuant to the Company's bonus programs in effect from time to time, and Mr. Scott's contract provides for an annual bonus of not less than 25% of his then current base compensation.

The Company may terminate each contract at any time with or without cause. If terminated for cause, a named executive officer is entitled to compensation accrued up to the time of termination. If terminated without cause, Messrs. Mooney and Miklich are entitled to receive base compensation, a bonus not less than 75% of the base compensation and fringe benefits due under the contract until the expiration of the current contract term. Mr. Scott is entitled to receive base compensation, bonus and fringe benefits in accordance with his employment contract for one year if his employment is terminated without cause. If Messrs. Mooney or Scott resign for any reason, they are entitled to accrued compensation and to receive all base compensation for three months following the effective date of termination of their employment. If Mr. Miklich resigns for any reason after November 30, 2004, he is entitled to receive for 12 months the amounts he would receive if terminated without cause.

In addition, Messrs. Materna and Kissel had employment contracts with the Company that provided for certain types of payments to them in connection with their cessation of employment. Payments made to Mr. Materna in that regard are reflected as appropriate in the summary compensation table in this Proxy Statement, and the Company and Mr. Kissel are in discussions with respect to payments to be made under his employment contract in connection with his separation from the Company.

Bonus Program for Key Executives and Middle Management. Under this bonus program, the Committee may award bonuses in its discretion, considering performance by individual employees and the Company's performance. For 2002, the Committee reviewed the Company's performance against a predetermined consolidated operating profit goal approved by the Board of Directors. This operating profit goal was not attained and no discretionary bonuses were paid.

1998 Long-Term Incentive Compensation Plan. Executive officers and other key employees also received compensation pursuant to the Company's 1998 Long-Term Incentive Compensation Plan. This plan provides for the granting of stock options, stock appreciation rights, restricted stock awards and phantom stock. The plan is administered by the Compensation Committee, which is authorized to determine those participants to receive awards, the type of the awards made to participants and the terms and conditions applicable to each award. The total number of shares of Common Stock subject to this plan each year is 1.5% of the total number of issued and outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock as of December 30 of the preceding calendar year.

2002 Stock Incentive Plan. The Company's 2002 Stock Incentive Plan allows grants of incentive and nonstatutory stock options, as well as restricted stock awards. Any of the Company's non-employee directors and the Company's or its subsidiaries' executive officers or other key employees may be selected to participate in the plan. The plan is administered by the Compensation Committee, which selects the participants and determines the type and amounts of awards granted and the terms and conditions applicable to each award.

The maximum number of shares available under the plan is 1,400,000. The number of shares, whether in the form of stock options or restricted stock, available for grant in any calendar year to any one person may not exceed 200,000, and the total number of restricted shares granted under the plan may not exceed 280,000. The option exercise price of options is established by the Committee but may not be less than the per share fair market value of the Common Stock on the date of the stock option's grant, subject to specific adjustments. The term and exercisability of each option is fixed by the Committee, but options may not be exercised within one year from the date of grant or more than ten years after the date of grant. All outstanding options become fully exercisable, and all restrictions on restricted stock awards are deemed satisfied, upon a change of control of the Company.

CEO Compensation. In setting Mr. James P. Mooney's compensation for 2002, the Committee considered the Company's financial performance during the previous four quarters, Mr. Mooney's personal performance and comparative data on the salaries for chief executive officers of comparably-sized companies in the chemical and non-durable goods manufacturing industries. The Committee also considered various factors of corporate performance, including profitability, market position, productivity, product leadership and the balancing of short-term and long-term goals.

Mr. Mooney's contract also provides for discretionary bonuses in accordance with the Bonus Program for Key Executives and Middle Management. The Committee reviewed the Company's 2002 performance against the predetermined consolidated operating profit goal for 2002. Based upon the Company's level of attainment of the operating profit goal and the Company's current financial condition, the Company did not pay any annual bonus to Mr. Mooney for 2002.

On February 11, 2002, the Committee approved a grant of an option for 30,000 shares to Mr. Mooney under the Long-Term Incentive Compensation Plan. In determining the size of the award, the Committee considered the size of similar awards to chief executive officers with pay and responsibility comparable to that of Mr. Mooney and its qualitative assessment of Mr. Mooney's performance.

discussed with E&Y its independence from the Company and management. E&Y has confirmed to the Company that it is in compliance with all rules, standards and policies of the Independence Standards Board and the Securities and Exchange Commission governing auditor independence. Based on these reviews and discussions, the Audit and Finance Committee recommends to the Board of Directors of the Company that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2002 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

AUDIT FEES

The aggregate fees billed by E&Y for the audit of the Company's annual financial statements and review of the Company's quarterly financial statements for fiscal year 2002 were $1,598,200.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION SYSTEMS DESIGN AND IMPLEMENTATION FEES

ALL OTHER FEES

The aggregate fees billed by E&Y for all other services, other than those stated under the caption Audit Fees, were $2,824,800.
